THE JUILLIARD SCHOOL ARCHIVAL SCRAPBOOKS

Scrapbook # 59

John Erskine Clipping Book

Jan. 1937 to May 1938

blank pages not filmed

NATIONAL FLAT BACK SCRAP BOOKS

FULL DUCK COVER, MANILA PAPER

Without Index, Ruling, Paging or Title

NUMBER	THICKNESS	SIZE
1030	72 Leaves	10 × 7¾
1032	72 Leaves	12% × 101/4
1033	72 Leaves	15 × 10
1034	100 Leaves	15 × 10
1036	90 Leaves	16 × 113%
1038	150 Leaves	16 × 113%
1039	90 Leaves	18 × 13
1041	150 Leaves	18 × 13
1042	150 Leaves	25 × 20

To duplicate this book, Order Number indicated by arrow.

DETROIT, MICH. TIMES

JAN 3 - 1937

DANNY WHITE pushed Larry Vincent out of the Ten-Vincent out of the Ten-Forty, All very pleasant, how-ever, Leonard Seel and his orchestra, with Bernice Chilen, keep the Esquire Room pleasant. Belva White is playing a return date at Saks and doing a neat job. Andy Carr and his sister, Louise, really go to town when the comes to showing you how to do the latest dance steps at the Powatan. Janet Evans, dancing at the Chelet is a swin, tasking the comes to the comes to show the comes to at the Chalet, is a sweet looking kid. . . .

ORCHESTRAS ARE about to be shifted at Webster Hall. Several crews have auditioned, to be shifted at Webster Hall. Several crews have auditioned, but to date E. J. Bradwell, host, has not signified who gets the nod. With the holidays over the lecture courses and recitals will get under way once more. Don't be surprised if some of the night spots fold with New Year's Eve out of the way.

JOHN ERSKINE, professor of English literature at Columbia, will speak at Temple Beth El January 5. Gladys Swarthout will appear in recital at the Massonic Auditorium, January 11. On that same date Nazimova will reach the Cass Theater, where she will appear in "Hedda Gabler" and "Ghosts." Corktown has gone burlesque and the Beef Trust has moved out into Highland Park Purity.

GEOR GE GERSHWIN will appear with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Victor Kolar conducting, January 20. He will fly from California, where he conducts the San Francisco Symphony in three concerts. Little Jack Little is headed for the Michigan January 15. Don Redman and his Sepia Revue and Benny Davis'

LOUIS her brothe ing a swi among the at the Pow youthful s

BORIS RO first-class wasted a lot cal night clu pensing mus Whittier di dinner hour.

HELEN neat bit of Blakstone of Eve show Miss Blakst an auto ac

DETROIT, MICH. TIMES

JAN 3 - 1937

Detroit BY NIGHT

DANNY WHITE pushed Larry Vincent out of the TenForty. All very pleasant, however. Leonard Seel and his orchestra, with Bernice Ctillen, keep the Esquire Room pleasant. Belva White is playing a return date at Saks and doing a neat job. Andy Carr and his sister, Louise, really go to town when it comes to showing you how to do the latest dance steps at the Powatan. Janet Evans, dancing at the Chalet, is a sweet looking kid.

ORCHESTRAS ARE about to be shifted at Webster Hall. Several crews have auditioned, but to date E. J. Bradwell, host, has not signified who gets the nod. With the holidays over the lecture courses and recitals will get under way once more. Don't be surprised if some of the night spots fold with New Year's Eve out of the way.

JOHN ERSKINE, professor of English literature at Columbia, will speak at Temple Beth El January 5. Gladys Swarthout will appear in recital at the Masonic Auditorium, January 11. On that same date Nazimova will reach the Cass Theater, where she will appear in "Hedda Gabler" and "Ghosts." Corktown has gone burlesque and the Beef Trust has moved out into Highland Park Purity.

GEORGE GERSHWIN will appear with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Victor
Kolar conducting, January 20.
He will By from California, where he conducts the San Francisco Symphony in three concerts. Little Jack Little is headed for the Michigan Janusry 15. Don Redman and his Sepia Revue and Benny Davis'

LOUISE CARR with her brother, Andy, are doing a swing taps routine among their dance offerings at the Powatan Club.

youthful stars will come to Detroit early in the year.

BORIS ROMANOFF, really a first-class pianist, who has wasted a lot of sweetness on local night club audiences, is dispensing musical treasures in the Whittier dining room during dinner hour.

HELEN MORGAN did a neat bit of batting for Nan Blakstone on the New Year's Eve show at the Powatan. Miss Blakstone was injured in an auto accident in Canada en route to her engagement. An orchid to LaMorgan for insisting that the monies for her engagement go to Nan who is confined in the Windsor hospital. Bozo Snyder, the man who never speaks, is at the Gayety, after an absence of many years.

JANET EVANS is the featured singer of the new week-end special presentation at the Chalet.

The entire radio cast of NBC's "American Pageant of Youth" at the Michigan, January 8, will mark the first stage for this juvenile group. Lucile Page, who has appeared in Detroit on several occasions with her husband, Buster West, will be on the same bill.

DAVE IDZAL of the Fox held open house at his home after the New Year's Eve show with Francis Lederer and Harry Richman honor guests. A certain gal about town burned Richman plenty when she asked him to autograph a ping pong ball at a swell party. George White's Scandals, which just closed the Cass, will return in condensed version to the Fox shortly. Olsen and Johnson reach Detroit January 8, and coming a week later will he Gloria Gilbert, the dancer whose toe spinning ballet moved Ripley to dub her the human top. She will be with Ed Sullavan's "Dawn Patrol Revue" at the Fox."

VOX AND WALTERS PO.

VOX AND WALTERS reputed to be the only man and woman who can sing in two voices simultaneously are displaying their ventriloquist act at the Chalet. The largest crowds celebrating New Year's Eve were seen in the Graystone, Arcadia and Grand Terrace ball-rooms. Close to 8,000 were gathered at these three spots.

BORIS ROMANOFF, really a first class pianist, who has wasted a lot of sweetness on local night club audiences, is dispensing musical treasures in the Whittier dining room during dinner hour.

VERNE RICKARD is master of ceremonies at Northwood Inn. Rudolph Serkin, Viennese pianist, makes his Detroit debut January 19. Lee Dixon, appearing in the "Gold Diggers," danced at the Penthouse. Remember when? The death of Bert Moss will change plans for that East Jefferson night spot, Msgr. Sheen of Louvain University, Belgium, and Mrs. Keyes, Washington matron and writer, are among the week's lecturers.

NEW YORK, N. Y. TIMES JAN 3 - 1937

LECTURE SERIES TO START

John Erskine to Speak Wednesday at Academy of Arts.

John Erskine will open on Wednesday the first of a series of ten free lectures and recitals arranged by the American Academy of Arts and Letters and the National Institute of Arts and Letters in the academy auditorium, 632 West 156th Street.

Mr. Erskine a mamber of the in-

West 186th Street.

Mr. Erakine, a member of the institute, will lecture on "The Human Grammar of Good Writing." Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of the academy, said that the academy planned to present the academy planned to present see the present of the academy planned to present free wanted to present free lectures and concerts. We have hoped, thus, to make the academy auditorium a cultural center for uptown New York."

NEW YORK, N. Y. HERALD-TRIBUNE

JAN 3 - 1937

BRONX, N. Y. HOME NEWS JAN 3-1937

New Members Appointed to Art Board by LaGuardia

Thomas W. Lamont, a member of J. P. Morgan and Co.; former Civil Service Commr. Samuel H. of J. P. Morgan and Co., formet Civil Service Comm. Samuel H. Ordway, Jr., and A. Stirling Calder, sculptor, were named to the Art Commission yesterday by Mayor La Gu ar dia. Ernest Pelzotto, painter, was reappointed. All four will be sworn in at his office "within a few days." the Mayor said.

Lamont, who succeeds Luke V. Lockwood, was appointed for a full term of three years ending Dec. 31, 1939. Pelzotto's reappointment was for the same period. Ordway supplants Louis V. Ledoux, whose term expired Dec. 31, 1935, as did the term of C. Paul Jennewein, sculptor, who is succeeded by Calder. The terms of Ordway and Calder will end on Dec. 31, 1938. Al four were named by the Fine Arts Federation which, under the law establishing the Art Commission, names six members appointed by the Mayor. The other mayoralty appointees are John Brakine, layman, and Archibald St. Brown. architect.

DETROIT, MICH.

TIMES

Lectures

Erskine, Educator

THE TEMPLE FORUM will open its 1937 season Tuesday evening at 8:30 at Temple Beth El with John Erskine, author, educator, composer, pianist and speaker. His subject is "Ameri-speaker. His subject is "American Literature and Its Relation to American Morals."

Eriskine has been professor of English at Columbia University since 1916, and president of the Juilliard School of Music since 1928. Among his best-seller books are "The Private Life of Helen of Troy." "Solomon, My Son," and "The Influence of Women and Its Cure."
An opportunity will be given for questions at the conclusion of the lecture.

TOLEDO, O. NEWS-BEE

DEC 19 1936

SINGERS TO " COMPETE

SUNDAY.... Two radio singers, Phil Duey, baritone, and Paula Heminghaus, contraito, will compete on the Metropolitan Opera Auditions program at 3 p. m. over NBC. The third competitor will be Dorothy Biese Hendrie, soprano, from Chattanooga. Dr.
John Esskeie, chairman of the Met's management committee, will be master of ceremonies.

NEW YORK, N. Y. NEW YORK JOURNAL

JAN 4 - 1937

Erskine Will Open Series of Lectures

A series of ten Wednesday even-ing lectures and recitals at the American Academy of Arts and Letters, 632 W. 156th st., will be started Wednesday by John Ers-kine, who will speak on "The Human Grammar of Good Writ-ing."

Human Grammar of Good Williams, and the North American Indian, early Spanish painting, "The Museum as the Guardian of Art," music appreciation and beauty and style in art. An organ recital, chamber music and songs by a male quartet will also be heard.

Radio Program Notes for Today

Radio City Music Hall Orehestra, Erno Rapee, conductor; Edwina Eustis, soloist, WJZ, 12:30 p. m.

University of Chicago round-table discussion on "A Dictator Is Returned," Quincy Wright and Cliffon Utley, speakers, WEAF, 12:30 p. m.
The Magic Key: Le Petit Mirscha, soprano, from Italy, Ezlo Pinza, basso; Ania Dorfmann, pianist: "Fats" Waller's orchestra; "Doo" Rockwell, comedy, and a talk by Max Reinhardt, WJZ, 2 p. m.
Metropolitan Opera auditions; Semi-final eliminations with Lucia Graeser, soprano; George Britton and Jean Dickinson; John Erskine, guest, men
WEAF, 3 b. m.

WEAF, 3 p. m.

Musical Camera: Josef Cherniavsky presents a symphonic "Mystery in ace and Swing." WEAF, 4:30 p. m.

Fireside Recital: Helen Marshall, Sigurd Nilssen and Frank St. Leger, stropolists, WEAF, 7:30 p. m.

soloists, WEAF, 7:30 p. m.

Hypons, soprano, with symphony orchestra, WABC, 9 p. m.

Rippling Rhythm Revue: Frank Parker, tenor; Judy Canova, Annie and Zeke; Shep Field's orchestra, premierc, WJZ, 9:15 p. m.

Symphony orchestra, Paul Whiteman, conductor: Caspar Reardon, harptist; Ray Middleton, barytone, WEAF, 10 p. m.

Initiation Party to salute new N. B. C. network; soloists, H. Leopold Spitalny's orchestra and chorus, WEAF and WJZ, 12 midnight.

Press Radio Burcau: 9:55 a. m. WABC; 10:35, WNYC; 12, WEAF, WJZ; one of 6:30 p. m., WABC; 11:10: WJZ; 11:30, WEAF.

DENVER, COLO. Rocky Mountain News

Erskine Emcees

Dr. John Erskine, famous author and lecturer, and chairman of the management committee of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will be master of ceremonies when the Sunday Metropolitan auditions program (KOA, 1 p. m.) presents Dorothy Biese Hendries Sunus, (KOA, 1 p. m.) presents promote protection of the protectio famous opera house has had in many years. Among the notables from the musical circles who attended, were Lawrence Tibbett and his handsome wife; Lily Pons and her fiance, Andre Kostelanetz; Rose Bampton, Buffalo's own start, and Wilfred Pelletier; John Erekine Ernest Hutcheson and Occar Wagner, all of the Juillard School of Music; Nino Martini, alone; Deems Taylor and his wife; John Barbirolli with several members of the Philharmonic Society directors; Liddy Holman Reynolds. Broadway musical star, accompanied by Lucius Beebe, Herald-Tribune columnist, and many others whose names are well-known to the general public

FORT WAYNE, IND NEWS-SENTINEL

JAN 2 - 100

Writer Urges Men To Rescue Manners

Treat women like gentlemen. That is the advice of John Erskine, noted writer, who declares women have forfeited their right to chivalrous treatment.

Alarmed at the trend of feminine suffragists, Mr. Erskine suggests a new code of conduct for gentlemen in a current magazine. Men must come to the rescue of good manners, he declares, or women will destroy the gentleman's birthright of cour

He makes two suggestions: Treat the women like gentlemen; and teach them good manners by example.

"Women no longer ask for chiv-alry; they prefer equality," the faarry; they prefer equanty, the ra-mous author maintains. "In the cam-paign for justice they have them-selves become a little rude—still con-tinuing, of course, to be feminine.

selves become a little rules—still continuing, of course, to be feminine.

"I like the old doctrine of chivalry," he continues, "that taking off your hat to a man indicates not that he is a gentleman but that you are. I apply this principle to the ladies. Let cur manners express us, rather than any worship of them.
"I say: Treat the women as though they were gentlemen. We should be polite to women, because if we don't set them an example, who will?"

Mr. Erskine believes the preservation of manners is closely related to the preservation of the race.

"There's a formidable amount of alk about propagating the race with the help of something cooked in the chemist's retort," he declares. "But manners are not made in a laboratory, and chivalry doesn't come in a bottle. Men will still be needed to teach the children how to behave."

NEW YORK, N. Y. WORLD-TELEGRAM JAN 7 - 1937

Daylight Hours Brighter.

Daylight Hours Brighter.

This season brings an increasing number of radio notables into the daytime schedules, formerly devoted and sweet little serials. The most striking is on WOF at 9 A. M., presenting artists who usually sleep until n ing, for instance, it was Tommy Dorsey's band; next wee and Ciyde Pangborn.

WABC's main contribution is the Magazine of the ings a week at 11 o'clock. Tomorrow it brings Lillian the list includes Greita Palmer and John Frakine. B. A certaing hour they and Marge are back $8.245 P. M., to exening hour they and Marge are back $8.245 P. M., to NSC has Eddier buchin's orchestra in a Thursday a show and the diffu's band led by Phil Spitalny plays Mon The afternoon schedules are filled with serious musica out of the evening hours and some others which have be afternoon of carrier to the received by the serious musica afternoon cycles. The independent stations are bolstering daytime pre an example, there is Ida Bailey Allen on WHN this sea as one of the most famous network ladies.

NEV

ACAD Erskine

West 155t The other be given a

NEW YORK, N. Y. TIMES JAN 3- 1937

LECTURE SERIES TO START

John Erskine to Speak Wednesday at Academy of Arts.

John Brakins will open on Wednusday the sires of a series of ten free lectures and recitals arranged by the American Academy of Arts and Letters and the National Institute of Arts and Letters in the academy additorium, 682 West 156th Street.

Mr. Erskine, a member of the institute, will lecture on "The Human Grammar of Good Writing." Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of the academy said that the academy planned to present the series annually.

"Even since the building was completed in 1930," he said, "we have wanted to present free lectures and concerts. We have hoped, thus, to make the academy auditorium a cultural center for uptown New York."

NEW YORK, N. Y. HERALD-TRIBUNE

JAN 3 - 1937

Talk, Frank Styper
Talk, Frank Styper
Keybeard Gussies,
The Listeer Speaks
Orzie Nelsoni Pewels eithe assessing between the specific per the speci to New NBC Dick Jurgen's Orch. Salute to see

Nat Brandwynne Orch.

DENVER, COLO. Rocky Mountain News

BRONX, N. Y. HOME NEWS

JAN 3-1937

New Members Appointed to Art Board by LaGuardia

Thomas W. Lamont, a member of J. P. Morgan and Co.; former Civil Service Commr. Samuel H. Ordway, Jr., and A. Stirling Calder, Oraway, Jr., and A. String Caider, sculptor, were named to the Art Commission yesterday by Mayor La Guardia. Ernest Peizotto, painter, was reappointed. All four will be sworn in at his office "within a few days," the Mayor said.

"within a few days," the Mayor said.

Lamont, who succeeds Luke V. Lockwood, was appointed for a full term of three years ending Dec. 31, 1939. Pelzotto's reappointment was for the same period. Ordway supplants Louis V. Ledoux, whose term expired Dec. 31, 1935, as did the term of C. Paul Jennewein, sculptor, who is succeeded by Calder. The terms of Ordway and Calder will end on Dec. 31, 1938.

Al four were named by the Fine Arts Federation which, under the law establishing the Art Commission, names six members appointed by the Mayor. The other mayoralty appointees are John Freshine, layman, and Archibald M. Brown, architect.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. GAZETTE

DEC 26 1936

WITH a battery of camera men on one side of the entrance and radio announcers and fashion experts lining the other side, the Metropolitan Opera House opened its doors for the first performance of the season. A gala audience of 4,200 included not society but also representatives of musical world, of Broadway, or radio and that group which comprises those who love opera, It was one of the most auspicious openings this famous opera house has had in many famous opera house has had in many years. Among the notables from the musical circles who attended, were Lawrence Tibbett and his handsome wife; Lily Pons and her flance, Andre Kostelanetz; Rose Bampton, Buffalo's own start, and Wilfred Pelletier; John Erskine Ernest Hutcheson and Oscar Wagner; all of the Julillard School of Music; Nino Martini, alone; Deems Taylor and his wife; John Barbfrolli with several members of the Philharmonic Society directors; Liddy Holman Reynolds, Broadway musical star, accompanied by Lucius Beech, Herald-Tribune columnist, and many others whose names are well-known to the general public

DETROIT, MICH. TIMES

Lectures

Erskine, Educator

THE TEMPLE FORUM will open its 1937 season Tuesday evening at 8:30 at Temple Beth evening at 8:30 at Temple Beth El with John Erskine, author, educator, composer, pianist and speaker. His subject is "American Literature and Its Relation to American Morals."

Erskine has been professor of English at Columbia University since 1916, and president of the Juilliard School of Music since 1928. Among his best-seller books are "The Private Life of Helen of Troy." "Solomon, My Son," and "The Influence of Women and Its Cure."

An opportunity will be given for questions at the conclusion of the lecture.

TOLEDO, O. NEWS-BEE

DEC 19 1936

SINCERS TO * * COMPETE

SUNDAY... Two radio singers, Phil Duey, baritone, and Paula Heminghaus, contraito, will compete on the Metropolitan Opera Auditions program at 3 p. m. over NBC. The third competitor will be Dorothy Biese Hendrie, soprano, from Chattanooga. Dr. John Ersknie, chairman of the Met's management committee, will be master of ceremonies.

NEW YORK, N. Y. NEW YORK JOURNAL

JAN 4 - 1937 Erskine Will Open Series of Lectures

A series of ten Wednesday evening lectures and recitals at the American Academy of Arts and Letters, 632 W. 156th st., will be started Wednesday by John Erskine, who will speak on "The Human Grammar of Good Writing."

Human Grammar of Good Writing."
Subsequent talks will deal with the North American Indian, early Spanish painting, "The Museum as the Guardian of Art," music appreciation and beauty and style in art. An organ recital, chamber music and songs by a male quartet will also be heard.

FORT WAYNE, IND. NEWS-SENTINEL

JAN 2 - 100 Writer Urges Men To Rescue Manners

Treat women like gentlemen. That is the advice of John Erskine, noted writer, who declares women have forfeited their right to chivalrous treatment.

Alarmed at the trend of feminine suffragists, Mr. Erskine suggests a new code of conduct for gentlemen in a current magazine. Men must come to the rescue of good manners, he declares, or women will destroy the gentleman's birthright of cour-

He makes two suggestions: Treat the women like gentlemen; and teach them good manners by example.

"Women no longer ask for chivalry; they prefer equality," the famous author maintains. "In the camalry; they prefer equality, the Isamous author maintains. "In the campaign for justice they have themselves become a little rude—still continuing, of course, to be feminine." I like the old doctrine of chivalry, he continues, "that laking off your hat to a man indicates not that he is a gentleman but that you are. I apply this principle to the ladies. Let ur manners express us, rather than any worship of them.

"I say: Treat the women as though they were gentlemen. We should be polite to women, because if we don't set them an example, who will?"
Mr. Erskine believes the preservation of manners is closely related to the preservation of the race.
"There's a formidable amount of alk about propagating the race with the help of something cooked in the chemist's retort." he declares. "But manners are not made in a laboratory, and chivalry doesn't come in a bottle. Men will still be needed to teach the children how to behave."

NEW YORK, N. Y. WORLD-TELEGRAM JAN 7-1937

Daylight Hours Brighter.

Daylight Hours Brighter.

This season brings an increasing number of rad notables into the daytime schedules, formerly devoted and sweet little serials. The most striking is on WOF at 9 A. M., presenting artists who usually sleep until ning, for instance, it was Tommy Dorsey's band; next we and Clyde Pangborn.

WABC's main contribution is the Magazine of the ings a week at 11 O'clock. Tomorrow it brings Lillian the list includes Greta Palmer and John Fristine. B. Forchestra. Myrt and Marge are back at 2.45 P. M., to evening hour they are used to.

NBC has End were used to.

The afternoon schedules are filled with serious musics afternoon for years.

The independent stations are bolstering daytime pr an example, there is Ida Bailey Allen on WHN this sea as one of the most famous network ladies.

NEV

ACAL Erskine

Prof. Jo series of citals to hevening u American Letters au of Arts a emy audi street. Human (ing" on V Dr. Nich dent of that the probably Tickets n committee West 155t The oth be given a

FORT WAYNE, IND. NEWS-SENTINEL

JAN 2 - 100 Writer Urges Men To Rescue Manners

Treat women like gentlemen. That is the advice of John Erskine, noted writer, who declares women have forfeited their right to chivalrous treatment

Alarmed at the trend of feminine suffragists, Mr. Erskine suggests a new code of conduct for gentlemen in a current magazine. Men must come to the rescue of good manners, he declares, or women will destroy the gentleman's birthright of cour-

He makes two suggestions: Treat the women like gentlemen; and teach them good manners by example.

"Women no longer ask for chivalry; they prefer equality," the famous author maintains, "In the campaign for justice they have them-selves become a little rude-still continuing, of course, to be feminine.

ula

AL

selves become a little rude—still continuing, of course, to be feminine.

"I like the old doctrine of chivalry," he continues, "that taking off your hat to a man indicates not that he is a gentleman but that you are. I apply this principle to the ladies. Let our manners express us, rather than any worship of them.

"I say: Treat the women as though they were gentlemen. We should be polite to women, because if we don't set them an example, who will?"

Mr. Erskine believes the preservation of manners is closely related to the preservation of the race.

"There's a formidable amount of talk about propagating the race with the help of something cooked in the chemist's retort," he declares. "But manners are not made in a laboratory, and chivalry doesn't come in a bottle, Men will still be needed to

NEW YORK, N. Y. SUN

JAN 5- 1937 ACADEMY LECTURES

CHARLOTTE, N. C. OBSERVER

Erskine to Open Series on the Year Of Free Wednesday. Prof. John Erskine will open the series of ten free lectures and recitals to be given every Wednesday evening under the auspices of the American Academy of Arts and Letters and the National Institute of Arts and the National I

In 19 years 146 concerts have been given. To them have come 1,139,524 persons.

Mannes gave his first free concerts for soldiers and sailors at the musuem in February, 1918. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., came to one of them with his daughter Abby. They sat on two camp chairs Rockefeller carried with him. At the concert's close he sought out Mannes and told him he would guarantee four concerts a season if the other four could be assured.

sured.

Ever since there have been four concerts in January and four in March. Clarence H. Mackay, the communications magnate, and Mr. and Mrs. George Blumenthal of the museum have been among the spon-

FAVORS LIGHTER MUSIC.

FAVORS LIGHTER MUSIC.

Beethoven, Strauss, Tschaikowsky,
Bach, Purcell, Albeniz are on next Saturday's program. Mannes will play the violin for the Strauss "Artsit's Life Waltz" as well as direct.
"I love the lighter music of men like Friml, Cole Porter, and Jerome Kern," he said. "It is representative of this country and is one of our best and most genuine contributions to melodic music. But the public hears this type of music frequently, and we try to give them on our programs the kind the general public has the least opportunity for hearing."

ing."

More attention can't be given the

to Talk Tuesday

JOHN ERSKINE will lecture at

JOHN ERSKINE will lecture at the reopening of the Temple Forum at Temple Beth El, Tuesday, at 8:30 p. m. Prof. Erskine, educator, author of best-sellers, composer and pianist, will have as his subject, "American Literature and Its Relation to American Morals."

Among those who have made reservations are: Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Eaman, Mrs. Willard Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Sterns D. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. W. Slocum, Mrs. Henry Wineman, Miss Edna Chope, George Ducharme, Mrs. Douglas I. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Willard D. Mayer, Mr. and Mrs. Willard D. Mayer, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Garvett, Joseph B. Macken, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Novak, Miss Laura Haddock, Mr. and Mrs. Glarence Enggass, Dr. and Mrs. Moritz Kahn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Novak, Miss Laura Haddock, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Enggass, Mr. and Mrs. Allen B. Crow, Dean and Mrs. Waldo E. Lessenger, Mr. and Mrs. Glarence Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Gracence Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Gracence Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Gracence Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Suppnick, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Suppnick, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Suppnick, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Buchda, Mrs. Ivitor Gauvreau, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Herman, Sidney F. Heavenrich, Mr. and Mrs. C. Haines Wilson, Mrs. Adolph Sloman, Dr. and Mrs. O, O, Fisher, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Pino, Alexander Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. C. Haines Wilson, Mrs. Adolph Sloman, Dr. and Mrs. O, O, Fisher, Dr. and Mrs. Grace T. Krolik,

NEW YORK, N. Y. WORLD-TELEGRAM JAN 7 - 1937

Daylight Hours Brighter.

Daylight Hours Brighter.

This season brings an increasing number of radio's more notable notables into the daytime schedules, formerly devoted mostly to recipes and sweet little serials. The most striking is on WOR every Thursday at 9 A. M., presenting artists who usually sleep until noon. This mornand Clyde Pangborn.

WABC's main contribution is the Magazine of the Air, three mornings a week at 11 o'clock. Tomorrow it brings Lillian Gish. Next week the list includes Gretta Palmer and John Frekine. B. A. Rolfe leads the evening hour they were used to.

NBC has Eddie Duchn's orchestra in a Thursday afternoon fashion show and the glirs' band led by Phil Spitaliny plays Monday afternoons. Out of the evening hours and some others which have been heard in the afternoon for years.

The independent stations are bolstering daytime programs, too. As an example, there is Ida Bailey Allen on WHN this season, after years as one of the most famous network ladies.

FORT WAYNE, IND. NEWS-SENTINEL

JAN 2 - 100 Writer Urges Men To Rescue Manners

Treat women like gentlemen. That is the advice of John Erskine, noted writer, who declares women have forfeited their right to chivalrous treatment.

Alarmed at the trend of feminine suffragists, Mr. Erskine suggests a new code of conduct for gentlemen in a current magazine. Men must come to the rescue of good manners, he declares, or women will destroy the gentleman's birthright of cour-

He makes two suggestions: Treat the women like gentlemen; and teach them good manners by example.

"Women no longer ask for chivalry; they prefer equality," the famous author maintains. "In the campaign for justice they have them-selves become a little rude—still continuing, of course, to be feminine selves become a little rude—sint online.

"I like the old doctrine of chivalry," he continues, "that taking off your hat to a man indicates not that he is a gentleman but that you are. I apply this principle to the ladies. Let our manners express us, rather than any worship of them.

"I say: Treat the women as though they were gentlemen. We should be polite to women, because if we don't set them an example, who will?"

Mr. Erskine believes the preservation of manners is closely related to the preservation of the race.

"There's a formidable amount of talk about propagating the race with the help of something cooked in the chemist's retort," he declares. "But manners are not made in a laboratory, and chivalry doesn't come in a bottle. Men will still be needed to technique of the children how to behave."

NEW YORK, N. Y. SUN

JAN 5-1937

Ar January 2, 197

• 903,330,7

series citals .. $293,681.69 evenir .. 200,000.00 Ameri .. $93,681.69 Letter of Ar emy ind Municipal Bo street lower. All other in Huma st or market value.

Dr. Parketable securitit. that tl DIRECTOR
probab Tickets, Chairman of th comminan of the Executi

West Yorkis, President
The Gice President & The give S. PRENTICE O' LORD URKE Cı

THE F

BI S

CHARLOTTE, N. C. OBSERVER

th Year Of Free Concerts To Begin

Poverty and Hunger-For Music and Food-Spurred David Mannes in Ideal of Providing Music For Masses.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—(P)-Poverty and hunger-starying for food and music—spurred David Mannes in his ideal of providing free music for the masses.

ideal of providing free music for the masses.

For 19 years he has given yearly eight free concerts in that art holy of holies, the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Next Saturday night he will conduct the first concert of his twentieth year there with a minor celebration.

Mayor F. H. LaGuardia is honorary chairman of a committee which will present him with a scroll written by John Erskine. Then David Mannes will raise his baton over his symphony group in the north balcony, directly over the large entrance hall. Most of the audience—they have packed as many as 17,000 in of a night to hear the program—will not be able to see the orchestra.

SIT ON FLOOR.

will not be able to see the orchestra. SIT ON FLOOR.

There are only 2,300 chairs. The rest of the audience finds seats on stairs, on the bases of statuary, on the floor. People start coming at 4 in the afternoon, bringing suppers with them wrapped in newspapers. They sit through the long program in uncomfortable postures—but cameras have caught rapt expressions on the faces of listeners.

In 19 years 146 concerts have been given. To them have come 1,139,524 persons.

persons.

Mannes gave his first free concerts Mannes gave his first free concerts for soldiers and sailors at the musuem in February, 1918. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., came to one of them with his daughter Abby. They sat on two camp chairs Rockefeller carried with him. At the concert's close he sought out Mannes and told him he would guarantee four concerts a season if the other four could be assured.

Ever since there have been four concerts in January and four in March. Clarence H. Mackay, the communications magnate, and Mr. and Mrs. George Blumenthal of the museum have been among the sponsors.

FAVORS LIGHTER MUSIC

Beethoven, Strauss, Tschalkowsky, Bach, Purcell, Albeniz are on next Saturday's program. Mannes will play the violin for the Strauss "Artsit's Life Waltz" as well as direct. "I love the lighter music of men like Friml, Cole Porter, and Jerome Kern." he said. "It is representative of this country and is one of our best and most genuine contributions to melodic music. But the public hears this type of music frequently, and we try to give them on our programs the kind the general public has the least opportunity for hearing."

ing."

More attention can't be given the

John Erskine to Talk Tuesday

JOHN ERSKINE will lecture at the reopening of the Temple Forum at Temple Beth El, Tuesday, at 8:30 p, m. Prof. Erskine, educator, author of best-seilers, composer and pianist, will have as his subject, "American Literature and Its Relation to American Morals."

Among those who have made reservations are: Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Eaman, Mrs. Willard Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kahn, Mr. and Mrs. Ferris D. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Slocum, Mrs. Henry Wineman, Miss Edna Chope, George Ducharme, Mrs. Douglas I. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Willard D. Mayer, Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson W. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson W. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Lange, Mr. and Mrs. Grarlets Mr. Sosph B. Macken, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Novak, Miss Laura Haddock, Mr., and Mrs. Klane Enggass, Mr. and Mrs. Allen B. Crow, Dean and Mrs. Waldo E. Lessenger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Sovak, Miss Laura Haddock, Mr., and Mrs. Fred Ginsburg, Fred G. Nagle, Miss Caroline Parker, Mrs. Forest McKee, Dr. Harry Saltzstein, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Suppnick, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Bogle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Bogle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Bogle, Mr. and Mrs. C. Haines Mrs. Robert Jamieson, Dr. and Mrs. S. J. Herman, Sidney F. Heavenrich, Mr. and Mrs. C. Haines Wilson, Mrs. Adolph Sloman, Dr. and Mrs. O. O. Fisher, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Pino, Alexander Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Porter, Mrs. Grace T. Krolik.

NEW YORK, N. Y. WORLD-TELEGRAM JAN 7 - 1937

AL

Daylight Hours Brighter.

Daylight Hours Brighter.

This season brings an increasing number of radio's more notable notables into the daytime schedules, formerly devoted mostly to recipes and sweet little serials. The most striking is on WOR every Thursday at 9 A. M., presenting artists who usually sleep until noon. This morning, for instance, it was Tommy Dorsey's band; next week, Guy Lombardo and Clyde Pangborn.

WABC's main contribution is the Magazine of the Air, three mornings a week at 11 o'clock. Tomorrow it brings Lillian Gish. Next week the list includes Gretta Palmer and John Erskine. B. A. Rolfe leads the cycning hour that Marge are back at 2:45 P. M., too, instead of the evening hour they were used to.

NBC has Pedie Duchin's orchestra in a Thursday afternoon fashion show and the girls' band led by Phil Spitaliny plays Monday afternoons. The afternoon schedules are filled with serious musical groups crowded out of the evening hours and some others which have been heard in the afternoon for years.

The independent stations are bolstering daytime programs, too. As an example, there is Ida Bailey Allen on WHN this season, after years as one of the most famous network ladies.

BROOKLYN, N. Y. EAGLE JAN 3 - 1937

Mr. Mannes Honored

AVID MANNES, who two decades ago organized the orchestra which he conducts each year for a series of eight free concerts at the Metropolitan Muum of Art in New York, will be honored by a group of prominent citizens who will pay him tribute at the first concert of his 20th year at the museum on Saturday evening,

The committee is headed by Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia, honorary chairman; Olga Samaroff Stokowski and Richard Welling, Stokowski and Richard Welling, civic leader and secretary of the Philharmonic Symphony. They will present Mr. Mannes with an illuminated scroll signed by them and written by John Erskine.

The history of these concerts is interesting in connection with the development of free music in Amer-ica. Mr. Mannes has been a pioneer in this development, not only with this orchestra, but as founder of the first music settlement in the

Since their inception the museum concerts have been sponsored by various wealthy philanthropists and the audience has grown in attendance from 781 at the first concert to a maximum of close to 17,000. One hundred and forty-six concerts have been given in 19 years; the full attendance has been 1,139,524.

People start arriving at 4 in the afternoon and bring their dinners with them. The museum restaurant is kept open until 8 on the nights of the concerts and people who come a twos and threes during the after-noon go in to dinner in shifts so that they will not lose their seats. The orchestra plays in the north balcony directly over the large en-trance hall and is not visible to the vast majority of the audience. There are only 2,300 seats so that the stairways and far galleries are packed with the thousands who come to hear the music but not early enough for seats. A system of loud speakers has been installed so that every one may hear.

The two initial concerts given by

Mr. Mannes at the museum in February of 1918 were given for the soldiers and sailors. These performances were paid for by two trustees of the museum. Accompanied by his daughter, Abby, John D. Rockefeller Jr. came to one of the concerts, two camp chairs tucked under his arm. At the close he sought out Mr. Mannes and told him that he would be responsible for a series of four concerts if the other four would also be assured.

The following year the concert schedule which has been carried out ever since began: four concerts were given in January and four in March Others who have paid for the March concerts are Clarence H. MacKay, and Mrs. George Blumenthal, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Roebling, the late Charles W. Gould, Henry Walters. Frederic A. Juilliard, the late George D. Pratt, Arthur Curtiss
James and Edward S. Harkness.

The majoram for Jon 2 comprises less stored to play in music halls,

The majoram for Jon 2 comprises less stored to play in music halls,

The majoram for Jon 2 comprises less stored to play in music halls,

seum concerts. The first half will first orchestral job came when Walinclude Wagner's Prelude to Die ter Damrosch, looking for men for his permanent orchestra of the phony No. 7. The second half will symphony Society, heard young be devoted to some dance forms in music ending with the Johann Strauss Artist's Life Waltz with Mr. Contract as a first violin in his orchestra and will be an arcient married Walter Damrosch's sister.

Stradivarius which is the property Richard Welling, who will speak violin that night will be an ancient Stradivarius which is the property Stradivarius which is the property of the museum. The museum owns three rare Stradivarius which can be used only in the museum. These instruments are always played by the members of the Mannes arehas, violing the members of the Mannes arehas are always the members of the Mannes arehas are always the members of the Mannes arehas are always the members of the Mannes are always the members of the Mannes are always the members of the Mannes are always the control of the Mannes are always the members of the Mannes orches- violin.

Major Overture of Bach, Scarabande from Suite of Dances of Purcell, Hornpipe from Water Music of Handel-Harty, Minuet and Sara-

The program for Jan. 9 comprises ice skating rinks and various bands relections most requested at the mu-seum concerts. The first half will first orchestral job came when Wal-

The other selections on the pro-gram will be: Polonaise from Suite No. 3 of Tchaikovsky, D Major which bears his name, now in its

BRIDGEPORT, CONN. POST

JAN 3-1937

Gives Music-Hungry Masses Free Music at New York Museum

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—(AP) Poverty and hunger-starving for food and music-spurred David Mannes in his ideal of providing free music for the masses.

For 19 years he has given yearly eight free concerts in that art holy of holies, the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Next Saturday night he will conduct the first concert of his 20th year there, with a minor celebration.

To Get Scroll

Mayor F. H. LaGuardia is homorary chairman of a committee which will present him with a scroll written by John Erskine.

Then David Mannes will raise his baton over his symphony group in the north balcony, directly over the large entrance hall, Most of the audience—they have packed as many as 17,000 in of a night to hear the program—will not be able to see the program—w

NEW YORK, N. Y NEW YORK JOURNAL

JAN 6- 1937

Music Lovers P Tribute to M

Committee to Honor Noted Conductor Before Concert

David Mannes, noted conductor and educator, will be honored by a group of prominent citizens just before his initial concert at the Metropolitan Museum of Art Saturday evening, Jan. 9. The history of these concerts extends over 20 years.

The committee is headed by Mayor LaGuardia as honorary chairman. The co-chairmen are Olga Samaroff and Richard Weil-ing. The committee will present to Mr. Mannes an illuminated scroll signed by them and written by John Erskine.

GROW IN FAVOR.

Since their finception, the Museum concerts, which are free to the public, have been sponsored by various wealthy philanthropists, and the audiences have grown from a few hundred to over 17,000. Many persons arrive as early as four in the afternoon to assure themselves of places. In 1918 the two initials concerts were given for the soldiers and sailors and were sponsored by the trustees of the Sondored by the trustees of the Museum.

Nuseum. D. Rockefeller, Jr., came with his daughter, two camp with his daughter, two camp chairs tucked under his arm (the mailority of the audience has to

WORLD-I

Starts 20 of Free

New York, and hungermusic—si his ideal for the n

Mayor F H. orary chairma which will proceed to the control of the

NEW YORK, N. Y. TIMES

JAN 9 - 1937

NEW YORK, N. Y. NEW YORK JOURNAL

JAN 6- 1937

JAN 10 1937

Music Lovers Plan Tribute to Mannes USIC

Committee to Honor Noted Conductor Before Concert

David Mannes, noted conductor and educator, will be honored by a group of prominent citizens just before his initial concert at the Metropolitan Museum of Art Saturday evening, Jan. 9. The history of these concerts extends over 20 years.

The committee is headed by Mayor LaGuardia as honorary chairman. The co-chairmen are Olga Samaroff and Richard Well-ing. The committee will present to Mr. Mannes an illuminated scroll signed by them and written by John Erskine.

GROW IN FAVOR.

Since their inception, the Museum concerts, which are free to the public, have been sponsored by various wealthy philanthropists, and the audiences have grown from a few hundred to over 17,000. Many persons arrive as early as four in the afternoon to assure themselves of places. In 1918 the two initial concerts were given for the soldiers and sailors and were sponsored by the trustees of the Museum,

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., came

Museum,
John D. Rockefeller, Jr., came with his daughter, two camp chairs tucked under his arm (the majority of the audience has to

DAVID MANNES
Free Concert Conductor.

stand), and so great was his enthusiasm that he offered to sponsor four of the concerts each year. The concerts are given in January and March of each year. Mr. Rockefeller pays for the January series. The March series yearly has been sponsored by various donors.

WORLD-HERALD

Early.

ted coming at four on, bringing suppers wrapped in news-sat through the long uncomfortable posameras caught rapt no the faces of listential transportation. To them have come ones, the first free condiers and sallors at first free condiers and sallors at first free condiers and sallors at four two with his daughter y sat on two camp kefeller carried with

JAN 3-1937

lannes Starts son Of Conr The Masses

Jan. 9—(AP)—Pove. r-starving for food urred David Mannes providing free music

s he has given year-concerts in that art s, the Metropolitan rt. Tonight he con-st concert of his 20th with a minor cele-

H. LaGuardia was rman of a committee ed him with a scroll in Erskine

ed him with a scroil in Erskine.
I Mannes raised his its symphony group alcony, directly over rance hall, most of
-(they packed 17,000 program)—could not stra. There are only
The rest of the audiats on stairs, on the uary, on the floor.

ncert's close he sought and told him he would four concerts a sea-ther four could be as-

Starts 20th Year

of Free Concerts

New York, Jan. 2 P. Poverty, and hunger—starving for food and music—spurred David Mannes. in, is ideal of providing free music puriell, Albeniz were on for the masses.

For 19 years he has given yearly or the Strauss "Artist's eight free concerts in that art and holy of holies, the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Next Saturday or the Strauss "Artist's eight free concerts in that art and holy of holies, the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Next Saturday or the Strauss "Artist's eight free concerts in that art and holy of holies, the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Next Saturday or the Strauss "Artist's eight free concerts in that art and holy of holies, the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Next Saturday or the Strauss "Artist's eight free concerts in that art and holy of holies, the Metropolitan museum of Art. Next Saturday or the Strauss "Artist's eight free concerts in that art and holy of holies, the Metropolitan museum of the said. "It is reported the public hears this scroll written by John Erskine.

Then David Mannes will raise for this country and we which will present him with a treat of the said of the given growing four in the public hears this frequently and we have been four January and four in ence H. MacKay, the long mangante, and Mr. ions magnate, and Mr. ions magnate

JAN 3 - 1937 POVERTY AND HUNGER

BROUGHT FREE MUSIC

Symphony Conductor Will Open First Concert of Twentieth

Year In New York

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 2 .- Poverty and hunger-starving for food and mu-sic-spurred David Mannes in his ideal of providing free music for the

For 19 years he has given yearly eight free concerts in that art holy of holies, the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Next Saturday night he will conduct the first concert of his twentieth year there, with a minor celebration. Mayor F. H. LaGuardia is honorary chairman of a committee which will present him with a scroll written by

John Erskine.

