

The Cherry Orchard

By Anton Chekhov

Translated by Jean-Claude Van Itallie

Directed by Rebecca Guy

Cast

Ranevskaya, Lyubov Andreyevna, landowner	Nedra Snipes
Anya, her daughter, age seventeen	Bianca Norwood
Varya, her adopted daughter, age twenty-four	Fiona Robberson
Gayev, Leonid Andreyevich, brother of Ranevskaya	JeVon Blackwell
Lopakhin, Yermolay Alexyevich, a merchant	Anthony Richardson
Trofimov, Pyotr Sergeyevich, a student	Chad Pierre Vann
Charlotta Ivanovna, the governess	Gabriela Torres
Yepikhodov, Semyon Pantelyevich, the clerk	Elijah Jones
Dunyasha, the maid	Rosie Yates
Firs, a valet, age eighty-seven	Drew Wildman Foster*
Yasha, a valet, young	Nate Miller*

The play takes place on the estate of Lyubov Andreyevna.

The Cherry Orchard will be performed with a ten-minute intermission.

* Drama Division Alumni

Production Coordinator	Samantha McCann
Vocal Coach.....	Susan Finch
Alexander Technique Coach.....	Carolyn Serota
Production Activities Manager.....	James Gregg
Prop Coordinator.....	Rosie Yates

Assistant Director / Choreographer..... Andrew Wildman Foster

Special thanks to Kathleen McNenny, Mark Olsen, and Wendy Waterman.

The final Rehearsal Projects of the Second Year are dedicated to the exploration of the plays of Anton Chekhov. Students are asked to begin to integrate all the skills of their training in order to enter the lives of people of another time and place, embodying those characters with the imaginative and emotional depth demanded by the sensibility and artistry of this great modern writer.

Room 306

Wednesday, May 8, 2019 at 1:30pm

Thursday, May 9, 2019 at 7:00pm

Friday, May 10, 2019 at 3:30pm