Then David Mannes will raise his baton over his symphony group in the north balcony, directly over the large entrance hall. Most of the audience they have packed as many as 17,000 in of a night to hear the programwill not be able to see the orchestra

There are only 2,300 chairs. The rest of the audience finds seats on rest of the audience finds seats on stairs, on the floor.

People start coming at 4 in the afternoon, bringing suppers with them, wrapped in newspapers. They sit through the long program, in uncomfortable postures—but cameras have caught rapt expressions on the faces of listeners.

In 19 years 146 concerts have been given. To them have come 1,139,524 persons.

Mannes gave his first free concerts

persons.

Mannes gave his first free concerts for soldiers and sallors at the museum in February, 1918. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., came to one of them, with his daughter, Abby. They sat on two camp chairs Rockefeller carried with him.

with him.

At the concert's close he sought out Mannes and told him he would guarantee four concerts a season if the ther four could be assured.

Ever since there have been four in concerts in January and four in March. Clarence H. Mackay, the communications magnate, and Mr. and Mrs. George Blumenthal, of the mulseum, have been among the sponsors. Beethoven, Strauss, Tschaikowsky, Bach, Purcell, Albeniz are on next Saturday's program. Mannes will play the violin for the Strauss "Artist's Life Waltz" as well as direct.

Judge Paul D. Barns in Circuit court on Janusry 8 will hear an at-tack on the legality of the Miami

In Certain Hours Attacked Measure Against Construction

TEST TO BE HEARD NOISE ORDINVNCE

NEW YORK, N. Y. TIMES

JAN 9 - 1937

WATERBURY, CONN. REPUBLICAN

JAN 101937

MUSIC

David Mannes Starts 20th Season Of Concerts For The Masses

New York, Jan. 9—(AP)—Pove. ty and hunger-starving for food and music-spurred David Mannes in his ideal of providing free music for the masses.

For 19 years he has given yearly eight free concerts in that art holy of holies, the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Tonight he conducted the first concert of his 20th year there, with a minor celebration.

Mayor F. H. LaGuardia was honorary chairman of a committee which presented him with a scroll written by John Erskine.

When David Mannes raised his baton over his symphony group in the north balcony, directly over the large entrance hall, most of the audience—(they packed 17,000 in to hear the program)—could not see the orchestra. There are only 2,300 chairs. The rest of the audience cound seats on stairs, on the bases of statuary, on the floor.

Crowd Came Early.

People started coming at four in the afternoon, bringing suppers with them, wrapped in newspapers. They sat through the long program, in uncomfortable postures—but cameras caught rapt expressions on the faces of listeners.

expressions on the lace ers.

In 19 years 146 concerts have been given. To them have come 1,139,524 persons.

Mannes gave his first free concerts for soldiers and sailors at im in February 1918. bckefeller, Jr., came to m, with his daughter y sat on two camp ckefeller carried with

ncert's close he sought and told him he would four concerts a sea-ther four could be as-

MIAMI, FLA. HERALD

JAN 3-1937

POVERTY AND HUNGER BROUGHT FREE MUSIC

Symphony Conductor Will Open First Concert of Twentieth

Year In New York

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Poverty and hunger—starving for food and music-spurred David Mannes in his ideal of providing free music for the masses.

For 19 years he has given yearly eight free concerts in that art holy of holies, the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Next Saturday night he will conduct the first concert of his twentieth year there, with a minor celebration.

Mayor F. H. LaGuardia is honorary chairman of a committee which will present him with a scroll written by

John Erskine.

Then David Mannes will raise his baton over his symphony group in the north balcony, directly over the large entrance hall. Most of the audiencethey have packed as many as 17,000 in of a night to hear the programwill not be able to see the orchestra There are only 2,300 chairs. The rest of the audience finds seats or rest of the audience finds seats on stairs, on the bases of statuary, on the floor.

People start coming at 4 in the afternoon, bringing suppers with them, wrapped in newspapers. They sty through the long program, in uncomfortable postures—but cameras have caught rapt expressions on the faces of listeners.

In 19 years 146 concerts have been given. To them have come 1,139,524 persons.

Mannes gave his first free concerts

persons.

Mannes gave his first free concerts for soldiers and sallors at the museum in February, 1918. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., came to one of them, with his daughter, Abby. They sat on two camp chairs Rockefeller carried with him.

At the concert's close he sought out

At the concert's close he sought out Mannes and told him he would guarantee four concerts a season if the other four could be assured.

Ever since there have been four concerts in January and four in March Clarence H. Mackay, the communications magnate, and Mr. and Mrs. George Blumenthal, of the museum, have been among the sponsors. Beethoven, Strauss, Tschaikowsky, Bach, Purcell, Albeniz are on next Saturday's program, Mannes will play the violin for the Strauss "Artist's Late Waltz" as well as direct. Turning edy no Anjusaj edy no Apparatus of the Strauss "Artist's Late Waltz" as well as direct. Turning edy no Anjusaj edy no A

In Certain Hours Attached Measure Against Construction

TEST TO BE HEARD NOISE ORDINANCE

JAN 3-1937

Starts 20th Year

of Free Concerts

New York, Jan. 2 P. Poverty, and hunger—starving for food and, have been among the amount of the masses.

For 19 years he has given yearly or the Strauss "Artist's eight free concerts in that art holy of holles, the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Next Saturday night he will conduct the first concert of his twentieth year there, with a minor celebration.

Mayor F. H. LaGuardia is honorary chairman of a committee which will present him with a scroll written by John Brekine.

Then David Mannes will raise portunity for hearing. The public hears this in feature hall, north balcony accepted as many as 17 thousand packed as many as 17 thousand packed as many as 17 thousand packed as many as 17 thousand prostions call for a starts.

There are only 2.70 chairs. The reap bands to earn a walter Damrosch first post in a symstem on the floor.

NEW YORK, N. Y. TIMES JAN 9 - 1937

NEW YORK, N. Y. TIMES JAN 1 0 1937

14,000 PAY TRIBUTE TO DAVID MANNES

16 Chambers of Metropolitan Museum Packed as Orchestra Leader Gets Scroll.

OPENS HIS 20TH SEASON

Leaders in City's Cultural and Civic Life Join in Token of Appreciation.

Fourteen thousand persons at tended the symphony orchestra concert at the Metropolitan Museum of Art last night when friends and admirers of David Mannes, the conductor, presented a testimonial scroll to him in honor of his twentieth year as leader at the Metropolitan's free musical entertainment.

of his twentieth year as leader at the Metropolitan's free musical entertainments.

When the first formal concert was held at the Metropolitan in 1918, a handful of music lovers stood in the main hall while the orchestra contended with the resounding echoes of the vast corridors. Last night one of the largest throngs ever to be assembled in the art gallery at one time sat or stood in sixteen of the museum's chambers and listened to Wagner and Beethoven under almost perfect acoustical conditions.

There were few museum attendants in evidence, but the audience saf in the shadow of the museum's art treasures, armor and sculptured objects listening in perfect silence to the muse made possible because John D. Rockefeller Jr. and his daughter, Miss Abby Rockefeller, had enjoyed one of the 1918 concerts from camp stool seats in the main hall and Mr. Rockefeller assumed part responsibility for their continuance. sumed part responsibility for their

The testimonial scroll was presented to Mr. Mannes at the end of the first two numbers of the program. The presentation was made by Richard Welling, secretary of the Philharmonic Orchestra.

Text of Mannes Scroll

Upon it appeared the following in-cription written by John Frekine: In the twentieth year of your concerts, dear David Mannes, we concerts, dear David Mannes, we offer the thanks of music lovers, your neighbors and friends, for the golden hours you and your men provide. With understanding affection you have served both the composers and your hearers. You pay us the tribute of assuming that we would listen only to what is noble. We are grateful for the revelation of yourself. Now, for you, health and happiness! For you and us, more song! Mr. Welling, in presenting the scroll to Mr. Mannes thanked the conductor on behalf of the music lovers of the city for the work that he had done in organizing, rehearsing and giving the concerts which have been attended by more than a million persons since their inception. Mr. Welling then introduced Mayor F. H. La Guardia, honorary chairman of the committee organized to honor Mr. Mannes. The Mayor was greeted with applause.

Mayor Joins in Tribute

Mayor Joins in Tribute

"If I were you I wouldn't ap-plaud," he said, "Good music and speeches don't go together very

Turning to Mr. Mannes, he con-

Turning to Mr. Mannes, he continued:

'It is my pleasant duty on behalf of the music lovers of the City of New York to extend to you, David Mannes, our appreciation for your splendid and fine contribution to the city—I am sure that you and your musicians enjoy as fine a thrill as we do in these beautiful surroundings here. On behalf of the music lovers of New York, please accept our thanks."

Mr. Mannes thanked Mayor La Guardia, the committee and the audience. He reminded the last that many of its members had supported him throughout his two decades of work at the Metropolitan Museum. "There is no greater joy than to give you the very best that is in us." he said.

The program follows:

Prelide to "Die Meistreinger". Wagner Symphony the Monthe for Meistreinger Suite No. 3. "The Probakovsky Hompite from 'Theme and Variations, Suits No. 3. "The hands' suite. Handel Barree and Gigue from Overture in Bach, Minuet and Farondale from "L'Ariessence, Bizet

Waltz, "Artist Life".... Mr. Mannes played the final num-ber on one of the three Stradi-varius violins owned by the Metro-

NEW YORK, N. Y.

SUN

JAN 1 1 1937

Mrs. Annes played the final number on one of the three Stradivarius violins owned by the Metropolitan Museum.

Many of Mr. Mannes's friends who remained to greet him after the concert were reminded active the concert ware reminded to greet him after the concert ware reminded to greet him after the concert ware reminded and the strategy of the conducts at the concert tast night in the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Left the stry's world of serious music. Born in poverty in this city, Mr. Mannes, as young man, played in music balls, ice sketting rotary.

Mannes late of Dearmon of the conducts at the concert tast night in the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Left the stry's world of serious music. Born in poverty in this city, Mr. and Mrs. Active Mrs. Andrew Mrs. George Mrs. Mrs. Andrew Mrs. George Mrs. Mrs. Andrew Mrs. George Mrs. Andrew Mrs. Federick H. Cone, Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Mrs. Andrew Mrs. George Mrs. Mrs. Andrew Mrs. Federick H. Cone, Mrs. and Mrs. Frederick H. Cone, Mrs. and Mrs. Mrs. George Bluz. Andrew Mrs. Mrs. George Bluz. Andrew Mrs. Mrs. George Bluz. Andrew Welley H. Mrs. Andrew We Presented to Conductor at Metropolitan Museum.

TWENTY YEARS OF CONCERTS

Committee Headed by Welling and Mme. Samaroff-Stokowski.

David Mannes, conductor of the concerts at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, was presented with an illuminated scroll, containing a testimonial paying tribute to his services in the cause of music, at the opening concert of the present season last Saturday evening. This is Mr. Mannes's twentieth year as conductor of the free concerts in the museum—an activity which he founded in co-operation with the museum's trustees and director. The scroll was presented to Mr.

founded in co-operation with the museum's trustees and director. The scroll was presented to Mr. Mannes by Richard Welling, co-chairman with Mme. Olga Samaroff-Stokowski of the committe of one hundred which arranged the tribute to the conductor. The presentation took ; lace during the concert's intermission. Mayor La-Guardia served as honorary chairman of the committee.

The testimonial, composed by John Erskine, read as follows:
"In the twentieth year of your concerts, dear David Mannes, we offer the thanks of music lovers, your neighbors and friends for the golden hours you and your men provide. With understanding affective you have served both the composers and your hearers. You pay us the tribute of assuming that we would listen only to what is noble. We are grateful for the revelation of yourself. Now for you, health and happiness! For you and us, more song!"

Signed by Committee.

The scroll was signed by all the members of the committee, which was made up of leaders in the social, musical and artistic life of social, musical and artistic life of the city.

The committee includes:

Mrs. Henry A. Alexander, Mrs. Vincent Astor, Howland J. Auchincloss, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baltz, Mrs. Reginald Barclay, Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. M. Barlow, Mrs. Courtland D. Barnes, Mrs. Karl Bitter, Mrs. Chester G. Bolton, Miss Phyllis Byrne, Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Carpenter, Mrs. Dudley Cates, Mrs. Melbert B. Cary, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Sloane Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Cone, Mrs. F. S. Coolidge, Paul D. Cravath, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Cone, Mrs. Frank Damrosch, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Damrosch, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Davis, Mrs. George S. Dearborn, Mrs. Robert W. de Forest, Miss Theodore Dehon, Count and Countess Reine deRoussy, Mrs. Charles H. Ditson, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Alfred A. Fraser, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Flagler, Mrs. Cass Gilbert, A. W. Greiner, Mrs. William Griswold, Mrs. Leonie K. Guinzburg, Mr. and Mrs. Leonie K. Guinzburg, Mr. and

SCROLL HONORS Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Hendrick, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Es Opens DAVID MANNES Hutcheson, Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Prior.

Hendrick, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hutcheson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hutcheson, Mr. and Mrs. Hermann
Irion.

Harry W. Kent, Mrs. Oliver H. P.
LaFarge, Mrs. Hulda Lashanska,
Mrs. Joseph Lilienthal, Mr. and
Mrs. Robert Littell, Mr. and Mrs.
Manice deF. Lockwood Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lilienthal, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mansfield,
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, Conde Nast, Mr. and Mrs.
Richard Newton, Dr. and Mrs. Etheren Hand Mrs. Meeklord, Mr. and Mrs.
Richard Newton, Dr. and Mrs. Ethere
Gamble Rogers, Mrs. J. West
Roosevelt, Alfred Rossin.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scherman,
Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Seymour,
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scherman,
Mr. and Mrs. Stohn D. Rocker
Gamble Rogers, Mrs. J. West
Roosevelt, Alfred Rossin.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scherman,
Mr. and Mrs. Hond Mrs.
Smithers, Mrs. James J. Storrow,
Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Swaine,
Mrs. Edgar Speyer, Mrs. Francis S.
Smithers, Mrs. James J. Storrow,
Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Swaine,
Mrs. Edgar Speyer, Mrs. Francis S.
Smithers, Mrs. James J. Storrow,
Mr. and Mrs. Throodore Weicker,
Miss Gertrude B. Whitemore, Mr.
and Mrs. Throod Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Warburg, Mrs. Paul M.
Warburg, Mrs. Theodore Weicker,
Miss Gertrude B. Whitemore, Mr.
and Mrs. Throod Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Weilam C. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Simpson, Mrs.
Tra Younker, Hollingsworth Wood,
Mrs. Edgar Speyer, Mrs. Francis S.
Gerald Warburg, Mrs. Paul M.
Warburg, Mrs. Paul M.
Warburg, Mrs. And Mrs.
George Blumenthal, Hans Weisse,
Paul Stossevitch, Frank Sheridan,
Dr. and Mrs. C. Roberts and Mr.
and Mrs. William C. Roberts and Mr.
and Mrs. William C. Roberts and Mr.
and Mrs. Henry M. Alexander.
Mrs. V

Laidiaw, Mr. and R. Will hold a reRoberts and Mr.

Roberts and Mr.

Among the members of the committee are Mrs. Henry M. Alexander.

Mrs. Vincent Ast. T. Howland J.

Auchincloss, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baltz, Mrs. Reginald Barclay, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. M. Barlow, Mrs.

Courtlandt D. Barnes, Mrs. Karl Bitter, Mrs. Chester G. Bolton, Miss.

Phyllis Byrne, Mrs. Andrew Carnegle,
Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Carpenter,
Mrs. Dudley Cates, Mrs. Melbert B.

Cary, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Sloane Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sloane Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Cone, Mrs. Frederick Sprague Coolige, Paul
D. Cravath, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scrofts, John Cunningham Ir., Dr. and Mrs. Frank Damrosch, Dr. and Mrs.
Walter Damrosch, Mr. and Mrs. WilHam H. Davis, Mrs. George S. Dearborn, Mrs. Robert W. de Porest, Miss
Theodora Dehon, Count and Countees Reine de Roussy, Mrs. Chries H.
Ditacn, Mr. and Mrs. Murray W.
Dodge, Dr. John Erskine, Mrs. Mired
A. Fraser, Dr. and Mrs. John H. Finley, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harkness Flagler, Mrs. Cass Gibert, A. W.
Greiner, Mrs. Willen, Mrs. and Mrs. James W. W. Herrick, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Harty W. Kott, Mrs.

Cover Mrs. Wille And Mrs. Morris

Leo, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lillenthal,
Mr. and Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and
Mrs. Governer, McAnney, Mr. and Mrs. Governer

JAN 6-1937

Erskine Cites Immoral Book

Calls Happy Ending, Not Sex, Really Bad

By CLYDE BECK

When John Erskine, the novelist, was confronted Tuesday night after a lecture at Temple Beth El by a question as to why he had "debunked" Galahad and destroyed the touching faith of youth in a beautiful ideal, he said he was "angry," and proceeded to tell his questioner and the world generally that they really didn't know much about the story of Galahad or such questions wouldn't be asked.

The world's idea of Galahad, said he, is based on a short poem by Tennyson and a picture sold in drug stores that is erroneously supposed to be Galahad, whereas the real Galahad of the Arthurian legends is quite a horse of another color.

In a lecture entitled "American Literature and Its Relation to American Morals," Erskine declared that the immoral book is not the one that deals freely with the sex problem, but the one that makes people believe in happy endings that don't really happen.

PROBLEM OF CONTACT question as to why he had "de-

PROBLEM OF CONTACT

PROBLEM OF CONTACT

The novel which simply repeats the "early to bed and early to rise" morality is not only bad art but bad ethics, the speaker said; simply because there is no proof that to be good is to be happy. The problem of conduct is much more complex than that

that.

In this connection the lecturer noted that the moving picture permits all the sins and crimes in the calendar, but almost invariably insists that everything comes out all right anyhow. This is not common sense, said he; it is merely an escape vision; whereas art, of which the moving picture is an example, should not provide escape but only a deeper sense of the joy of living. Erskine praised the Old Testament stories as almost perfect examples of the story-teller's art because they reveal the objective truth of life by picturing only its essentials.

IN A PARAGRAPH

IN A PARAGRAPH

picturing only its essentials.

IN A PARAGRAPH

The Old Testament achieves in a paragraph what the modern novel often wastes chapters to arrive at, he said. He cited the stories of Joseph, Naaman the Leper and David and Bathsheba as examples. Joseph, he said, is as plainly the family pest as if some modern psychological novelist had portrayed him as such. The Old Testament stories, he noted, reveal truly the existence of both good and evil in the individual.

The character of the dictator in Sinclair Lewis' "If Can't Happen Here," Erskine believes, is overdrawn, since the Author denies him any good qualities or any charm. History shows, on the other hand, that dictators got their start because they had winning ways, Napoleon being a brilliant example.

Most people, Erskine told his audience, do not really desire liberty of choice or the certainty of responsibility. They prefer to be luiled to sleep by literary opiates which merely reinforce their own vague opinions or dreamy aspirations.

ly reinforce their own or dreamy aspirations.

provide: With understanding affectively you have served both the composers and your hearers. You pay us the tribute of assuming that we would listen only to what is noble. We are grateful for the revelation of yourself. Now for you, health and happiness! For you and us, more song!"

Signed by Committee.

The scroll was signed by all the members of the committee, which was made up of leaders in the social, musical and artistic life of social, musical and artistic life of the city.

The committee includes:
Mrs. Henry A. Alexander, Mrs. Vincent Astor, Howland J. Auchincloss, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ballz, Mrs. Reginald Barclay, Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. M. Barlow, Mrs. Courtland D. Barnes, Mrs. Karl Bitter, Mrs. Chester G. Bolton, Miss Phyllis Byrne, Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Carpenter, Mrs. Dudley Cates, Mrs. Melbert B. Cary, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Sloane Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Cone, Mrs. F. S. Coolidge, Paul D. Cravath, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Cone, Mrs. F. S. Coolidge, Paul D. Cravath, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Cone, Mrs. F. S. Coolidge, Paul D. Cravath, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Crofts, John Cunningham Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Walter Damrosch, Mr. and Mrs. Murray W. Dodge, Dr. John Erskine, Mrs. Alrfred A. Fraser, Dr. and Mrs. John H. Finley, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Flagler, Mrs. Cass Gilbert, A. W. Greiner, Mrs. Close Gilbert, A. W. Greiner, Mrs. William Griswold, Mrs. Leonie K. Guinzburg, Mr. and

NEW YORK, N. Y. HERALD-TRIBUNE

JAN 9 - 1937

Mannes Opens Museum Music Series Tonight

Will Be Honored With Scroll on Beginning His 20th Season of Free Concerts

Guest at Reception Later

Wagner, Beethoven, Handel and Bach on Program

When David Mannes begins his twentieth season tonight as conduc-tor of the winter Saturday night free concerts at the Metropolitan Museum of Art he will receive from a citizen's committee an illuminated scroll containing a testimonial written by John Erskine and signed by all the com-mittee's members. Mayor F. H. La-Guardia is honorary chairman of the Guardia is honorary chairman of the committee, whose chairmen are Richard Welling, secretary of the Philharmonic-Symphony Society, and Mme. Olga Samaroff-Stokowski.

The concerts will be held on the Saturday evenings of this month and of March, beginning at 8 celock. Tonight's program will include Wagner's prelude to "Die Meistersinger."

Besthoven's seventh symphony and Beethoven's seventh symphony and Beethoven's seventh symphony and examples of music in dance form by Tchaikovsky, Handel, Purcell, Bach, Bizet, Albeniz, Moussorgsky and Johann Strauss, After the concert Mme. Samaroff-Stokowski will hold a reception for Mr. Mannes at her home, 1170 Fifth Avenue.

Samaroff-Stokowski will hold a reception for Mr. Mannes at her home. 1170 Fifth Avenue.

Among the members of the committee are Mrs. Henry M. Alexander, Mrs. Vincent Ast.r, Howland J. Auchincloss, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baltz, Mrs. Reginald Barclay, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. M. Barlow, Mrs. Courtlandt D. Barnes, Mrs. Karl Bitter, Mrs. Chester G. Bolton, Miss. Phyllis Byrne, Mrs. Andrew Carnegie. Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Carpenter, Mrs. Dudley Cates, Mrs. Melbert B. Cary, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Sleane Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sprague Coolidge, Paul D. Cravath, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Crofts, John Chuningham jr., Dr. and Mrs. William H. Davis, Mrs. George S. Dearborn, Mrs. Robert W. de Forest, Miss. Theodora Dehon, Count and Countees Reine de Roussy, Mrs. Charles H. Ditsen, Mr. and Mrs. Murray W. Dodge, Dr. John Erskine, Mrs. Alfred A. Fraser, Dr. and Mrs. John H. Finley, Mr. and Mrs. Murray W. Dodge, Dr. John Erskine, Mrs. Alfred A. Fraser, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. P. Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Henrick, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. P. Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Herrick, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. P. Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Herrick, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Husted, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. P. Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Herrick, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Husted, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. P. Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. P. Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. P. Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. P. Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. P. Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. P. Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. P. Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. P. Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. P. Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. P. Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. P. Hendrick, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Hartwell, Mrs. J. Henry Mrs. Ernest Hutcheson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mrs. And Mrs. Mrs. Morris Ernest Hutcheson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry

DETROIT, MICH. NEWS

JAN 6-1937

Erskine Cites Immoral Book

Calls Happy Ending, Not Sex, Really Bad

By CLYDE BECK

When John Erskine, the novelist, was confronted Tuesday night after a lecture at Temple Beth El by a a recture at temple beth El by a question as to why he had "debunked" Galahad and destroyed the touching faith of youth in a beautiful ideal, he said he was "angry," and proceeded to tell his questioner and the world generally that they really didn't know much about the story of Galahad or such questions wouldn't be asked.

The world's idea of Galahad, said he, is based on a short poem by Tennyson and a picture sold in drug stores that is erroneously supposed to be Galahad; whereas the real Galahad of the Arthurian legends is quite a horse of another color.

In a lecture entitled "American Morals," Erskine declared that the immoral book is not the one that deals freely with the sex problem, but the one that makes people believe in happy endings that don't really appen. question as to why he had '

really happen.

PROBLEM OF CONTACT

The novel which simply repeats the "early to bed and early to rise" morality is not only bad art but bad ethics, the speaker said; simply because there is no proof that to be good is to be happy. The problem of conduct is much proceed that the problem of the pr conduct is much more complex than

that,

In this connection the lecturer noted that the moving picture permits all the sins and crimes in the calendar, but almost invariably insists that everything comes out all right anyhow. This is not common sense, said he; it is merely an escape vision; whereas art, of which the moving picture is an example, should not provide escape but only a deeper sense of the joy of living. Erskine praised the Old Testament stories as almost perfect examples of the story-teller's art because they reveal the objective truth of life by picturing only its essentials.

IN A PARAGEAPH

IN A PARAGRAPH

picturing only its essentials.

IN A PARAGRAPH

The Old Testament achieves in a paragraph what the modern novel often wastes chapters to arrive at, he said. He cited the stories of Joseph, Naaman the Leper and David and Bathsheba as examples. Joseph, he said, is as plainly the family pest as if some modern psychological novelist had portrayed him as such. The Old Testament stories, he noted, reveal truly the existence of both good and evil in the individual.

The character of the dictator in Sinclair Lewis' "It Can't Happen Here," Erskine believes, is over-drawn, since the author denies him any good qualities or any charm. History shows, on the other hand, that dictators got their start because they had winning ways, Napoleon being a brilliant example.

Most people, Erskine told his audience, do not really desire liberty of choice or the certainty of responsibility. They prefer to be lulled to sleep by literary opiates which merely reinforce their own vague opinions or dreamy aspirations.

DEC - - 1936

MUSEUM CONCERTS

TWO decades ago, David Mannes organized the orchestra which he conducts each year for a series of eight free concerts at the Metropolitan Mu-seum of Art in New York. This year, on the occasion of the first concert of his twentieth season at the Museum, Mr. Mannes was honored by a committee of prominent citizens.

Headed by Mayor Fiorello H. La-Guardia as honorary chairman and Olga Samaroff Stokowski and Richard Welling, civic leader and secretary of the Philharmonic Symphony, as cochairmen, the committee presented Mr. Mannes with an illuminated scroll signed by them, and written by Dr. John Erskine,

The history of the Museum Concerts is particularly interesting in connection with the development of free music in America. (Mr. Mannes has been a pioneer in this development,-not only with this orchestra but as founder of the first music settlement in the United States back in the early 1900's. Since their inception the concerts have been sponsored by various wealthy philanthropists and the audience has grown in attendance from 781 at the first concert to a maximum of close to 17,000. One hundred and forty-six concerts have been given in nineteen years; the full attendance has been 1,139,524.

People start coming at four in the afternoon, bringing their suppers with them. The Museum restaurant is kept open until eight on the nights of the concerts and people who come in two's and three's during the afternoon go in to supper in shifts so that they will not lose their seats. The orchestra plays in the North Balcony directly over the large entrance hall and is not visible to the vast majority of the audience. Only There half of the conductor is seen. are only 2,300 seats so that the stairways and far galleries are packed with the thousands who come to hear the music but not early enough for seats. A system of loud speakers has been installed so that everyone may hear.

The two initial concerts given by Mr. Mannes at the Museum in February of 1918 were given for the soldiers and sailors. These two programs were paid for by two trustees of the museum. Accompanied by his daughter, Abby, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., came to one of these concerts, two camp chairs tucked under his arm. At the close of the concert his enthusiasm was so great that he sought out Mr. Mannes and told him that he would be responsible for a series of four concerts if the other four could also be assured.

The following year the concert schedule which has been carried out ever since, began: four concerts in January, and four in March. Two were paid for anonymously by Mr. Rockefeller. The following year he agreed to have his name used. Since 1920 he has paid for the entire January series. Others who have paid for the March concerts are Clarence H. Mackay; Mr. and Mrs. George Blumenthal; Mr. and Mrs. John A. Roebling; the late Charles W. Gould; Henry Walters; Frederic A. Juilliard; the late George D. Pratt; Arthur Curtiss James; and Edward S. Harkness.

Culver City Cal

SAN PEDRO, CAL. NEWS-PILOT JAN 2 - 1937

Dislike For Stark Reality

to be told about life as it is, adding: "They want to be told the world is what they would like it to be."

The longing is not confined to women. Men, too, delight in pictures which express ideals rather than realities. That's why they choose to forget the sand and cockleburrs of their happy barefoot days; the drudgeries which they endured in youth and the heartbreaks which accompanied the accom-plishments of their early manhood.

When Mr. Neighbor entertains the office with the latest bright saying of his youngest boy, he carefully neglects to paint in the background.

Whereas Junior is a nasty-tempered, impudent and obstrepwhereas Junior is a nasty-tempered, impudent and obstreperous brat, his fond papa would have us share his own delusion and imagine that the quoted juvenile gem came from the lips of a model child. We, too, favor the fancy.

What husband, boasting to his downtown cronies of some culinary achievement in his wife's kitchen, sketches in the

Does he repeat his own caustic comment on the delay in he repeat his own caustic comment on the delay in serving the meal and the nonsense of so much fuss and the nonsense of so much fuss and bother?

And when the cronies take a turn at long-distance propaganda in behalf of their own women-folk, do they confine themselves to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the long-distance propaganda in behalf of their own women-folk, do they confine themselves to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the

We make life tolerable by playing it up as we think it ought make life tolerable by playing it up as we think it ought to be, putting the soft pedal on its disagreeable phases. If putting the soft pedal on its disagreeable phases. If we insisted on having it constantly before us undraped with pleasing conceptions of the imagination, it would become

Dislike For Stark Reality

JOHN ERSKINE, novelist, observes that women do not want to be told about life as it is addition. (The women do not want

"They want to be be."

Men, too, delight in realities. That's ockleburrs of their sy choose to forget the sand and cockleburrs of their by they endured in parefoot days; the drudgeries which they endured in and the heartbreaks which accompanied the accommon to of their early manhood.

Mr. Neighbor entertains the office with the latest saying of his youngest boy, he carefully neglects to the background.

as Junior is a nasty-tempered, impudent and obstreprat, his fond papa would have us share his own dend imagine that the quoted juvenile gem came from of a model child. We, too, favor the fancy. husband, boasting to his downtown cronies of some achievement in his wife's kitchen, sketches in the MUSICAL COURIER NEW YORK, N. Y.

JAN 9 - 1937

I have been puzzled for several weeks.

And when a girl is puzzled it's something, I can tell you. Finally I solved my dilemma by the enclosed riddle which I humbly ask by the enclosed radius which a many you to gaze upon.

If a Baltimore girl could make Edward VIII quit a-Kingin' it— Could a Baltimore man make

Rosa Ponselle quit a-singin' it?
Answer: No; because the Female of the Species is more deadly than the Male. (With apologies to Rudyard Kipling.)
Sincerely,

. . .

Washington, D. C.

Although I assure you I was at home, fast asleep, on the night Josef and Rosina Lhevinne entertained at the Beethover Association for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Casadesus, I have been presented with the reliable information that "Damon" Triggs and "Pythias" Brodsky (properly christened once upon a time Harold and Vera) were the dashing couple of the affair.

First they rushed to the party from their nationwide two-piano broadcast, played the Haydn-Brahms variations in what my correspondent describes as "sheer mastery—extraordinary—phenomenal—glorious" (I do wish my vocabulary contained such adjectives), skipped full-tilt down the marble staircase to return to the radio studio for a midnight

breathless luctantly of pianist Vera a not the of G minor formed by Karpilovs and Felix Of the honored lonly reme cha Goro Friskin, I Vera and Doenhoff,

John Ers Stojowski Frederick Mrs. Hen Dr. and M Hartmann
Dr. and M
Joseph Sel
Sweet, M
Worden,
Lucien W
Phillips, M
Florence I
Levey, Ver
Richard Sr
Robinson.
If you as fully annoy plete. WI
Bauer?

FLASH

NEW YORK, N. Y. DAILY NEWS

JAN 8 - 1937

Belief in Your Loveliness

By ANTOINETTE DONNELLY. I ran across a line in an article the other day that arrested my at-ention. It read: "Declare your-self healthy, and you may become so!" Paraphrasing the line so that it would apply to beauty, I wondered how it would work: "Declare yourself beautiful and you may become so!" Or, let's modify it and say "Declare yourself good looking and you may become so!" To be good looking is enough to ask. So, fortified today, you can get about everything out of life that you need or want.

Self-Declaration.

The beauties still are rare and still owe their distinction to the land that fashioned them origin-ally, I think. But good-looking

Sandslide F

MUSEUM CONCERTS

TWO decades ago, David Mannes organized the orchestra which he conducts each year for a series of eight free concerts at the Metropolitan Mu-seum of Art in New York. This year, on the occasion of the first concert of his twentieth season at the Museum, Mr. Mannes was honored by a committee of prominent citizens.

Headed by Mayor Fiorello H. La-Guardia as honorary chairman and Olga Samaroff Stokowski and Richard Welling, civic leader and secretary of the Philharmonic Symphony, as cochairmen, the committee presented Mr. Mannes with an illuminated scroll signed by them, and written by Dr. John Erskine,

The history of the Museum Concerts is particularly interesting in connection with the development of free music in America. (Mr. Mannes has been a pioneer in this development,-not only with this orchestra but as founder of the first music settlement in the United States back in the early 1900's. Since their inception the concerts have been sponsored by various wealthy philan-thropists and the audience has grown in attendance from 781 at the first concert to a maximum of close to 17,000. One hundred and forty-six concerts have been given in nineteen years; the full attendance has been 1,139,524.

People start coming at four in the afternoon, bringing their suppers with them. The Museum restaurant is kept open until eight on the nights of the concerts and people who come in two's and three's during the afternoon go in to supper in shifts so that they will not lose their seats. The orchestra plays in the North Balcony directly over the large entrance hall and is not visible to the vast majority of the audience. Only half of the conductor is seen. There are only 2,300 seats so that the stairways and far galleries are packed with the thousands who come to hear the music but not early enough for seats. A system of loud speakers has been installed so that everyone may hear.

The two initial concerts given by Mr. Mannes at the Museum in February of 1918 were given for the soldiers and sailors. These two programs were paid for by two trustees of the museum. Accompanied by his daughter, Abby, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., came to one of these concerts, two camp chairs tucked under his arm. At the close of the concert his enthusiasm was so great that he sought out Mr. Mannes and told him that he would be responsible for a series of four concerts if the other four could also be assured.

The following year the concert schedule which has been carried out ever since, began: four concerts in January, and four in March. Two were paid for anonymously by Mr. Rockefeller. The following year he agreed to have his name used. Since 1920 he has paid for the entire January series. Others who have paid for the March concerts are Clarence H. Mackay; Mr. and Mrs. George Blumenthal; Mr. and Mrs. John A. Roebling; the late Charles W. Gould; Henry Walters; Frederic A. Juilliard; the late George D. Pratt; Arthur Curtiss James; and Edward S. Harkness.

STAR Culver City-Cal

SAN PEDRO, CAL. NEWS-PILOT

NEWS-PILOT

JAN 2 - 10 ship last summer in Ma Garden at New York. he had no intention the control of the contro lusion and im:

HARDIN-SIMMONS

the line of a r EL PASO, Tex (III) bother?

And when themselves We make to be, putti pleasing com maddening.

Dislike For Stark Reality

JOHN ERSKINE, novelist, observes that women do not want

The longing is not confined to women. Men, too, delight in pictures which express ideals rather than realities. That's why they choose to forget the sand and cockleburrs of their panny berefoot days: the drudgeries which they endured in happy barefoot days; the drudgeries which they endured in youth and the heartbreaks which accompanied the accom-youth and the heartbreaks which accompanied the accompanied the plishments of their early manhood.

When Mr. Neighbor entertains the office with the latest bright saying of his youngest boy, he carefully neglects to paint in the background.

Whereas Junior is a nasty-tempered, impudent and obstrep-erous brat, his fond papa would have us share his own delusion and imagine that the quoted juvenile gem came from the lips of a model child. We, too, favor the fancy. What husband, boasting to his downtown cronies of some culinary achievement in his wife's kitchen, sketches in the sidelights?

Does he repeat his own caustic comment on the delay in serving the meal and the nonsense of so much fuss and

And when the cronies take a turn at long-distance propaganda in behalf of their own women-folk, do they confine themselves to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the

We make life tolerable by playing it up as we think it ought to be, putting the soft pedal on its disagreeable phases. If we insisted on having it constantly before us undraped with pleasing conceptions of the imagination, it would become

MUSICAL COURIER NEW YORK, N. Y.

> JAN 9 - 1937 Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Snooper: Washington, D. C.

I have been puzzled for several weeks.
And when a girl is puzzled it's something, I can tell you. Finally I solved my dilemma by the enclosed riddle which I humbly ask you to gaze upon.

Ruder.

If a Baltimore girl could make Edward VIII quit a-Kingin' it—Could a Baltimore man make

Rosa Ponselle quit a-singin' it?
Answer: No; because the Female of the Species is more deadly than the Male. (With apologies to Rudyard Kipling.)
Sincerely,

Although I assure you I was at home, fast asleep, on the night Josef and Rosina Lhevinne entertained at the Beethoven Association for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Casadesus, I have been presented with the reliable information that "Damon" Triggs and "Pythias" Brodsky (properly christened once upon a time Harold and Vera) were the dashing couple of the affair.

First they rushed to the party from their nationwide two-piano broadcast, played the Haydn-Brahms variations in what my correspondent describes as "sheer mastery—extraordinary—phenomenal—glorious" (I do wish my vocabulary contained such adjectives), skipped full-tilt down the marble staircase to return to the radio studio for a . . .

NEW YORK, N. Y DAILY NEWS

JAN 8 - 1937

Belief in Your Loveli

By ANTOINETTE DONNELLY. I ran across a line in an article he other day that arrested my at-ention. It read: "Declare your-elf healthy, and you may become Paraphrasing the line so that it would apply to beauty, I wondered how it would work: "Declare yourself beautiful and you may become so!" Or, let's modify it and say "Declare yourself good looking and you may become so!" To be good looking is enough to ask. So, fortified today, you can get about everything out of life that you need or want.

Self-Declaration.

The beauties still are rare and still owe their distinction to the hand that fashioned them origin-ally, I think. But good-looking you to gaze upon. If a Baltimore girl could make Edward VIII quit a-Kingin' it—

Could a Baltimore man make

Rosa Ponselle quit a-singin' it? Answer: No; because the Female of the Species is more deadly than the Male. (With apologies to Rudyard Kipling.) Sincerely,

ADELE -

Belief in Your Loveliness May

Washington, D. C.

Although I assure you I was at home, fast asleep, on the night Josef and Rosina Lhevinne entertained at the Beethoven Association for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Casadesus, I thon for Mr. and Mrs. Ropert Casadesus, I have been presented with the reliable information that "Damon" Triggs and "Pythias" Brodsky (properly christened once upon a time Harold and Vera) were the dashing time Harold and Vera) were the dashing couple of the affair.

First they rushed to the party from their nationwide two-piano broadcast, played the Haydn-Brahms variations in what my correspondent describes as "sheer mastery—extraordinary—phenomenal—glorious" (I do wish my vocabulary contained such adjectives), skipped full-tilt down the marble staircase to return to the radio studio for a

NEW YORK, N. Y DAILY NEWS JAN 8 - 1937

By ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

I ran across a line in an article the other day that arrested my at-tention. It read: "Declare your-self healthy, and you may become

Paraphrasing the line so that it midnight broadcast, and then ran back breathlessly to the party to regale the re-luctantly departing guests with a pot-pourri breathlessly to the party to regale the reluctantly departing guests with a pot-pourri of pianism.

Vera and Harold, so I understand, were not the only music makers, for the Brahms G minor quartet was "exquisitely" performed by Isabelle Vengerova, pianist; Daniel Karpilovski, violinist; Lillian Fuchs, viola; and Felix Salmond, cellist.

Of the people assembled to salaami at the honored French musicians' feet, my deputy only remembered seeing the following: Sascha Gorodnitzki, Pierre Luboshutz, James Friskin, Rae Robertson and Ethel Bartlett, Vera and Maurice Aronson, Albert von Doenhoff, Nadia Reisenberg, Sue Prosser, John Erskine, Homer Samuels, Sigismond Stojowski, Prince and Princess Erisoff, Mrs. Frederick Steinway, Erno and Mrs. Rapee, Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, Mrs. Morris Loeb, Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Stillman Kelley, Arthur Hartmann, Leonard Liebling, Ruth Draper, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schuster, Dr. and Mrs. Lieb, Reginald Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. Von Riper, Helen Worden, Samuel Pisa, Henriette Weber, Lucien Wulsin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Campbell Phillips, Mrs. Hylan, Cyrena Van Gordon, Florence Easton, Ernesto Berúmen, James Levey, Vera Fonaroff, Maria Kurenko, Mrs. Richard Stokes and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Robinson.

If you ask me, Rosina will be just fright-

If you ask me, Rosina will be just fright-fully annoyed because the roster isn't com-plete. Where, for instance, was Harold

DETROIT, MICH. NEWS

JAN 4-1937

Erskine to Speak at Temple Forum

John Erskine, novelist, will speak at 8.30 p. m. Tuesday in the first of the 1937 Temple Forum series of lectures and debates at Temple speak Jan. 12.

In later lectures. Dr. Stanley Rypins, professor of English at Brooklyn College, will speak on "Our Public School System—Is It Acequate for Education in Democracy?" Jan. 19; Prince Hubertus and Princess Helga Maria von Loewenstein will speak on "The Meaning of Fascism" Jan. 26. and Stanley High, editor and traveler, will discuss "The Danger Zones of the World," Feb. 2.

World," Feb. 2.

The forum will cire Feb. 2 with a debate on the proposition, "Is America Headed Toward Socialism?" with Lewis Corey, author of "The Crisis of the Middle Class," taking the affirmative viewpoint and Herbert Agar, author of "The People's Choice" and associate editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, the negative.

"Each lecture is followed by a general discussion period conducted by Rabbi Leon Fram, of Temple

NEW YORK, N. Y.

RLD-TELFCRAM

WORLD-TELEGRAM

JAN 6 - 1937

John Erskine will open a series of ree lectures and recitals sponsored y the American Academy of Arts nd Letters and the National Intitute of Arts and Letters, in the cademy auditorium, 632 W. 156th t., tonight at 8:30. He will lecture started it.

ers of their endured in the accom-

Paraphrasing the line so that it would apply to beauty, I wondered how it would work: "Declare yourself beautiful and you may become so!" Or, let's modify it and say "Declare yourself good looking and you may become so!" To be good looking is enough to ask. So, fortified today, you can get about everything out of life that you need or want. the latest neglects to nd obstrepnis own de-

Self-Declaration.

The beauties still are rare and still owe their distinction to the hand that fashioned them originally, I think. But good-looking

FLASH!!

FLASH!!

Juilliard School of Music President John Erskine advises home-town talent to get "audience experience" at home as career start. "Form partnership with another musician, combining piano with voice, or with violin, offer series of programs, charging 50 cents a ticket and don't be disappointed if only twenty come. If performances are worth listening to, audiences will grow eventually"... Cleverest charm bracelet seen to date graces arm of florist Harry Meyer's wife, with jewelled pot of geranium for one charm, jewelled orchid for a second, basket of assorted flowers a third, bunch of violets, one of double nasturtiums, and other fascinating bejewelled flower interpretations. A. D. cademy auditorium, one will lecture graces arm of florist Meyer's wife, with pot of geranium for rm, jewelled orchid for ad, basket of assorted a third, bunch of violets, double nasturtiums, and fascinating bejewelled nterpretations. A. D.

JAM 2-1937

JAM 2

als."

Six meetings are planned in in the forum's new series. In the second program, will Irwin, magazine writer who has made a study of crime and rackets. will discuss "Why Does America Lead in Crime?" He will speak Jan. 12.

In later lectures. De civilization of the company of the series are the company of the company ink it ought phases. If draped with ould become iven by Februsoldiers

ms were museum. r, Abby,

ne to one

p chairs e close of s so great

innes and esponsible the other concert

rried out

ts in Jan-Two were

r. Rockehe agreed e 1920 he ary series. he March

Mackay; umenthal; bling; the enry Wal-the late Curtiss ness.

tv

not want

want to be oo, delight

ies. That's came from ies of some ches in the he delay in h fuss and ance propahey confine ning but the iven by Febru-soldiers ms were museum. , Abby,

e to one p chairs close of so great nnes and sponsible

ried out

ts in Jan-wo were r. Rockehe agreed 1920 he ary series. ne March

Mackay;

imenthal; oling; the

nry Walthe late

Curtiss

ty

not want ant to be

o, delight

es. That's rs of their endured in he accom-

the latest neglects to nd obstrepis own de-came from es of some hes in the ne delay in fuss and nce propa-

ey confine ing but the nk it ought phases. If iraped with uld become JAN 9 - 1937

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Snooper: I have been puzzled for several weeks.

And when a girl is puzzled it's something, I can tell you. Finally I solved my dilemma by the enclosed riddle which I humbly ask you to gaze upon.

RIDDLE

If a Baltimore girl could make Edward VIII quit a-Kingin' it— Could a Baltimore man make

Rosa Ponselle quit a-singin' it?
Answer: No; because the Female of the Species is more deadly than the Male. (With apologies to Rudyard Kipling.) Sincerely,

ADELE -

Although I assure you I was at home, fast asleep, on the night Josef and Rosina Lhevinne entertained at the Beethoven Association for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Casadesus, I have been presented with the reliable information that "Damon" Triggs and "Pythias" Brodsky (properly christened once upon a time Harold and Vera) were the dashing couple of the efficie couple of the affair.

First they rushed to the party from their nationwide two-piano broadcast, played the Haydn-Brahms variations in what my cor-respondent describes as "sheer mastery— extraordinary—phenomenal—glorious" (I do wish my vocabulary contained such adjec-tives), skipped full-tilt down the marble staircase to return to the radio studio for a

midnight broadcast, and then ran back breathlessly to the party to regale the reluctantly departing guests with a pot-pourri

breathlessly to the party to regale the reluctantly departing guests with a pot-pourri of pianism.

Vera and Harold, so I understand, were not the only music makers, for the Brahms G minor quartet was "exquisitely" performed by Isabelle Vengerova, pianist; Daniel Karpilovski, violinist; Lillian Fuchs, viola; and Felix Salmond, cellist.

Of the people assembled to salaami at the honored French musicians' feet, my deputy only remembered seeing the following: Sascha Gorodnitzki, Pierre Luboshutz, James Friskin, Rae Robertson and Ethel Bartlett, Vera and Maurice Aronson, Albert von Doenhoff, Nadia Reisenberg, Sue Prosser, John Erskine, Homer Samuels, Sigismond Stojowski, Prince and Princess Erisoff, Mrs. Frederick Steinway, Erno and Mrs. Rapee, Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, Mrs. Morris Loeb, Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Stillman Kelley, Arthur Hartmann, Leonard Liebling, Ruth Draper, Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Stillman Kelley, Arthur Hartmann, Mrs. Edgar Stillman Kelley, Arthur Hartmann, Leonard Liebling, Ruth Draper, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schuster, Dr. and Mrs. Lieb, Reginald Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. Von Riper, Helen Worden, Samuel Pisa, Henriette Weber, Lucien Wulsin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Campbell Phillips, Mrs. Hylan, Cyrena Van Gordon, Florence Easton, Ernesto Berúmen, James Levey, Vera Fonaroff, Maria Kurenko, Mrs. Richard Stokes and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Robinson.

If you ask me, Rosina will be just fright-

If you ask me, Rosina will be just frightfully annoyed because the roster isn't complete. Where, for instance, was Harold

DETROIT, MICH. NEWS

JAN 4-1937

Erskine to Speak at Temple Forum

John Erskine, novelist, will speak at 8,30 p. m. Tuesday in the first of the 1937 Temple Forum series of

of the 1937 Temple Forum series of lectures and debates at Temple Beth El, Woodward and Gladstone avenues, His topic is "American Literature
and Its Relation to American Morals," Six meetings

als."

Six meetings are planned in in the forum's new series. In the second program, will Irwin, magazine writer who has made a study of crime and rackets. Will discuss "Why Does America Lead in Crime?" He will speak Jan, 12.

In later lectures Description

speak Jan. 12.

In later lectures. Dr. Stanley Rypins, professor of English at Brooklyn College, will speak on "Our Public School System—Is It Acequate for Education in Democracy?" Jan. 19; Prince Hubertus and Princess Helga Maria von Loewenstein will speak on "The Meaning of Fascism" Jan. 26, and Stanley High, editor and traveler, will discuss "The Danger Zones of the World." Feb. 2.

The forum will close Teb. 2. with

The forum will chee Fab & with a debate on the proposition, "Is America Headed Toward Socialism?" with Lewis Corey, author of "The Crisis of the Middle Class," taking the affirmative viewpoint and Herbert Agar, author of "The People's Choice" and associate editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, the negative.

Each lecture is followed by

Each lecture is followed by a general discussion period conducted by Rabbi Leon Fram, of Temple

NEW YORK, N. Y. WORLD-TELEGRAM

JAN 6 - 1937

John Erskine will open a series of free lectures and recitals sponsored by the American Academy of Arts and Letters and the National Institute of Arts and Letters, in the Academy auditorium, 632 W. 156th St., tonight at 8:30. He will lecture

TOLEDO, O. BLADE

JAN 2-1937

St., tonight at 8:30. He will lecture on "The Human Grammar of Good Writing." Tickets may be obtained by applying to the committee of arrangements, 633 W. 155th St.
Fadiman will address w's class in writing the article tonight at the Sq. Center of New York His subject will be the Magazine Book Relegar Johnson is night on Mollere, at the for Social Research, 63 . Abraham Goldhor of "Housing Manlare" (NUL)

John Erskin: asks: "Why be pelite to women?" Maybe because Sir Walter Raleigh started it.

Started it.

Started it.

Dear Mr. Snooper:

I have been puzzled for several weeks.
And when a girl is puzzled it's something, I can tell you. Finally I solved my dilemma by the enclosed riddle which I humbly ask you to gaze upon.

RIDDLE

If a Baltimore girl could make
Edward VIII quit a-Kingin' it—
Could a Baltimore man make

Rosa Ponselle quit a-singin' it?
Answer: No; because the Female of the Species is more deadly than the Male. (With apologies to Rudyard Kipling.)
Sincerely,

Sand

Although I assure you I was at home, fast asleep, on the night Josef and Rosina Lhevinne entertained at the Beethoven Association for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Casadesus, I have been presented with the reliable information that "Damon" Triggs and "Pythias" Brodsky (properly christened once upon a time Harold and Vera) were the dashing couple of the affair.

First they rushed to the party from their couple of the affair.

First they rushed to the party from their nationwide two-piano broadcast, played the Haydn-Brahms variations in what my correspondent describes as "sheer mastery—extraordinary—phenomenal—glorious" (I do wish my vocabulary contained such adjectives), skipped full-tilt down the marble staircase to return to the radio studio for a

NEW YORK, N. Y. DAILY NEWS JAN 8 - 1937

Belief in V

teature

ERFECT

RAT

midnight broadcast, and then ran back breathlessly to the party to regale the re-luctantly departing guests with a pot-pourri

breathlessly to the party to regale the reluctantly departing guests with a pot-pourri of pianism.

Vera and Harold, so I understand, were not the only music makers, for the Brahms G minor quartet was "exquisitely" performed by Isabelle Vengerova, pianist; Daniel Karpilovski, violinist; Lillian Fuchs, viola; and Felix Salmond, cellist.

Of the people assembled to salaami at the honored French musicians' feet, my deputy only remembered seeing the following: Sascha Gorodnitzki, Pierre Luboshutz, James Friskin, Rae Robertson and Ethel Bartlett, Vera and Maurice Aronson, Albert von Doenhoff, Nadia Reisenberg, Sue Prosser, John Erskine, Homer Samuels, Sigismond Stojowski, Prince and Princess Erisoff, Mrs. Frederick Steinway, Erno and Mrs. Rapee, Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, Mrs. Morris Loeb, Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Stillman Kelley, Arthur Hartmann, Leonard Liebling, Ruth Draper, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schuster, Dr. and Mrs. Lieb, Reginald Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. Von Riper, Helen Worden, Samuel Pisa, Henriette Weber, Lucien Wulsin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Campbell Phillips, Mrs. Hylan, Cyrena Van Gordon, Florence Easton, Ernesto Berúmen, James Levey, Vera Fonaroff, Maria Kurenko, Mrs. Richard Stokes and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Robinson.

If you ask me, Rosina will be just fright-

If you ask me, Rosina will be just fright-fully annoyed because the roster isn't com-plete. Where, for instance, was Harold Bauer?

DETROIT, MICH. NEWS

JAN 4-1937

Erskine to Speak at Temple Forum

John Erskine, novelist, will speak at 3:30 p. m. Tuesday in the first of the 1937 Temple Forum series of

of the 1937 Temple Forum series of lectures and debates at Temple

Beth El, Woodward and Gladstone avenues. His topic is "American Literature
and Its Relation
to American Morals."
Six meetings

als.*

Six meetings are planned in in the forum's new series. In the second program, will Irwin, magazine writer who has made a study of crime and rackets, will discuss "Why Does America Lead in Crime?" He will speak Jan, 12.

In Jater Josepher

speak Jan, 12.

In later lectures, Dr. Stanley Rypins, professor of English at Brooklyn College, will speak on "Our Public School System—Is It Adequate for Education in Democracy?" Jan, 19; Prince Hubertus and Princess Helga Maria von Loewenstein will speak on "The Meaning of Fascism" Jan, 26, and Stanley High, editor and traveler, will discuss "The Danger Zones of the World," Feb. 2.

World," Feb. 2.

The forum will choose we with a debate on the proposition, "Is America Headed Toward Socialism?" with Lewis Corey, author of "The Crisis of the Middle Class," taking the affirmative viewpoint and Herbert Agar, author of "The People's Choice" and associate editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, the negative.

Each lecture is followed by a general discussion period conducted by Rabbi Leon Fram, of Temple K, N. Y.

NEW YORK, N. Y. WORLD-TELEGRAM

JAN 6 - 1937

John Erskine will open a series of free lectures and recitals sponsored by the American Academy of Arts and Letters and the National Institute of Arts and Letters, in the Academy auditorium, 632 W. 156th St., tonight at 8:30. He will lecture

St., tonight at 8:30. He will lecture on "The Human Grammar of Good Writing." Tickets may be obtained by applying to the committee of arrangements, 633 W. 155th St.

Clifton Padiman will address Harry Shaw's class in writing the magazine article tonight at the Washington Sq. Center of New York University. His subject will be "Writing the Magazine Book Review." Edgar Johnson is speaking tonight on Moliere, at the New School for Social Research, 66 W. 12th St. Abraham Goldfield, so-author of "Housing Management: Principles and Practices." will lecture on the housing problem tonight at 8:30 at 113 W. 57th St., under the auspices of Children's Organizations, at Steinway Hall, 113 W. 58th St.

ity not want want to be given by in Febru-

e soldiers ams were museum. er, Abby,

me to one np chairs ne close of

as so great annes and responsible

the other e concert

arried out rts in Jan-Two were

Ir. Rockehe agreed ce 1920 he ary series. he March

Mackay;

bling; the enry Wal-; the late r Curtiss

ness.

oo, delight ies. That's rs of their endured in he accom-

the latest neglects to nd obstrepis own decame from ies of some ches in the he delay in h fuss and

ance propaney confine ing but the ink it ought phases. If draped with uld become

COLUMBUS, O. DISPATCH

JAN 10 1937

We're Still 'Unintelligent!'

WE should like to take issue with John Erskine, eminent author and critic who declared in a lecture in Detroit the other day that Americans as yet have no "intelligent emotional life" because they like to read stories that end happily.

There has long been a literary cult

There has long been a literary cult the hallmark of which is that no work is of any consequence unless it is sordid, ultra-realistic or, if some rays of sunshine are permitted to intrude, it ends in any orgy of woe and unhappiness. As we see it permitted to intrude, it ends in any orgy of woe and unhappiness. As we see it this is just as false as the attitude of the determinedly cheerful individuals who refuse to waste their time on anything that the determinedly cheerful individuals who refuse to waste their time on anything that isn't all sweetness and light.

Life isn't all one long sweet song; neither is it all disappointment, unfulfillment and disillusion. It is true that perhaps a preponderance of the great literature of the world is based on themes which emphasize suffering and tribulation. The greatest operas are tragic in theme. Novels like "Les Miserables" and "Anna Karenina" have a somber majesty which distinguishes them from others lighter in vein. But one needn't consistently revel in gloom to retain his amateur standing in the realm of "intelligent emotionalism." There is just as much inherent intelligence manifest in a chuckle at the merry imbecilities of a Wodehouse or the rich wit of a Mark Twain as in the epic tragedies of Dostoyevsky or the earthy realism of Faulkner. It is no discredit to enjoy "As You Like It" or "The Taming of the Shrew" as much as one does "Hamilet" and Shakespeare, whose name is still the mightlest of all in literature would, we believe, be the first to defend this view.

Had Mr. Erskine said "prefer" Instead of "like" there might be some validity to his argument, but when he arbitrarily rules out of "intelligent emotional life" every-of like there might be some value of the his argument, but when he arbitrarily rules out of "intelligent emotional life" everything that ends happily he is taking in a great deal too much territory.

SPRINGFIELD, OHIO NEWS

JAN 12 1937

The best place for a musician to begin is precisely where there is not too much music already. This is the advice of the versatile John Brakine, president of the Juillard School of Music, professor of English at Columbia University, a director of the Metropolitan Opera Gompany, concert pianist, and suthor of many notable books including "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," "Jack and the Beanstak" and "Solomon My Son". Erskine will discuss "The Career of Music", when speaking as a guest on the "Magazine of the Air" over WHIO Wednesday "Ma a, m.

RADIO GUIDE NEW YORK, N. Y.

JAN 16 1937

MONDAY, Jan. 11

Magazine of the Air

Magazine of the Air

CBS at 11 a.m. EST (10 CST), presents its guests as follows: Monday, Gretta Palmer, newspaperwoman, and Mrs. Harrison Eustis, founder and head of the "Seeing Eye," an organization which trains and provides dogs for the use of the blind. Wednesday, John Erskine, author of "Helen of Troy." Friday, Mrs. Siegfried Lindstrom, world traveler, and Sidonie Gruenberg, head of the Child Study Association of America.

Jewish Women's Causal Chick Webb's hand.

of Jewish Women will bring outstanding leaders in various fields to the mike over NBC at 4:30 p.m. EST (3:30 CST). Pickups from Chicago, San Fr a n c is c o, Paris, Stockholm, Prague, Geneva, London and Canada will be covered during this unique broadcast.

Richard Crooks Returns

Richard Crooks Returns
Richard Crooks, popular tenor star of the Firestone Concerts, returns to his spot on this program over NBC at 8:30 p.m.
EST (7:30 CST).

Colbert and MacMurray

Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurray will star in a radio version of "The Gilded Lijy" on the Lux Radio Theater, CBS at 9 p.m. EST (8 CST).

Dick Himber's Guests

Madge Williams, popular scagstress, and again Alec Templeton, blind pianist, will be the guest treats of Richard Himber's Champions, NBC at 9:30 p.m. EST (8:30 CST).

of the Child Study Asso-ciation of America.

Jewish Women's Council
The National Council Society" will begin a ser-

DETROIT, MICH. FREE PRESS

JAN 6-1937

NEW YORK, N. Y. CHURCHMAN JAN 1 - 1937

John Erskine on the Bible

Happy Ending
Irks Erskine

He Says Americans
Don't Want Truth

"Americans do not want their literature to tell the truth but merely want their prejudices remiforced," John Brakine, Columbia University professor and novelational University professor and novelation of the St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral University professor and novelation of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently porters and novelation of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently porters and movelation of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the Cathedral function of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the first of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the first of St. John, Wilmington. Dean cently by Dr. Erskine at the first of St. John, Wilmington. Dean ce

DETROIT, MICH. FREE PRESS

JAN 7 - 1937

A Critic of Pollyanna

OHN ERSKINE, author, critic and coll professor, who lectured Tuesday evening Detroit, thinks that Americans have not cultivated "intelligent emotional life" becathey still like to write and read stories whend happily.

they still like to write and read apply.

We don't know that Americans are the opeople in the world who like happy endito the stories with which they beguile as

And we question if the preference for s books is positive proof of emotional

Are children who revel in gruesome ta as many of them do, any more mature e tionally than those who fall in love with Po

The primary purpose of story writing reading is entertainment.

When we read a scientific work we expect the story with the story we have the story with the story we have the story with the story with the facts, cold and hard as they may be, who wants to sit down in an easy chair, a a hard day's work, and harrow his ner with a book which leaves him in a nightma

And can we be so sure, as the intimate terpreter of "Galahad" and "The Private I of Helen of Troy" seems to be, that all sto do not end happily in this best of all poss worlds?

We may not see it at the moment, with mind's eye blinded by the immediate pre-to the cosmic happiness which may flow fe-events which we misunderstand, but we or to be a little careful in exalting the bea of sadistic literature.

We bump up against enough that is br and ugly in real life without going home reading about it in books that should cust our nerves against too stark a reality.

Southern Radio News BIRMINGHAM, ALA

IAN 9 - 1937

WEDNESDAY "PRO-LITES" For Busy Listeners

Allen Prescott, the Wife Saver, begins a new series on CBS-KMOX Wed. and Fri., at 8:30

John Erskine, professor-music-ian-author, who is sometimes call-ed "a high brow whom low brows like" will be guest of the CBS Air Magazine Wed. at 10 a.m.

Kathryn Cravens will tell the story of "Picture-carrying Pig-eons" in New York on "Thru a Woman's Eyes" on CBS Wed. at

The salute founder plastics cott me gram to mornin start to Haring NBC H Lillie worth Wallens Tonic lect 19.

WABC, Lys, Pa Meredit fessiona Kinley, o'clock) talks in magazir WJZ, broadca concert tra unde

COMMERCIAL Memphie Ve

1AN 1 0 1937

BROOKLYN, N. Y. EAGLE

JAN 1 0 1937

of Helen of Troy" seems to be, that all stories do not end happily in this best of all possible worlds?

We may not see it at the moment, with our mind's eye blinded by the immediate present to the cosmic happiness which may flow from the cosmic happiness which may flow from the past summer made exercise which we misunderstand, but we ought to be a little careful in exalting the healty reporter for the "More" of the "M to be a little careful in exalting the beauty eporter for the "March of of sadistic literature.

sadistic literature.

We bump up against enough that is brutal others to Appear and ugly in real life without going home and reading about it in books that should cushion appear at the Institute in our nerves against too stark a reality.

Others to Appear a the Institute in our nerves against too stark a reality.

Glenn L. Morris, electrician, scientist and lecturer, of Chicago, Tuesday night, Jan. 19. "Some Timely Scientific Discoveries

Southern Radio News BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

14N 9 - 1937

WEDNESDAY "PRO-LITES" For Busy Listeners

Allen Prescott, the Wife Saver, begins a new series on CBS-KMOX Wed. and Fri., at 8:30

John Erskine, professor-music-ian-author, who is sometimes call-ed "a high brow whom low brows like" will be guest of the CBS Air Magazine Wed. at 10 a.m.

Kathryn Cravens will tell the story of "Picture-carrying Pig-eons" in New York on "Thru a Woman's Eyes" on CBS Wed, at

Daniel Boone resists the attack of the Spanish troops on the CBS "Wilderness Road" on Wed. at 4:45 p.m.

NEW YORK, N. Y. AMERICAN

JAN 13 1937

The Cavalcade cast is to salute John Wesley Hyatt who founded the roller bearings and plastics industries, Allen Prescott moves his Wife Saver program to Columbia at 9:30 this morning, the Gang Busters start their second year, Bob Haring assumes command of the NBC Hit Paradfe, and Beatrice Lillie will be in.

Others you'll probably like: Wallenstein, the WOR 8:30 Tonic Time, the Blue Flames

WABC, 5:30), Popeye, Gogo De
Lys, Patti Chapin, Wayne King,
Meredith Willson, Niblo's professional parade, Barry McKinley, Lee Howard (WJZ, 5 o'clock), and John Erskine, who talks in the Columbia morning
magazine.

W.Z. at 2:30 this oftensor

WJZ, at 2:30 this afternoon, broadcasts a special children's concert by the Cleveland orches-tra under Rudolph Ringwall.

A Critic of Pollyanna

JOHN ERSKINE, author, critic and college To professor, who lectured Tuesday evening in Detroit, thinks that Americans have not yet cultivated "intelligent emotional life" because they still like to write and read stories which end happily.

We don't know that Americans are the only people in the world who like happy endings to the stories with which they beguile away their lesiure moments.

And we question if the preference for such a books is positive proof of emotional immaturity.

Are children who revel in gruesome tales, as many of them do, any more mature emotionally than those who fall in love with Pollysanna?

The primary purpose of story writing and reading is entertainment.

When we read a scientific work we expect the facts, cold and hard as they may be, but who wants to sit down in an easy chair, after a hard day's work, and harrow his nerves with a book which leaves him in a nightmare? And can we be so sure, as the intimate in terpreter of "Galahad" and "The Private Life a hard day's work, and harrow his nerves with and one with polly and hard as they may be, but who wants to sit down in an easy chair, after a hard day's work, and harrow his nerves with a book which leaves him in a nightmare?

And can we be so sure, as the intimate in terpreter of "Galahad" and "The Private Life a hard day's work, and harrow his nerves of the first private of the decided of Goodewyn Institute that who illustrated any films of Mr. Bryan's printing and reading is entertainment.

When we read a scientific work we expect the facts, cold and hard as they may be, but who wants to sit down in an easy chair, after a hard day's work, and harrow his nerves of Mr. Bryan's printing and provided over country with a may be a support to the fact of the private of the private of the private of the control of the private of the private of the private of the maturity.

When we read a scientific work we expect the facts, cold and hard as they may be, but who wants to sit down in an easy chair, after a hard day's

MUSICAL COURIER NEW YORK, N. Y.

JAN 16 1937

David Mannes Honored at First of Museum Concerts

Museum Concerts

David Mannes, who two decades ago organized the orchestra which he conducts each year for a series of eight free concerts at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York, was honored by a group of prominent citizens at the first concert at his twentieth year at the museum on January 9.

The committee was headed by Mayor Fiorella H. LaGuardia, honorary chairman. Olga Samaroff Stokowski and Richard Welling, civic leader and secretary of the Philing, civic leader and secretary of the Philings.

ling, civic leader and secretary of the Philharmonic-Symphony Society, were co-chairmen. The committee presented Mr. Mannes with an illuminated scroll signed by them, and written by John Fredie with an illuminated scroll signed by them, and written by John Erskine.

Since their inception the museum concerts have been sponsored by various wealthy philanthropists and the audience has grown attendance from 781 at the first concert to a maximum of close to 17,000. One hundred and forty-six concerts have been given uninterent years, the full attendance has in nineteen years; the full attendance has been 1,139,524.

he Bible of English and well-the Bible.

Hiram R. hary of an ture" made Cathedral con. Dean rskine said the Bible to portray ecting their ondly, their ies without anations of ecially true To illusand David to what he aterial' for g, he said, f view, he appreciated gree it deits 'marvel-, and of its stilted ab-he Greeks can match declared. r own', he erage men reader is or, Erskine writers for ire, saying has been

DETROIT, MICH. FREE PRESS

JAN 7 - 1937 Tuition - free

A Critile taught eveni JOHN FRSKI hree months a light school, W. professor, who auties instruct Detroit, thinks tounced Wednes cultivated "intell the state Board they still like to and those at end happily. The classes will he State Board they still like to and those at end happily. We don't know round school v people in the wooard. Aerodyna to the stories wi light and aviation the stories wi light and aviation the stories will have week for 10 books is positivovering the same maturity. Lesigned for the Are children vend three nigh as many of their heef twice week tionally than thought to Stone, will anna?

Star's Dea

ANGELE oner's jur Ross Alexan

a hard day's wolayer with a book which

And can we b terpreter of "Gal of Helen of Troy do not end happ worlds?

We may not s mind's eye blind to the cosmic ha events which we to be a little ca of sadistic literat

We bump up and ugly in real reading about it our nerves agains

Southern Radio News BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

'AN 9-1937

WEDNESDAY "PRO-LITES" For Busy Listeners

Allen Prescott, the Wife Saver, begins a new series on CBS-KMOX Wed. and Fri., at 8:30

John Erskine, professor-music-ian-author, who is sometimes call-ed "a high brow whom low brows like" will be guest of the CBS Air Magazine Wed. at 10 a.m.

Kathryn Cravens will tell the story of "Picture-carrying Pig-eons" in New York on "Thru a Woman's Eyes" on CBS Wed. at

Daniel Boone resists the attack of the Spanish troops on the CBS "Wilderness Road" on Wed. at 4:45 p.m., 3

COMMERCIAL memphie dens 10N 1 0 1937

BROOKLYN, N. Y. EAGLE

JAN 1 0 1937

N. Y. Smith College Club

GOODWYN ECTURER TO SPEAK ON RUSSIA

Julian Bryan To Open Second Half of Series

WILL MAKE TWO TALKS

Others Talk on Various Subjects Will Be Given Throughout Remainder of Winter and Into Spring

The second half of the year's lec-The second half of the year's lecture schedule of Goodwyn Institute begins this week with two illustrated lectures by Julian Bryan, explorer and artist of New York.

On Thursday night Mr. Bryan will lecture on "Soviet Russia Today," and on Friday night on "Japan and Manchukuo."

Both lectures will be illustrated with many films of Mr. Bryan's "History in the Making" motion pictures.

Traveled Over Country

Traveled Over Country

Mr. Bryan is especially noted for his motion pictures showing the actual lives and industries of the peoples he visits. During the past five years he has traveled more than 206,000 miles in Soviet Russia, and during the past summer made extensive explorations with his cameras in Manchukuo and Japan as a roving reporter for the "March of Time."

His lectures are free to the public.

Others to Appear
Twelve other prominent lecturers are to appear at the Institute in January, February and March, as follows:
[Glenn L. Morti.

Glenn L. Morris, electrician, scientist and lecturer, of Chicago, Tuesday night, Jan. 12. "Some Timely Scientific Discoveries

NEW YORK, N. Y. AMERICAN

JAN 13 1937

The Cavalcade cast is to salute John Wesley Hyatt who founded the roller bearings and plastics industries, Allen Prescott moves his Wife Saver program to Columbia at 9:30 his morning, the Gang Busters start their second year, Bob Haring assumes command of the NBC Hit Paradfe, and Beatrice Lillie will be in.

Others you'll probably like: Wallenstein, the WOR 8:30 Tonic Time, the Blue Flames

WABC, 5:30), Popeye, Gogo De
Lys, Patti Chapin, Wayne King,
Meredith Willson, Niblo's professional parade, Barry McKinley, Lee Howard (WJZ, 5 o'clock), and John Erskine, who talks in the Columbia morning
magazine.

WJZ, at 2:30 this afternoon broadcasts a special children's concert by the Cleveland orches-tra under Rudolph Ringwall.

and Demonstrations." (With platform demonstrations). (With platform demonstrations, tamous mentalist and terror of Chicago. Theoday night, 18-20. ("Some Demonstrations in Mental Concentrations, and the committee for a specific management of the scholarship fund the scholarship f

MUSICAL COURIER NEW YORK, N. Y.

JAN 16 1937

David Mannes Honored at First of Museum Concerts

David Mannes, who two decades ago or-ganized the orchestra which he conducts each year for a series of eight free concerts each year for a series of eight free concerts at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York, was honored by a group of prominent citizens at the first concert at his twentieth year at the museum on January 9. The committee was headed by Mayor Fiorella H. LaGuardia, honorary chairman. Olga Samaroff Stokowski and Richard Well-ing, civic leader and secretary fath. Wil-

ing, civic leader and secretary of the Philharmonic-Symphony Society, were co-chairmen. The committee presented Mr. Mannes with an illuminated scroll signed by them, with an illuminated scroll signed by them, and written by John Erskine.

Since their inception the museum concerts have been sponsored by various wealthy philanthropists and the audience has grown in attendance from 781 at the first concert to a maximum of close to 17,000. One hundred and forty-six concerts have been given in ninetern years; the full attendance has in nineteen years; the full attendance has been 1,139,524.

he Bible of English and well-the Bible.

Hiram R. hary of an ture" made Cathedral con. Dean

rskine said

the Bible to portray ecting their ondly, their ies without anations of ecially true . To illusand David to what he ig, he said, f view, he appreciated gree it deits 'maryelstilted abthe Greeks can match e declared. ir own', he verage men e reader is Or. Erskine writers for ure, saying has been

DETROIT, MICH. FREE PRESS

JAN 7 - 1937

A Critic of Pollyanna

TOHN ERSKINE, author, critic and co professor, who lectured Tuesday evenil Detroit, thinks that Americans have not cultivated "intelligent emotional life" bec they still like to write and read stories w end happily.

books is positive proof of emotional in

Are children who revel in gruesome tale as many of them do, any more mature emetionally than those who fall in love with Polly

The primary purpose of story writing and reading is entertainment.

When we read a scientific work we expect the facts, cold and hard as they may be, but who wants to sit down in an easy chair, after a hard day's work, and harrow his nerves with a book which leaves him in a nightmare?

And can we be so sure, as the intimate in-terpreter of "Galahad" and "The Private Life of Helen of Troy" seems to be, that all stories do not end happily in this best of all possible

of Helen of Troy" seems to be, that all stories do not end happily in this best of all possible worlds?

We may not see it at the moment, with our mind's eye blinded by the immediate present to the cosmic happiness which may flow from events which we misunderstand, but we ought to be a little careful in exalting the beauty of sadistic literature.

We bump up against enough that is brutal Others to Appear and ugly in real life without going home and reading about it in books that should cushion appear at the Institute in our nerves against too stark a reality.

Southern Radio News BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

IAN 9-1937

WEDNESDAY "PRO-LITES" For Busy Listeners

Allen Prescott, the Wife Saver, begins a new series on CBS-KMOX Wed. and Fri., at 8:30

John Erskine, professor-music-ian-author, who is sometimes call-ed "a high brow whom low brows like" will be guest of the CBS Air Magazine Wed. at 10 a.m.

Kathryn Cravens will tell the story of "Picture-carrying Pig-eons" in New York on "Thru a Woman's Eyes" on CBS Wed. at

Daniel Boone resists the attack of the Spanish troops on the CBS "Wilderness Road" on Wed. at 4:45 p.m.

COMMERCIAL memphie de 1AN 1 0 1937

Huck Towe Regular 15c Grai in the Making" motion

raveled Over Country

tures are free to the public

Glenn L. Morris, electrician, scientist and lecturer, of Chicago, Tuesday night, Jan. 19. "Some Timely Scientific Discoveries

NEW YORK, N. Y. AMERICAN

JAN 13 1937

The Cavalcade cast is to salute John Wesley Hyatt who founded the roller bearings and plastics industries, Allen Prescott moves his Wife Saver program to Columbia at 9:30 this morning, the Gang Busters start their second year, Bob Haring assumes command of the NBC Hit Paradfe, and Beatrice Lillie will be in.

Others you'll probably like: Wallenstein, the WOR 8:30 Tonic Time, the Blue Flames

WABC, 5:30), Popeye, Gogo De Lys, Patti Chapin, Wayne King, Meredith Willson, Niblo's professional parade, Barry Mc-Kinley, Lee Howard (WJZ, 5 o'clock), and John Erskine, who talks in the Columbia morning magazine.

WJZ, at 2:30 this afternoon broadcasts a special children's concert by the Cleveland orches-tra under Rudolph Ringwall.

BROOKLYN, N. Y. EAGLE

JAN 1 0 1937

N. Y. Smith College Club

N. Y. Smith College Club

Mrs. Edwin P. Maynard Jr., of 200 Hicks St., is a member of the opera benefit committee for a special matinee performance of "Die Meistersinger" with Lotte Lehmann at the Metropolitan Opera House on Feb. 12 to aid the scholarship fund of New York Sr ith College Club. Mrs. Maynard was president of the New York Smith Club in 1932-33. Proceeds will be used to enable high school girls from Greater New York to attend Smith College.

Mrs. Ordway Tead of Forest Hills is chairman of the opera benefit committee. Mrs. Rudolph Zinsser of Great Neck, is chairman for Long Island. Serving on the debutante committee of undergraduates are miss Elizabeth Carroll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis S. Carroll of 187 Willow St.; Miss Jean Roig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Roig of Great Neck, and Miss Polly K. Zinsser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Roig of Great Neck, and Miss Polly K. William H. Zinsser of Great Neck. Honorary patrons and patronesses for the opera benefit are Mrs. Henry M. Alexander, Miss Ada Comstock, Miss Anna A. Cutler, Dr. John Erskine, Dean Virginia Gildersleeve, Madame Louise Homer, Miss Mary Augusta Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moses, Dr. and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Dr. Florence R. Sabin, Miss Grace Spofford and Professor and Mrs. Roy D. Welch.

MUSICAL COURIER

NEW YORK, N. Y.

JAN 16 1937

David Mannes Honored at First of Museum Concerts

David Mannes, who two decades ago organized the orchestra which he conducts each year for a series of eight free concerts at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York, was honored by a group of prominent citizens at the first concert at his twentieth year at the museum on January 9.

The committee was beaded by Mayor.

The committee was headed by Mayor Fiorella H. LaGuardia, honorary chairman. Olga Samaroff Stokowski and Richard Welling, civic leader and secretary of the Philharmonic-Symphony Society, were co-chairmen. The committee presented Mr. Mannes with an illuminated scroll signed by them, and written by John Perkins and written by John Erskine.

Since their inception the museum concerts have been sponsored by various wealthy philanthropists and the audience has grown in attendance from 781 at the first concert to a maximum of close to 17,000. One hundred and force in the concert of the concert to a maximum of close to 17,000. dred and forty-six concerts have been given in nineteen years; the full attendance has been 1,139,524.

e Bible of English and well-Hiram R.

ary of an cure" made Cathedral on. Dean skine said the Bible o portray ecting their endly, their es without ecially true To illus-d from the To illusand David aterial' for g, he said, f view, he appreciated gree it de-its 'maryel-, and of its stilted abhe Greeks can match declared.

rerage men reader is Or. Erskine writers for ure, saying has been

PASSAIC, N. J. HERALD-NEWS

JAN 121937

Concord of Sweet Sounds

CARLYLE SAYS: "Music is the kind CARLYLE SAYS: "Music is the kind of inarticulate unfathomable speech which leads us to the edge of the infinite and lets us for a moment gaze into it." Another great writer has said, "Music is the poetry of the soul." A great statesman stated that music is the harmonious voice of creating; an echo of the invincible world; one note of the divine concord which the entire universe is destined one day to sound. day to sound.

day to sound.

One of the greatest blessings is the power to appreciate good music. Unfortunately for most of us, this faculty must be developed. The constant hearing of great music develops this power, but the best way to acquire true appreciation of musical masterpieces comes from the actual production of music. For this reason learning to sing or learning to play musical instruments is the quickest and surest means to develop the critical faculty.

The importance of musical education is The importance of musical education is being more and more realized. Recently Dr. John Erskine, head of the Julliard Foundation, said: "In the future a vast proportion of the American people will be as skilled in the art of music as they now are in reading and writing." We are prone to consider the study of music as a luxury. We should not do so. The study of music performs as important an educational function as that of any other branch of knowledge, and probably holds within it more assurance of pleasure and happiness than any other branch of happiness than any other branch of knowledge.

Some few there are whose inner souls seem deaf and dumb to music, and sweet Shakespeare referred not to them when he made Lorenzo say to his beloved Jessica in the ever-lovely first scene of the fifth act of "The Merchant of Venice"—itself a perfect essay on musical appreciation and understanding—there's

"_____ nought so stockish, hard, and full of rage.
But music for the time doth change his nature.
The man that hath no music in himself.
Nor is not mov'd with concord of sweet sounds, ls fit for treasons, stratagems, and

Is fit for treatons, atracagems, enu-spoils;
The motions of his spirit are dull as night.
And his affections dark as Erebus;
Let no such man be trusted."

Therefore let those who pity them-selves as deaf and dumb to what is called the best in music make sure that this be really true, that appreciation lies not latent within them, waiting to be called forth by merely letting music creep in

One cannot learn anything without listening. No art gives more choice rewards than music to them who will but listen!

TOLEDO, O. BLADE

JAN 8- 1937

John Erskine

Mentor Suggests Local Concert as Best Beginning

Mexico Offers to Bargain Over Excess Power in Border Super Stations Now Annoying U. S. Listeners.

BY RICHARD PHEATT

FOR no other man in the United States in private life have we a more profound respect than John Erskine, great teacher, author, poet and musician, and the holder of almost as many doctor's degrees as the renowned Nicholas Murray teacher, author, poet and musician, and the holder of almost as many doctor's degrees as the renowned Nicholas Murray Butler.

John Erskine, as president of the Juilliard School of Music and director and chairman of the management committee of the Metropolitan Opera Company, many times indirectly has brought his influence to bear on the radio programs you hear. Several times he has served as master of ceremonies of the Metropolitan auditions broadcast Sunday afternoon. You will hear him again day after tomorrow. In just a few of his paragraphs which have come to this desk, there is enough sage advice to change the destiny of music in this country, if it were heeded. Dr. Erskine is to talk on "The Career of Music".

during the Magazine of the Air next Wednesday at 11 a. m. He is well qualified, for he has appeared twice as concert pianist with both the Detroit and Minneapolis Symphony orchestras.

"Everywhere in the United States are young people who wish to be musicians but who do not know how to get started on their careers," declares this man. "They probably have had good training in their home towns and feel they are ready to sing or play for some public, but they can't find the public. So they go to the big cities and try to take by storm the already overtaxed audiences in these places.

"If you ask them why they don't stay home, they usually reply that in their home towns there is no social life. II were a young musician in a town of any size. If dorm a partnership with another musician, combining the piano with the voice or with the violin, and I'd offer a series of programs of interesting music, selling tickets for 50 cents.

"If I could, I'd borrow the room to give the concert in, and I shouldn't be disappointed if only 20 people came. If the performances are worth listening to, that they cannot start at the top.

"Young musicians must realize, as young writers do, that they cannot start at the top."

They must first the performances are worth listening to, that they cannot start at the top.

They must

"Young musicians must realize, as young writers do, that they cannot start at the top. They must first get an audience, no matter how small, and the best place to do this is at home. I think there is a vast and un-structing in English.

For those who were as enchanted as your reporter with "Helen of Troy," "Galahad," "Adam and Eve," and "Uncle Sam in the Eyes of His Family," it is interesting to note also that Dr. Erskine is chairman of the Vestryman Corporation of New York's Trinity church, He is 58,

TELEGRAM

World of Music

his ideal of providing free music for the masses.

For 19 years he has given yearly eight free concerts in that art holy of holies, the Metropolitian Museum of Art. Saturday night he conducted the first concert of his 20th year there, with a minor celebration.

Mayor F. H. LaGuardia was honorary chairman of a committee which presented him a scroll written by John Erskine.

When David Mannes raises his beton over his symphony group in the north balcony, directly over the large entrance hall. most of the audience—they have packed as many as 17,000 in of a night to hear the program—cannot see the orchestra.

There are only 2,300 chairs. The many as 17,000 in of a night to hear the program—cannot see the orchestra. There are only 2,300 chairs. The cast of the audience finds seats on stairs, on the floor. People start coming at four in the atternoon, bringing suppers with them, wrapped in newspapers. They sit through the long program, in uncomfortable postures—but been given. To them have come 1,139,524 persons.

MANNES gave his first free contact have a music act the museum in February, 1918. John D. Rockefeller Jr., came to one of them, with his daughter Abby. They sat on two camp chairs Rockefeller carried with him.

At the concert's close he sought him.

At the concert's close he sough out Mannes and told him he would guerantee four concerts a season it he other four could be assured.

MINNEAPOLIS. MINN. MORNING TRIBUNE

JAN 10 1937

Erskine to Be Guest Of 'Magazine of Air'

John Erskine, professor-musiciar will be the guest of the Magazine of the Air over WCCO-Magazine of the Air over WCCO-CBS at 10 a. m. Wednesday. The author of "The Private Life of Helen of Troy" has chosen "Music" as the subject of his talk. Erskine is president of the Juilliard School of Music and has appeared as a con-cert pianist with the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra. Reed Ken-nedy bartione, and B. A. Roife's or-chestra will provide the musical features of the program.

Philip

DUT

World of Music

By John Selby

Associated Press Music Critic

NEW YORK—(AP)—Poverty and, Ever since there have been four nusic—spurred David Mannes in his ideal of providing free music for the masses.

For 19 years he has given yearly sponsors

ing

er in fe have , great Murray

hool of nt com-

mes indio pro-

Sunday norrow to this tiny of ne is to

in

sam it is Dr. Ves-

for the masses.

For 19 years he has given yearly eight free concerts in that art holy of holies, the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Saturday night he conducted the first concert of his 20th year there, with a minor celebration.

Mayor F. H. LaGuardia was honorary chairman of a committee which presented him a scroll written by John. Erskine.

When David Mannes raises his betton over his symphony group in the north balcony, directly over the large entrance hall, most of the audience—they have packed as many as 17,000 in of a night to hear the program—cannot see the orchestra.

There are only 2,300 chairs. The rest of the audience of the audience of the audience of the sudience of the sudience of the sudience of the sudience of the condesser.

rechestra.

There are only 2,300 chairs. The rest of the audience finds seats on stairs, on the bases of statuary, on the floor.

People start coming at four in the afternoon, bringing suppers with them, wrapped in newspapers. They sit through the long program, in uncomfortable postures—but cameras have eaught rapt expressions on the faces of listeners.

In 19 years 146 concerts have been given. To them have come 1,139,524 persons.

MANNES gave his first free con-

Mannes gave his first free concert for soldiers and sailors at the museum in February, 1918. John D. Rockefeller Jr., came to one of them, with his daughter Abby. They sat on two camp chairs Rockefeller carried with him.

At the concert's close he sought out Mannes and told him he would guerantee four concerts a season if the other four could be assured.

MINNEAPOLIS. MINN. MORNING TRIBUNE

JAN 10 1937

Erskine to Be Guest Of 'Magazine of Air'

John Erskine, professor-musicianwill be the guest of the author. Magazine of the Air over WCCO-CBS at 10 a. m. Wednesday. The author of "The Private Life of Helen of Troy" has chosen "Music" as the subject of his talk. Erskine is president of the Juilliard School of Music and has appeared as a conof Music and has appeared as it of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra. Reed Kennedy, baritone, and B. A. Rolfe's orchestra will provide the musical features of the program.

Opening of Legislature to Be Aired by WIBA

By WILLIAM L. DOUDNA

[State Journal Radio Editor]

Istate Journal Radio Editor!

A complete broadcast of the opening of Wisconsin's 1937 legislature has been scheduled for WIBA on Wednesday, starting at noon.

Microphone lines have been installed in the senate and assembly chambers, and the organization of both houses will go on the air.

The station will carry a daily summary of legislative developments during the session, as well as special broadcasts when important topics arise.

6:45 p. m.—Juvenile Stars (WIBA) hew feature. 7 p. m.—Leo Reisman Orchestra (WIBA) WMAQD: with the Swing 14. Giersdrof sisters, Rhythm Ras-cals, story of operation in tenement fire....Ted Hammerstein (WBBM) presents Leonore Ulric, Olga Bacla-nova.

8 p. m. — Ben Bernie (WIBA, WLS); and Gregory Ratoff, comedian,

3:30 p. m.—Fred Astaire (WIBA, WMAQ): revives scenes from "The Band Wagon". . Husbands and Wives (WENR): misunderstood spouses have their say . . Jack Oakie's College (WBBM): with Frank Fay, Nick Foran, Princeton planists

WEDNESDAYTIME
10 a, m.—Magazine of the Air
(WBBM): John Erskine on "The Career of Music."

JOHN ERSKINE

NEW ORLEANS, LA. TIMES-PICAYUNE

JAN 101937

DUTCH CELLIST

Philipp Abbas to Play at

vatory of Music in Amsterdam, and at 17 he was first cellist in the or-chestra in Aix-la-Chapelle, Germany.

chestra in Aix-la-Chapelle, Germany.

Then he went to London with the Queen's Hall Orchestra and gave his first recital. Later he appeared in Brighton. Birmingham, Biarritz, Nice, Paris, Bordeaux, and Toulouse. When he came to the United States in 1914, he was engaged for the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra by Leopold Stokowsky, and later went to Detroit as first cellist in the symphony orchestra there.

During the seven years that he

Philipp Abbas, Dutch cellist who has been visiting in New Orleans for the past several weeks, will be presented in concert on Saturday, January 23, in Marquette auditorium, Loyola university, under the auspices of the Loyola college of music, according to announcement Saturday by Dr. Ernest E. Schuyten, dean.

Mr. Abbas' home is in Detroit. At the age of 7 he was playing in a string quartet in Holland with his brothers; at 14 he was awarded the queen's scholarship to the Conser
Will tell the symphony orchestra there.

During the seven years that he held the position with the Detroit orchestra, he appeared with John Erskine, the late Madame Schumann-Heink, Walter Damrosch, Gladys Synthout, Deems Taylor, Harold Bauer and Rudolph Ganz.

In his concert here, Mr. Abbas home is in Detroit. At the age of 7 he was playing in a string quartet in Holland with his brothers; at 14 he was awarded the queen's scholarship to the Conser
Will tell the symphony orchestra there.

During the seven years that he held the position with the Detroit orchestra, he appeared with John Erskine Held the position with the Detroit orchestra, he appeared with John Erskine, Walter Damrosch, Gladys Broadcasung Com-Brakine Helnk, Wa

JAN 10 1937

Daniel E. Fomeroy

To Wed New Yorl

To Wed New Yorl

Troy—Announcement has received by relatives here of the gagement of Mrs. Trevania Smith of New York to Dann Pomeroy, son of the late Mr Mrs. N. M. Pomeroy of Troy, of Englewood, N. J.

Mr. Pomeroy, a leader in R. dican politics, was for many connected with the Bankers' Company and was a big game j er, contributing many fine a fine the Visiting Nurse in 1 which was given to Troy by F. H. McKnight in memory of his Henrietta Pomeroy McKnight, for of Mr. Pomeroy.

Blair-Smith, formerly Blair-Smith, formerly is the widow of the er of the Amer of the Amer

ing er ih fe have , great almost Murray chool of nt commes in-aster of Sunday norrow tiny of ne is to

in

Canton Hose Co. Names Its Officers

Canton, Pa.—The Innes Hose has elected officers as follo al. President, E. H. Anderson; v. president, Merton Thomas; treas er. W. H. Collins; secretary, E. Preston; trustees, C. A. Wait of clayton Schanbacher, Floyd Tayl of fire chief, John Keltz; assistant in the chief, John Keltz

Mannes gave his first free concert for soldiers and sailors at the museum in February, 1918. John D. Rockefeller Jr., came to one of them, with his daughter Abby. They sat on two camp chairs Rockefeller carried with

At the concert's close he sought out Mannes and told him he would guerantee four concerts a season if the other four could be assured.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. MORNING TRIBUNE

JAN 10 1937

Erskine to Be Guest Of 'Magazine of Air'

John Erskine, professor-musicianauthor, will be the guest of the Magazine of the Air over WCCO-CBS at 10 a. m. Wednesday. The author of "The Private Life of Helen of Troy" has chosen "Music" as the subject of his talk. Erskine is president of the Juilliard School of Music and has appeared as a conof Music and has appeared as a con-cert pianist with the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra. Reed Ken-nedy, baritone, and B. A. Rolfe's or-chestra will provide the musical features of the program.

MADISON, WIS. STATE JOURNAL

Radio:

Opening of Legislature to Be Aired by WIBA

By WILLIAM L. DOUDNA

By WILLIAM L. DOUDNA
[State Journal Radio Editor]
A complete broadcast of the opening of Wisconsin's 1937 legislature has been scheduled for WIBA on Wednesday, starting at noon.
Microphone lines have been installed in the senate and assembly chambers, and the organization of both houses will go on the air.
The station will carry a daily summary of legislative developments during the session, as well as special broadcasts when important topics arise.

6:45 p. m.-Juvenile Stars (WIBA)

new feature.

7 p. m.—Leo Reisman Orchestra (WIBA, WMAQ): with the Swing 14. Giersdrof sisters, Rhythm Rascals, story of operation in tenement lire.... Ted Hammerstein (WBBM) presents Leonore Ulric, Olga Baclanava.

8 p. m. — Ben Bernie (WIBA, WLS); and Gregory Ratoff, comedian.

8:30 p. m.—Fred Astaire (WIBA, WMAQ): revives scenes from "The Band Wagon" . . . Husbands and Wives (WENR): misunderstood spouses have their say . . Jack Oakie's College (WBBM): with Frank Fay, Nick Foran, Princeton mianistes.

WEDNESDAYTIME
10 a. m.—Magazine of the Air
(WBBM): John Erskine on "The Career of Music."

JOHN ERSKINE

NEW ORLEANS, LA. TIMES-PICAYUNE

JAN 101937

DUTCH CELLIST TO GIVE CONCERT

Philipp Abbas to Play at Loyola on January 23

vatory of Music in Amsterdam, and at 17 he was first cellist in the or-chestra in Aix-la-Chapelle, Germany.

Chestra in Aix-la-Chapelle, Germany.

Then he went to London with the Queen's Hall Orchestra and gave his first recital. Later he appeared in Brighton, Birmingham, Biarritz, Nice, Paris, Bordeaux, and Toulouse. When he came to the United States in 1914, he was engaged for the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra by Leopold Stokowsky, and later went to Detroit as first cellist in the symphony orchestra there.

During the seven years that he 181937

Philipp Abbas, Dutch cellist who has been visiting in New Orleans for the past several weeks, will be presented in concert on Saturday, January 23, in Marquette auditorium, Loyola university, under the auspiese of the Loyola college of music, according to announcement Saturday by Dr. Ernest E. Schuyten, dean.

Mr. Abbas' home is in Detroit. At the age of 7 he was playing in a string quartet in Holland with his brothers; at 14 he was awarded the queen's scholarship to the Conservation of the Conservati

World of Music

Associated Press Music Critic

Mayor F. H. LaGuardia was honorary chairman of a committee which presented him a scroll written by John Erskine.

When David Mannes raises his baton over his symphony group in the north balcony, directly over the large entrance hall, most of the audience—they have packed as many as 17,000 in of a night to hear the program—cannot see the orchestra. orchestra.

There are only 2,300 chairs. The rest of the audience finds seats on stairs, on the bases of statuary, on ne floor. People start coming at four in

MANNES gave his first free concert for soldiers and sailors at the museum in February, 1918. John D. Rockefeller Jr., came to one of them, with his daughter Abby. They sat on two camp chairs Rockefeller carried with

At the concert's close he sought out Mannes and told him he would guerantee four concerts a season if the other four could be assured.

Associated Press Music Critic

NEW YORK—(AP)—Poverty and hunger—starving for food and music—spurred David Mannes in his ideal of providing free music for the masses.

For 19 years he has given yearly eight free concerts in that art holy of holies, the Metropolitan to the first the masses in the masses in the masses in the first the first the masses in the first the fi

For 19 years he has given yearly sight free concerts in that art holy of holies, the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Saturday night he conducted the first concert of his 20th year there, with a minor celebration.

Mayor F. H. LaGuardia was honorary chairman of a committee which presented him a scroll written by John: Erskine.

When David Mannes raises his baton over his symphony group in batton over his symphony group in the public has the least opportunity for hearing."

More attention can't be given

More attention can't be given the moderns, he explained, be-cause the north balcony accommo-dates about 65 men and modern compositions call for a larger or-

IN HIS early youth Mannes play-ed in music halls, ice skating rinks and cheap bands to earn a bare living. Walter Damrosch gave him his first post in a symphony orchestra, as first violin, for $35 a

By WILLIAM L. DOUDNA

[State Journal Radio Editor]

A complete broadcast of the op-ening of Wisconsin's 1937 legisla-ture has been scheduled for WIBA n Wednesday, starting at noon. Microphone lines have been in-

Microphone lines have been installed in the senate and assembly chambers, and the organization of both houses will go on the air.

The station will carry a daily summary of legislative developments during the session, as well as special broadcasts when important

6:45 p. m.-Juvenile Stars (WIBA)

new feature.

7 p. m.—Leo Reisman Orchestra
(WIBA, WMAQ): with the Swing
14, Giersdrof sisters, Rhythm Rascals, story of operation in tenement fire.... Ted Hammerstein (WBBM) presents Leonore Ulric, Olga Bacla-

8 p. m. — Ben Bernie (WIBA, WLS): and Gregory Ratoff, come-

WEDNESDAYTIME
10 a. m.—Magazine of the Air
(WBBM): John Erskine on "The Career of Music."

JOHN ERSKINE

NEW ORLEANS, LA. TIMES-PICAYUNE

JAN 10 1937

DUTCH CELL

IN Extraor Her

e buying in the Way of h

anuary at a very remark an Fach is positive don't fail

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. MORNING TRIBUNE

JAN 10 1937

Erskine to Be Guest Of 'Magazine of Air'

John Erskine, professor-musicianauthor, will be the guest of the Magazine of the Air over WCCO-CBS at 10 a. m. Wednesday. The author of "The Private Life of Helen of Troy" has chosen "Music" as the subject of his talk. Erskine is president of the Juilliard School of Music and has appeared as a concert pianist with the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra. Reed Ken-nedy, baritone, and B. A. Rolfe's orchestra will provide the musical features of the program.

MARIETTA, OHIO TIMES JAN 1 8 1937

Radio Highlights

National Broadcasung Company's broadcasts in connection with the inaugural will start Monday at 4:30 p. m. over the blue network when John Erskine will tell the story of Presidential Inaugurations in a special program for school children, explaining the reason for the change of date to January 20. At 6:30 p. m. over the red network authorities from Washington D. C. will give advice to those who plan to visit Washington for the Inauguration. At 7:15 p. m. over the blue network Dorothy Thompson will tell what wives of presidents have done at inauguration time. tion time.

Networks Will Broadcast the Highlights

Of Presidential Inauguration This Week in g stummion in wanningm and the many political and social event enanced with it will be broadcast over the natural networks this tertification into the cere
this tertification in the cere
this tertification in the cere
that the company with the company the company to the cere that the company with the company the comp

MUSIC WORLD HALLS
SAM FRANKO AT 80

Reception Held for Veteran Teacher and Conductor at
the Public Library

HIS CIFTS TO ART PRAISED

Selections From the Manuscript Collection He Has Donated to the City Are Played

Sam Franko, veteran violinist, conductor and teacher, who made music history in this city with his concerts of old music more than thirty-five years ago, was honored by the trustees and administrative officers of the New York Public Library yesterday afternoon. A reception held for him in the trustees and administrative officers of the New York Public Library yesterday afternoon. A reception held for him in the trustee's rooms of the Library, Fifth Avenue and Forty-second Street, also marked Mr. Franko's eightieth birthday.

Recognition of the gift of his music library to the Public Library on his last birthday was a further purpose of the function. Frank Pulps of the Stradium of the content of the library on his last birthday was a further purpose of the function. Frank Pulps and Pulps of the Stradium of the content of the library on his last birthday was a further purpose of the function. Frank Pulps and how to the library's prized possessions, Around it the library hopes to build a collection which "before the next twenty years' may have its own building and become a center of music in New York.

Many musicians, some formerly Mr. Franko's pupils, others members of his concert orchestras, besides outstanding conductors and musicians of today, including Waiter Damrosch, Edwin Franko Gold.

JAN 8 - 1987

JERSEY CITY, N. J.

Jersey City Journal

LAST NIG

begin is precisely where there is not too much music already. This is the too much music already. This is the advice of the versatile John Erskine, president of the Juillard School of Music, professor of English at Columbia University, a director of the Metropolitan Opera Company, concert pianist and author of many notable books including versate Life of Helen of Troy," "Jack and the Beanstalk" and "Solomon My Son." Erskine will discuss "The

SAN JOSE, CALIF.
MERCURY-HERALD JAN 1 3 1937

JOHN ERSKINE.

Networks Will Broader Of Preside

Highlights of the presidential in- diffigy ruguration in washington and the schener many political and social events connected with it will be broadcast over the national networks be sent in this territory through WTCN, schedult KSTP much as possible of the more interesting portions of the ceremonies, b u t so dealer, ie.

Each netwigs 30 engineers or schedules of the networks and of parts of Was, if with small those planning the affair are so day, with sonly

NEW YORK, N. Y. TIMES

MUSIC WORLD HALLS

SAM FRANKO AT 80

Recaption Held for Veteran
Teacher and Conductor at
the Public Library

HIS GIFTS TO ART PRAISED

Selections From the Manuscript
Gollection He Has Donated
to the City Are Played

Sam Franko, veteran violinist, conductor and teacher, who made music history in this city with his concerts of old music more than thirty-five years ago, was honored by the trustees and administrative officers of the New York Public Library yesterday afternoon. A reception held for him in the trustes' rooms of the Library, Fisher work and shirty-five years ago, was honored by the trustees and administrative officers of the New York Public Library yesterday afternoon. A reception held for him in the trustees' rooms of the Library, Fisher work and shirthday.

Recognition of the gift of his music library to the Public Library on his last birthday was a further purpose of the function. Frank Polk, president of the board of trustees, said it was one of the library's prized possessions, Around it the library hopes to build a collection which "before the next twenty years" may have its own building and become a center of music in New York.

Many musicians, some formerly Mr. Franko's pupils, others members of his concert orchestras, besides outstanding conductors and musicians of today, including Walier Damrosch, Edwin Franko Gold-

DAVENPORT, IA. Democrat & Leader

JAN 8 - 1937.

Treating Women As Gentlemen

Distinguished Author Asserts It Would Teach Manners.

By VIRGINIA LEE.

HOW SHOULD men treat wom-en — their wives, sisters and sweethearts?

"Treat women like gentlemen," declares John Erskine, noted writ-er, "They have forfeited their right to chivalrous treatment," he con-

declares John Erskine, noted writer. "They have forfeited their right to chivalrous treatment," he contends.

"Women no longer ask for chivalry; they prefer equality," he states. "In the campaign for justice they have themselves become a little rude—still continuing, of course, to be feminine.

"I like the old doctrine of chivalry," continues Mr. Erskine, in a recent magazine article, "that taking off your hat to a man indicates not that he is a gentleman, but that you are. I apply this principle to the ladies. Let our manners express us, rather than any worship of them.

"I say, treat women as tho they were gentlemen. We should be politic to women, because if we don't set them an example, who will?"

It's a good idea, aitho Brother Erskine is noted for writing with his tongue in his cheek. A woman couldn't ask for more courteous treatment than one gentleman accords another. It's the condescending attitude that women are tired of. The classing us with "animals, children and feeble-minded."

Many a man who would assert with warmth that he adores his mother, wife and daughter, nevertheless rises to address a group of women. complimenting them on their "beau", and intelligence." as if the latter quality were not usual with the fair sex, but the sole attribute of men. Image a woman "rising to remark" to a group of business men, that their faces showed not only good looks, but intelligence.

All right, boys, including John Erskine, treat us as if we were gentlemen. It may teach manners to those of us who need to be so taught. And as gentlemen treat each other with distinguished courtesy (even with chivalry—Mr. Erskine take note), we would have no kick coming. It's being treated as if we were tookek coming. It's being treated as if we were tookek coming. It's being treated as if we were tooked coming. It's being treated as if we were tooked coming. It's being treated as if we were tooked coming. It's being treated as if we were tooked coming. It's being treated as if we were tooked coming. It's being treated as if we

JERSEY CITY, N. J. Jersey City Journal

JAN 8 - 1937

The best place for a musician to begin is precisely where there is not too much music already. This is the advice of the versatile John Erskine.

SAN JOSE, CALIF. MERCURY-HERALD JAN 1 3 1937

JOHN ERSKINE.

IA

eader

nen

or Aseach

tlemen." ted writ-eir right he con-for chiv-ty," he for jus-become ting, of

of chive, in a nat tak-n indi-tleman, ly this et our r than he poe don't will?"

Brother
g with woman arteous an acescende tired
nimals,
"

assert es his never-oup of m on e," as usual ole at-roman up of faces

Ξ. eat wom-ters and JAN 8 - 1937

SHREVEPORT, LA. JOURNAL

YORK, PA. GAZETTE-DAILY JAN 18 1937

LAST NIGHT

John Erskine

The best place for a musician to begin is precisely where there is not too much music already. This is the advice of the versatile John Erskine, president of the Juilliard School of Music, professor of English at Columbia University, a director of the Metropolitan Opera Company, concert pianist and author of many notable books including "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," "Jack and the Beanstalk" and "Solomon My Son." Erskine will discuss "The Career of Music," when speaking as a guest on the "Magazine of the Air," over CES network the morning of Jan. 12.

"Everywhere in the United States are young people who wish to be musicians, but don't know how to get started on their careers," said advice of the versatile John Erskine,

SAN JOSE, CALIF. MERCURY-HERALD JAN 1 3 1937

JOHN ERSKINE. JOHN ERSKINE.

John Erskine, professor-musician-author who is sometimes called a "high brow who low brows like," will be guest on the Magazine of the Air program on KSFO at noon. He will talk about music. the professor. "They probably have had good training in their home town and feel they are ready to play or sing for some public, but they can't find the public so they go to big cities and try to take by storm the already over-taxed audiences in those places. If you ask them why they don't stay home, they usually reply that in their home town there is no musical life. If I were a young musician in a town of any size, I'd form a partnership with another musician, combining the plano with the voice, or with the violin, and I'd offer a series of programs of interesting music, selling tickets for 50 cents. If I could, I'd borrow the room to give the concert in, and I shouldn't be disappointed if only 20 people came. If the performances are worth listening to the audience will go, eventually.

"Young musicians must realize as writers do, that they cannot are worth listening to the sudjence will go, eventually.

"Young musicians must realize as writers do, that they cannot are discussed by the control of the sudjence will go, eventually.

"Young musicians must realize as writers do, that they cannot as writers do, that they cannot are discussed by the control of the sudjence will go, eventually."

"Young musicians must realize as writers do, that they cannot are discussed by the control of the sudjence will go and the sudjence will go an all the first usually requires one hand the same time.

"Young musicians must realize that it usually requires one hand the same time.

"Young musicians their for the same time."

"Young musicians must realize that it usually requires one hand the same time.

"Young musician

Journalogs

exas, bobs up with a singing mouse. tler with Plain Dealing?

The Atchison Globe says that "a gentleman will be careful as to where he smokes a cigar or cigaret." It says that "ladies also should be careful," but evi-dently has small hope that they will be.

May we suggest apropos of a recent remark by John Erskine that when a person tries to make his emotional life "intelligent" it is apt to become arti-ficial and futile.

President Roosevelt is finding that some of the biggest opponents of economical administration are those Washington has taught to despise that sort

"" IN STREET ular usong is called "Pennies From e still insist that's a helluva title. according to the Washington Star. stmas editorial is captioned; "Yes, Is a Hitter." about putting and will go, eventually.

"Young nussicians must realize as writers do, that they cannot start at the top. They must first get an audience, no matter how small, and the best place to do this is at home. I think there is a vast and unexplored opportunity for more home cooking in—the art of music," said Ers. kine.

"Host materials as a sutomobile for k—John Erskine, professor of ywith the back-sea! driving appa."

"To the St. Louis Browns wants Explaining also the reason for shakine."

"To the St. Louis Browns wants Explaining also the reason for me. May we suggest that all the y 20. Included in the prolled to wear brown derbies, both will be dramatizations of the term inaugurations of prepresidents.

President Roosevelt is quoted as saying he would not appoint any man over 60 years of age to the k.—Major Ernest Brown, subench of the supreme court, or any other. And it be—indent of Washington police; gins to appear likely he won't be called to appoint any at all for the high court.

Goy. Alf M. Landon of Kansas, whose term experienced the work of the work of the indent of the supreme court, or any other. And it be—indent of Washington for the Host of the supreme court, or any other. And it be—indent of Washington for the Inaugher of the work of the indent of Washington for the Inaugher of the indent of the work of presidents have done at inauguration time. Her talk will be based on personal interviews with the wives of ex-presidents, namely Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, Mrs. Calvin Collidge, Mrs. Grover Cleveland, Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Mrs. Theodore Weison.

MADISON, WIS. CAPITAL TIMES

JAN 10 1937

Dr. John Erskine resumes on Metropolitan Opera auditions at 2 this afternoon as master of ceremonies on WIBA. Aspiring young singers today include: Mary Hopple, contraito: Lucille Berthon, Minnesota native and lyric soprano, and Richard Munro, Brooklyn bass baritone.

JERSEY CITY, N. J. Jersey City Journal

IA.

LS nen

or Asit womers and

or jus-become ing, of f chive, in a at taken indi-leman, y this et our than to they be poe don't will?"

trother with woman arteous an acescende tired nimals, assert es his neveroup of m on ee," as usual ole atroman oup of faces e, but

John were nners be so treat

ished -Mr. have eated hings

ach

eader

JAN 8 - 1987

MARKET SNAPS

(Information by Courtesy of Journal

American Can American Tel. & Tel. Anaconda Copper Baltimore & Ohio Bethlehem Steel Chrysler Motors Consolidated Gas

General Electric General Motors mational Tel. Tentral

ania R. R. uotic Service, common

Radio Socony-Vacuum Standard Brands Standard Oil of New Jersey Texas Corporation United Aircraft—UAR United Corporation U. S. Steel Westinghouse Woolworth

Holdup Pair Die in Cha

The best place for a musician to begin is precisely where there is not too much music already. This is the advice of the versatile John Erskine, president of the Juilliard School of Music, professor of English at Columbia University, a director of the Metropolitan Opera Company, concert pianist and author of many notable books including "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," 'Jack and the Beanstalk' and "Solomon My Son." Erskine will discuss "The Career of Music," when speaking as a guest on the "Magazine of the Air," over CBS network the morning of Jan. 13.

"Everywhere in the United States are young people who wish to be musicians, but don't know how to get started on their careers," said advice of the versatile John Erskine,

SAN JOSE, CALIF. MERCURY-HERALD JAN 1 3 1937

JOHN ERSKINE.

JOHN ERSKINE.

John Erskine, professor-musician-author who is sometimes called a "high brow who low brows like," will be guest on the Magazine of the Air program on KSFO at noon. He will talk about music.

SHREVEPORT, LA. JOURNAL

YORK, PA. GAZETTE-DAILY JAN 18 1937

Journalogs

In Germany, according to the Washington Star, the after Christmas editorial is captioned: "Yes, Gretchen, There Is a Hitter."

The trouble about putting one's shoulder to the wheel seems to be that it usually requires one hand in the pocket at the same time.

From Missouri comes word that a horse kicked an automobile to pieces, but there must be a slight error in the account. Wash't if, instead, a Missouri mule?

The Atchison Globe says that "a gentleman will be careful as to where he smokes a cigar or cigaret." It says that "ladies also should be careful," but evi-dently has small hope that they will be.

May we suggest apropos of a recent remark by John Erskine that when a person tries to make his emotional life "intelligent" it is apt to become artificial and futile.

President Roosevelt is finding that some of the biggest opponents of economical administration are those Washington has taught to despise that sort

Marshall, Texas, bobs up with a singing mouse. What's the matter with Plain Dealing? A late popular song is called "Pennies From Heaven," but we still insist that's a helluva title.

scuss "Should Congress Power To Override

WABC NETWORK

From Missouri comes word that a horse kicked an automobile to pieces, but there must be a slight error in the account. Wash't if, instead, a Missouri mule?

Not so many years ago folks were staggered by the statement: "This is a million-dollar country."
Now we have a billion-dollar army and navy to go with it.

A Washington columnist reports a new senator from the West wito complained to a veteran, saying, ity Broadcasting Council of "I don't understand this budget." Well, for that matter, who does?

John Erskine asks; "Why be polite to women?" to be begin with a Man-in-Indeed, why be polite to anybody? There is no law est interview and continue on the subject, but most males prefer to be gentled in the reset. What to to 5:30 n.m. NRC.WIZ.

on the subject, but most males prefer to be gentle- a informal discussion of the men, even if it hasn't occurred to Erskine.

Henry Ford is wasting his time tinkering with an automobile that has the engine in the rear. What he should be trying to invent is an automobile for known and the professor of fire that does away with the back-seat driving appa.

The new owner of the St. Louis Browns wants xplaining also the reason for an emblem for his baseball team. Something that ange of date from March 4 to will fit the nickname. May we suggest that all the y 20. Included in the proplayers be compelled to wear brown derbies, both will be dramatizations of the on and off the field.

President Roosevelt is quoted as saying he would not appoint any man over 60 years of age to the k-Major Ernest Brown, subench of the supreme court, or any other. And it be sident of Washington police; gins to appear likely he won't be called to appoint any at all for the high court.

Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas, whose term expendent of the suprement of the oil and gas district, and perhaps make heart of the oil and gas district, and perhaps make a pretty fair Democrat out of him by 1940.

DETROIT, MICH.

FREE PRESS

The new owner of the san automobile for k-John Erskine, professor of its department of the professor of its described in the professor of its described in the prosidents in the prosidents and their court of the professor of its described in the professor of the many and the professor of the pro

MADISON, WIS. CAPITAL TIMES

JAN 10 1937

Dr. John Erakine resumes on Metropolitan Opera auditions at 2 this afternoon as master of ceremonies on WIBA. Aspiring young singers today include: Mary Hopple, contraito; Lucille Berthon, Minnesota native and irrie soprano, and Richard Munro, Brocklyn bass baritone.

nen

or Aseach

eat wom-ters and Ξ, be poe don't will?"

Brother
g with woman urteous
an acescende tired
nimals,

tlemen," ted writ-eir right he con-

for chiv-ty," he for jus-become ning, of of chivie, in a nat takin inditleman, ly this et our r than assert res his nevercoup of em on oce," as tusual ole atwoman oup of faces s, but

John were nners be so treat tished

JERSEY CITY, N. J. Jersey City Journal

JAN 8 - 1987

had good and feel sing for find the

SHREVEPORT, LA. JOURNAL

Above is a photograph of Orleans, painted by her he one-man show at the Womr Angman is the former Missi Will Young.

John Erskine

The best place for a musician to begin is precisely where there is not too much music already. This is the advice of the versatile John Erskine, advice of the versatile John Erskine, president of the Juilliard School of Music, professor of English at Columbia University, a director of the Metropolitan Opera Company, concert pianist and author of many notable books including "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," 'Jack and the Beanstalk' and "Solomon My Son." Erskine will discuss "The Career of Music," when speaking as a guest on the "Magazine of the Air," over CBS network the morning of Jan. 13.

"Everywhere in the United States are young people who wish to be musicians, but don't know how to get started on their careers," said

SAN JOSE, CALIF. MERCURY-HERALD JAN 1 3 1937

JOHN ERSKINE.

JOHN ERSKINE.

John Erskine, professor-musician-author who is sometimes called a "high brow who low brows like," will be guest on the Magazine of the Air program on KSFO at noon. He will talk about music.

as st g s t

DETROIT, MICH. FREE PRESS

JAN 17 1937

The Atchison Globe says that "a gentleman will be careful as to where he smokes a cigar or cigaret." It says that "ladies also should be careful," but evidently has small hope that they will be.

May we suggest apropos of a recent remark by John Erskine that when a person tries to make his emotional life "intelligent" it is apt to become artificial and futile.

President Roosevelt is finding that some of the biggest opponents of economical administration are those Washington has taught to despise that sort

YORK, PA. GAZETTE-DAILY JAN 18 1937

MAN IN STREET PROGRAM ON AIR

To Discuss "Should Congress Have Power To Override The Supreme Court"

OVER WABC NETWORK

"Should Congress Be Given the Right to Override the Supreme Court?" will be the subject under discussion during the fifth weekly "What Do You Think?" program over the WABC-Columbia network today, from 10:30 to 11:00 p. m.

The program, which has been arranged through the co-operation of Northwestern university and the University Broadcasting Council of Chicago, will have A. R. Hatton, head of Northwestern's Political Science Department, as guest chairman. As usual it is to begin with a Man-imthe street interview and continue with an informal discussion between a group of college students and their professors.

professors.

4:30 to 5:30 p. m., NBC-WJZ network—John Erskine, professor of English Literature, will tell the story of Presidential Inaugurations in a special program for school children, explaining also the reason for the change of date from March 4 to January 20. Included in the program will be dramatizations of the second term inaugurations of previous presidents.

6:20 to 6:30 p. m., NBC-WEAF network.—Major Ernest Brown, superintendent of Washington police; Edgar Morris, chairman of the Hospitality committee, and Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, chairman of the Women's Hospitality committee, will give advice to those who plan to visit Washington for the Inauguration.

7:15 to 7:30 p. m., NBC-WJZ net-visit Washington for the Inauguration.

7:15 to 7:30 p. m., NBC-WJZ network.—Dorothy Thompson, famous newspaper woman, will tell what the wives of presidents have done at inauguration time. Her talk will be based on personal interviews with the wives of ex-presidents, namely Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, Mrs. Calvin Collidge, Mrs. Grover Cleveland, Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson.

MADISON, WIS. CAPITAL TIMES

JAN 10 1937

Dr. John Erskine resumes on Metropolitan Opera auditions at 2 this afternoon as master of ceremonies on WIBA. Aspiring young singers today include: Mary Hopple, contraite; Lucille Berthon, Minnesota native and Iyric soprano, and Richard Munro, Brooklyn bass baritone.

BILLINGS, MONT. GAZETTE

JAN 15 1937

A CRITIC OF POLLYANNA

John Erskine, author, critics and college professor, and rectined recently in Detroit, thinks that Americans have not yet cultivated "intelligent emotional life" because they still like to write and read stories which end hap-sally.

pily.

We don't know that Americans are the only people in the world who like happy endings to the stories with which they beguile away their leisure moments.

And we question if the preference for such books is positive proof of emotional immaturity.

Are children who revel in gruesome tales, as many of them do, any more mature emotionally than those who fall in love with Pollyanna?

The mineau purpose of story writing.

ally than those who fall in love with Pollyanna?

The primary purpose of story writing and reading is entertainment.

When we read a scientific work we expect the facts, cold and hard as they may be, but who wants to sit down in an easy chair, after a hard day's work, and harrow his nerves with a book which leaves him in a nightmare?

And can we be so sure, as the intimate interpreter of "Galahad" and "The Private Life of Helen of Troy" seems to be, that all stories worlds?

We may not see it at the

We may not see it at the moment, with our mind's eye blinded by the immediate present to the cosmic happiness which may flow from events which we misunderstand, but we ought to be a little careful in exalting the beauty of sadistic literature.

We have my many the same of the sadistic literature.

sadistic literature.

We bump up against enough that is brutal and ugly in real life without going home and reading about it in books that should cushion
our nerves against too stark a reality.—The Detroit Free Press.

OAKLAND, CALIF. POST-ENQUIRER

JAN 1 2 1937

Author-Musician on Air Tomorrows Bernie Cummins Victim of Strike

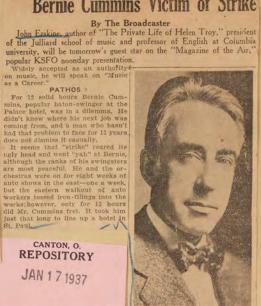

CANTON, O. REPOSITORY

JAN 17 1937

Highlights of the Western Live stock show in Denver will be carried during the regular broadcast of the National Farm and Home hour Monday at 12:30 p. m. over the Blue network.

the Blue network.

John Erskine, a professor of English literature, will tell the story of presidential inauguration in a special broadcast for school children, over the Blue network Mon-

JOHN ERSKINE Musician-Author-Savant /

NEWBURYPORT, MASS. NEWS

JAN 15 1937

VIRGINIA LEE'S ADVICE

Treating Women as Gentlemen
How should men treat women—their wives, sisters and sweethearts?
"Treat women like genetlemen," of the states of Erskine, treat us as if we were gentlemen. It may teach manners to those of us who need to be so taught. And as gentlemen treat each other with distinguished courtest other with chivalry—Mr. Erskine take 37 mig. It's beeing treated as if we were toys and playthings without human intelligence that gets under our skin.

HIGHLIGHTS—
8:00 a. m.—KFWB. Los Angeles
8:20 a. m.—KNX. Eddie Albright
8:30 a. m.—KNX. Eddie Albright
8:45 a. m.—KNX. Ted Malone
11:00 a. m.—KRX. Ted Malone
10:00 a. m.—KECA. Installation of Dean Harry Beale as Bishop of Panama, St. Paul's Cathedral, Los Angeles
11:45 a. m.—KNX. Myrt & Marge
12:00 noom—KNX. Myrt & Marge
12:00 noom—KNX. Heinz MagazineJohn Erstina-guest
2:45 p. m.—KNX. California Legislature Session
3:00 p. m.—KNX. Tom Breneman
4:00 p. m.—KECA. Easy Aces

LOS ANGELES, CAL. EVENING NEWS

JAN 111937

He'll speak

JOHN ERSHINE, president of the Juillard School of Music, professor of English at Colum-bia, pianist and author, will be well worth hearing Wednesday when he is guest of the "Maga-zine" show at noon on KNX.

OREGONIAN

JAN 1 3 1937

BILL OF FARE

KGW—Senator O'Mahoney of Wyoming speaks at 7:45 P. M. on national charters for national commerce. Fred Allen at 9 presents a boilermaker's drama.

KEX—Parent Teachers at 1.
Denman Thompson in O'ld Homestead at 2:45. A revival of the days of gas footlights and villains with revolving mustachios.
Everyhody Sing at 9. Diamond
Belt championship fights at 10 (sent to the NBC ceast network from Portland).

KGIN—Kostelanetz and Martini, 6. Jessic. Dragonette at 6:30
—(the Pickford of radio.) Gang
Busters at 7. At 12 noon John Erskine (almost forgot it). Burns & Aiten at 8:30.

KGO-KJR—At 7 P. M., Montreal String Qt. playing Haydn's
(Do. 64. No. 4. etc.)

Dram

Althies whof P inary | in the

MUS

Free Le

0 Evening JA

of wisdom in a talk, " which goes of women?

EVI

BILLINGS, MONT. GAZETTE

JAN 15 1937

A CRITIC OF POLLYANNA

John Erskine, author, critics and college professor, who lectated recently in Detroit, thinks that Americans have not yet cultivated "intelligent emotional life" because they still like to write and read stories which end hap-nity.

pily.

We don't know that Americans are the only people in the world who like happy endings to the stories with which they beguile away their leisure moments.

leisure moments.

And we question if the preference for such books is positive proof of emotional immaturity. Are children who revel in gruesome tales, as many of them do, any more mature emotionally than those who fall in love with Pollyanna?

The primary purpose of story writing and reading is entertainment.

When we read a scientific work were

When we read a scientific work we expect the facts, cold and hard as they may be, but who wants to sit down in an easy chair, after a hard day's work, and harrow his nerves with a book which leaves him in a nightmare?

And can we be so sure, as the intimate interpreter of "Galahad" and "The Private Life of Helen of Troy" seems to be, that all stories worlds?

We may not see it of the worms:

we may not see it at the moment, with our mind's eye blinded by the immediate present to the cosmic happiness which may flow from events which we misunderstand, but we ought to be a little careful in exalting the beauty of sadistic literature.

We hume up against anough that in larger sausue interature.

We bump up against enough that is brutal
and ugly in real life without going home and reading about it in books that should cushion
our nerves against too stark a reality.—The Detroit Free Press.

OAKLAND, CALIF.
POST-ENQUIRER

JAN 1 2 1937

Author-Musician on Air Tomorrows Bernie Cummins Victim of Strike

By The Broadcaster
John Erskine, author of "The Private Life of Helen Troy," president of the Juliard school of music and professor of English at Columbia university, will be tomorrow's guest star on the "Magazine of the Air," popular KSFO noonday presentation.
Widely accepted as an authorityeon music, he will speak on "Music as a Career."

on music, he will speak on "Music as a Career," PATHOS

For 12 solid hours Bernic Cummins, popular baton-swinger at the Palace hotel, was in a dilemma. He didn't know where his next job was coming from, and a man who hasn't had that problem to face for 11 years does not dismiss it casually.

It seems that "sattle" reared its ugly head and went "yah" at Bernic, although the ranks of his swingsters are most peaceful. He and the or-chestras were on for eight weeks of auto shows in the east—one a week, but the eastern walkout of auto workers tossed iron-filings into the works; however, only for 12 hours did Mr. Cummins fret. It took him just that long to line up a hotel in St. Paul.

JAN 17 1937

Highlights of the Western Live Stock show in Denver will be carried during the regular broadcast of the National Farm and Home hour Monday at 12:30 p. m. over the Blue network.

John Erskine, a professor of English literature, will tell the story of presidential imaguration in a special broadcast for school children, over the Blue network Monday at 4:30 p. m.

JOHN ERSKINE Musician-Author-Savant /

NEWBURYPORT, MASS. NEWS

JAN 15 1937

CLUB ENTERTAINED F

IRITUAL ILLS

NEED PHYSICIAN

The Euterpe Musical club was en-

Fight of the Bumble Bee".... Song of the Volga Boatman"... Ice Brookings, Helen Spaney, ac-companist ano: "Cradle Song" ... Liadoff "Russian Dance" ... Liadoff.

"Song of the Shepherd Lehd"...

SANTA MONICA, CALIF OUTLOOK JAN 1 2 1937

HIGHLIGHTS-

HIGHLIGHTS—
8:00 a.m.—KFWB, Los Angeles
Breakfast club
8:30 a.m.—KNX, Eddie Albright
8:45 a.m.—KNX, Eddie Albright
8:45 a.m.—KNX, Doctor Dafoe
9:15 a.m.—KNX, Doctor Dafoe
11:00 a.m.—KNX, More Albright
00 a.m.—KNX, Melallation of 11:00 a.m.—KNX, Beale as Bishop of Panama, St. Paul's Cathedral, Los Angeles
11:45 a.m.—KNX, Melnz MagazineJohn Erskine, guest 12:00 noon—KNX, Galifornia Legisiature Session
3:00 p.m.—KNX, Tom Breneman
4:00 p.m.—KECA, Easy Aces

LOS ANGELES, CAL EVENING NEWS

JAN 1 1 1937

He'll speak

JOHN ERSKINE, president of the Julliard School of Music, professor of English at Colum-bia, pianist and author, will be well worth hearing Wednesday when he is guest of the "Maga-zine" show at non on KNX.

PORTLAND, ORE. OREGONIAN

JAN 1 3 1937

BILL OF FARE
KGW—Senator O'Mahoney of Wyoning speaks at 7:45 P. M. on national charters for national commerce. Fred Allen at 9 presents a boilermaker's drama.
KEX—Parent Teachers at 1.
Denman Thompson in Old Homestead at 2:45. A revival of the days of gas footlights and villains with revolving mustachies.
Everybody Sing at 9. Diamond
Belt championship fights at 10
(sent to the NBC coast network
from Portland.)
KOIN—Kostelanetz and Martini, 6. Jessic. Dragonette at 6:30
—(the Pickford of radio.) Gang
Busters at 7. At 12 noon John Erskine (annost forgot ib). Burns & Atten at 8:30.
KGO-KJR—At 7 P. M., Montreal String Qt. playing Haydn's
On. 64. No. 4. etc.

Dran

ies w term inary day. in the

MU

Free Le

Evenin JA

of wisdom in a talk, "

women's

LOS ANGELES, CAL. EVENING NEWS

JAN 1 1 1937

He'll speak

president Columbia he Air,"

vant /

ALIF

Ingeles

on of Bishop 's Ca-

rge azine-

Legisman

JOHN ERSKINE, president of the Juillard School of Music, professor of English at Colum-bia, pianist and author, will be well worth hearing Wednesday when he is guest of the "Maga-zine" show at noon on KNX.

PORTLAND, ORE. OREGONIAN

JAN 1 3 1937

BILL OF FARE

KGW—Senator O'Mahoney of Wyoming speaks at 7:45 P. M. on national charters for national commerce. Fred Allen at 9 presents a boilermaker's drama.

KEX—Parent Teachers at 1.
Denman Thompson in Old Homestead at 2:45. A revival of the days of gas footlights and villains with revolving mustachios.
Everybody Sing at 9. Diamond
Belt championship fights at 10
(sent to the NBC coast network
from Portland.)

KON—Kostelanetz and Martrini, 6. Jessic. Dragonette at 6:30
—(the Pickford of radio.) Gang
Busters at 7. At 12 noon John Erskine (almost forgot it). Burns
& Allen at 3:30.

KGO-LGJR—At 7 P. M., Montreal String Qt. playing Haydn's
Od. 64. No. 4. etc.

SPRINGFIELD, O. SUN

JAN 181937

Programs Will Be Broadcast Preliminary To Inauguration

Dramatizations Of Previous Historical Ceremonies Scheduled

Although inauguration ceremonies which will mark the beginning of President Roosevelt's second term are still two days away, the networks will carry some prelim-inary programs on the event Mon-

John Erskine, professor of Eng-lish Literature, will tell the story of Presidential inaugurations over WJZ-NBC at 4:30 p. m. Included in the program will be dramatizations of previous inaugurations.

MUSICAL LEADER CHICAGO, ILL.

JAN 9-1937

Free Lectures

The American Academy of Arts and Letters and the National Institute of Arts and Letters will begin their first series of lectures and con-certs Jan. 7. Dr. John Erskine, author and president of the Juilliard School of Music, will speak on "The Human Grammar of Good Writing" at the first meeting.

OMAHA, NEB. Evening World-Herald JAN 1 3 1937

John Erskine will have words of wisdom for aspiring musicians in a talk, "The Career of Music" which goes on CBS net at 10 a. m. and again at 2 p. m.

> CHELSEA, MASS. EVE. RECORD

JAN 19 1937

The writer, John Erskine, asks "Why be polite to women?" Well, self-preservation is the first law of

THE PLAYERS

16 Gramercy Park, New York

A Pipe Night devoted to music will be held on Sunday, January 31st

THEODORE E. STEINWAY, Pipe-Master

Fellow-Player John Erskine will be present, and among our guests will be

> GEORGES BARRÉRE ERNEST HUTCHESON and

ALBERT SPALDING

Dinner will be served at 8 o'clock sharp, and the cost will be one dollar and a half per plate.

Please respond immediately by return card. Reservations not cancelled before January 30th, will be charged. Guest privileges will necessarily be suspended for this evening.

Entertainment Committee for the evening

Robert Armbruster	Carl Mathieu
Mario Chamlee	T. H. Montgomery
Frank Chapman	Charles L. Safford
Joseph Cummings Chase	Walter Scanlon
Richard Crooks	Ernest Schelling
Henri Deering	James Stanley
John Erskine	Rowland Stebbins
Harry Gilbert	Theodore E. Steinway
Frederick Jagel	John Charles Thomas
Edward Johnson	Lawrence Tibbett
Earl R. Lewis	Marek Windheim

OFFICERS

ERNEST HUTCHESON, PRES.
GARDNER LAMSON, VICE PRES.
WILLER WILLER, VICE PRES.
WALTER L. BOGER, SEC.
25 CLAREMONY AVENUE
PHONE UNIVERSITY 44699
HUGG GRUNWALD, TREAS.
21 WEST 86TH STREET

The fourth regular monthly meeting Harvard Club, 27 West 44th Street, New Yo

The following candidates for members to the members of the Club with the request sidered at the next meeting of the Board:

Nerino Bianchi ...325 West 45th Str _260 West 72nd St

A PROC

(1

String Quartet No. 2 in G major...

Lento ma non troppo; Allegro a Andante elegiaco Allegro giocoso

> JACQUES GORDON DAVID SACKSON,

PIANO SOLOS:

Sea Pieces

To the Sea From the Depths

Arabesque Serenade ..

Polonaise Americaine

String Quartet No. 3. Allegro

Andante

Allegro moderato

GO

Guest tickets ($1.0

Entertainment Committee
ALBERT von DOENHOFF, Chairman
JAMES FRISKIN
CARL DEIS

Members are requested t

THIRTIETH SEASON

OFFICERS

ERNEST HUTCHESON, PRES.
GARDNER LAMSON, VICE PRES.
WILLEM WILLEKE, VICE PRES. WILLER WILLER, VICE PRES.
FRANCIS ROGERS, VICE PRES.
WALTER L. BOGERT, SEC.
25 CLAREMONT AVENUE
PHONE UNIVERSITY 4-4699
HUGG GRUWWALD, TREAS,
21 WEST 86TH STREET

"THE BOHEMIANS"

(New York Musicians' Club)

BOARD OF GOVERNORS

GEORGES BARRERE GEORGES BARRERE
ADOLFO BETTI
CARL DEIS
GASTON M. DETHIER
ALBERT VON DOENHOFF
JAMES FRISKIN
PAOLO GALLICO
EDWIN HUGHES

New York, December 30, 1936

The fourth regular monthly meeting of "THE BOHEMIANS" for the season 1936-1937 will be held at the Harvard Club, 27 West 44th Street, New York City, on Monday, January 11, 1937, at 8:30 P.M.

The following candidates for membership in the Club having been approved by the Board of Governors are submitted to the members of the Club with the request for information or opinion as to their desirability; their election will be considered at the next meeting of the Board:

CANDIDATES FOR ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP

Name	Address	VOCATION	Proposer	SECONDER
Nerino Bianchi	5 West 45th Street	Cellist	Jacob Feuerring	Aurelio Giorni
Fritz Mahler 26	0 West 72nd Street	Conductor	Hugo Grunwald D

A PROGRAM OF AMERICAN MUSIC

String Quartet No. 2 in G major... Frederick Jacobi Lento ma non troppo; Allegro agitato Andante elegiaco Allegro giocoso

GORDON STRING QUARTET

JACQUES GORDON, first violin WILLIAM LINCER, viola DAVID SACKSON, second violin

NAOUM BENDITZKY, cello

PIANO SOLOS:

Sea Pieces .. Edward MacDowell To the Sea From the Depths Arabesque Beryl Rubinstein Serenade Howard Brockway

JOHN ERSKINE

String Quartet No. 3. Allegro

Polonaise Americaine ..

Quincy Porter

....John Alden Carpenter

Andante

Allegro moderato

GORDON STRING QUARTET

A buffet supper will be served.

Guest tickets ($1.00) may be had on application to the Secretary.

Entertainment Committee ALBERT VON DOENHOFF, Chairman JAMES FRISKIN CARL DEIS

WALTER L. BOGERT,

Members are requested to inform the Secretary of any change in their address.

NORFOLK. VA. VIRGINIAN PILOT JAN 2 4 1937

CONTENTION — Deems Taylor, CBS director of music, is the man whom the occasional symphony listore has been looking for. He's been a long time in coming.

Peculiar is his radio career. Although he is most certainly one of the finest critics in the country and Peculiar is his ratio care.

Peculiar is his ratio cartainly one of the finest critics in the country and an ace musician, having composed a couple of operas all out of his own head, he is blessed with a remarkable sense of humor. So, during all his past appearances on the air, he has served not as an authentic commentator so much as a slightly pixe one. Best example we can think of is the skit, credited as his classic, which has him explaining, in a dry voice, the various uses of the instruments in an orchestra. If my memory serves, be has found that a trombone, when upended with the musician under it, makes an excellent flower vase for the mantel.

Taylor's bandling of the symphonics for CBS have not only been authentic, but interestingly smooth. His scholarship has unearthed for him a number of interesting facts about composers and compositions, and his ability has glossy as all get out.

John Erskine, who is acting as master-of-recrements so n the Metropolitan Opera Auditions over NBC, shows the same ability without the smoothness at the microphone possessed by Taylor.

N. Y. TELEGRAPH JAN 3 1 1937

Anna Erskine Chorine Now

Daughter of John Joins Cast of 'Naughty-Naught,' the Minsky Meller.

Anna Erskine, daughter of John Erskine, noted musician, author and educator, is making her debut in the chorus as a member of the Gibson girl troupe in "Naughty-Naught," the musical melodrama being offered the musical melodrama being offered by the Brothers Krimsky at the American Music Hall.

Miss Erskine is not a stranger to the footlights, however. She made her Broadway debut several seasons ago in the cast of "Growing Pains," and has been seen in several productions at Lawrence Langner's Country Playhouse, at Westport. This is her first venture in a musical show.

show.

In addition to her Summerlime theatrical work, Miss Erskine has operated a school for the very much younger set of Connecticut at her tather's home at Wilton, Conn. Yesterday, she admitted that the chorus was vastly more exciting than kindergarten work.

NEW YORK, N. Y. AMERICAN JAN 3 0 1937

Walter Hampden masters the ceremonies for the Saturday night party, with Waldo Mayo conducting, Mischa Levitski contributing piano solos, and the regulars in.

Johnny Weismuller was scheduled for the Floyd Gibbons-Vincent Lopez program with Lupe Velez. Weismuller was called to Hollywood and Walter "Tarzam" O'Keefe will be with Lupe instead.

A special trans-Pacific broadcast brings the new symphony orchestra from Tokio via WABC at 11 this morning. Otto Klemperer conducts the Los Angeles Philharmonic in an afternoon with Beethoven, starting at 1.45 over the same station, and Columbia broadcasts the picture of the St. Paul Snow and Ice Carnival.

Melchior, Flagstad and Thorborg head the Metropolitan cast singing "Siegfried" today. John Erskine Riss been added as a commentator.

You should be reminded of Berrigan, DeLys and Tommy Dorsey in the Swing session, Ma and Pa, the band from Niagara, the Columbia Workshop, Carl Hoff back in the Hit Parade, the Policemen's Ball (WOR at 8:15), those delightful Snow Village sketches, Isvin S. Cobb, Meredith Willow and the Barn Dance.

Bryan Field broadcasts the Miami Beach handleap from Hialeah at 3:30 over WOR.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN TIMES JAN 1 8 1937

Inauguration Dramas.

Inauguration week comes to its climax Wednesday, but before that there will be several preliminary programs. Some have been scheduled for today.

With John Erskine as narrator, WJZ-NBC is presenting at 3:30 p.m. a broadcast under the listing of "Inaugurations—1789 to 1937." Drama will be used to help in telling the story.

LOS ANGELES, CAL. TIMES

IAN 181937

PRESIDENT'S BALL

Hilbillies will contribute the entertainment of KNX's "President's Birthday Ball" broadcast January 30. Pasadena's civic auditorium will be the scene on that date of the station's regular Hollywood Barn Dance program. Today N.B.C. and KECA will present a dramatization of the inauguration of Andrew Jackson, with John Erekine as narrator. (130 pm.)

NEW BEDFORD, MASS. MERCURY

JAN 22 1937

Sam Franko, veteran violinist, conductor and teacher, who made music history in New York with his concerts of old music more than 35 years ago, was honored by the trustees and administrative officers of the New York Public Library, Wednesday afternoon. A reception held for him in the trustees rooms of the Library, Fifth Avenue and 42nd Street, also marked Mr. Franko's 80th birthday. Recognition of the gift of his music library to the Public Library on his last birthday was a further purpose of the function. Frank Polk, president of the board of trustees, said it was one of the library's prized possessions. Around it the library hopes to build a collection which "before the next 20 years" may have its own building and become a center of music in New York.

Many musicians, some formerly Mr. Franko's pupils, others members of his concert orchestras, besides outstanding conductors and musicians of today, including Walter Damrosch, Edwin Franko Goldman and Leopold Godowsky, attended the party. The Duchoss Renee Carafa D'Andria and Mrs. Carleton Sprague Smith, wife of the director of the music division of the library, were hostesses.

The speeches of felicitation were roadcast over WJXR. Dr. Harry Miller Lydenberg, director of the ibhrary, praised the veteran conductor's record as "so instructive and stimulating." W. J. Henderson, dean of music eritics, said: "Mr. Franko is not an artist; he's an institution." He then paid tribute to his long devotion to the cause of good music, his advanced ideas, and his ability to reach down into the cause of conductive and produce ancient music successfully.

Messages of congratulation poured in. One was from the directors of the Beethoven Association. Another, signed by John Spraywarm tribute to your long and honorable life of artistle work and achievement."

Selections from manuscript scores of 17th and 18th century music, presented to the library by Mr. Franko, were played by the Perole Quartet and by Ivan Darchambeau, cellist of the Stradivarious String Quartet.

Mr. Franko e

BURLINGTON, IOWA HAWK EYE

IAN 2 1 1937

ADVICE TO LOVEL BY VIRGINIA LEE

How should men treat women—their and sweethearts?

"Treat women like gentlemen," decla kine, noted writer. "They have forfeit to chivalrous treatment," he contends to chivalrous treatment," he contends. "Women no fonger ask for chivary equolity," he states. "In the campaighthey have themselves become a little r timing, of course, to be feminine.

"I like the old doctrine of chivalry," Erskine, in a recent magazine article off your hat to a man indicates not that man, but that you are. I apply this p ladies. Let our manners express us, reworship of them.

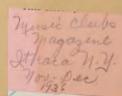

"I say, treat women as though they men. We should be polite to women, don't set them an example, who will?"

It's a good idea, although Brother Effor wrifing with his tongue in his che couldn't ask for more courteous treatrentleman accords another. It's the continued that women are thred of. The of "animals, children and feeble-minded."

Many a man who would assert with the adores his mother, wife and daugless rises to address a group of wome ing them on their "beauly and intellige latter quality were not usual with the works and the sole attribute of men. Imagine a to remark" to a group of business m faces showed not only good looks, but All right, boys, including John Erski if we were gentlemen. It may teach my of us who need to be so taught. And treat each other with distinguished cour chivalry—Mr. Erskine take note), we kick coming. It's being treated as if and playthings without human intelligunder our skin.

under our skin.

Vic: About the girl who is alway to your boy friend, better pretend no she isn't getting very far, according to

LOWLIGH

The New York Times Book scheduled a music forum direct Smith. Said Madame Olga San ticipation in all of the arts is nec an individual would be running a effort to arrive at true understan ance. Obviously there must be t end without plying the art itself. The cheapest instrument and th is the voice. Every one ought Erskine, "Every gentleman used to he could carry it around in the tail simpler procedure than carrying violin."

RD, MASS. URY 22 1937

teran violinist,

lay.

Public Library

was a further metion. Frank the board of the sone of the essions. Around to build a colre the next 20 so wn building
er of music in

in Franko Gold-Godowsky, at-The Duchess ndria and Mrs. Smith, wife of music division e hostesses. Telicitation were XR. Dr. Harry director of the veteran conduc-instructive and J. Henderson, some formerly instructive and J. Henderson, tics, said: "Mr. rtist; he's an inpaid tribute to to the cause of anced ideas, and h down into the sic and produce cessfully. ratulation poured the directors of association. AnJohn Heskine.

uilliard School of t Hutcheson, the School of Music icitations to you tihday and pays our long and hon-tistic work and manuscript scores century music, library by Mr. red by the Perole an Darchambeau, adivarious String pressed his grati-

BURLINGTON, IOWA HAWK EYE

JAN 21 1937

ADVICE TO LOVELORN BY VIRGINIA LEE

How should men treat women—their wives, sisters and sweethearts?

"Treat women like gentlemen," declares John Erskine, noted writer. "They have forfeited their right to chivalrous treatment," he contends.

"Women no longer ask for chivary; they prefer equolity," he states. "In the campaign for justice they have themselves become a little rude—still continuing, of course, to be feminine.

"I like the old doctrine of chivalry," continues Mr. Erskine, in a recent magazine article, "that taking off your hat to a man indicates not that he is a gentleman, but that you are. I apply this principle to the ladies. Let our manners express us, rather than any worship of them.

man, but that you are. I apply this principle to the ladies. Let our manners express us, rather than any worship of them.

"I say, treat women as though they were gentlemen. We should be polite to women, because if we don't set them an example, who will?"

It's a good idea, although Brother Erskine is noted for writing with his tongue in his cheek. A woman couldn't ask for more courteous treatment than one gentleman accords another. It's the condescending attitude that women are tired of. The classing us with "animals, children and feeble-minded."

Many a man who would assert with warmth that he adores his mother, wife and daughter, nevertheless rises to address a group of women, complimenting them on their "beauty and intelligence," as if the latter quality were not usual with the fair sex, but the sole attribute of men. Imagine a woman "rising to remark" to a group of business men, that their faces showed not only good looks, but intelligence.

All right, boys, including John Erskine, treat us as if we were gentlemen. It may teach manners to those of us who need to be so taught. And as gentlemen treat each other with distinguished courtesy (even with chivalry—Mr. Erskine take note), we would have no kick coming. It's being treated as if we were toys and playthings without human intelligence that gets under our skin.

Vic: About the girl who is always "making up" to your boy friend, better pretend not to notice it. She isn't getting very far, according to your letter.

LOWLIGHTS

The New York Times Book Fair in early November scheduled a music forum directed by Carlton Sprague Smith. Said Madame Olga Samaroff, "If active participation in all of the arts is necessary for appreciation, an individual would be running around in circles in the effort to arrive at true understanding through performance. Obviously there must be those who achieve this end without plying the art itself." Said Douglas Moore, The cheapest instrument and the one easiest to get at is the voice. Every one ought to sing." Said John Erskine, "Every gentleman used to play the flute because he could carry it around in the tails of his coat, a much simpler procedure than carrying a piano or even a violin.' + + +

PROVIDENCE, R. I. BULLETIN

JAN 21 1937

Humorous Books and Books on Humor Listed at Library

Max Eastman's "Enjoyment of Laughter" Among Additions.-Works of Mark Twain, Artemus Ward, Abe Martin and Others Also Provided for Amusement

Humorists have found that just they are a laugh anyway,—ask any psychiatrist)

The Providence Public Library has recently added to its shelves the new book by Max Eastman, "The Enjoyment of Laughter." Though Eastman,—the famous lecturer, philosopher, psychologist, who explained poetry so clearly in his "Enjoyment of Poetry" several years ago,—assures us in the preface that his analysis of jokes will "plunge you into the depths of gloom,"—for who can laugh at a joke explained,—do not for a moment believe him. It is one of the funniest, most uproarious books written. There is hilarity on every page, a smile here, a chuckle there, and over all a good, hearty, old-fashioned laugh.

Chesterton has said that "the Victians discovered humor." Eastman says "their (the Victorians') nesense derives some sense Clewis circoll's "Alice in Wonderland, for ample) from the fact that it was signed for the entertainment of alidren. Their pointless jokes have ways that point. That serious ough sustains many a true lady and antleman in the considerable indigity of enjoying them. It gives, to recover, a flavor of condescension most a baby-talk flavor, to some their finest foolishness. Artemus tard's delicious absurdities were regrown-up minds. He loved nones with a manly and mature love."

"It is the blending of these two rains—the primitive vigor of imagnation and the mature enjoyment of possense—that gives its distinct flavor to American humor."

The Public Library has the works marked Mr.

day.
he gift of his Public Library
was a further netion. Frank the board of
as one of the sessions. Around to build a colire the next 20 ts own building
ter of music in some formerly is, others memorchestras, beconductors and, including Walin Franko GoldGodowsky, atThe Duchess ndria and Mrs.

Smith, wife of music division a hostesses, felicitation were XR. Dr. Harry, director of the veteran conducinstructive and veteran conduc-instructive and J. Henderson, ities, said: "Mr. rtist; he's an in-n paid tribute to to the cause of ranced ideas, and h down into the sic and produce cossfully.

Hutcheson, the icitations to you tihday and pays our long and hon-tistic work and manuscript scores century music, library by Mr. yed by the Perole an Darchambeau, adivarious String

BURLINGTON, IOWA HAWK EYE

JAN 2 1 1937

ADVICE TO LOVELORN BY VIRGINIA LEE

How should men treat women—their wives, sisters and sweethearts?

How should men treat women—their wives, sisters and sweethearts?

"Treat women like gentlemen," declares John Erskine, noted writer. "They have forfeited their right to chivalrous treatment," he contends.

"Women no longer ask for chivary; they prefer equolity." he states. "In the campaign for justice they have themselves become a little rude—still continuing, of course, to be feminine.

"I like the old doctrine of chivairy," continues Mr. Erskine, in a recent magazine article, "that taking off your hat to a man indicates not that he is a gentle man, but that you are. I apply this principle to the ladies. Let our manners express us, rather than any worship of them.

"I say, treat women as though they were gentlemen. We should be polite to women, because if we don't set them an example, who will?"

It's a good idea, although Brother Erskine is noted for writing with his tongue in his cheek. A woman couldn't ask for more courteous treatment than one gentleman accords another. It's the condescending attitude that women are tired of. The classing us with "animals, children and feeble-minded."

Many a man who would assert with warmth that he adores his mother, wife and daughter, nevertheless rises to address a group of women, complimenting them on their "heauty and intelligence," as if the latter quality were not usual with the fair sex, but the sole attribute of men. Imagine a woman "rising to remark" to a group of business men, that their faces showed not only good looks, but intelligence. All right, boys, including John Erskine, treat us as if we were gentlemen. It may teach manners to those of us who need to be so taught. And as gentlemen treat each other with distinguished courtesy (even with chivalry—Mr. Erskine take note), we would have no kick coming. It's being treated as if we were toys and playthings without human intelligence that gets under our skin.

Vic: About the girl who is always "making up" to your boy friend, better pretend not to notice it, she isn't getting very far, according to your letter,

the opening day of t

The N scheduled Smith. Sa ticipation an individ effort to a ance. Obv is the vo Erskine, "

Dean Paul van Katv Hockaday's delightfi October 18, and the tuals sung in the Ce evening, with the aft and a slim sliver of T trees; A. Stephens Ja program. Participatin end witho John Rodgers, John 'The chea singer and Morgan Ki Comstock and David John Rodgers and he could c simpler . violin."

IC CLUBS MAC hat was said to Howard's spok PROVIDENCE, R. I. BULLETIN

JAN 21 1937

Humorous Books and Books on Humor Listed at Library

Max Eastman's "Enjoyment of Laughter" Among Additions.-Works of Mark Twain, Artemus Ward, Abe Martin and Others Also Provided for Amusement

Humorists have found that just laughing won't get you anything but a wintry smile, from the kind hearted, for most laughs are not so infectious as to make the other fellow burst into sympathetic combustion, unless it be a child's merry shout of glee. No, the other fellow just wonders why the hyena laughs! But, tell or write something ludicrous, or better, something witty, and all the world is your friend. (Except, of course, the chronic grouches, and they are a laugh anyway,—ask any sychiatrist.)

The Providence Public Library has recently added to its shelves the newbook by Max Eastman,—the famous lecturer, philosopher, psychologist, who explained poetry's everal years ago,—as use us in the preface that his analysis of jokes will "plunge you into the depths of gloom,"—for who can laugh at a joke explained,—do not for a moment believe him. It is one of the funniest most upporarisy nonsesnse derives some sense (Lewis Carolls' "Alice in Wonderland, for example) from the fact that it was designed for the entertainment of children. Their pointless jokes have always that point. That serious though sustains many a true lady and genifeman in the considerable indigity of enjoying them. It gives, moreover, a flavor of condescension almost a baby-talk flavor, to some of their finest foolishness. Artemus Ward's delicious absurdities were for grown-up minds. He loved nonsense with a manly and mature love.

"It is the blending of these two strains—the primitive vigor of imagination and the mature enjoyment of nonsense—that gives its distinct flavor to American humor."

The Proble Library has the checkled popure, sad any sad any servers and the mature enjoyment of the colder humoriss are divided to papay on, and perhaps draw tears of laughter from your eyes again.

The later humorists are all on the Library shelves too, waiting to give doubt so will all a the re-reading of which we later burners and the mature of the papay and provide and perhaps draw tears of laughter from your eyes again.

The Prublic Library has the re-re

HOW TO START ON MUSIC CAREER

First Get an Audience. No Matter How Small

the Juilliard School of Music, pro-fessor of English at Columbia University, director of the Metro-politan Opera Company, concert planist and author of "Helen of panise and automatical panise and automatical panise and automatical panish and a panish a lic so they go to big cities and try to take by storm the al-ready overtaxed audiences in ready overtaxed audiences in those places," says Erskine. He advises young musicians to form partnerships with other young musicians. Erskine would, it he were a young musician, offer a series of programs of interesting music at small prices of admission. He wouldn't be disappointed if only twenty of the home town folk appeared. "If the performances are worth listening to the audiences will arrive eventually," he says.

"Young musicians must reahe says.

"Young musicians must realize, as writers do, that they cannot start at the top. They cannot start at the top. They must first get an audience, no matter how small. I think there is a vast opportunity for more home cooking in the art of music," he concludes.

IS IN CARS. I leave the south e House at 11:40 otor caravan to e cars equipped insmitters to give e throngs lining with prayer by Mrs. Morris Guttnan.

The program will be a sympojum on "Woman—Vintage 1937" with apologies to Jan Erskin Mrs.
Manuel Eskin Participants and their manuel and their participants and their miljects are; Mrs. David Bubis.
Club Women; Mrs. Albert Weinstein. "Leisure Woman;" Mrs.
Maurice Seliman, "Career Woman," and Mrs. Juliet Hartman
Burk, "The Woman," The sym
poslum will be followed by a dis cussion.

r the year.

Floral decorations are being an anged by Mrs. Morris Steiner an rs. A. M. Loveman. Hostesse till be Mrs. Albert Collins, Mr. Steiner, Isabelle Davis and Mr. be Morse.

STATEN ISLAND, N. Y. ADVANCE

JAN 1 9 1937

No Matter How Small

Sign and over WKKt. I CES technicians chinical species of the control and the past place for a musicianto begin is precisely where station of several the past by the past place for a musicianto begin is precisely where station of several the past by the past place for a musicianto begin is precisely where station of several the past by the past place for a musicianto begin is precisely where station of several the past by the past of the more worked by a dis musion.

TOLEDO, O. NEWS-BEE

JAN 1 8 1937

ALTHOUGH President Roose

At 4:30 p. m. today over the MBC-WJZ network John Erskine. To the day, and Mrs. Homer Jona or the year.

MILWAUKEE, WIS. SENTINEL JAN 3 0 1937

We Recom

POPULAR PRO

7:00 p. m.-WLS-Ed Wynn, with G. hees and orchestra-Kitty Carlis hees and orchestra—Kitty Carlis guest.

7:00 p. m.—WMAQ—Saturday Night den, guest master of ceremoniplanist; Donald Dickson, baritor Shelton, comedians.

5:00 p. m.—WISN—Floyd Gibbons'; orchestra—Lupe Velez and Wal 8:00 p. m.—WLS—National Barn I singing mouse—Guest, George (Caddy).

8:50 p. m.—WMAQ—Joe Cook's Ch Roosevelt, mother of president animal trainer; Nick Lucas, voe Evelyn Tyner, planist; the Three CONCERT M.

CONCERT M

12:40 p. m.—WTMI—Metropolitan Oj with Lauritz Melchior, tenor, ar in leading roles—Conductor, i tator, Marcia Davenport—Guest 1:00 p. m.—WISN—Los Angeles Phi perer, conducting.

8:15 p. m.—WGN—Chicago Symphor conductor.

INFORMAT

1:00 p. m.-WCFL-National Demo Outlook"—Sen. David I. Walsh, 3:45 p. m.-WBBM-"Paris Looks a Kraminker, speaker. 10:00 p. m.-WISN-WTMJ-President President Roosevelt, Col. Hen Keith Morgan.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. JOURNAL

JAN 29 1937

Melchior Sings on KSTP Saturday

Richard Wagner's "Siegfried," third in his famous Neiblungen Ring cycle, will be broadcast over NBC-KSTP at 12:40 p.m. Saturday as this week's matinee presentation of the Metropolitan Opera Company, Lauritz Melchior, Wagnerian tenor, and Kirsten Plagstad, Norwegian soprano, will have the leading roles.

The story carries the action of the Ring cycle through the exploits of the hero. Siegfried, who at the close of the opera, frees Brunnlide, the goddess, from the spel cast upon her by the angry Wotan, chief of the gods.

odumbin University.

addition to Miss Flagstad and chlor, other artists on Saturs program will be Karl Laurtter, Emanuel List, Kerstin drew, Swedish contraitor; Stella drewa, Ludwig Hofmann and stard Habieb.

MILWAUKEE, WIS. SENTINEL

JAN 3 0 1937

member e day I in Ad-look at

I re-

activi-

'Metrorogram.

s that g. Will of our peratic oper-e same of a ess cre-end the second of ion tic ex-source of a essential of a wever, cood of ion m The thetic of a which day, learch to or the search of the search of the tour reaction, the search of the thetic that inter-ation, that the search of the search of the thetic that inter-ation, that the search of the se

tient

MACON, GA. TELEGRAPH JAN 3 1 1937

NEW YORK, N. Y. HERALD-TRIBUNE

We Recommend—

POPULAR PROGRAMS

7:00 p. m.—WLS—Ed Wynn, with Graham McNames, Don Voorhees and orchestra—Kitty Carlisle, soprano and screen star, guest.

7:00 p. m.—WMAQ—Saturday Night Party, with Walter Hamp-den, guest master of ceremonies; Mischa Levitzki, concert pianist; Donald Dickson, baritone; Tom Howard and George Shelton, comedians.

8:00 p. m.—WISN—Floyd Gibbons' Speed Show: Vincent Lopes' orchestra—Lupe Velez and Walter O'Keefe.

8:00 p. m.—WIS—National Barn Dance, features Minnie, the singing mouse—Guest, George (Happy) O'Brien, the Roving Coddy.

8:30 p. m.—WMAQ—Joe Cook's Chateau: Mrs. Sarah Delano Roosevelt, mother of president, guest—Also Clyde Beatty, animal trainer; Nick Lucas, vocalist; Bozo, the talking dog; Evelyn Tyner, planist; the Three Marshalls,

CONCERT MUSIC

12:40 p. m.—WTMJ—Metropolitan Opera: Wagner's "Siegfried," with Lauritz Melchior, tenor, and Kirsten Flagstad, soprano, in leading roles—Conductor, Arthur Bodanzky; Commentator, Marcia Davenport—Guest Commentator, John Erskine.
1:00 p. m.—WISN—Los Angeles Philharmonic; Dr. Otto Klemperer, conducting.
8:15 p. m.—WGN—Chicago Symphony Orchestra: Hans Lange, conductor.

conductor.

INFORMATIVE

1:00 p. m.—WCFL.—National Democratic Forum: "America's Outlook"—Sen. David I. Walsh, speaker.
3:45 p. m.—WBBM—"Paris Looks at Our World's Fair"—Andre Kraminker, speaker.
10:00 p. m.—WISN-WTMJ—President's Birthday Ball—Speakers, Fresident Roosevelt, Col. Henry L. Doherty, Carl Byoir, Keith Morgan.

ON — Deems Taylor, of music, is the man ccasional symphony lis-n looking for. He's been his radio career. Al-most certainly one of itics in the country and ian, having composed a ras all out of his own essed with a remarkable or. So, during all his aces on the air, he has a an authentic commensas a slightly pixe one, we can think of is the as his classic, which has g, in a dry voice, the if the instruments in an my memory serves, he my memory serves, he t a trombone, when up-the musician under it, cellent flower vase for ndling of the symphonies not only been authentic, ly smooth. His scholar-rthed for him a number facts about composers ions, and his ability has esentation of the facts ret out.

ret out.
ie, who is acting as massies on the Metropolitan ons over NBC, shows the without the smoothnicrophone possessed by Taylor.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. JOURNAL

JAN 29 1937

Melchior Sings on KSTP Saturday

Richard Wagner's "Siegfried," third in his famous Neiblungen Ring cycle, will be broadcast over NBC-KSTP at 12:40 p.m. Saturday as this week's matinee presentation of the Metropolitan Opera Company. Lauritz Melchior, Wagnerian tenor, and Kirsten Flagstad, Norwegian soprano, will have the leading roles.

The story carries the action of the Ring cycle through the exploits of the hero, Siegfried, who at the close of the opera, frees Brunn-hilde, the goddess, from the spell cast upon her by the angry Wotan, chief of the gods.

chief of the gods.

Marcia Davenport, heard regularly as commentator, will be absent for this broadcast, but her place will be taken by John Erskine, novelist, poet, critic and president of the Juilliard School of Music.

Dr. Erskine is professor of English at Columbia University.

In addition to Miss Florida.

In addition to Miss Flagstad and Melchior, other artists on Saturday's program will be Karl Laufkoetter, Emanuel List, Kerstin Torborg, Swedish contralto; Stella Andreva, Ludwig Hofmann and Eduard Habich.

MUSICAL LEADER CHICAGO, ILL.

JAN 23 1937

Jacobi's Second Quartet

On Jan. 11, the fourth meeting of the Bohemians took place. A program of American music was arranged, in which Frederick Jacobi's Second String Quartet, in G major, was given an excellent performance by the Gordon String Quartet. This is the work which was given its premiere by the Pro Arte Quartet in California, two years ago, and played by them at a concert of the League of Composers last season. The Gordon Quartet had previously played it at a N. B. C. broadcast. The work was chosen for publication by the Society for the Publication of American Music in 1935.

Dr. John Erskine was soloist and played piano works by MacDowell, Beryl Rubinstein, Brockway, and Carpenter. Quincy Porter's Third String Quartet, this year's selection of the S. P. A. M., was also presented.

LA CRUSSE, WIS. TRIBUNE

JAN 22 1937

The writer, John Erskine, asks "Why be polite to women?" Well, self-preservation is the first law of nature.

Opera Audition Semi - Finalists To Sing Today

Three of Six Named Will Be Heard Over WEAF; Finals Are on March 28

Semi-finalists of the last half of the season's Metropolitan Auditions of the Air have been announced for WEAF broadcasts of today and next Sunday, both at 3,p. m. They were chosen by the auditioning committee of the Metropolitan Opera House from fifty-seven experienced singers who have had their tryouts in the last nineteen weeks of the broad-

The additional operatic aspirants from among whom will be chosen one or more singers for Metropolitan

Evelyn Case, soprano, of San Antonio, Tex.; Maxine Stellman, soprano, of Brattleboro, Vt.; Robert Shanley, barytone, of Connecticut; Anna Mary Dickey, soprano, of Decatur, Ill.; Arturo Cheltri, tenor, of Riverside, Calif., and Sylvia Cyde, lyric soprano, of Brooklyn. Six others were originally chosen from the semi-finals of the first half of the semi-finals of the first half of the season.

The auditioning committee is composed of Edward Johnson, general manager; John Ersking, chairman of the management committee; Earl R. Lewis, treasurer; Edward Ziegler, assistant general manager, and Wil-fred Pelletier, conductor of the sym-phony orchestra, all of the Metropolitan Opera Association.

Three of the semi-finalists just se-Three of the semi-finalists just selected will be heard again today and three next Sunday. The grand final audition will be broadcast on March 28.

March 28.

Miss Case, twenty-six years old, has sung three seasons with the American Opera Company in New York, with Roxy at Radio City and has just completed a sixteen-week radio tour. Her grandmother, a baroness, sang for the German Imperial Court. Miss Stellman, twenty-seven yeras old, is in her third year at Juilliard. She won the Atwater Kent prize in 1931 and the Morris Loeb prize of $1.000 three years ago.

Shanley is twenty-four years also

Shanley is twenty-four years old. Miss Dickey is twenty-three years old. She was a semi-finalist last season. She was a scint-inianst last sea-son. She won a Juilliard scholarship, has sung in radio, concerts and with the Chautauqua Opera and the Cin-cinnati Opera Company.

sity, Room there for alk in but professor career in m "Helen remember the day I m in Ad-a look at npliment,"

it," I re-uestion or ast activiacted as program.
tions that sing. Will gs of our operatic

rtistic ex-excelling can however, a mood of uation in point of e time in ten. The mpathetic odes of ed which our day, research but our more the ierstands ty so few is that the inter-t nation, ven that vy, espe-if eel the general ican op-

MILWAUKEE, WIS. SENTINEL

JAN 3 0 1937

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. JOURNAL

JAN 29 1937

Melchior Sings on KSTP Saturday

Richard Wagner's "Siegfried," third in his famous Neiblungen Ring cycle, will be broadcast over NEC-KSTP at 12:40 p.m. Saturday as this week's matinec presentation of the Metropolitan Opera Company. Lauritz Melchior, Wagnerian tenor, and Kirsten Flagstad, Norwegian soprano, will have the leading roles.

The story carries the action of the Ring cycle through the exploits of the hero, Siegfried, who at the close of the opera, frees Brunnhilde, the goddess, from the spell cast upon her by the angry Wotan, chief of the gods.

chief of the gods.

Marcia Davenport, heard regularly as commentator, will be absent for this broadcast, but her place will be taken by John Erskine, novelist, poet, critic and president of the Juliliard School of Music.

Dr. Erskine is professor of English at Columbia University.

In addition to Miss Flagstad and Melchior, other artists on Satur-day's program will be Karl Lauf-koetter, Emanuel List, Kerstin Torborg, Swedish contralto; Stella Andreva, Ludwig Hofmann and Eduard Habich. Andreva, Ludw Eduard Habich.

MACON, GA. TELEGRAPH JAN 3 1 1937

CONTENTION — Deems Taylor, CBS director of music, is the man whom the occasional symphony lis-tener has been looking for. He's been

Peculiar is his radio career. Although he is most certainly one of the finest critics in the country and though he is most certainly one of the finest critics in the country and an ace musician, having composed a couple of operas all out of his own head, he is blessed with a remarkable sense of humor. So, during all his past appearances on the air, he has served not as an authentic commentator so much as a slightly pixie one. Best example we can think of is the skit, credited as his classic, which has him explaining, in a dry voice, the various uses of the instruments in an orchestra. If my memory serves, he has found that a trombone, when upended with the musician under it, makes an excellent flower vase for the mantel.

Taylor's handling of the symphonies for CBS have not only been authentic, but interestingly smooth. His scholarship has unearthed for him a number of interesting facts about composers and compositions, and his ability has made his presentation of the facts glossy as all get out.

John Erskine, who is acting as master-of-ceremonies on the Metropolitan Opera Auditions over NBC, shows the same ability without the smoothness at the microphone possessed by Taylor.

MUSICAL LEADER CHICAGO, ILL.

JAN 23 1937

Jacobi's Second Quartet
On Jan. 11, the fourth meeting of the Bohemians took place. A program of American music was arranged, in which Frederick Jacobi's Second String Quartet, in G major, was given an excellent performance by the Gordon String Quartet. This is the work which was given its premiere by the Pro Arte Quartet in California, two years ago, and played by them at a concert of the League of Composers last season. The Gordon Quartet had previously played it at a N. B. C. broadcast. The work was chosen for publication by the Society for the Publication of American Music in 1935.

Dr. John Erskine was soloist and played piano works by MacDowell, Beryl Rubinstein, Brockway, and Carpenter. Quincy Porter's Third String Quartet, this year's selection of the S. P. A. M., was also presented.

LA CROSSE, WIS. TRIBUNE

JAN 22 1937

The writer, John Erskine, asks "Why be polite to women?" Well, self-preservation is the

NEW YORK, N. Y. HERALD-TRIBUNE

Opera Audition Semi - Finalists To Sing Today

Three of Six Named Will Be Heard Over WEAF; Finals Are on March 28

Semi-finalists of the last half of semi-innaiss of the last han of the season's Metropolitan Auditions of the Air have been announced for WEAF broadcasts of today and next Sunday, both at 3 p. m. They were chosen by the auditioning committee of the Metropolitan Opera House from fifty-seven experienced singers who have had their tryouts in the last nineteen weeks of the broad-

The additional operatic aspirants from among whom will be chosen one or more singers for Metropolitan contracts are:

contracts are:

Evelyn Case, soprano, of San Antonio, Tex.; Maxine Stellman, soprano, of Brattleboro, Vt.; Robert Shanley, barytone, of Connecticut; Anna Mary Dickey, soprano, of Decatur, Ill.; Arturo Cheltri, tenor, of Riverside, Calif., and Sylvia Cyde, lyric soprano, of Brooklyn. Six others were originally chosen from the semi-finals of the first half of the season.

The auditioning committee is composed of Edward Johnson, general manager; John Ersking chartman of the management committee; Earl R. Lewis, treasurer; Edward Ziegier, assistant general manager, and Wilfred Pelletier, conductor of the symphony orchestra, all of the Metropolitan Opera Association.

Three of the semi-finalists just an

Three of the semi-finalists just selected will be heard again today and three next Sunday. The grand final audition will be broadcast on March 28.

March 28.

Miss Case, twenty-six years old, has sung three seasons with the American Opera Company in New York, with Roxy at Radio City and has just completed a sixteen-week radio tour. Her grandmother, a baroness, sang for the German Imperial Court. Miss Stellman, twenty-seven yeras old, is in her third year at Juilliard, She won the Atwater Kent prize in 1931 and the Morris Loeb prize of $1,000 three years ago.

Shapley is twenty-four years old.

Shanley is twenty-four years old.
Miss Dickey is twenty-three years old. She was a semi-finalist last season. She won a Juilliard scholarship. has sung in radio, concerts and with the Chautauqua Opera and the Cin-cinnati Opera Company.

sicians but don't know now to get started on their careers.

"They probably have had good training in their home town, and feel they are ready to play or sing for some public, but they can't find the public so they go to big cities and try to take by storm the already overtaxed audiences in those places," says Erskine.

He advises young musicians to form partnerships with other young musicians. Erskine would, if he were a young musician, offer a series of programs of interesting music at small prices of admission. He wouldn't be disappointed if only twenty of the home town folk appeared.

"If the performances are worth listening to the audiences will arrive eventually," he says.

"Young musicians must realize, as writers do, that they cannot start at the top. They must first get an audience, no matter how small. I think there is a vast opportunity for more home cooking in the art of music," he concludes.

Morning Tennessean

JAN 3 1 1937

Jewish Council Announces Program For Monthly Meeting

Nashville Council of Jewish Wom-en will meet Monday afternoon at 2:50 o'clock, in the assembly room at Vine Street Temple. The ses-sion, to be presided over by Mrs. Emanuel E. Ourv, will be opened with prayer by Mrs. Morris Guttwith prayer by Mrs. Morris Guttman.

The program will be a symposium on "Woman—Vintage 193" with apologies to John Erskine, Mrs.
Manuel Eskind will also the in troduction. Participants and Subits, subjects a participants and Subits, subjects are a first albert Weinstein. "I.e.isure Woman;" Mrs.
Maurice Seligman, "Career Woman," and Mrs. Juliet Hartman
Burk, "The Woman." The sym posium will be followed by a dis cussion.

oslim will be followed by a sission.
Mrs. Manuel Eekind and Mrs aul Cohn are program chairme or the day, and Mrs. Homer Jona or the year.
Floral decorations are being alanged by Mrs. Morris Steiner an Irs. A. M. Loveman. Hostesse will be Mrs. Albert Collins, Mr. f. Steiner, Isabelle Davis and Mr. foe Morre.

CINCINNATI, O. ENQUIRER JAN 17 1937

TRANSMITTERS IN CARS.

STATEN ISLAND, N. Y. ADVANCE JAN 1 9 1937

TRANSMITTERS IN CARS.

The President will leave the south portice of the White House at 11:40 o'clock. In his motor carayan to the Capitol will be cars equipped with short-wave transmitters to give an account of the throngs lining the streets.

A secial broadcast earlier that day—starting at 8:30 o'clock over WLW and WCKY—has been arranged to test the wire network strung for the occasion. During the program, announcers who will describe the ceremonies will be introduced to the listeners. A similar broadcast will be heard over WKRC at this time, when CBS technicians broadcast will be heard over WKRC at this time, when CBS technicians broadcast will be heard over WKRC at this time, when CBS technicians broadcast will be heard at a starting the program announcers who will explain the technical aspects of the arrangements.

Adding a bit of historical color will be a dramatization of several inaugurations in the past by the New York University Workshop. These will be heard at 4:30 o'clock tomorrow and Tenseday, several preliminary broadcasts will be heard. At 4:30 o'clock tomorrow atternoon, John Erskine, professor of English literature, will call the story of presidential inaugurations in the special program for school children.

Coming over WCKY, the broadcast will include an account of the change of the inauguration dat from March 4 to January 20.

On Tuesday, WCKY will carry two pre-inauguration day programs of out-of-town visitors concerning the ceremony from the Union Station in Washington. Later that day, at 8:50 o'clock, famous newsmen, covering the affair, will be interviewed at the Washington Press Club.

NASHVILLE, TENN.

Orning Tennessean

"What's the solution, Mr. Erskine, aside from the obvious one of patient aside from the covious one of patient study?"

"There won't be any unless we produce contemporary American op-eras based on stories that arise from American life so that our singers will thoroughly understand the text and music."

TOLEDU, U. NEWS-BEE

JAN 1 8 1937

ALTHOUGH President

MILWAUKEE, WIS. SENTINEL JAN 3 0 1937

We Recom

POPULAR PRO 7:00 p. m.-WLS-Ed Wynn, with G hees and orchestra-Kitty Carlin

hees and orchestra—Kitty Carlinguest.

7:00 p. m.—WMAQ.—Saturday Night den, guest master of ceremoni planist; Donald Dickson, baritor Shelton, comedians.

8:00 p. m.—WISN.—Floyd Gibbons' orchestra—Lupe Velez and Waison p. m.—WISN—Goddy.

8:30 p. m.—WISN—Stonain Barn I singing mouse—Guest, George Caddy.

8:30 p. m.—WMAQ.—Joe Cook's Ch. Roosevelt, mother of presiden animal trainer; Nick Lucas, vo. Evelyn Tyner, planist; the Thre

CONCERT M

12:40 p. m.—WTMJ—Metropolitan O with Lauritz Melchlor, tenor, at in leading roles—Conductor, tator, Marcia Davenport—Guest 1:00 p. m.—WISN—Los Angeles Phi perer, conducting.

8:15 p. m.—WGN—Chicago Sympholoconductor. INFORMAT

1:00 p. m.—WCFL—National Dem Outlook"—Sen. David I. Walsh, 3:45 p. m.—WBBM—"Paris Looks a Kraminker, speaker. 10:00 p. m.—WISN-WIMJ—President President Roosevelt, Col. Her Keith Morgan.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. JOURNAL

JAN 29 1937

Melchior Sings on KSTP Saturday

Richard Wagner's "Siegfried." third in his famous Neiblungen Ring cycle wil be broadcast over NBC-KSTP at 12:40 p.m. Saturday as this week's matinee presentation of the distribution of the Actropolitan Opera Company, Lauritz Melchlor, Wagnerian tenor, and Kirsten Flagstad, Norwegian soprano, will have the leading toles.

ing roles.

The story carries the action of the Ring cycle through the exploits of the hero, Siegfried, who at the close of the opera, frees Brunnbilde, the goddess, from the spei cast upon her by the angry Wotan, chief of the gods.

Marcia Davanpori, heard regulars

ST. LOUIS, MO. GLOBE-DEMOCRAT

MAR 1 - 1937 7

MUSICAL AMERICA NEW YORK, N. Y.

FEB 1 0 1937

OPERA RADIO AUDITION

By Leased Wire From New York Bureau of Globe-Democrat.

NEW YORK, February 28.—Miss Willie Morris of Mexico, Mo., today of was heard in an audition of the Metropolitan Opera Company which selects finalists from hundreds of entrants yearly for possible contracts with the opera company.

Such auditions for years were held privately, and even today of scores and scores of aspirants only a few—nine or 10 yearly—reach the air in public auditions conducted by the Metropolitan Committee, which includes, among others, Director Edward Johnson of the opera and John Erskine, author and composer.

At auditions are in no sense a contest, reaching a radio audition before the committee is something like the equivalent of reaching the semifinals. Prior to these appearances hundreds of singers appear in preliminary trials at studio auditions of a broadcasting company and are selected for the Metropolitan auditions by trials conducted by Wilfred Pelletier.

Last year about 700 singers entered the preliminary trials, of whom only nine were heard in Metropolitan auditions. Two of these received contracts with the company.

Miss Morris, a personable young woman, with brown eyes and brown hair, attended Hardin College. She has appeared as a singer in radio with John Charles Thomas.

MUSICAL AMERICA

lthaca

Head of the Cornell Music d Director of the Sage Chapel Choir

MURRAY BARBOUR

ITHACA, Feb. 5.

sical progress of a city may neasured by the number and f the concerts given by resi-and organizations, Ithaca advance. There have been advance. There have been ral organizations here for both at Cornell University a College; the Cornell Orlethe Ithaca College Band ed a consistently high level nce; and music in the public is a vital force.

f weakness, despite a profu-nted solo players, has been I chamber music. This want I chamber music. This want bre than satisfied this season. accessful first appearance last string Sinfonietta, with Ron-as conductor, will be followed I concert on March 21. The t by the Cornell String Quar-wed elsewhere in this issue.

director, and the board of managers of Willard Straight Hall, Foster M. Coffin, chairman. The series was expanded this season to twenty weekly concerts, with the usual attendance of SRO proportions. It includes recitals by members of the Cornell Music department (Luther M. Noss, organist; Mr. Ingalls and Joseph Kirshbaum, violinists; Andrew C. Haigh and Paul J. Weaver, pianists); several student instrumental ensembles coached by Joseph Kirshbaum, in addition to the aforementioned String Sinfonietta and String Quartet; and the fourth annual concert by the Composers Club, which has at present a membership of twenty. Guest recitalists yet to be heard in this series are Marie Powers, contralto; George Perkins Raymond, tenor; Theodora Kingsbury, pianist; and Carl Parrish, clavichordist. There will also be a concert by the A Cappella Choir of Hiram College, of which George Howerton is the conductor. ductor.

Cornell Subscription Series

The subscription series at Cornell ends in March with concerts by the Pro Arte Quartet and the Rochester Phil-harmonic. In this series Lotte Lehmann, Fritz Kreisler, Josef Lhevinne, and the Budapest String Quartet have already Budapest String Quartet have already been heard.

John Erskine will play the Schumann Piano Concerto with the Cornell University Orchestra at the annual endowed concert on May 2, with Mr. Weaver as guest conductor. George L. Coleman will conduct the orchestra in its concert of Feb. 9, when Thomas Tracy, baritone, will be the soloist.

The Music Clubs of Cornell (the Men's Glee Club, with Eric Dudley, and the Instrumental Club, with George L. Coleman) will give their first concert of the season next week. In April they make a tour of the Middle West, principal stops being at Cleveland, Indianapolis, and Chicago. The Women's Glee Club, Mrs. Eric Dudley, director, takes part with the Music Clubs in a joint concert on April 23, and assists also in the commencement concert in also in the commencement concert in

MUSICAL AMERICA

By J. MURRAY BARBOUR ITHACA, Feb. 5.

F the musical progress of a city may best be measured by the number and quality of the concerts given by resident artists and organizations, Ithaca dent artists and organizations, Ithaca shows a sure advance. There have been notable choral organizations here for many years, both at Cornell University and at Ithaca College; the Cornell Orchestra and the Ithaca College Band have attained a consistently high level of performance; and music in the public schools also is a vital force.

schools also is a vital force.

The chief weakness, despite a profusion of talented solo players, has been in concerted chamber music. This want in concerted chamber music. This want has been more than satisfied this season. The very successful first appearance last fall of the String Sinfonietta, with Ronald Ingalls as conductor, will be followed by a second concert on March 21. The by a second concert on March 21. The first concert by the Cornell String Quartet is reviewed elsewhere in this issue. Organized last fall by Bernice Finch, instrumental director, the High School String Choir has been invited to play at the Eastern Music Supervisors Conference in Buffalo on April 16.

Popular beyond anticipation was the Sunday afternoon series, begun in the middle of last season under the joint sponsorship of the department of music of Cornell University, Paul J. Weaver, director, and the board of managers of Willard Straight Hall, Foster M. Coffin, chairman. The series was expanded this season to twenty weekly concerts, with the usual attendance of SRO proportions. It includes recitals by members of the Cornell Music department (Luther M. Noss, organist; Mr. Ingalls and Joseph Kirshbaum, violinists; Andrew C. Haigh and Paul J. Weaver, pianists); several student instrumental ensembles coached by Joseph Kirshbaum, in addition to the aforementioned String Sinfonietta and String Quartet; and the fourth annual concert by the Composers Club, which has at present a membership of twenty. Guest recitalists yet to be heard in this series are Marie Powers, contralto; George Perkins Raymond, tenor; Theodora Kingsbury, pianist; and Carl Parrish, clavichordist. There will also be a concert by the A Cappella Choir of Hiram College, of which George Howerton is the conductor.

Cornell Subscription Series

The subscription series at Cornell ends in March with concerts by the Pro Arte Quartet and the Rochester Philharmonic. In this series Lotte Lehmann, Fritz Kreisler, Josef Lhevinne, and the Budapest String Quartet have already been heard.

Budapest String Quartet have already been heard.

John Erskine will play the Schumann Piano Concerto with the Cornell University Orchestra at the annual endowed concert on May 2, with Mr. Weaver as guest conductor. George L. Coleman will conduct the orchestra in its concert of Feb. 9, when Thomas Tracy, baritone, will be the soloist.

The Music Clubs of Cornell (the Men's Glee Club, with Eric Dudley, and the Instrumental Club, with George L. Coleman) will give their first concert of the season next week. In April they make a tour of the Middle West, principal stops being at Cleveland, Indianapolis, and Chicago. The Women's Glee Club, Mrs. Eric Dudley, director, takes part with the Music Clubs in a joint concert on April 23, and assists also in the commencement concert in June.

Paul J. Weaver, Head of the Cornell Music Department and Director of the Sage Chapel Choir

LANDI COMPLETION Radio Equipme to Guide Pilots

Aerial view diam's merce to enable plant shown in the upper di course, a light flashed a signal to start losin neon lights beginning

ST. LOUIS, MO.

GLOBE-DEMOCRAT

MAR 1 - 1937

Nearing completion at it. Louis Flying Field is anding system which wis anding system which wis olioits to set down ships feel of the control of the control of the necessary was heard in an arguipment is in storage a selects finalists from with the opera comea hetween Barcelona at Such auditions it, they continued to att scores and scores obortal Rubio region. Go the air in public auditons to the necessary of the air in public auditons to the necessary of the air in public auditons to the region. Go the air in public auditons to bombed the railwing and John Erskine, at The government name audition before the control of the souther pany and are selected by Wilfred Pelletier.

Last year about 700

only nine were heard in By Associated Press. Frontracts with the compact of the souther provided the control of the souther pany and are selected by Wilfred Pelletier.

Miss Morris, a performent Afmy seek radio with John Charles Government Afmy seek radio with John Charles Government Afmy seek official accounts storage assaward along Spassaward Spassaward along Spassaward Spa

ary, the ant.

next nard

by an-ause om-ont-nore zon olay

vay, ipal

has ch," "A cert cohn cical con-

ILY alfby ute esi-ant, or-dio

age dio

hn ts,

DAVID MANNES, conductor of the free concerts at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, was honored by a committee of 100 prominent citizens during the intermission of the first concert of his twentieth year in that capacity. Richard Welling, secretary of the Philharmonic-Symphony Society of New York, in behalf of the committee, presented Mr. Mannes with an illuminated parchment scroll inscribed with a testimonial written by John-Erskine and Welling was co-chairman of the committee with Olga Samaroff-Stokowski. Mayor La Guardia was honorary chairman, and spoke at the presentation ceremony. The event took place before the thousands who have gathered at the Museum each year to hear Mr. Mannes conduct. Mme. Samaroff-Stokowski held a reception at her home honoring Mr. and Mrs. Mannes following the concert which was attended by many celebrities.

SPOKANE, WASH. CHRONICLE

John Erskine, professor-musi-cian-author, who is sometimes called "A highbrow whom low brows like," will fill the guest col-umns of the "Magazine of the Air" over KFPY Wednesday, from 12 noon to 12:30 p. m. The author of "The Private Life of Helen of Troy" has chosen "Music" as the subject of his talk.

Stage Asides

Despite reports to the contrary, am Harris is not through for the ason. He has just bought "Among the Great," by two film scribes, Edund Seward and George Bryant, hich concerns the adventures and isadventures of a ghost writer. Harris returns from Florida next eek and will place the new play rehearsals March 27.

"Hitch Your Wagon" by Hernard. Despite reports to the contrary, ek and will place the new play rehearsals March 27.

"Hitch Your Wagon," by Bernard hoenfeld, now in herearsal by sarson and Baruch, is eagerly antipated around Broadway because it rumor has spread that the comity is based on the recent frontage escaped of John Barrymore de Elaine Barrie. George Curzon ays the male lead and the play expected to open a Boston tryout te this month.

After a long and successful road ur, "The Great Waltz" will return ext month to the New Amsterdam heater. The musical, by the way, ill open $\frac{1}{2}$. Options ... John Golden has st acquired "It's Good to Be Rich," I Leonora Kaghan, who wrote "A ouch of Brimstone" ... Robert litton holds options on John riskine's "Empire State," a political massy, and "The Other Side of dory," by Rex Smith, which conerns Frederick the Great ... am Grisman has taken Miklos aszlo's "the Happiest Man in the Yorld" from Sam Harris for next asson, is casting this week for a fusical comedy, "Cross My Heart," nd rehearsals begin next Monday.

RADIO DAILY NEW YORK CITY

Los A Bureau of THE RADIO DAILY
Los Angeles—Series of 13 half-hour dramatic programs, done by biggest names among artists, writers and producers, and with four-minute talks by such world leaders as President Roosevelt, Einstein and Conant, are to go over NBC's full network starting this spring, under sponsorship of the newly organized Radio Committee of All Faiths, headed by Dr. Everett R. Clinchy of New York and Albert D. Lasker, president of Lord & Thomas.
Purpose is 'to convey a message of good will, tolerance and fellowship throughout the world."
Acceptances from invitations sent to more than 50 big names in radio already include: Dorothy Canfield, Edna Ferber, Booth Tarkington, John (Continued from Page 1)

(Continued from Page 1)
Erskine, Fanny Hurst, Rupert
Hughes, Gene Fowler, Clifford Odets, Charles Chaplin, Eddie Cantor, Abbey Players, Alfred Lunt and many others.

Part of the broadcasts will originate in the east, rest on the coast

ST. LOUIS, MO.
GLOBE-DEMOCRAT

MAR 1 - 1937 1

IN OPERA RAI

By Leased Wire From New York Bu NEW YORK, February 28.—Miss v was heard in sn audition of the Met selects finalists from hundreds of entrangement of the most of t

BROOKLYN, N. Y. TIMES UNION

MAR 1 6 1937

Stage Asides

Despite reports to the contrary, Sam Harris is not through for the season. He has just bought "Among season. He has just bought "Among the Great," by two film scribes, Edmund Seward and George Bryant, which concerns the adventures and misadventures of a ghost writer. Mr. Harris returns from Florida next week and will place the new play in rehearsals March 27.

"Hitch Your Wagon," by Bernard Schoenfeld, now in herearsal by Pearson and Baruch, is eagerly anticipated around Broadway because the rumor has spread that the comedy is based on the recent front-page escaped of John Barrymore and Elaine Barrie. George Curzon plays the male lead and the play is expected to open a Boston tryout late this month.

After a long and successful road

After a long and successful road tour, "The Great Waltz" will return next month to the New Amsterdam Theater. The musical, by the way, will open St. Louis' Municipal Opera season June 4.

Optra season June 4.

Options John Golden has Just acquired "It's Good to Be Rich," by Leonora Kaghan, who wrote "A Touch of Brimstone". Robert Milton holds options on John Erskine's "Empire State," a political fluttasy, and "The Other Side of Glory," by Rex Smith, which concerns Frederick the Great Sam Grisman has taken Miklos Laszlo's "the Happiest Man in the World" from Sam Harris for next season production.

Standish ONeil, who presented Moon Over Mulberry Street" last season, is casting this week for a musical comedy, "Cross My Heart," and rehearsals begin next Monday.

RADIO DAILY NEW YORK CITY

MAR 2 - 1937

Los Angeles—Series of 13 half-hour dramatic programs, done by biggest names among artists, writers and producers, and with four-minute talks by such world leaders as President Rossevelt, Einstein and Conant, are to go over NBC's full network starting this spring, under sponsorship of the newly organized Radio Committee of All Faiths, headed by Dr. Everett R. Clinchy of New York and Albert D. Lasker, president of Lord & Thomas.

Purpose is 'to convey a message of good will, tolerance and fellowship throughout the world."

Acceptances from invitations sent to more than '50 big names in radio already include: Dorothy Canfield, Edna Ferber, Booth Tarkington, John

(Continued from Page 1)

Continued from Page 1)
Erskine, Fanny Hurst, Rupert
Hughes, Gene Fowler, Clifford Odets,
Charles Chaplin, Eddie Cantor, Abbey Players, Alfred Lunt and many others.

Part of the broadcasts will originate in the east, rest on the coast.

ST. LOUIS, MO. GLOBE-DEMOCRAT

MAR 1 - 1937 7

IN OPERA RA

By Leased Wire From New York By NEW YORK, February 22.—Miss was heard in an audition of tha Me selects finalists from hundreds of ent with the opera company.

Such auditions for years were he with the opera company of the series of the seri

Hollywood Joining Divines In Air Series on Tolerance agazine

Hollywood, March 1.—Albert B. Lasker, president of Lord and Thomas, acting in collaboration with the National Conference of Jews and Christians, is expected to release soon full details of a new series of 13 coast-to-coast programs, a half-hour each, over NBC some time next month. The series will feature leading divines of all faiths, and topflight actors and authors who will contribute their services in an effort to foster tolerance and combat lynching and other antisocial evils. NBC will contribute the time.

Richard Carroll of Lord and Thomas' radio department in New York, is actively in charge of the pro gram plans.

It is understood that President
Roosevelt and Professors Einstein and Conant have volunteered their serv-

Conant have volunteered their services.

Among those who may contribute their services to the series are:

Dorothy Cannfeld, Edna Ferber, Booth Tarkington, John Erskine, Fannie Hurst, Rupert Hughes, Gene Fowler, Clifford Odets, Charles MacArthur, Preston Sturges, Bella and Sam Spewack, Gertrude Barg, Edgar Allan Woolf, Irving Berlin, Bayard Veiller, John Balderston, Frank R. Adams, Zoe Akins, Moss Hart, Cyril Hume, Albert Jennings, Frances Marion, Florence Ryerson, Ernest Vajda, P. G. Wodehouse, Phil Wylie, Charlie Chaplin, Eddie Cantor, Abbey Players, Alfred Lunt, Walter Connolly, Walter Hampden, Edward Everett Horton, Peter Lorre, Gorge Arliss, George M. Cohan, Clark Gable, William Powell, Robert Taylor, Gary Cooper, Fredric March, James Cagney, Edward G. Robinson, Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred March, James Cagney, Edward G. Robinson, Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred March, James Cagney, Edward G. Robinson, Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred March, James Cagney, Edward G. Robinson, Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred MacMurray, Jeanette MacDonald, Joan Crawford, Myrna Loy, Irene Dunne, Norma Shearer, Janet Gaynor, Mae West, Marlene Dietrich, Al Jolson, Harold Lloyd.

NEW ORLEANS, LA. ITEM

Dr. John Erskine Cancels Talk Here

Dr. John Erskine, noted novelist, music critic and educator, will not be able to fill his lecture engagement under the auspices of the Temple Sinai Sisterbood Forum at Dixon hall on February 10, according to announcement today by Mrs. Miriam Kahn, chairman His subject was to rave been "The Moral Obligation of the Intelligent." He is now president of the Juman School of Music in New York.

11, UNEATIVENESS, uniqueness-all have marked Rollins College's upward climb since Dr. Hamilton Holt assumed the presidency. New curriculum, new teaching ideas, new buildings, new faculty, new everything started when Dr. Holt gave his personality and intellect to the institution.

"Animated Magazine" was something new 10 years ago. Those who recall Vol. 1 No. 1-as they sprawled on a sun-kissed hill overlooking Lake Virginia - little dreamed that ensuing editions of the only American magazine that comes out alive would receive national acclaim.

Creating Animated Magazine was only one of President Holt's amazing series of innovations which gave Rollins a distinctive niche in education's hall of fame.

Vol. X, No. 1 of the famous outdoor publication edited by living, breathing, talking literary artists, principally leaders of all the arts, statesmen, scholars, men versed in the science of government, schooled in internationalism and economics, professional leaders, financiers and economists, will be published Sunday. A notable array of brilliant intellects will make another best

In past years famed authors and statesmen have graced the outdoor editorial sanctum-Irving Batcheller and Cordell Hull, Irving Fisher and Fanny Hurst, Corra Harris and Rex Beach, Ray Stannard Baker and Zona Gale, Robert Herrick and John Erskine.

Six thousand subscribers under the dome of Florida's blue sky will listen to the contributors of the big volume. In addition wires and air will carry the story to millions of other subscribers.

Another Dr. Hamilton Holt brain child has grown out of swaddling clothes and is now approaching his teens-an institution within an institution that will outlive the youngest citizen of today.

OF MAKING BOOKS

SOLOMON is reputed to have said, "Of making books, there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh."

What the wise man of Israel would have to say of the ceaseless bookmaking and publishing of this modern age is beyond imagining. The Book of Ecclesiastes is considered an expression of Solomon's worldy experiences and the vanity of human aspirations.

What an experience would be his to see the mountainous pile of books that now pour daily from the presses. It would be indeed vanity for the most scholarly to aspire to read even the smallest fraction of modern books. The feat would be physically impossible.

To aid those who have neither the time nor the inclination to wade through the mass of paper that parades under the name of literature, book digests and books in brief have been published with an eye to satisfying this class of would-be readers and to the personal emolument of the pub-

The book reviewer for Th Miami Herald is on record as op posed to this sort of condens tion. Naturally a book reviewer would be satisfied only with the whole course and not the dessert.

The position, however, is at variance with the noted author, John Erskine. Although Erskine feels as an author that works of literature, if possible, should be read entire, he frankly admits that "the accumulation of important books in the world is so great and is increasing so fast that none of us can read more than a fraction of the output complete."

Even this author of note and great financial success is of the opinion of Solomon that of making books there is no end. He, too, is ready to admit his weariness of flesh in trying to study

Praises have been chanted of the man of one book. It were better for the mind and for culture generally if students and those of literary bent decided on one book, or a series of books hat have withstood the test of ime, and confine their reading to this field.

They then would have neither care for diverse complete works nor digests. That they would be well equipped with literary lore and pleasurable converse with great minds of all times is selfevident.

The making of many books may result sooner or later in the industry dying of its own too nuch. Mental pabulum cannot be crowded any more than material aliment without nausea or indigestion.

mpiric t your ore orale?

Concate vatally

SHE in ht than d. You ne, you st, don't ay that t your me out

d, pub-ith. It stories, authors.
ad other in the owill be oming isof The our or-

IE in than

You

you

that your

"the d, pub-stories, authors.

in the will be e out

time.
Richard Carroll of Lord and Thomas' radio department in New York, is actively in charge of the program plans.

It is understood that President
Roosevelt and Professors Einstein and Conant have volunteered their serv-

Conant have volunteered their services.

Among those who may contribute their services to the series are:

Dorothy Canfield, Edna Ferber, Booth Tarkington, John Erskine, Fannie Hurst, Rupert Hughes, Gene Fowler, Clifford Odets, Charles MacArthur, Preston Sturges, Bella and Sam Spewack, Gertrude Barg, Edgar Allan Woolf, Irving Berlin, Bayard Veiller, John Balderston, Frank Adams, Zoe Akins, Moss Hart, Cyril Hume, Albert Jennings, Frances Wajda, P. G. Wodehouse, Phil Wylie, Charlie Chaplin, Eddie Cantor, Abbey Players, Alfred Lunt, Walter Connolly, Walter Hampden, Edwart Everett Horton, Peter Lorre, George Arliss, George M. Cohan, Clark Gable, William Powell, Robert Taylor, Gary Cooper, Fredric March, James Cagney, Edward G. Robinson, Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred MacMurray, Jeanette MacDonald, Joan Crawford, Myrna Loy, Irene Dunne, Norma Shearer, Janet Gaynor, Mae West, Marlene Dietrich, Al Jolson, Harold Lloyd.

NEW ORLEANS, LA. ITEM

Dr. John Erskine Cancels Talk Here

Callcers Talk Tiere

Long John Erskine, noted novelist, music critic and educator, will not be able to fill his lecture engagement under the auspices of the Temple Sinai Sisterhood Forum at Dixon hall on February 10, according to announcement today by Mrs.

Mirlam Kahn, chairman

His subject was to rave been "The Moral Obligation of the Intelligent." He is now president of the Jumary School of Music in New York.

.

ORLANDO, FLA. SENTINEL FEB 1 8 1937

Animated Magazine

ORIGINALITY, CREATIVENESS, uniqueness-all have marked Rollins College's upward climb since Dr. Hamilton Holt assumed the presidency. New curriculum, new teaching ideas, new buildings, new faculty, new everything started when Dr. Holt gave his personality and intellect to the

"Animated Magazine" was something new 10 years ago. Those who recall Vol. 1 No. 1-as they sprawled on a sun-kissed hill overlooking Lake Virginia - little dreamed that ensuing editions of the only American magazine that comes out alive would receive national acclaim.

Creating Animated Magazine was only one of President Holt's amazing series of innovations which gave Rollins a distinctive niche in education's hall of fame.

Vol. X, No. 1 of the famous outdoor publication edited by living, breathing, talking literary artists, principally leaders of all the arts, statesmen, scholars, men versed in the science of government, schooled in internationalism and economics, professional leaders, financiers and economists, will be published Sunday. A notable array of brilliant intellects will make another best seller.

In past years famed authors and statesmen have graced the outdoor editorial sanctum-Irving Batcheller and Cordell Hull, Irving Fisher and Fanny Hurst, Corra Harris and Rex Beach, Ray Stannard Baker and Zona Gale, Robert Herrick and John

Erskine. dome of Florida's blue sky will listen to the contributors of the big volume. In addition wires and air will carry the story to millions of other subscribers.

Another Dr. Hamilton Holt brain child has grown out of swaddling clothes and is now approaching his teens-an institution within an institution that will outlive the youngest citizen of today.

MIAMI, FLA HERALD

FFB 1 1 1937

OF MAKING BOOKS

SOLOMON is reputed to have said, "Of making books, there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh."

What the wise man of Israel would have to say of the ceaseless bookmaking and publishing of this modern age is beyond imagining. The Book of Ecclesiastes is considered an expression of Sölomon's worldy experiences and the vanity of human aspirations.

What an experience would be his to see the mountainous pile of books that now pour daily from the presses. It would be indeed vanity for the most scholarly to aspire to read even the smallest fraction of modern books. The feat would be physically impossible.

To aid those who have neither the time nor the inclination to wade through the mass of paper that parades under the name of literature, book digests and books in brief have been published with an eye to satisfying this class of would-be readers and to the personal emolument of the publishers.

The book reviewer for Th Miami Herald is on record as of posed to this sort of condense tion. Naturally a book reviewer would be satisfied only with the whole course and not the dessert.

The position, however, is at variance with the noted author, John Erskine. Although Erskine feels as an author that works of literature, if possible, should be read entire, he frankly admits that "the accumulation of important books in the world is so great and is increasing so fast that none of us can read more than a fraction of the output complete."

Even this author of note and great financial success is of the opinion of Solomon that of making books there is no end. He, too, is ready to admit his weariness of flesh in trying to study them

Praises have been chanted of the man of one book. It were better for the mind and for culture generally if students and those of literary bent decided on one book, or a series of books hat have withstood the test of ime, and confine their reading to this field.

They then would have neither care for diverse complete works nor digests. That they would be well equipped with literary lore and pleasurable converse with great minds of all times is selfevident.

The making of many books may result sooner or later in the industry dying of its own too much. Mental pabulum cannot be crowded any more than material aliment without nausea or Writer Predicts Revolution If U.S. Gets In Foreign War

NEW YORK, Feb. 24—Warning that foreign governments are now preparing to persuade America to finance and fight their next war, John Erskine today declared such action by the U. S. would probably result in a revolution at home.

In an article "To Hell With These Debt-Settling Foreigners," appearing in the current Liberty magazine, the noted author writes, "... the most pacific of us would defend our land against invasion, but the administration which tried to send American troops abroad again would probably have a rebellion on its hands."

hands." A delegation representing the British parliament will soon visit this country, Erskhne reveals, ostensibly to discuss settlement of the war debt. The real reason, he says, is "to tour our country, lecture us on our duty to Europe, and get us into the next war."

on our duty to Europe, and get us into the next war."

Suggests a Greeting

"If foreign governments would pay their debts; or sincerely wished to," Erskine points out. "there would be need of no official mission to prepare the American minduless they fear we might faint with surprise. If defaulting nations now talk of paying, it's because they contemplate another war and could use our resources and men."

Erskine indicates he would like to see Americans prepared to greet their foreign visitors with a lusty. "Go to Hell!"

"If they think they can wheedle out of us another gift of money, of man power, they must take us for fools. If we permit them to discuss the debts without paying, and by that trick are cajoled into giving them what they want, we are even bigger fools than they think."

MEMPHIS, TENN. Commercial Appeal

FEB 2 8 1937

MORE and more is being heard about Marcia Davenport, author of "Of Lena Geyer," new and popular. It makes us bitterer and bitterer to think on the advantages some people have in being exposed to the great. Marcia D. is the daughter of Alma Gluck, the step-daughter of Zimbalist, the pet of Toscanini, and wife of Russell Davenport, an editor of Fortune. She broadcasts every Saturday her interpretation of the music (which she should know all about b'gad) of the Metropolitan Opera. Interest in the Met., by the way, is consuming John Erskine.

Who else is where? Well, Edna St. Vincent Millay and her spouse, Eugene Boissevain, spend the winter in New York City, planning to return to their farm u'state in the spring.

BRIDGEPORT, CONN. POST

The Last Word

Poor Caspers

DEAR MR. HOLBROOK:-

May I tell you that I am weary of reading about the Vanishing American Male and how he has fallen victim of a vampiric womankind. Stop me if I am being fresh, but wouldn't your essay in The American Mercury be more vivile with more originality?

Why are women blamed for the passing of the late maie? Where was the male-ness that could not withstand the tide? Consider yourself heckled, Mr. Holbrook, if you intend seriously to blame women for what I will admit readily has become a deplorable situation. I cannot imagine a mother wanting to educate her kid into an orchid. Less credible is a girl consciously cultivating a lisping husband, though, come to think of it, unless orally handicapped, one does not lisp "Will you be my wife?"

You and John Erskine may be right about the preponderant SHE in the public school faculties and clubs. But you are no more right than the old reformers who insisted that environment moulded the child. You generalize—a bad, feminine trait, and what is even more feminine, you personalize your plight as if to say, "If I seem to be a Milquetoast, don't

It seems to me flagrantly sophomoric to believe at this late day that soldiering is a test of manliness. "Pacifism has decayed (hasn't your perb donned a transitive beard?)—pacifism has decayed," you say, "the martial spirit." You are alarmed because "no President has come out

Oh we women are not taking statements like this seriously, but know, please, that such opinions, while readable copy, draw a chorus of one expressive word from all women. The word is "Fiddle-dee-dee."

NEW ORLEANS, LA. ITEM

John Erskine To Lecture At Dixon Hall, February 10th

Dr. John Erskine, best selling novelist, music critic and educator, will speak at Dixon hall on Wednesday, February 10, according to an announcement made by the Forum Lectures. Dr. Erskine takes the place of another forum speaker, previously announced, who will not eable to fulfill his contract. His talk is certain to be as bright and brilliant as his famous novels "Helm of Troy," "Galahad," and "Adam and Eve." He has chosen for his New Orleans lecture the subject hat has proved of greatest interest in his talks throughout the nation—"The Moral Obligation to be Inelligent."

Dr. Erskine has recently been elligent."

Dr. Erskine has recently been nade president of Juliliard School of Music in New York, and was unit that time professor in the Desartment of English at Columbia university. Has platform style is haracterized by the same delight. In timate and charming style hat characterized his best known orks. Many of these, by the way, re now achieving great popularity na Europe.
All subscribers to the Forum Lecures will be admitted to Dr.

One of the newer pocket magazines is Hard Boiled, published by Street and Smith. It contains rather racy stories, written by front-rank authors. John Erskine, Colette and other high-priced manes appear in the table of contents, Toledo will be represented in a forthcoming issue. Milton Thompson of The News-Bee's editoral staff has sold the magazine The Princess of Soo Chow Road." I read the story in manuscript and found it

Motion Picture Daily NEW YORK, N. Y.

Hollywood Jo In Air Serie

Hollywood, March 1.—Albert B Lasker, president of Lord and Thomas acting in collaboration with the National Conference of Jews and Christians, is expected to release soon ful details of a new series of 13 coast-to-coast programs, a half-hour each, over NEC some time next month. The series will feature leading divines of all faiths, and topflight actors and thours who will contribute their series in an effort to foster tolerance and combat lynching and other antisocial evils. NEC will contribute the time.

Richard Carroll of Lord and Thomas' radio department in New York, is actively in charge of the program plans.

It is understood that Presiden Roosevelt and Professors Einstein and Conant have volunteered their services.

Among those who may contribute

Roosevelt and Professors Einstein and Conant have volunteered their services.

Among those who may contribut their services to the series are:
Dorothy Canfield, Edna Ferber Booth Tarkington, John Erskine, Fannie Hurst, Rupert Hughes, Geneine Hurst, Roose Sella and Sam Spewack, Gertrude Berg, Edga Allan Woolf, Irving Berlin, Bayar Veiller, John Balderston, Frank Radams, Zoe Akins, Moss Hart, Cyr Hume, Albert Jennings, France Marion, Florence Ryerson, Ernes Vajda, P. G. Wodehouse, Phil Wylicharlie Chaplin, Eddie Cantor, Abbe Players, Alfred Lunt, Walter Conolly, Walter Hampden, Edward Everett Horton, Peter Lorre, Georg Arliss, George M. Cohan, Clar Gable, William Powell, Robert Tajor, Gary Cooper, Fredrix Marel James Cagney, Edward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney, Edward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney, Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney, Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney, Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney, Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney, Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney, Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney, Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney, Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney, Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney, Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney, Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney, Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney, Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred Marel James Cagney Leward G. Robinson Paul Muni, Bing Crosb

NEW ORLEANS, LA. ITEM

Dr. John Erskine Cancels Talk Here

Dr. John Erskine, noted novelist, nusic critic and educator, will not se able to fill his lecture engagement under the auspices of the company of the compan

IC

ther

d ented at Philip

ve personally-this nall body of Marvel comes Tuesday to or, Maestro John F. Junior High School.

Radiolore

By IDA AHLBERG

They're Both M. C.'s on NBC Met Auditions

line's Message usic Clubs Magazine Of Interest to Georgia

d it is not yet e will be able te national con-for April 23 . Mrs. Jardine Mrs. Jardine ge numbers of rs whose comard at the cony young artist's aging to youthicians that will time. Mrs. Jar1 honored with e board of the ion of Music ther ladies who nored are Mrs. elley and Mrs.

of the Music many items of amembers of Music its message disinterest in multiple of Musicians and the seep readers in touch with all musical activities in this country.

Mrs. Gordon Curtis is music

ly and unofent to press bed it is not yet d it is not yet
e will be able

THE ALBANY PIANO CLUB is not only promoting the cause of music and the fine arts through the field of concert and study, but is making civic discussion of this subject one of the features of its radio programs. On a recent broadcast, J. O. Allen, superintendent of the high schools spoke on the growth of fine arts in the public schools. Mr. Allen explained the gradual change from the realistic philosophy which proved so unsuccessful during the financial depression to the new philosophy which proved so unsuccessful during the financial depression to the new philosophy which proved so unsuccessful during the financial depression to the new philosophy which has for its goal development of the whole personality, with opportunities for the stimulation of latent talent in the individual, looking toward arintelligent use of the ever-increasing leisure time which must be wisely spent.

At the last meeting of the Albany Piano Club, Anna Louise McCormack reported her trip to Columbus to attend the Martin concert, and Lucille Feingold discussed the Toscha Seidel violit concert in Albany. Celia Kopple and Lorraine Ferrell told of the history of the piano and its construction. Miss Helen Rixey is counselor and district junior director.

SUFFOLK, VA. NEWS-HERALD FEB 261937 W

NOT BIGGER FOOLS THAN WE

John Erskine, the author, writing in the current issue of a popular magazine, says a delegation representing the British parliament is coming here soon to discuss war debt settlement. But that is not all the writer expects them to do. He sees them touring he country, lecturing us on our "duty to Europe" and get us into another

Mr. Erskine works himself up into a frenzy as he writes, registering alarm at the turn of every period. Evidently he fears the mesmeric powers of the Britisher and so is putting us on our guard. Yet he tells us that an administration "which tried to send American troops abroad would probably have a rebellion on its hands." If this be true, then the visitors will have only their trouble for their pains.

BURLINGTON, VT. FREE PRESS

FEB 12 1937

HOMESTEAD, PA. MESSENGER FEB 161937

VIC

AY

Other ed

sented at Philip

tive personally-this mall body of Marvel comes Tuesday to tor, Maestro John F. Junior High School.

ATLANTA, GA. JOURNAL

FEB 7 - 1937

Mrs. Jardine's Message In Music Clubs Magazine Of Interest to Georgia

THE NEW issue of the Music Clubs Magazine has arrived and contains many items of interest to Georgia members of the National Federation of Music Clubs. Mrs. Jardine's message discusses the growing interest in music in the United States being manifested officially and unofficially.

This magazine went to press before the floods, and it is not yet known if Louisville will be able

This magazine went to press before the floods, and it is not yet known if Louisville will be able to act as hosts to the national convention, scheduled for April 23 to 30 in that city. Mrs. Jardine speaks of the large numbers of American composers whose compositions will be heard at the convention, and of the young artists' contests, so encouraging to youthful American musicians that will take place at that time. Mrs. Jardine has just been honored with membership on the board of the National Association of Music Schools. The only other ladies who have been so honored are Mrs. Edgar Stillman Kelley and Mrs. Crosby Adams.

Of outstanding importance is the interest Dr. J. W. Studebaker, United States commissioner of education, is taking in plans being formulated for a division of fine arts in the United States Office of Education. The Federal Music Projects are now organized for the second time under Dr. Sokoloff, and even greater results are being predicted from this source. Other articles of interest in this issue of the Music Clubs Magazine zine may be secured through her.

The ALBANY PIANO CLUB is not only promoting the cause of music and the fine arts through the field of concert and study, but is making civic discussion of this subject one of the features of its radio programs. On a recent broadcast, J. O. Allen, superintendent of the high school spoke on the growth of fine arts in the public schools. Mr. Allen explained the gradual change from the realistic philosophy which proved so unsuccessful during the financial depression to the new philosophy which has for its goal development of the whole personality, with opportunities for the stimulation of latent talent in the individual, looking toward are intelligent use of the ever-increasing leisure time which must be wisely spent.

At the last meeting of the Albany Piano Club, Anna Louise McCormack reported her trip to Columbus to attend the Martin concert, and Lucille Feingold discussed the Toscha Seidel violit concert in Albany. Celia Kopple and Lorraine Ferrell told of the history of the piano and its construction. Miss Helen Rixey it counselor and district junior director.

SUFFOLK, VA. NEWS-HERAL!

FEB 261937

NOT BI John Ersk current issue delegation re ment is com debt settlem writer expec... touring he "duty to Eu Mr. Ersk 49c frenzy as heturn of ever mesmeric po putting us of an administ 42c erican trooprebellion on the visitors ... BURLINGTON, VT. FREE PRESS FEB 12 1937

JOHN ERSKINE—Professor at Columbia. Hasn't had time to figure out a fussy system. Perhaps after a few more like "Helen of Troy" and "Galahad," he may have leisure to develop one.

It is rather surprising that many authors taboo the typewriter. They claim if retards the even flow of ideas. But many of the best hammers their surfice of the best hammers their surfice out exclusively.

William C. DeMille, Here Wednesday, Told Lansing Audience Superior

A recent interview with William C. DeMille, noted motion picture producer and director, gives a foretaste of what Lansing Town Hall patrons may expect when Mr. DeMille talks here Wednesday evening at West junior high school auditorium. The lecture is scheduled to start at 8:15 o'clock.

here Wednesday evening at vices provided to start at 8-15 o'clock.

Recently Mrs. E. H. Clark, manager of the Town Hall series, visited Mr. Deallile at his New York home. She said the movie producer was looking forward with interest to his takin in Lainsing because of what his friend and college mate, John Erskine, the writer, who lectured here a year or on a go, to dot him about the Lainsing audience, Mr. DeMille was unwilling to tell her any of the substance of his lecture, feeling it should be reserved especially for his literaters here Wednesday, Mrs. Clark asid.

"Right Stories" Major Problem

He was cager, however, to discuss a number of other matters which are in his thoughts these days. When asked what he considered to be the biggest problem of Hollywood that his considered to be the biggest problem of Hollywood that killed the gooder legg," he said, "Finding the right stories, and crough of them." I'm a way Hollywood has killed the gooder legg," he sareted. "The may be purchased Wednesday at Townent that a playwight or novells, turns out a piece that is adaptable for hellywood to write scenarios on contract, usually on a yearly basis, Under the structure witting which would provide superior material."

In speaking of Hollywood's absorption of legaling playwights and novelusts, Mr. DeMille recalled a dinner list, Mr. DeMille recalle material."

In speaking of Hollywood's absorption of leading playwrights and novelists, Mr. DeMille recalled a dinner given by 90 playwrights in Hollywood

BANY SYMPHONIC TH YOUNG SOPRANO

m of Wide Versatility to Be Presented at Philip Livingston Junior High; Other Musical Events Scheduled

, warm tone, absolute pitch and attractive personally—this ion is encompassed, so 'tis said, in the small body of Marvel outhful operatic and concert soprano who comes Tuesday to the Albany Symphony Orchestra.

orchestra with Miss Biddle and the conductor, Maestro John P., will be heard at the Philip Livingston Junior High School.

BEE FEB 1 - 1937

FRESNO, CAL.

John Erskine, the writer, asks: Why be polite to women? Why not? In fact, why not be polite to every one in the sense of the old adage;

Politeness is to do and say
The kindest thing in the kindest way.

...... They're Both M. C.'s or

HOMESTEAD, PA. MESSENGER

FEB 1 6 1937

Dr. John Etskins (left), president of the Zuilliard School, and new deard Johnson, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera g

SUFFOLK, VA. NEWS-HERALD FEB 261937 W

NOT BIGGER FOOLS THAN

NOT BIGGER FOOLS THAN
John Erskine, the author, writin
current issue of a popular magazin
delegation representing the Britisi
ment is coming here soon to dis debt settlement. But that is not writer expects them to do. He se touring he country, lecturing us
"duty to Europe" and get us into war.

war.

Mr. Erskine works himself the frenzy as he writes, registering alar turn of every period. Evidently he mesmeric powers of the Britisher and administration "which tried to serican troops abroad would probably rebellion on its hands." If this be the their pains.

SAN JOSE, CALIF. MERCURY-HERALD

JAN 3 0 1937

SATURDAY OPERA.

MERCURY-HERALD

JAN 3 0 1937

SATURDAY OPERA.

SATURDAY OPERA.
Lauritz Melchior, the greatest living Wagnerian tenors, and rsten Flagsted, Norwegian soano whose rise to world fame
s been a sensation of opera, Il take the leading roles in chard Wagner's opera, "Sieged," to be heard over KGO at 40 a. m. John Erskine, presint of the Juillard school of usic, will comment between is.

ALBANY, N. Y. Knickerbocker Press

FEB 2 1 1937

ALBANY SYMPHONIC ORCHESTRA TO PLAY WITH YOUNG SOPRANO

Program of Wide Versatility to Be Presented at Philip Livingston Junior High; Other Musical Events Scheduled

Clear, warm tone, absolute pitch and attractive personally—this combination is encompassed, so 'tis said, in the small body of Maryel Biddle, youthful operatic and concert soprano who comes Tuesday to sing with the Albany Symphony Orchestra.

The orchestra with Miss Biddle and the conductor, Maestro John F.

Carabella, will be heard at the Philip Livingston Junior High School. The soloist, who is identified professionally with the Juilliard Foundation School of Music, was engaged for the Albany concert on the especial recommendation of John F. Erskine, musician, novel-ist and a director of the Metropolitan Opera as well as the Juil-ist and a director of the Metropolitan Opera as well as the Juliliard school.

Miss Biddle is to sing the Jewel Song from Gounod's "Faust" and Glazounov's "Primsvera d'Or," in a ddition to whatever encores she voucheafes her admirers.

Weeks of rehearsal by Maestro Carabella and his orchestra have brought forth a well-rounded program of instrumental entertainment for Tuesday's concert which will start with Massenet's overture Phedre." The principal effort will be Beethoven's Seventh Symphony.
During the second half of the program, the orchestra will be heard in three movements from Tschalkowsky's "Nut Cracker" suite and the famed "Caucasian Sketches" by Ippolitov-Ivanow.

The concert promises to be the best public performance yet achieved by the organization which, at long last, is receiving the public recognition the determination of the maestro and his men deserve. Carabella and his concert master this year have succeeded in strengthening the brass and woodwind choirs to a high level long held by the strings.

FRESNO, CAL. BEE

FEB 1 - 1937

John Ergkine, the writer, asks: Why be polite to women? Why not? In fact, why not be polite to every one in the sense of the old adage:

Politeness is to do and say The kindest thing in the kindest

HOMESTEAD, PA. MESSENGER FEB 1 6 1937

They're Both M. C.'s or

Dr. John Erskine (left), presi-dent of the Juilliard School, and in Edward Johnson, general mana-ger of the Metropolitan Opera g

SUFFOLK, VA. NEWS-HERALD

FEB 261937 W

NOT BIGGER FOOLS THAN

NOT BIGGER FOOLS THAN
John Erskine, the author, writin
current issue of a popular magazin
delegation representing the Britisl
ment is coming here soon to dis
debt settlement. But that is not writer expects them to do. He set touring he country, lecturing us
"duty to Europe" and get us into war.

war.

Mr. Erskine works himself the frenzy as he writes, registering alar turn of every period. Evidently he mesmeric powers of the Britisher and administration "which tried to serican troops abroad would probably rebellion on its hands." If this be the their pains.

uditions

ard School, and opolitan Opera

the Metropolih Sunday over I, at 3:00 p. m. own that "debunking" gods and heroes of Mr. Harwood is not velode the traditions Olympus, Troy and

They're Both M. C's on NBC Met Auditions

PLAYS—and How to Produce Them RTALS": A play by H. 1 (Heinemann, 5s.).

the Air program.

The young men and women who come before the microphone on NBC's Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air program are one moment novices and the next opera stars. Anyhow, that's how it seems to Draw John Erskine, president of the Juilliard School of Music, and Edward Johnson, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company, which alternate as master-of-ceremonies on the program.

Among the vocalists who have stepped from the Auditions program to the Metropolitan Opera are: Anna Kaskas, contralto; Arthur Carron, tenor; Joseph Massue, tenor; Anna Mary Dickey, soprano; Dale Jonse baritone: Lucille Browning, contratto; Emily Hardy, coloratura soprano; Lionel Daunais, baritone, and Rise Stevens, contratto.

Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air is heard each Sunday over Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air is heard each Sunday over Sunday Richards is y amateur drama to many listeners Children's Hour, from which several of her plays for children have been broadcast.

THIS CLIPPING FROM DES MOINES, IA.

Now Miss Richards, who is a Sutton Coldfield resident, has written a most admirably practical book on the art of producing plays. For some time she worked as assistant stage manager at Citizen House, Bath, and the fruits of herexperience there are revealed in her writing. From the first anxious discussions as to what play shall be chosen, to the final, often neglected, details of costumes, Miss Richards provides helpful and encouraging guidance.

That is one of the pleasantest things about this book—she makes the whole business sound such fun that the reader immediately wonders why he or she doesn't start out to put the advice into practice. The book is supplemented by excellent photographs and diagrams.

Ideal for Amateurs

Ideal for Amateurs

A MATEUR dramatic societies looking for a well-turned one-act play might do well to consult this collection, which occupies third place in this list. The names of the authors will probably be unfamiliar, but to amateur societies this is in some measure an advantage because most of the better-known drama presents no novelty to the audience.

The ten plays in this volume are varied fare. "All In The Day's Work" is a witty sketch satirising the Society woman's interest in her own nerves; "City Frolic" is a shrewd cameo of office life; "Underground" is a poignant little tragedy of a colliery; and "It's Hard to Grow Old" is another study of working-class conditions.

The most unusual of the plays is the Street Beaut's "Mr. Loose class conditions.

The most unusual of the plays is Mr. Stuart Ready's "Mr. Jones Dines Out"—an imaginative episode of a character who madvertently dines with his past and inture selves. For sheer dramatic effect, "The Whip Hand" is the pick of the bunch.

DES MOINES, IA. TRIBUNE FEB 1 3 1937

Al Jolson and Ruby Keeler have been working with their hired hands lighting smudge pots to save their citrus crop during the California cold spell.

Ferrin Fraser, who authors Little Orphan Annie, was a protege of John Erskine while a student at Columbia University. He also studied with Hervey Allen, author of "Anthony Adverse."

Barnard Alumnae

Hear Miss Erskine

FEB 25 1937

Miss Helen Erskine, assistant to Dean Virginia C. Gildersleeve of Barnard College, and a sister of John Erskine, novelist, was the guest of honor at a dinner at the Homestead Thursday night. The dinner was given by members of the committee in charge of the Union County Barnard Alumnae Association meeting, which followed at the YMCA and at which M.ss Erskine was the speaker.

The committee was composed of Mrs. J. Russell Freeman and Miss Elsa M. Meder of Westfield, Mrs. Carl O. Sayward of Fanwood, and Mrs. Herbert W. Schlicting, Mrs. Chalmers W. T. Overton and Mrs. Robert P. Coates of Plainfield.

The meeting of the county club was its second, as the organization has just been formed, and there were alumnae from towns and cities in the county and vicinity. There will be alumnae from towns and cities in the county and vicinity. There will be a meeting in March with another prominent Barnard alumnae as the

"THESE MORTALS": A play by H. M. Harwood (Heinemann, 5s.).

"PRACTICAL PLAY PRODUCTION." By Mary Richards (Evans Brothers, Ltd., 4s. 6d.).

"TEN PRIZE ONE-ACT PLAYS" (Allen and Unwin, 5s.).

It is well known that "debunking" the famous characters of history has been a favourite exercise of our brighter historians for some years. Lately the practice has been extended to include the mythical and semi-mythical gods and heroes of antiquity, and Mr. Harwood is not the first to explode the traditions that surround Olympus, Troy and Greece.

that surround Olympus, Troy and Greece.

His subject in this play is the Trojan War, and anyone who remembers John Erskine's delicious treatment of the same theme will wonder whether Mr. Harwood's will bear comparison. But they need not fear; in wit and pungency this satire equals any of its predecessors. The author shows the real motives of the war as economic, and Helen's flight with Paris as a put-up job engineered by the willy Odysseus to provide the Greeks with a slogan which will secure the necessary entitusiasm in the nation—"For the purity of the Home—for the sanctity of Marriage."

It is his object, in fact, to exhibit the ancients (including the gods, whose reactions to the situation are portrayed in two scenes) as being much like ourselves, and statesmanship to have advanced very little in the interval. His philosophy is developed in a long preface and a St. Joan-like epilogue. It is all very wittily and charmingly done, with a righness of touch that almost conceals its seriousness of purpose.

G. P. C.

The name of Mary Richards is familiar to many amateur drama

The name of Mary Richards is familiar to many amateur drama enthusiasts, and to many listeners to the Midland Children's Hour, from which several of her plays for children have been broadcast.

Now Miss Richards, who is a Sutton Coldfield resident, has written a most admirably practical book on the art of producing plays. For some time she worked as assistant stage manager at Citizen House, Bath, and the fruits of her experience there are revealed in her writing. From the first anxious discussions as to what play shall be chosen, to the final, often neglected, details of costumes, Miss Richards provides helpful and encouraging guidance.

That is one of the pleasantest things about this book—she makes the whole business sound such fun that the reader immediately wonders why he or she doesn't start out to put the advice into practice. The book is supplemented by excellent photographs and diagrams.

Ideal for Amateurs

A MATEUR dramatic societies looking for a well-turned one-act play might do well to consult this collection, which occupies third place in this list. The names of the authors will probably be unfamiliar, but to amateur societies this is in some measure an advantage because most of the better-known drama presents no novelty to the audience.

The ten plays in this volume are varied fare. "All In The Day's Work" is a witty sketch satirising the Society woman's interest in her own nerves; "City Frolic" is a shrewd cameo of office life; "Underground" is a polgnant little tragedy of a colliery; and "It's Hard to Grow Old" is another study of working-class conditions.

The most unusual of the plays is Mr. Stuart Ready's "Mr. Jones Dines Out"—an imaginative episode of a character who madvertently dines with his past and fruire selves. For sheer dramatic effect, "The Whip Hand" is the pick of the bunch.

Brandon Miss JAN 28 1937 ginced. This phindness had beer the own, his new vision was his own. And he declared with finging words, "One thing I know, that whereas I was blind how I see."

That is the voice of experience that is the sweet between that is the surest testimony to what Jesus can do to lift man from darkness into light. A MILLION" Wynters and the "pixilated sisters run at the Istrione Friday, Feb. 5.

ditions

rd School, and politan Opera the Metropoli-h Sunday over I, at 3:00 p. m.

BAREFOOT

J. Y. Barnes is on the sick list this week. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Edgar Le Edwards is spend-ing a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Holmes of Holly Bush.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ivy motored to Canton Friday. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Harrell.

Miss Madelon Hodges of Clarks-

THIS CLIPPING FROM DES MOINES, IA. TRIBUNE FEB 1 3 1937

Al Joison and Ruby Keeler have been working with their hired hands lighting smudge pots to save their citrus crop during the California cold spell.

Ferrin Fraser, who authors Little Orphan Annie, was a protege of John Erskine while a student at Columbia University.
He also studied with Hervey Allen, author of "Anthony Adverse."

Barna

Miss
Dean Virg...
nard College, an of Erskine, novelist, of the Committee in Charge of the Committee in Charge of the Union County Barnard Alumnae Association meeting, which followed at the YMCA and at which Miss Erskine was the speaker.

followed at the YMCA and at which Miss Erskine was the speaker.

The committee was composed of Mrs. J. Russell Freeman and Miss Elsa M. Meder of Westfield, Mrs. Carl O. Sayward of Fanwood, and Mrs. Herbert W. Schlicting, Mrs. Chalmers W. T. Overton and Mrs. Robert P. Coates of Plainfield.

The meeting of the county club was its second, as the organization has just been formed, and there were alumnae from towns and cities in the alumnae from towns and cities in the county and vicinity. There will be a meeting in March with another prominent Barnard alumnae as the

FEB 7 - 1937

RADIO DIAL CINCINNATI, OHIO

181937

World Music

In selection of the hymn for the month for special study during February, the department of Music in Religious, Education of the Atlanta Music Club and the Georgia Federation of Music tion of Music Clubs, Nana Tucker, chair-man, co-operates with the World Day of Prayer program, of the Feder a ted Church Women of Georgia.

"Hail to the MISS SPAIN Lord's Anointed," one of the hymns of the church, has been other bunch of praiseful words to selected by the national committee for the world-wide opening on

Miss Tucker gives this description of the hymn:

"This noble hymn is James Montgomery's celebrated version of the 73rd Psalm. It ranks with the greatest hymns of the world, being found in hymnals of all denominations. It was intended originally as an ode in celebration of Christmas. First sung at one of the Moravian settlements, December, 1821.

"The following April, when addressing a Wesleyan missionary conference in Liverpool, the author recited the peem as a climax to his appeal. It was received with such enthusiasm the presiding bishop had it printed in the Commentary. It soon began to find its way around the globe.
"Written at a time when new printed in the Commentary. It soon began to find its way around the globe.

"Written at a time when new impulses of freedom were stirring the world, the lines are not those of an idealist expressed in poetle imagery, but rather of a seer in prophetic vision.

"The hymn-tune most used is "Home."

The "Junior Division" is vitally interesting.

There is much state club news from all parts of the United States.

Get a copy through the Georphote thout and Lily Pons are in prophetic vision.

Mrs. Gordon W. Curtiss, 628 East Pelham Road, N. E., Atlanta.

'Ellacombe,' old German air by Conrad Kocher; or the more Havergal."

The Jewish National Workers' Alliance will present Brachah Zfirah, interpreter of Palestine and Oriental folklore; and Nachum Nardi, composer-pianist, in recital at 8:30 o'clock Sunday eve-ning, February 28, at the Jewish Educational Alliance, 319 Capitol Educational Avenue, S. E.

"Billy" Munn, composer of children's piano pieces, has had his first song, "My Beloved," accept-ed. It will be several months begrandest old interdenominational fore it will be off the press. An-

"Music Clubs Magazine," Janu-ary-February issue, is just off the stirring tune, 'Zoan' by William M. C.'s on NBC Met Auditions

Dan Walker comments in his New York News radio column: "I'd suggest that the singers concentrate on the program announcers and give them some badly-needed diction lessons, advise Director Edward Johnson to make up his mind whether his accent is to be Italian, Irish or Canadian; get John Erskine to speak like a college professor instead of a trained seal, and ask Treasurer Earle Lewis to remove the Met's box office receipts from his mouth before introducing the singers.

his mouth before introducing air singers."

Then he turned on Glovanni Martinelli and said: "He belongs in the opero house, not on the radio." Of Marcia Davenport, Met commentator, he says: "She writes about operatic divas the sort of thing that makes the lay reader think operafans should have their heads examined."

Apparently Dan doesn't like grand opera. To his remarks, Amen.

Brandon Miss JAN 28 1937

They're Both M. C's on NB

Dr. John Erskine (left), president of the Johnson, general manager of the Metrop master-of-ceremonies honors on the Met the Air progra

The young men and women who con NEC's Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the novices and the next opera stars. Anyho John Erskine, president of the Julliard Johnson, general manager of the Metro alternate as master-of-ceremonies on the Among the vocalists who have steppe to the Metropolitan Opera are: Anna Katenor, Joseph Massue, tenor; Anna Mary baritone; Lucille Browning, contraito, Em Llonel Daunais, baritone, and Rise Stever Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the AMDX at 2:00 p. m., CST.

Barn

Mis Dean nard

Erskin honor Thurs en by charge charge charge charge charge charge charge charge many missing the many charge char

THIS CLIPPING FROM DES MOINES, IA. TRIBUNE FEB 1 3 1937

Al Joison and Ruby Reeler have been working with their hired hands lighting soundge pots to save their citrus crop during the California cold spell.

also studied with Hervey Al author of "Anthony Ad

Hollywood Reporter HOLLYWOOD, CAL.

FEB 9 - 1937

Is New York talent-scouting for a Broadway play to be backed with Mae's mazuma... John Erskine will trek to the coast to author some litrety bieces on Hollywood... It's rumored that Dick Merrill may become the private pilot of Colonel McCormick, owner of the Chicago Tribune... Note to Sidney Skolsky: Kindly give us the lowdown on that lowdown crack. We're greatly puzzled.

Hollywood Reporter HOLLYWOOD, CAL.

FEB 9 - 1937

Is New York talent-scouting for a Broadway play to be backed with Mae's mazuma... John Erskine will trek to the coast to author some literary Liberty pieces on Hollywood... It's rumored that Dick Merrill may become the private pilot of Colonel McCormick, owner of the Chicago Tribune... Note to Sidney Skolsky: Kindly give us the lowdown on that lowdown crack. We're greatly puzzled.

RADIO DIAL CINCINNATI, OHIO

FEB 181987

Two M. C.'s on NBC Met Auditions

Dr. John Erskine (left), president of the Juilliard School, and dward Johnson, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera company, share master-of-ceremonies honors on the Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air program, heard each Sunday over he NBC-Red network, including WCKY and WSM, at 3:00 p. m. ECT.

PITTSBURGH, PA. PRESS

FEB 2 - 1937

Sponsors of the Metropolitan Opera auditions announced that Lawrence Tibbett, Rosa Ponselle, Gladys Swarthout and Lily Pons would give free advice to the opera aspirants to help them along to success.

would give free advice to the opera aspirants to help them along to success.

Dan Walker comments in his New York News radio column: "I'd suggest that the singers concentrate on the program announcers and give them some badly-needed diction lessons, advise Director Edward Johnson to make up his mind whether his accent is to be Italian, Irish or Canadian; get John Eriskine to speak like a college professor instead of a trained seal, and ask Treasurer Earle Lewis to remove the Met's box office receipts from his mouth before introducing the singers."

Then he turned on Glovanni Martinelli and said: "He belongs in the open house, not on the radio." Of Marcia Davenport, Met commentator, he says: "She writes about operate divas the sort of thing that makes the lay reader think opera fans should have their heads examined."

Apparently Dan doesn't like grand opera.

Apparently Dan doesn't like grand opera. To his remarks, Amen.

Brandon Miss

They're Both M. C's on NB

Dr. John Erskine (left), president of the Johnson, general manager of the Metrope master-of-ceremonies honors on the Metrope the Air program

THIS CLIPPING FROM DES MOINES, IA. TRIBUNE FEB 1 3 1937

Al Jolson and Ruby Keeler have been working with their hired hands lighting smudge pots to save their eitrus crop during the California cold spell.

Ferrin Fraser, who authors Little Orphan Annie. was a protege of John Fraku while a student at Columbia University, He also studied with Hervey Allen, author of "Anthony Adverse."

Barn

Miss Dean nard Erskin honor Thursd en by charge Alumnin followed M.ss E The Mrs. J Elsa M. O. Say Herber V. T. Coates The was its red

ory sch

's Is_ ne

Hen Hu Iani inni uer idy Ar-erg, via. ing, nce

IT FROM

My dear, pull up a chair: Only the aristocracy of Albania take off their clothes when they go to sleep.....It's a nuisance when it settles on your furniture, but if it weren't for dust in

Answers to correspondents;
1. T. McS., Boston—You wouldn't, really!
1. D. M., Somerville—Spass radic, to say the least.
T. P. Y., Boston—Roughly we say yes.

TIME CHICAGO, ILL.

MAR 1 5 1937

Conning Tower Down Coming Tower Down

The arch-conservative New York Herald Tribune surprised its readers last week by changing its typeface to a bigger, bolder cut. Last week Herald Tribune readers were further astonished when the paper suddenly and with no explanation dropped the famed Coming Tower column of Franklin Pierce Adams ("F. P. A."). Mr. Adams cheerfully explained in a characteristic sentence: "They just wanted me to work for more." But New York newspapermen knew that the difference went deeper than dollars. Between stolid, self-conscious Mr. Reid and saturnie, self-satisfied Mr. Adams, for 16 vears stolid, self-conscious Mr. Reid and saturnine, self-satisfied Mr. Adams, for 16 years a quarrel had smoldered.

In 1921, F. P. A. left Mr. Reid's New York Tribune to join the World. Mr. Reid considered this an act of disloyalty. At the end of the World in 1931, Ogden Reid did not want F. P. A. back on his paper—now the Herald Tribune—on any terms. But Mrs. Ogden Reid knew the sheet needed a good column and overruled her husband. F. P. A. returned at $25,000 a year, which was later reduced to $21,852.

Three years ago, F. P. A. asked for a new contract, left his column out of the paper for one day until Publisher Reid,

Wide World

F. P. A. ". . . the Court before the horse."

who does not like to sign things, acquiesced. The resulting document, to hold for three years, was signed by the columnist but never by the publisher. Last week when this "one-way" contract came up for renewal, Mrs. Reid could not break the impasse. Remarked Columnist Eleanor Roosevelt in My Day.

"I wish very much that F. P. A. and the New York Herald Tribune had not parted company so suddenly... If this could have been done in a more leisurely fashion we might have been able to find his column in another paper."

Other newspapers in which F. P. A. has conducted a column go back to the Chicago Journal of 1903. Next F. P. A. column appeared in the now long-dead New York Mail following year. Ten years later, F. P. A. was working for Ogden Reid. In the War, F. P. A. was a captain in the Intelligence Service, wrote a column, The Listening Post, in the A. E. F. newspaper, The Stars & Stripes. In his years of column-conducting, F. P. A. has been noted, like Chicago's late Bert Leston Taylor ("B. L. T.") as much for his contributors as for his own writings. Some favorite F. P. A. "Contribs," under their own names and various pseudonyms, have been Poets Edna St. Vincent Millay, Dorothy Parker, Arthur Guiterman, Writers Sinclair Lewis, Morrie (Of Thee I Sing) Ryskind, Ring Lardner, John Erskine, Edna Ferber, Composer Decnis Toylor, Funnyman Groucho Marx.

Of late, an outstanding Coming Tower contributer have been addeducted the control of the co

Marx.
Of late, an outstanding Conning Tower contributor has been Adwriter Al Graham contributor has been Adwriter Al Graham ("Ye Oulde Al Graham"), who wrote for F. P. A. a burlesque weekly newsreel continuity. Mr. Adams' own verses have filled several books. His prose has been divided between sane and salty comment on the current U. S. scene, good-humored correction of misquotations and bad grammar by other journalists, and the weekly "Diary of Our Own Samuel Pepys," in which most of Manhattan's artists & writers sooner or later received mention. Addicted to punning, F. P. A. credits Dramatist George S. Kaufman with one of the Coming Tower's most famed playon-words: "One man's Mede is another man's Persian." Two average F. P. Alsms." "He (Walter Lippmann) appears to think at Roosevelt is putting the Court before the horse."

the horse."

"Mr. Lewis quoted: 'Let there be no moaning at the bar when I put out to sea,' Decoded it means 'Let there be no moaning of the car-manufacturers when I put out to C. I. O.'"

NEW YORK, N. Y. SUN

FEB 2 2 1937

Concert Arranged To Honor Memory of Gabrilowitsch

committee of Sponsors Is___ Headed by Mrs. Eugene Meyer as Chairman.

The Gabrilowitsch Memorial Contr next Wednesday evening at arnegie Hall will be attended by any persons of note in music and ciety. The sponsors' committeer this event, at which Albert balding, Harold Bauer, Emanuel ist and Lea Karlna will perform, headed by Mrs. Eugene Meyer is chairman, with Gov. Lehman, layor LaGuardia and Clara Clemis Gabrilowitsch assisting her. The boxholders include Mrs. Louis Barst, Mrs. August Belmont, Mrs. ornelius N. Bliss, Mrs. Robert foods Bliss, Mrs. Melbert B. Caryr., Senator Royal S. Copeland, arry Harkness Flagler, Mrs. Felix uld, Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, Irs. Christian R. Holmes, Mrs. ames Lees Laidlaw, Mrs. Herbert i. Lehman, Edwin T. Rice, William ay Schieffelin, Mrs. Hugh Grant traus, Miss Lillian D. Wald, Felix I. Warburg and the Rev. Dr. tephen S. Wise.
The musicians' committee, headd by Artur Bodanzky, Serge Kouswitzky and Otto Klemperer as hairmen, consists of the following: oseph Achron, Isidor Achron, John farbirolli, Leon Barzin, Harold Sauer, Ernest Bloch, Lucrezia Bori, harles Wakefield Cadman, Samuel hotzinoff, Dr. Walter Damrosch, Din Downes, Mischa Elman, Carl Engel, John Erskine, Rudolph Janz. George Gefshwin, Lawrence illman, Alma Gluck Zimbalist, Leodold Godowsky, Vladimir Golschnann, Jascha Heifetz, W. J. Henerson, Myra Hess, Bronislaw Huerman, Ernest Hutcheson, Hans findler, Josef Lhevinne, Giovanni fartinelli, Margaret Matzenauer, sauritz Melchior, Eugene Ormandy, felix Salmond, Pitts Sanborn, Arur Schnabel, Arnold Schoenberg, Friedrich Schorr, Andres Segovia-Rudolf Serkin, Albert Spalding, Pheodore E. Steinway, Lawrence libbett, Alfred Wallenstein and Efrem Zimbalist.

The proceeds of the concert, which is under the auspices of failamm, the American Palestine dusic Association, will be applied o the planting on Jewish National Pund land in Palestine a grove of eucalyptus and pine trees, in the beauty and shade of which the memory of Gabrilowitsch will be kept alive.

El Paso

EL Paso, Tex., Feb. 5.—With music-loving Mexico at El Paso's door, the city is permeated with appreciation of good music. Increasing interest is evi-denced by the fact that both the El Paso Symphony and the Community Con-cert Association are holding their con-certs in Liberty Hall instead of in the Scottish Rite Auditorium as in former years.

A success from its incipience three years ago, the Community Concert Association now has 1,100 members. Artists to be presented are: Toscha Seidel, violinist, Feb. 23; Trudi Schoop with the English Ballet, March 6; Nino Martini, April 19. The Rev. Wistor R. Smith, president; Mrs. C. N. Bassett, treasurer, and Mrs. G. Hallett Johnson, executive secretary, are the re-elected executive secretary, are the re-elected executive secretary, are the re-elected officers.

The El Paso Symphony, entering its twentieth season, has doubled the ticket patronage of last year. H. Arthur Brown, representative of the Juillard School of Music, is conductor. Other officers are: Dorrance Roderick, president; Sam D. Young, treasurer; Mrs. Ignatz Weiss, secretary, and Mrs. Hugh T. Shannon, manager. Emery Darcy, baritone, will be soloist at the Feb. 15 concert, and John Erskine, pianist, the guest artist on April 15. The Orchestra Association is sponsoring Mr. Erskine in a lecture on April 6, and the Philadelphia Orchestra concert on April 29, delphia Orchestra concert on April 29, both in Liberty Hall.

Features Mexican Music

Elizabeth Lamont Rodriguez, well known pianist and composer of Mexico, D. F., has come to El Paso from Mexico City to live. She will give a series of concerts in Arizona and New Mexico, featuring Mexican music. These programs are to be heard in the contraction of the contraction grams are to be heard in connection with talks on Mexico under the auspices of the Departamento de Turismo, Secretaria de Gobernacion of Mexico,

Samuel Marti, El Paso violinist, also well known in Mexico City, is conduct-ing a symphony orchestra in Mendosa,

Community Concert Associa-tion and Symphony Or-chestra Lead in Musical Interest—Chamber Music Society and Local Artists Plan Concerts

H. Arthur Brown, Conductor of the El Paso

The Chamber Music Society plans two concerts at Radford School for Girls in the Spring. Roscoe P. Conkling is founder and director. Mrs. Conkling is the pianist; Alice Meisel, first violin-ist; Eugene Sullivan, second violinist; Ruth Buchanan, viola player, Mr. Conk-ling, cellist

Margarite Hartsook, Margarite Hartsook, director or music at Radford School, will give her annual piano recital in the spring.

The Mexican Tipica Orchestra, organized in 1934 by Roland Harwell, is director ganized in 1934 by koland Harwen, is on a ten-weeks tour of Canadian cities under the direction of Fredrick Ship-man. This El Paso orchestra of stringed instruments specializes in Mexican folk music and dresses in Charro costume.

GEORGIA B. CARMICHAEL

My d take off t when it s

the air, y bow.

than from enters a t the 3rd f existence dence for enly fast, the movie who marr should wo presented free, the f P.) are sul (Poland), Wolff (Ger has 2 may the city's yrs. ago as 2700 miles And he die as a synon DAY'S QUI the first P No. 2 B. V them—Bev as hard as of memory 75 per cent snake has go up to a what's the a lip is a la or commuta John Erskin John Erskii I don't this ship lines have you ev —that the ties give 2 I the electric his experience the electric his experim centrated in confidence the past 20 notice on h then against supposed to one Europe Ct. Justice it used it us of an orchestra composed of Philco employees is under way with the probability of an appearance before the end of the season if the ensemble is sufficiently developed.

MUSICAL AMERICA NEW YORK, N. Y.

A midseason forecast as regards and the season is the ensemble is sufficiently developed.

A midseason forecast as regards and season of the city's churches. The second Presbyterian with a fine record of frequent presentations of important compositions under Alexander McCurronpositions under Alexander Matthew, complete in four parts; and the Dyorak and music director at the First Baptist, plans the Franck 'Solemn Mass' in A, plans the Franck 'Solemn Mass' in A, which are the Alexander Matthews, choirmaster of Saint exander Matthews, choirmaster of Saint exander Matthews, choirmaster of Saint Ralph Kinder of Holy Trinity. Mr. Ralph Kinder of Holy Trinity. Mr. Kinder recently concluded his annual series of organ recitals. Other organises of organ recitals in Clothier Hall. Swarthmore College, plays on Feb. 7, 14, and 21, and March 7, appearing on the second of these dates with the Swarthmore College, plays in the Swarthmore College orchestra, Alfired Swann conducting. Early in April Dr. McCurdy leaves on a concert tour on which he will play in several Midwestern and Pacific Coast cities. PRollo F. Maitland plans a series of four recitals on Saturdav afternoons during February in the Church of the New Ierusalem, and will give his annual scital in May.

Clubs Porecast

Musical Club, Mrs.

Clubs Forecast

Musical Club, Mrs.

key, president, has

key second part of its cur rent season a calendar which foreshadows enjoyment, the opening program on February 2 in the Bellevue Stratford

Ballroom listing Louise Rich, soprano, and her eminent father. Dr. Thaddeus

Rich, violuinist; the Club String En semble, Ben Stad, director, and various club artists Mile. Ginette Neveu, six teen-year-old French violinist on her first American tour, is booked for Feh

16. Arthur Carron, tenor of the Meto politan Opera, the Club Vocal Ensemble,

Nicholas Douty, director, and clu artists are listed for March 2; the Clu Piano Ensemble, Agnes Clune Quinlan

director, is featured on March 16, ar

the Philadelphia Ballet, Catherine La

thefield, director, gives 'A Night av

Vienna' on March 30, the Club Haf

NEW YORK, N. Y. SUN

FEB 2 2 1937

Concert Arranged To Honor Memory Of Gabrilowitsch

Committee of Sponsors Is _ Headed by Mrs. Eugene Meyer as Chairman.

The Gabrilowitsch Memorial Concert next Wednesday evening at Carnegie Hall will be attended by many persons of note in music and society. The sponsors' committee for this event, at which Albert Spalding, Harold Bauer, Emanuel List and Lea Karina will perform is headed by Mrs. Eugene Meyer as chairmun, with Gov. Lehman, Mayor LaGuardia and Ciara Clemens Gabrilowitsch assisting her.

The boxholders include Mrs. Louis I. Barst, Mrs. August Belmont, Mrs. Cornelius N. Bilss, Mrs. Robert Woods Bilss, Mrs. Melbert B. Cary Jr., Senator Royal S. Copeland. Harry Harkness Flagler, Mrs. Felix Fuld, Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, Mrs. Christian R. Holmes, Mrs. James Lees Laidlaw, Mrs. Herbert H. Lehman, Edwin T. Rice, William Jay Schieffelin, Mrs. Hugh Grant Straus. Miss Lillian D. Wald, Felix M. Warburg and the Rev. Dr. Stephen S. Wise.

The musicians' committee, headed by Artur Bodansky, Serge Kousevitzky and Otto Klemperer as chairmen, consists of the following: Joseph Achron, Isidox Achron, John Barbirolli, Leon Barzin, Harold Bauer, Ernest Bloch, Lucrezis Bori. Chotzinoff, Dr. Walter Damrosch, Olin Downes, Mischa Elman, Carl Engel, John Erskine, Rudolph Ganz, George Germen, Laurence Gilman, Alma Gluck Zimbalist, Leopold Godowsky, Vladimir Golschmann, Jascha Heifetz, W. J. Henderson, Myra Hess, Bronislaw Huberman, Ernest Hutcheson, Hans Kinder, Josef Lhevinne, Glovanni Martinelli, Margaret Matzenauer, Lauritz Melchior, Eugene Ormandy, Felix Salmond, Pitts Sanborn, Artur Schnabel, Arnold Schoenberg, Friedrich Schorr, Andres Segovia. Rudolf Serkin, Albert Spalding, Theodore E. Steinway, Lawrence Tibbett, Alfred Wallenstein and Eirem Zimbalist.

The proceeds of the concert, which is under the auspices of Mailamm, the American Palestine Music Association, will be applied to the planting on Jewish National Fund land in Palestine a grove of eucalyptus and pine trees, in the beauty and shade of which the memory of Gabrilowitsch will be kept alive.

TRAVELER MAR 3 - 1937

My dear, pull up a chair: take off their clothes when the when it settles on your furnit the air, you'd never be able to bow.....More old persons die than from excessive heat.....

enters a tunnel at the outskir enters a tunnel at the outskir the 3rd floor of the depot... the state of the 1 the

JAN 29 1937

Intelligent Citizenship

"Democracy depends on the ability of the voter to understand the issues before him." says Rabbi Jacob Weinstein, who will talk next Monday evening on "The Moral Obligation of Intelligent Citizenship" at the Western Women's Club. His lecture will open the February Monday evening series arranged by the club's adult education department, the People's Assembly, directed by Miss Sarah Oddle.

In discussing his topic, Rabbi the People's Assembly, directed by Miss Sarah Oddie.

In discussing his topic, Rabbi Weinstein, who is the eminent director of the San Francisco School for Jewish Studies, said it was suggested by the title of a book by John Erskine, "The Moral Obligation of the Intelligent Man."

"My main thesis is that democracy depends on the voter's understanding of issues. If he does not, his vote is only a gesture and democracy a name," he states. "Even the ability to select honest and capable representatives does not free the voter from the obligation to understand the problems of government. These problems are, of course, infinitely more complex today than they were in Jefferson's day."

Rabbi Weinstein plans to discuss several specific issues, such as the anti-picketing ordinance, the housing of migratory agricultural workers, the veto power of the Supreme Court and the neutrality bill. He will also discuss dictatorships, showing them to be the immediate consequence of failure to understand the far flung implications of the issues of government. The speaker was formerly on the faculty of Columbia University, New York.

e ere;

ever

GREENVILLE, S. C. NEWS

JAN 301937

ohn Erskine Will Be Heard Talk Topic in Comments On Opera Today

President Roosevelt To Speak During Broadcast On Birthday Celebration

John Erskine, president of the Juilliard School of Music, and distinguished novelist and critic, will be the guest commentator during intermissions of the performance of Richard Wagner's "Siegfried," which will be heard from the Metropolitan Opera house this afternoon, beginning at 1:55 p. m., over the NBC-WFBC network. Marcia Davenport, NBC's regular opera commentator, will be heard during the second intermission.

termission.

Dr. Erskine, author of a long list of novels, among them "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," is a professor of English at Columbia university and a distinguished musical amateur. He has been heard many times before over NBC networks. The summary of the opera's action will be given by Milton J. Cross, NBC announcer regularly assigned to the Metropolitan Opera broadcasts. The broadcasts are sponsored by the Radio Corporation of America.

HACKENSACK, N. J. BERGEN RECORD

FEB 5 - 1937

The Right Word

By W. CURTIS NICHOLSON

A CHALLENGE

"The Right Word" is in the midst of defending the use of a singular verb with "more than one" as a subject. Several readers have challenged this construction, contending that a plural verb should be used. Now "The Right Word" challenges any reader to submit from careful writings, illustrations in which plural verbs are used with the subject "more than one". "The Right Word" has referred its readers to the Oxford Dictionary, in which, under the word "more", will be found a statement to the effect that "more than one" should be followed by a singular verb. It has also referred to Fowler's "Modern English Usage". Better still, it has shown usage by quoting from carefully written publications. In no instance has the author found a plural verb used with "more than one way to do that—" than one way to do that—"

For example, in "Uncle Sam", by For example, in "Uncle Sam", by

John Erskine Will Be Heard In Comments On Opera Today

President Roosevelt To Speak During Broadcast On Birthday Celebration

John Erskine, president of the Juilliard School of Music, and distinguished novelist and critic, will be the guest commentator during intermissions of the performance of Richard Wagner's "Siegfried," which will be heard from the Metropolitan Opera house this afternoon, beginning at 1:55 p. m., over the NBC-WFBC network, Marcia Davenport, NBC's regular opera commentator, will be heard during the second intermission.

Dr. Erskine, author of a long list of novels, among them "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," is a professor of English at Columbia university and a distinguished musical amateur. He has been heard many times before over NBC networks. The summary of the opera's action will be given by Milton J. Cross, NBC announcer regularly assigned to the Metropolitan Opera broadcasts. The broadcasts are sponsored by the Radio Corporation of America.

HACKENSACK, N. J. BERGEN RECORD

FEB 5 - 1937

The Right Word

By W. CURTIS NICHOLSON

A CHALLENGE

"The Right Word" is in the midst of defending the use of a singular verb with "more than one" as a subject. Several readers have challenged this construction, contending that a plural verb should be used. Now "The Right Word" challenges any reader to submit from careful writings, flustrations in which plural verbs are used with the subject "more than one". "The Right Word" has referred its readers to the Oxford Dictionary, in which, under the word "more", will be found a statement to the effect that "more than one" should be followed by a singular verb. It has also referred to Fowler's "Modern English Usage". Better still, it has shown usage by quoting from carefully written publications. In on instance has the author found a plural verb used with "more than one way to do that—"

For example, in "Uncle Sam", by For example, in "Uncle Sam", by

"Democracy depends ity of the voter to undalissues before him," says Rame Weinstein, who will talk red day evening on "The Moral Oution of Intelligent Citizensis" the Western Women's Club. Blecture will open the February Maday evening series arranged by the Club's adult education departments, the People's Assembly, directed by Miss Sarah Oddie.

In discussing his tonic Rabbi the People's Assembly, directed by the People's Assembly, directed by Miss Sarah Oddie.

In discussing his topic, Rabbi Weinstein, who is the eminent director of the San Francisco School for Jewish Studies, said it was suggested by the title of a book by John Erskine, "The Moral Obligation of the Intelligent Man."

"My main thesis is that democracy depends on the voter's understanding of issues. If he does not, his vote is only a gesture and democracy a name," he states. "Even the ablity to select honest and capable representatives does not free the voter from the obligation to understand the problems of government. These problems are, of course, infinitely more complex today than they were in Jefferson's day."

Rabbi Weinstein plans to discuss several specific issues, such as the anti-picketing ordinance, the housing of migratory agricultural workers, the veto power of the Supreme Court and the neutrality bill. He will also discuss dictatorships, showing them to be the immediate consequence of failure to understand the far flung implications of the issues of government. The speaker was formerly on the faculty of Columbia University, New York.

e aids

ere; ever

FEB 26 1937

Stay Out of Foreign War

Warning that foreign governments are now preparing to persuade America to finance and fight their next war, John Erskine, noted author, declares that Americans will strenuously fight against foreign wars today.

In an article entitled "To Hell with Those Debt-Settling Foreigners" in the current Liberty magazine, he writes: "... the most pacific of us would defend our land against invasion, but any administration which tries to send American troops abroad again would probably have a rebellion on its hands."

He predicts that a delegation representing the British parliament will soon visit this country, ostensibly to discuss settlement of the war debt.

The real reason of the visit, he says, is to tour the country, lecture us on our duty to Europe and inveigle us into the next war.

"If foreign governments wished to pay their debts," he points out, "there would be no need of an official mission to prepare the American mindunless they fear we might faint with surprise. If they now talk of pay-ment, it is because they contemplate another war and need our men and resources.

"If they think they can wheedle out of us another gift of money and man-power, they must take us for fools. If we permit them to discuss the debt without paying, and by that trick are cajoled into giving them what they want, we are even bigger fools than they think," he states in his article.

Both France and England have opened up the debt question, and it may be that there is truth to Erskine's prediction.

Europe has had its wars about every twenty years, as a rule, as soon as a new generation of fighters are grown, and the twenty years are up since the last war.

It is about time that congress passes the war prevention measure to conscript money as well as men, as the best preventive of war. PHILADELPHIA, PA. RECORD

JAN 1 8 1937

Twenty-four C

On the Radio Today

(Monday, January 18) EASTERN STANDARD TIME

In the Spotlight

21.00 A. M.—WCAU, WABC—Walter Hampden, others.
4.00 P. M.—KYW, WEAF—Phil Spitalny's Orchestra.
4.30—WFIL, WJZ—Thaugurations," John Erskine.
7.00—WJZ—Mary Small, songs.
8.00—WFIL, WJZ—Helen Hays.
8.30—KYW, WEAF—Richard Crooks, Margaret Speaks.
8.00—WCAU, WABC—Edward G. Robinson, Beverly Roberts in "The Criminal Code."
9.30—WFIL, WJZ—Jack Pearl, Tommy Dorsey's Orch.
10.00—WFIL, WJZ—"U. S. Ueutrality." Senator Nyc.
11.30—KYW, WEAF—Glen Gray's Orchestra.

DENISON. TEXAS HERALD FEB 26 1937

FOREIGN DIPLOMATS TO

TRY FOR U. S. FINANCIAL

O- AID IF NEXT WAR COMES

New York, Feb. 26.—Specilal to The Herald)—Warning that foreign governments are now preparing to persuade America to finance and fight their next war, John Erskine today declared such action by the United States would probably result in a revolution at home.

In an article entitled "To Hell With These Debt-Settling Foreigners," appearing in the current Liberty magazine, the noted author writes," .. the most pacific of us would defend our land against invasion, but the administration which tried to send American troops abroad again would probably have a rebellion on its hands."

A delegation representing the British Parliament will soon visit this country, Erskine reveals, ostensibly to discuss settlement of the war debt. The real reason, he says, is "to tour our country, lecture us on our duty to Europe, and get us into the next war."

"If foreign governments would pay their debts; or sincerely wished to," Erskine points out, "there would be need of no unofficial mission to prepare the American mind—unless they fear we might faint with surprise. If defaulting nations now talk of paying, it's because they contemplate another war and could use our resources and men."

NEW HAVEN, CONN. REGISTER

FEB 1 4 1937

TRY FOR U. S. FINANCIAL Valentine to One's Life

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. CHRONICLE

JAN 29 1937

Intelligent Citizenship Talk Topic

"Democracy depends on the ability of the voter to understand the issues before him." says Rabbi Jaco Weinstein, who will talk next hook day evening on "The Moral Obligation of Intelligent Citizenship": the Western Women's Club. Helecture will open the February Mot day evening series arranged by the lecture will open the February Mot day evening series arranged by the club's adult education departmen the People's Assembly, directed be Miss Sarah Oddie.

In discussing his topic, Rabit Weinstein, who is the eminent diverteor of the San Francisco Schoo for Jewish Situdies, said it was set up gested by the title of a book by John Ergeine, "The Moral Obligation of the Intelligent Man."

"My main thesis is that democracy depends on the voter's understanding of issues. If he does not, his vote is only a gesture and democracy a name," he states, "Even the ability to select honest and capable representatives does not free the voter from the obligation to understand the problems of government. These problems are, of course, infinitely more complex today than they were in Jefferson's day."

Rabbi Weinstein plans to discuss several specific issues, such as the anti-picketing ordinance, the housing of migratory agricultural workers, the veto power of the Supreme Court and the neutrality bill. He will also discuss dictatorships, showing them to be the immediate consequence of failure to understand the faculty of Columbia University, New York.

RIVERSIDE, CAL. PRESS

FEB 26 1937

Stay Out of Foreign War

Warning that foreign governments are now preparing to persuade America to finance and fight their next war, John Erskine, noted author, declares that Americans will strenuously fight against foreign wars today.

In an article entitled "To Hell with Those Debt-Settling Foreigners" in the current Liberty magazine, he writes: "... the most pacific of us would defend our land against invariant the current defend our land against invariant the writers. sion, but any administration which tries to send American troops abroad again would probably have a rebellion on its hands."

He predicts that a delegation representing the British parliament will soon visit this country, ostensibly to discuss settlement of the war debt.

The real reason of the visit, he says, is to tour the country, lecture us on our duty to Europe and inveigle us

"If foreign governments wished to pay their debts," he points out, "there would be no need of an official mission to prepare the American mind—unless they fear we might faint with surprise. If they now talk of payment, it is because they contemplate another war and need our men and may be that there is truth to Erskine's prediction.

"If they think they can wheedle out of us another gift of money and man-power, they must take us for fools. If we permit them to discuss the debt If we permit them to discuss the debt without paying, and by that trick are cajoled into giving them what they want, we are even bigger fools than they think," he states in his article. Both France and England have opened up the debt question, and it may be that there is truth to Erskine's

Europe has had its wars about every twenty years, as a rule, as soon as new generation of fighters are grov and the twenty years are up since last war.

It is about time that or passes the war prevention me conscript money as well as the best preventive of war

PHILADELPHIA, PA. RECORD

JAN 1 8 1937

Twenty-four C

On the Radio Today

(Monday, January 18) EASTERN STANDARD TIME

In the Spotlight

In the Spottight

1.00 A. M.—WCAU, WABC—Walter Hampden, others.
4.00 P. M.—KYW, WEAF—Phil Spitalny's Orchestra.
4.30—WFIL, WJZ—Thaugurations," John Erskine.
7.00—WJZ—Mary Small, songs.
8.00—WFIL, WJZ—Helen Hays.
8.30—KYW, WEAF—Richard Crooks, Margaret Speaks.
8.30—KYW, WEAF—Richard Crooks, Margaret Speaks.
9.30—WFIL, WJZ—Jack Pearl, Tommy Dorsey's Orch.
10.00—WFIL, Supy—Pields' Orchestra.
10.30—WFIL, WJZ—"U. S. Ueutrality," Senator Nyc.
11.30—KYW, WEAF—Glen Gray's Orchestra.

NEW HAVEN, CONN. REGISTER

FEB 1 4 1937

Valentine to One's Life

HEARTS and darts and maids and men.

Vows and valentines, are here; will you give yourself again, Love me for another yea

They who give themselves forever, All contingencies to cover, Know but once the kind and clever Strategies of loved and lover,

Rather let the year renew Rituals of happiness;
When the season corres to woo,
Let me ask, and you say yes.

Love me for another year!

Here is Heaven enough to climb,
If we measure, now and here,
Each delicious step of time.

John Erskine

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. CHRONICLE

JAN 29 1937

Intelligent Citizenship Talk Topic

"Democracy depends on the ab

"Democracy depends on the ab
"ty of the voter to understand i ity of the voter to understand i
ity of the voter to understand i issues before him." says Rabbi Jac Weinstein, who will talk next Mo day evening on "The Moral Oblig thom of Intelligent Citizenship"
the Western Women's Club. I lecture will open the February Mo day evening series arranged by the club's adult education department the People's Assembly, directed i Miss Sarah Oddie.
In discussing his topic, Rab
Weinstein, who is the eminent d rector of the San Francisco Schoo for Jewish Studies, said it was sus gested by the title of a book b
John Erskine. "The Moral Obliga tion of the Intelligent Man."
"My main thesis is that democrac depends on the voter's understand ing of issues. If he does not, hi vote is only a gesture and democrac a name," he states. "Even the ability to select honest and capable representatives does not free the voter from the obligation to understand the problems of government.
These problems are, of course, infinitely more complex today that they were in Jefferson's day."
Rabbi Weinstein plans to discuss several specific issues, such as the anti-picketing ordinance, the housing of migratory agricultural workstand the neutrality bill. He will also discuss dictatorships, showing them to be the immediate consequence of failure to understand the far flung implications of the issues of government. The speaker was formerly on the faculty of Columbia University, New York.

or end lean doe lige boy,

Aid to a
Dear Zoe Beckle
my early twent
nd only ambition nurse. Unfortu 100 between me
nd which I can ne
s there any way
ould get this sun
on?—Ambitious."

Perhaps if you vest hospital in you be helpfully advise a fund that ta bank might have any col small loan. S cial.

Inquire at the chool where you not see if you co ay through part he sum is so mou can find a so

MUSIC CLUBS MAGAZINE

NATIONAL · FEDERATION · OF · MUSIC · CLUBS

The Rise of Culture in the United States

JOHN ERSKINE

CULTURE is a farmer's word. You can plant something in the soil of human nature, having first scratched or irritated the surface with elementary discipline. You can water the furrows and you can keep off the weeds. Barring accidents of weather, there should be a harvest.

I have been asked to make an appraisal of American culture during recent years. I shall not say much about the soil, which seems to be rich enough. I shall not say too much about the seeds, except to call attention to the enormous quantity we use in planting. The harvest, of course, is you and I.

The seeds are left over from earlier harvests. Culture, therefore, is always a migration, or a handing on. The seeds are either blown by the wind or carried by the birds, or else thrust into the ground more methodically by human fingers or by the still more methodical machine. American culture may eventually owe much to the birds and the wind. In the image which I am employing the birds and the wind are those wealthy folk who collect the best in all the old arts and brings them to our shores—the best books, the unique manuscripts, the masterly paintings, anything good in architecture which is detachable and portable, also the best actors, musicians, scholars, scientists. The stupendous collecting of this sort, though it may follow a plan of nature, seems guided by the mere personal taste of the collector. For a while these priceless seeds may not be planted. The collector sometimes keeps them around the house, just to look at. In the end, however, he will make his treasures accessible. The Morgan library, for example, or the Huntington library, and many other collections only less priceless, the astounding treasures in the Library of Congress, in the university libraries, and in the local public libraries, are now spreading among the people an influence which it is too early to measure, but which in a century or so may be prodigious.

I am myself, however, less interested in these imported and acquired triumphs of culture than perhaps you will think I should be. I notice that many of my friends feel encouraged if our country acquires a medieval cloister, a Gutenberg Bible, or a manuscript of Beethoven. I should like to acquire those things, but if we are to think of them not as material possessions, but as seeds for our culture, I become slightly perplexed. I did think of listing here some of the great collectors' items which have migrated to this country in the last twenty-five years, but the list is too long, and I might be offering comfort and aid to the amiable faith that these treasures of time will in themselves produce spiritual harvests. I should much rather ask my countrymen to put their eye on the kind of harvest they are getting. At present it is not entirely unfair to say that we set a terrifying value on imported seed, wind-blown, bird-carried. We import it by no system, and we do not ask whether it will furnish the peculiar sustenance we need. We like to plant in volume. We are less concerned to cultivate the shoots. Oddly enough, we take the harvest for granted, and are annoyed if any one asks whether we are sure we did get a crop, after all.

I mentioned two of the great book collections in our country, two of the most princely known to man. When I spoke of the Congressional Library, above and beyond all its other treasures, I happened to be thinking chiefly of its music department, one of the three important depositories in the world for manuscripts and other sources. If Vienna should wish to make an adequate exhibition of Mozart's scores, or Beethoven's, a large proportion would have to be borrowed from Washington. If you wished to study the manuscripts or the first editions of English poets and prose men, you could not now get on without the aid of libraries belonging to the great collectors from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, from the Canadian border to Texas. If you are looking for a Stradivarius violin you will find it here. One of the great collections of violins is in Texas. You could not even make a complete study of English society immediately after the Norman Conquest without consulting records now in the United States. Here you will find also, if you are interested in it, the earliest manuscript of Locksley Hall. As for architecture, as I said, we bring over what we can and we copy the rest. There is an Egyptian obelisk in Central Park, and Mr. Rockefeller has presented us recently with a new cloister. Pieces of the old world will doubtless continue to cross the ocean so long as the tide of migration continues to set this way, or so long as anything is left in the old world to move.

But you and I, if we have sincere curiosity about ourselves, might ask this question: Granted that these marvelous gifts from the past are now housed on our premises, to what extent are we improved or otherwise changed? Would we have been quite the same if the obelisk had never risen in Central Park, or if the Shake-speare folios and quartos had never been bought by Mr. Morgan, Dr. Rosenbach, and the other connoisseurs? After all, if the seeds are not planted, or if when planted they make no difference, then there is not a harvest.

Note: Dr. John Erskine, novelist, educator, poet and musician, is eminently qualified to discuss broad questions such as the one presented here. This address was given at the Fifth Annual Herald Tribune Forum in 1935 and is reprinted through the courtesy of the New York Herald Tribune.—ED.

When we speak of culture we ought to be speaking of the result. What I have in mind was said once for all by Emerson in his address on the American Scholar. He said it even more beautifully in that earlier book of his on nature, but most of us are more familiar with the great Phi Beta Kappa speech. Emerson foresaw that the problem of cultured people in our country would be to maintain a wise balance between the charm of old things and the necessity of being creative in our own day. It is easy enough to be up-to-date in a cheap fashion by ignoring the past, and it is easy enough to be reverent toward the past by shutting our eyes to the natural changes of life. Emerson knew that, just because we are in a young land, with no great stretch of history immediately under our eyes, we might too readily give way to a nostalgia for the Europe our ancestors left. When you have an immense past immediately under your feet, tripping you up daily, you are likely to resent it; the ultramodern forms of art spring up naturally in old countries. But when your past is beyond your sight, you feel away from home. You go sentimental. You forget to live. Emerson warned us not to keep on building the sepulchres of the fathers, but to set up every man his

The gorgeous treasures, therefore, which have been brought to this land, and all of which, I dare say, will eventually be made available for all the people, may indeed be seeds of culture, as well as those manuscripts from ancient Greece, which started the Renaissance, but if we are not careful, they may be nothing more vital than the sepulchres of the fathers. We may take off our hat before them and bow our head, and go away unchanged.

For that reason the future of American culture is doubtful. To have the acquaintance of beautiful things, and not to be affected by them, is perhaps worse than never to have known them at all. Let me take one obvious example. Most of the Western world, certainly we who speak English, rank Shakespeare very high among poets. Many people think him the greatest. I doubt if there is an educational system anywhere, even in Great Britain, which makes the effort we do to spread the knowledge of Shakespeare among the young. If I asked you, however, what Shakespearean influence you detect in American life, what evidence that any of the young ever heard of him, or read a line of his, what would you answer? Of course some of us in each generation will love the superb poetry, and be glad to have met the immortal characters, but is it good for the majority to develop the habit of meeting masterpieces without getting excited? The trouble, I suspect, is that being overwhelmed by the quantity of the cultural seeds, we have not invented the proper way of sowing them -that is, the method proper for our peculiar soil. I have no doubt we shall invent it some day. However slowly, we begin to get away from the sepulchral character of museums. The best museum directors in this country would, I think, say this with even more vigor than I here permit myself. They are trying to make the museums function in the lives of the community. In some cases they succeed in sending art out among the people instead of waiting for the people to pay art a ceremonial visit. The public library of Denver has a lending service, not only for books, but for pictures. The pictures are, of course, not original Rembrandts or Cezannes, but they are excellent reproductions, and for a few cents you can hang them on your walls for a fortnight or a month, and next month you can live with other masterpieces.

More than one energetic mind has played with the idea of a similar lending service for the works of young Americans. The painting is the painter's capital, as it were. If he follows the old distributing system, he tries to sell each canvas once for all. A young painter would probably be glad to sell his new picture for $500 or less. Some of the quite well established painters would not shut their ears to such an offer. But the picture in that case is lost to the painter once for all. If he could rent it out for twenty dollars a year, he would have the income on his capital and he would still have the capital. For a hundred dollars a year you could enjoy five masterpieces in your home, a different five each year. The average home can not absorb masterpieces any faster than that.

I find encouragement in the remarkable work which Mr. Josiah K. Lilly of Indianapolis has done for Stephen Foster. I am not at all sure this is not the most thoroughgoing contribution to American culture that I personally have ever seen-the most intelligent spreading of the seed for a rich harvest. Only a few years ago Mr. Lilly, listening to one of the familiar Foster songs, Old Kentucky Home, or Swanee River, or O, Suzanna!, wondered casually, as any of us might have done, how many other songs Foster had composed. When he asked the question of those who theoretically should have known, he discovered the incompleteness of our knowledge of Foster, the gaps in his biography, the scattered condition of his work. Mr. Lilly then set about collecting all the first editions, all available documents about the composer, every scrap of criticism or comment. He has housed this unique collection in a building in Indianapolis which he calls Foster Hall.*

But here is the interesting point. He did not wish Stephen Foster to be shut up in Foster Hall. He planned a series of steps by which everything he had collected might be made easily accessible to music lovers everywhere, especially in the United States. He first published a facsimile of the first editions, and presented this invaluable collection to central libraries, universities, music collections through the world. He then arranged for the writing and publication of an authoritative life of Foster. You probably know the book—the work of John Tasker Howard. The next step was to have Foster's music arranged for instrumental performance, since so many American youngsters play in school bands and orchestras. He has a final plan, which I am not at liberty to describe, for fixing the attention of young musicians everywhere on the quality of Foster's genius.

^{*} Mr. Lilly has presented his entire Foster collection to the Stephen Collins Foster Memorial in Pittsburgh.—ED.

3

If one man can convert the inheritance of the past into a powerful stimulus for our future, then in time we can do comparable things with all the fantastic riches the turn of destiny has entrusted to us.

If now we glance for a moment at the harvest which we have so far gathered, if we ask to what extent the past has inspired us to go on to something new, and where the past has so far found us sterile or left us static, we can sum ourselves up in two separate columns. We can, that is, if we are resolutely frank. It is a great temptation, of course, to claim a vague and a nebulous culture, but cutting down to the quick, is not our condition something like this? I speak first of those matters in which for better or worse we have made an advance over what was handed down to us, an advance or at least a change. To begin with our schools and colleges: there were schools and colleges before, but none just like ours.

Second, we have an architecture of our own. We have, of course, much architecture which is not our own, which has nothing to do with us really. Many of our colleges, reaching instinctively for the covering proper to what goes on inside, clothe themselves in medieval Gothic, which gives the American landscape the appearance of raised eyebrows. But we also have an American architecture which springs up naturally in office buildings, retail stores, and railroad stations.

Third, we have made an American contribution in music and in the dance. The more traditional-minded people deny this because they do not like jazz, not even in its later development, but just because they are traditional-minded, they sometimes approve the European composers who imitate the American rhythms. I think it more sensible to admire in a straight line. Think of George Gershwin's Porgy and Bess. No other country could have produced it.

And much the same thing can be said about the dance, though in the case of this art we are liable to think only of jazz steps and to forget the contribution which Isadora Duncan made to the modern ballet. If there is not already an American school of ballet, at least the beginnings of it show here and there; at Radio City, for example, or in smaller and less regimented dancing groups.

Fourth, to some extent we now have an American school of painting, though in that art European tradition still lies heavily upon us. But George Bellows was our man twenty years ago as Grant Wood is today, and they have a host of important colleagues.

Fifth, I have reserved for the second half of this list the evidences of our culture which have least resemblance to anything the world knew before—all indebted, of course, to older arts and sciences, but all peculiarly our own. I am thinking of moving pictures, and electric light bulbs, and our telephone system, and motor cars, and gatherings of women like this.

On all of these subjects there may be, of course, a division of opinion. You may or may not like everything you see in the films, yet the moving pictures are, as they say in Hollywood, a colossal advance in art. Through them more people are making the acquaintance of their own past and their own present than any people at any time ever made through books or through the theatre. I speak of the extent of distribution which the development of the film has made possible; that is, I speak of quantity, but without implying that quality is lacking. It is rather silly to blame the films for showing us only a few good pictures among a large number of bad ones. You are aware of this disturbing record only because you go to the films. You see practically every show. If it had been your habit to attend all the plays, you would have known that for every good thing the threatre presents, there are a dozen ghastly mistakes. If it had been your habit to read books, you would know that the publishing record is somewhat fewer than one masterpiece every ten years, yet every season ten thousand or more volumes are brought out in this country alone, many of them unpardonable. But you have not been a devoted theatregoer nor a devoted book-reader-very few people have been, but we all go to the movies. It has been noticed by honest and not unpatriotic critics that since the movies reach us all, and since we all support them, they, just as they are now, must represent us just as we are now. If they are sometimes flashy, vulgar, and cheap, they are still in those respects our faithful portrait. If they sometimes give us beauty and courage and humor, that part of the portrait also is true. As Lincoln Steffens said in his autobiography, we ought to be thankful for them, since they will improve only when we do.

If I speak of electric light bulbs as a very significant element in American culture, I hope you are not surprised. Perhaps our culture will eventually stand for two things, for light and for communication. We ought to be proud that through the films we can reach so many people, and we ought to be proud that through Thomas Edison's invention we have added so many cheerful hours to the day. It is not a feeble culture which changes the habit of mankind. The Athenian Greeks got up shortly before daybreak, dined at twilight, and went to bed at dark. I am not saying that the electric bulb makes us superior to the Greeks, but I do believe the Greek would have been glad to stay up a few hours longer it they had had a better lamp.

For the same reason I see reason for pride in our tele phone system, not that other countries do not have tele phones, but in our land and in the characteristic spir of our culture, communication from man to man habeen made miraculously easy. With the telephone are the electric light we should place the motor car. It too early to prophesy all the qualities of a civilization which for every home darkness has been brought und control, and daylight can be turned on with your fing and your thumb, a civilization in which at any hour y can speak to any one, anywhere, a civilization in whithe family has the means of travel parked in a shed o side the kitchen. Some breadth of observation, so widening of intelligence ought to result from these annihilations of time and space.

Already there seems to be among us a certain quickening of the mind, not yet a philosophical quickening, perhaps, but a literal speeding up of the reaction, often explained by our driving of motor cars and our watching of films. Our tempo, as we say, is accelerated. Those will regret the change who realize that the quickening of mental pace will make many of the ancient masterpieces seem too leisurely; for us already Shakespeare's lines are a little slow. But those who are willing to take the consequences of being themselves will be glad of what we have produced.

When I mentioned gatherings of women such as this forum, I was calling your attention again to the facilities for locomotion and for communication which characterize American culture. Our women do an immense amount of traveling, and I understand it is to improve their minds. I might say more about it, but perhaps this is not the happiest moment. You will agree with me, I am sure, that we Americans are famous, or notorious, for our willingness to attend lectures and for our patience in listening to people talk. If any one will invite us, we shall go any distance to do the talking. I merely submit this phenomenon for your consideration.

We ought now to glance at those other regions in which we are less sure that there is an American culture, a discernible harvest from the seeds of the ancient world. I can not be sure that in poetry we are just now doing anything original or characteristic. We have excellent poets, but it seems only by accident that they are writing here rather than on the other side of the Atlantic. When you come down as far as Emerson and Whitman and Emily Dickinson you have almost reached the end of what is strictly American poetry.

To some extent the same thing is true of sculpture. I am not at all sure that the last exclusively American sculptor was not John Rogers, with his Groups. At least, I suspect that St. Gaudens, who worked much in Paris, would have been St. Gaudens anywhere, and I feel the same thing about Paul Manship, or Jo Davidson, or the other international contemporaries.

The theatre seems to me the least American of our arts. The films are often peculiar to our culture, but what we see on the stage is usually in a tradition brought from elsewhere and little changed. The Disney cartoons are a product of our culture. I know nothing to set beside hem in the legitimate drama. That is not to say that I nderestimate certain pieces which grew out of our oil, like Rip Van Winkle, or the Old Homestead, or Incle Tom's Cabin, or Abie's Irish Rose, and no one adires Eugene O'Neill's work more than I. But I doubt if here is anything exclusively or predominantly American all this. When the American theatre arrives, a new bject matter will bring a new form, or a new comnation of forms. So far we seem to strike out most omisingly when the colored race is involved in the eme, as in Porgy or Green Pastures, or to a slight ent, Show Boat.

In this brief inventory of our present condition I have tried to be not discouraging, but honest. It is of little account what our culture has been so far, in comparison with what you and I may try to make it. I imagine we shall be less and less content to have the seeds of our culture sown by the wind and the birds, and less content to have the seeds planted by machine. Whatever is mechanical in our present ways of spreading culture will probably undergo critical revision. I hope I may live long enough to see this revision at work in our schools and colleges.

If we had arrived at the ultimate judgment day, and were listening to the awards, I should expect high praise for our educational institutions. Their motive is generous; they try to reach multitudes; they would give every child a chance. The teachers as a class are devoted and self-sacrificing; sometimes they are martyrs. The taxpayer in general supports the schools without too much grudging, and innumerable individuals among the privileged rich have poured out fortunes to endow the privilege of education for us all. A noble record for any civilization! But if the day of judgment has not arrived yet, if our work is not finished, we might ask whether our schools and colleges cannot serve the cause of culture more efficiently. It is your business and mine to answer that question. From what I have already said, you can forsee how I would pose the problem.

If we are to have a harvest the soil must produce. I think we might well define the purpose of American education in terms far more creative than is at present the fashion. We might expect of those who have the advantage of higher education some positive and typical contribution. In our schools and colleges at present culture is defined, I am afraid, simply as a friendly acquaintance with the best that has been said and thought in the world. That famous definition, however, can satisfy only those who think the world has come to an end. What about the best that is still to be thought and said?

There was a time when American education had, as it seems to me, a stronger tendency to value the living harvest. They used to make boys and girls go through public exercises at commencement to show what they had learned to do. The performances were pretty ghastly, but the idea was sound. The public assembled on such occasions for an inspection of the soil, to see if any seeds had come up, and if so, what sort of vegetable.

I wish we might carry that question home to ourselves now in whatever field we like to call ourselves cultured. If we have enjoyed education, what has it done to us? Or better still, what are we doing with it? If we have a beautiful painting on our walls, or a comfortable car in our garage, what harvest are we putting forth from that infiltration of life? The danger in the presence of so much privilege is that we shall remain passive, learning to accept and to remember without preparing a gift of our own to hand on.

In this present conference, for example, a rather full picture of the present world is laid before you, and it would be easy, if you were so disposed, to think that by

(Continued on page 20)

JOHN AND JERROLD KRIMSKY Present

NAUGHTY-NAUGHT

A MUSICAL DRAMA OF LIFE AT YALE By JOHN VAN ANTWERP

Lyrics by Ted Fetter
Music by Richard Lewine
Musical Numbers Staged by Morgan Lewis
Sets Designed and Executed by Eugene Dunkel

ALL STAR CAST)
in order of appearance P. DE QUINCY DEVEREUX SPUNKY PERCY HELTON FRANK PLOVER BARTLETT ROBINSON JACK GRANVILLE LESLIE LITOM STUB PHIL EPPENS FRED HOWARD FISCHEE CLAIRE GRANVILLE JIM PAWLING JOE LEE BERKMAN BARTENDER HARRY MEEHAN TOUGH GERRIE WORTHINK PUGSY HOWARD SULLIVAN A STUDENT KERMIT LOVI Eleanora Dixon Julie Hartwell Barbara Hunter Anna Erskine Jane Lucille Rich
Scene I. YALE CAMPUS Song: "Goodbye, Girls; Hello, Yale"	s
OLIOS I. Casey at the Bat
Scene II. The Same Scene II. MORIARITY'S SALOON Song: "Zim, Zam, Zee" OLIOS I. Five Jansley's, World's Famous Risley Artists II. Song: "Coney by the Sea" (By Fetter and Lewine), Rebecca Tarwater, Isham Keith and Compan
ACT III
Scene I. BOATHOUSE ON THE THAMES Scene II. RIVER BANK Scene III. BOATHOUSE Scene IV. RIVER BANK Scene V. ON THE THAMES FINALE	7
Orchestra under the direction of Howard Johnson
CREDITS Costumes by Eaves Costume Company. Piano by Kramer Piano Company. Wigs and mustaches by Berners. Girls' Bathing Costumes designed by Kermit Love.
STAFF FOR MESSERS KRIMSKY Business Manager. Ira Mangel Master of Properties Kermit Lov Box Office Treasurers Jane Miller and Doris Mullen Master Electrician Michael Kell Master Carpenter William Price	e y e

Music Clubs Magazine Jan. Leb 1937

Rise of Culture (Continued from page 10) reviewing the pageant thus at second hand, you were making progress. Of course no one who takes your time here is entirely skeptical of the values of speech, but we do not touch life until we create something in our own right. The universe is an interesting spectacle, but for you and me the most engaging thing in the universe is our own set of talents. There is the soil in which we are expected first of all to plough, to plant, and reap. At some moment in our too brief day, we might well forget the universe, forget Europe, forget the government, forget the neighbors, forget even the family, and look inside. In the old wisdom, we might know ourselves and be ourselves.

MUSIC CLUBS MAGAZINE

music arranged for instrumenta many American youngsters pla orchestras. He has a final plan, v to describe, for fixing the atteneverywhere on the quality of Fo

If one man can convert the into a powerful stimulus for our can do comparable things with a turn of destiny has entrusted to

If now we glance for a mome we have so far gathered, if we past has inspired us to go on where the past has so far found u we can sum ourselves up in tw can, that is, if we are resolute temptation, of course, to claim culture, but cutting down to th dition something like this? I spe in which for better or worse we over what was handed down t least a change. To begin with o there were schools and college like ours.

Second, we have an architectu of course, much architecture w which has nothing to do with colleges, reaching instinctively to what goes on inside, clothe Gothic, which gives the America ance of raised eyebrows. But we architecture which springs up n ings, retail stores, and railroad s

Third, we have made an Ar music and in the dance. The m people deny this because they do in its later development, but traditional-minded, they someti pean composers who imitate the think it more sensible to adm Think of George Gershwin's Por country could have produced it.

And much the same thing can | though in the case of this art we of jazz steps and to forget th Isadora Duncan made to the mo not already an American school beginnings of it show here and the example, or in smaller and less regi

Fourth, to some extent we n school of painting, though in that still lies heavily upon us. But Ge man twenty years ago as Grant W have a host of important colleague

Fifth, I have reserved for the s the evidences of our culture which to anything the world knew bel course, to older arts and sciences, own. I am thinking of moving light bulbs, and our telephone sys and gatherings of women like this

MUSIC CLUBS MAGAZINE

JOHN AND JERROLD KRIMSKY

NAUGHTY-NAUGHT

A MUSICAL DRAMA OF LIFE AT YALE By JOHN VAN ANTWERP

Lyrics by Ted Fetter
Music by Richard Lewine
Musical Numbers Staged by Morgan Lewis
Sets Designed and Executed by Eugene Dunkel

STAR CAST P. DE QUINCY DEVEREUX.......ALEXANDER CLARK PERCY HELTON
BARTLETT ROBINSON FRANK PLOVER JACK GRANVILLE LITOMY
STUB PHIL EPPENS STUB FRED HOWARD FISCHER CLAIRE GRANVILLE ELEANOR PHELPS JIM PAWLING ALAN HANDLEY
JOE LEE BERKMAN
TOM JOHN SHELLE
BARTENDER HARRY MEEHAN TOUGH HARRY MEEHAN
CATHLEEN GERRIE WORTHING
PUGSY HOWARD SULLIVAN
A STUDENT LOWELL CABOT BILL GAHAGAN GIBSON GIRLS
Julie Hartwell
Jane Hammond
Lucille Rich Eleanora Dixon Anna Erskine ACT I OLIOS I. Casey at the Bat..... II. Harry Meehan, Mildred Kent and Singing Waitresses III. Ullaine Malloy, The Queen of the Air ACT II Scene II. The Same
Scene II. MORIARITY'S SALOON
Song: "Zim, Zam, Zee"......Cathleen and boys and singing waitresses Scene III. RAILROAD STATION — NEW HAVEN Song: "Pull the Boat for Eli"..... OLIOS I. St. Claire and O'Day-Scorching Along II. Song: "Coney by the Sea" (By Fetter and Lewine), Anna Erskine, Isham Keith and Company III. The Irish Thrush-Harry Meehan ACT III Scene I. BOATHOUSE ON THE THAMES Scene II. RIVER BANK
Scene III. BOATHOUSE
Scene IV. RIVER BANK
Scene V. ON THE THAMES

.....ENTIRE COMPANY FINALE

Orchestra under the direction of Howard Johnson

CREDITS

Costumes by Eaves Costume Company. Piano by Kramer Piano Company.
Wigs and mustaches by Berners.
Girls' Bathing Costumes designed by Kermit Love.

STAFF FOR MESSERS KRIMSKY

 Press Representative
 Richard Maney
 Assistant Stage Manager
 Lee Berkman

 Business Manager
 Ira Mangel
 Assistant Stage Manager
 John Shellie

 Box Office Treasurers
 Jane Miller and Doris Mullen
 Master of Properties
 Kermit Love

 Doris Mullen
 Master Electrician
 Michael Kelly

 Stage Manager
 Victor Rankin
 Master Carpenter
 William Price

HOBOKEN, N. J. JERSEY OBSERVER

FEB 5 - 1937

RIGHT WORD

By W. CURTIS NICHOLSON

A CHALLENGE

"The Right Word" is in the midst of defending the use of a singular verb with "more than one" as a subject. Several readers have challenged this construction, contending that a plural verb should be used. Now "The Right Word" challenges any reader to submit, from careful writings, illustrations in which plural verbs are used with the subject "more than one." "The Right Word" has referred its readers to the Oxford Dictionary, in which, under the word "more," will be found a statement to the effect that "more than one" should be followed by a singular verb. It has also referred to Fowler's "Modern English Usage." Better still, it has shown usage by quoting from carefully written publications. In no instance has the author found a plural verb used with "more than one." For example, in "Uncle Sam," by John Erskine, we find the following on page 132: "More than one person has told me she looks like you."

Possibly some reader is saying that this sentence, and others already published in the column, do not illustrate the sentence that begins with the introductory word "there." Very well, now read the following sentence from John Erskine's "Uncle Sam": "But if Sam were to do something to stimulate business here—and there is more than one way to do that—..."

Or this, taken from an editorial in "The New York Sun" of December 31: "... for of later there has been more than one real budget message a year."

So we have "The Right Word's" reasons for endorsing the use of "is" in "The Right Word's" reasons for information years and the reasons boil down to? The answer is USAGE.

BRONX, N. Y. HOME NEWS

MAR 2 9 1937

John Erskine Quits Post as Juilliard School's Head

Ernest Hutcheson, planist and dean of the Juilliard School of Music, 130 Claremont Ave., will succeed Dr. John Erskine as president of the institution, it was learned yesterday.

Dr. Erskine has submitted his resignation to the board of directors, concluding 10 years of service in his post. According to a state-ment made by the board of directors, Dr. Erskine will devote his time to writing.

Hutcheson has been associated with the school since it was founded in 1923. His position as dean will be filled by Oscar Wagner. A native of Melbourne, Australia, Hutcheson studied at the Leipzig Conservatory and Oberlin College. He has appeared with the New York Philharmonic and the New York Symphony orchestras. Hutcheson is a member of the board of the Metropolitan Opera Co. As head of the Juilliard School Dr. Erskine also administered the school's Institute of Musical Art and the Graduate School of Musical Art and the Graduate School of Musical he will continue as a member of the school board and as a board member of the Metropolitan. with the school since it was found-

BROOKLYN, N. Y. TIMES UNION MAR 27 1937

LEAVES JULLIARD SCHOOL
The board of directors of the Juillard School announce the resignation of John Erskin as president. The present Year is the tenth of his service. Ernest Hutcheson has been appoint to succeed him.
Oscar Wagner, assistant dean for the graduate school and in charge of the Institute of Musical Art, has been appointed dean of both branches of the school.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. JOURNAL

MAR 2 1 1937

STATIO

A special dramatization of the last days of Our Lord, the last week leading up to His Crucifixion and Resurrection, will be given in a series of six episodes by the Ave Maria Radio League Players, during Holy Week, March 22 to 27. The dramatization will be broadcast daily over WPRO at 8:15 a. m. The Ave Maria series will be divided into six listinct episodes, each complete in itself, and pertaining to the commemorative days on which they are presented. The six broadcasts, Monday through Saturday, will tell of the Last Supper, and Our Lord's instructions to His disciples; the scene in the Garden of Gethsemane on Spy Wednesday, the trial before Pontius Pilate; the Crucifixion and death of Christ on Good Friday; and the tumult and storm which 'followed. The dramatizations have been written in special form by the Friars at St. Christopher's Inn at Graymoor, Garrison, N. Y., in whose interests Ave Maria Hours are broadcast. The Very Rev. Father Paul James Francis's S. A., will portray the title role of Christus. Father Paul is the founder of the "Society of the Atonement" of St. Christopher's Inn. The supporting cast will be made up of professional talent of radio and stage. The musical background was arranged by George Shackley, with the Franciscan Friars, Brothers and students of the Monastery providing the vocal accompaniments. The direction of the broadcasts is under the supervision of Rev. Anselm Francis, S. A. Father Director of the Ave Maria Hours.

A Palm Sunday concert of selections from the Seventh Symphony by Beethoven will be presented by the Cleveland Institute of Music Symphony Orchestra today, 1 to 1:30 p. m., over the NBC-Red Network. The orchestra of 49 pieces will be conducted by Berly Rubenstein, pianist and composer, Rubenstein has appeared as soloist with the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra and has given recitals throughout the country. He

P. DE QU SPUNKY .. FRANK P JACK GR STUB FRED CLAIRE C JIM PAWI JOE TOM BARTENI TOUGH CATHLEE PUGSY A STUDE LOWELL

> Eleano Anna !

Scene I. Y S S

Noted Dutch 'Cellist Vacations In Valley

Leads Gypsy Life With Wife; To Entertain Sunday; Lives In Trailer Car

PHILIPP ABBAS

By MINNE GILBERT
Of The Star Staff
(Valley Moraing Star News Service)

McALLEN — "Wherever I go, the weather's unusual," laughed Philipp Abbas, internationally famous Dutch 'cellist who has been in the Valley several days gypsying with his wife in their auto-trailer and being entertained in the homes of Valley musicians and music lovers. The trailer at present houses the Lares and Penates for the Abbas family. Deiroit is their home which they visit a short time each year.
For several months the 'cellist and his charming red-headed wife have been following their whims, traveling wherever the sprit urges them.

Abbas admitted the damp weather prevaling in the Valley is bad out the cells.

Well, he said philosophically, "Lisa slways unusual weather wherever we go. People tell us not to mind the weather; it is not the usual thing."

Born In Holland

He was born in Amsterdam, Holland

He was born in Amsterdam, Holland

He was born in Amsterdam, Holland, where his 80-year-old mother still lives Recognized as one of the world's greatest 'cellists, he does not rely entirely on his musical ability in entertaining an audience. Bis rich sense of humor, which immediately makes itself felt during conversation, also pervades his restilla and his informal comments and descriptions during a performance partly explain why he never has a bored audience.

In his early career he became 'cellist, in Condon followed."

Born London followed.

Born

A Critic of Pollyanna

TOHN ERSKINE, author, critic and college professor, who lectured Tuesday evening in Detroit, thinks that Americans have not yet cultivated "intelligent emotional life" because they still like to write and read stories which end happily.

We don't know that Americans are the only people in the world who like happy endings to the stories with which they beguile away their leisure moments.

And we question if the preference for such books is positive proof of emotional im-

Are children who revel in gruesome tales, as many of them do, any more mature emo-tionally than those who fall in love with Polly-

The primary purpose of story writing and reading is entertainment.

reading is entertainment.

When we read a scientific work we expect the facts, cold and hard as they may be, but who wants to sit down in an easy chair, after a hard day's work, and harrow his nerves with a book which leaves him in a nightmare?

And can we be so sure, as the intimate interpreter of "Galahad" and "The Private Life of Helen of Troy" seems to be, that all stories do not end happily in this best of all possible worlds?

worlds?
We may not see it at the moment, with our mind's eye blinded by the immediate present to the cosmic happiness which may flow from events which we misunderstand, but we ought to be a little careful in exalting the beauty of sadistic literature.

We bump up against enough that is brutal and ugly in real life without going home and reading about it in books that should cushion

SPIRIT OF AMERICA

Hosts of Film Folk in Giant Radio Scheme

ALL FOR CHARITY

One of the most extensive series of dramatic entertainments ever presented in any medium was announced from Hollywood recently with the culmination of arrangements for thirteen hall-hour radio broadcasts over N.B.C., coast-to-coast, in which the greatest dramatists, writers, artists and directors are to combine to give their talent to the world.

The broadcasts will be entirely philanthropic, their sole purpose being to convey a message of goodwill, tolerance and fellowship among people throughout the world.

The programme will be sponsored by the Radio Committee of All Faiths and will be known as "The Spirit of America." The movement is headed by Dr. Everett R. Clinchy of New York City, and is being handled through Albert D. Lasker, president of the Lord and Thomas advertising agency.

Already pledged for scripts from New York are such authors as Dorothy Canfield, Edna Ferber, Booth Tarkington, John Erskine and Fannie Hurst. One of the most extensive series of dra-

EXECUTIVES

we bump up against enough that is brutal and ugly in real life without going home and reading about it in books that should cushion our nerves against too stark a reality.

NEW YORK, N. Y.
HERALD-TRIBUNE
MAR 2 9 1937

Metropolitan Announces
Radio Audition Winners
Are T. L. Thomas, of Scranton, and Miss Stellman, of Vermont
Thomas Llyfnwy Thomas, twentyfour-year-old barytone, of Scranton, The, and Miss Maxine Stellman, twenty-seven-year-old soprano, of Brattleboro, Vt., were announce yesterday as vinners of the second annual radio auditions of the Metropolitan Systems and makine Stellman, was the winner of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company, some winners of the addition reach received a check for $1,000 from the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company, and was the winner of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company, and was the winner of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company, and was the winner of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company, and was the winner of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company, and was the winner of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company, and was the winner of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company, and was the winner of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company, and was the winner of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company, and was the winner of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company, and was the winner of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company, and was the winner of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company, and was the winner of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company, and was the winner of the Atwater Kent prize in 1931. She attended the Institute of Musical Art.

The auditions committee consisted on portatic paint to an operatic active of the Metropolitan; John Balfer Company, and was the winner of the Metropolitan, John Balfer Company, and was the winner of the Metropolitan, John Balfer Company, and was the winner of the Metropolitan, John Balfer Company, and was the winner of the Metropolitan, John Balfer Company, and was the winner of the Metropolitan, John Balfer Company, and was the winner of the Metropolitan, John Balfer Company, and was the win

STARS

Among the stage and screen performers who have been invited are Charles Chaplin, Eddie Cantor, the Abbey Players, Alfred Lunt, Walter Connelly, Walter Hampden, Edward Everett Horton, Peter Lorre, George Arliss, George M. Cohan, Clark Gable, William Powell, Robert Taylor, Garles, Gooper, Frederic March, James Carney, Edward G. Robinson, Paul Muni, Bing Crosby, Fred MacMurray, Leanette MacDonald, Joan Crawford, Myrna Loy, Irene Dunne, Claudette Colbert, Norma Shearer, Janet Gaynor, Mae West, Marlene Dietrich, the Marx Brothers, Harold Lloyd, W. C. Fields, Joe E. Brown, George O'Brien, Richard Arlen, Al Jolson and others.

It is also planned to set aside approximately four minutes of each program for a short talk by a great world leader, such as President Roosevelt, Albert Einstein, Professor Conant and others.

The first broadcast is scheduled to be held early this spring.

HARLINGEN, TEX. STAR MAR 7-1937

Noted Duto Vacatio

Leads Gypsy Life V Sunday; Liv

BOWM

PH

By JULIAN SEAMAN

tion, Mr. Leon Barzin on Miss Myra Hess, plane, silo Miss Myra Hess, plane, silo Hall, yesterday after THE FROGRAM:

THE PROGRAM:
Overture to "Cosi fan Tutte," ... Morart
Piano concerto in C minor
(No. 24, Kecchel 451)
Overture to "Fidelio" ... Beethoven
Piano concerto in G
(Opus 88, No. 4) .. Beethoven

The fourth concert in the Scholarship Series by Mr. Barzin's orchestra brought out a goodly crowd yesterday to hear the superlative playing of Miss Myra Hess.

The fact that Miss Hess had chosen one of the least familiar of the Mozart concerti, in the course of expounding the literature of piano concerti by Mozart and Beethoven, which she read from score with the assistance of a page turner, did not detract from a beautifully moulded performance.

This little work has a grace and symmetry, a delicacy of color and definess of mood which Miss Hess appreciated fully. It was too bad that the orchestra did not display the same mastery of these treasureable pages.

In the Beethoven concerto, Miss Hess played the cadenza devised by

In the Beethoven concerto, Miss Hess played the cadenza devised by that sterling pianist, Mme. Clara Wieck Schumann, for the first movement; that in the last movement, was the original by Beethoven. The cadenza she played in the first movement of the Mozart score is by Mr. Bruce Simonder.

THE OPERA

Two excellent performances closed the present "grand" season of opera at the Metropolitan yesterday afternoon and last night. "Lohengrin," in the afternoon, again displayed the fabulous Flagstad as Elsa. It is well, perhaps, that the season is over for her, for the effects of a recent cold and an undeniable weariness affected her singing yesterday. Mr.

In Ballet Russe

Irina Baranova, ballerina in Russian group returning to the Metropolitan on April 9.

Maison gave one of his most rewarding accounts of the Silver amund and Mme. Branzell as a mund and Mme. Branzell as a manud and Mme. Branzell as a mond Cehanovsky was indisposed and Cehanovsky was indisposed and Cehanovsky was indisposed and Cehanovsky was indisposed and Mr. Arnold Gabor declaimed the Herald's lines in his stead. "Tranted the trustees had always violatta, to Mr. Jagel's Alfredo and Mr. Bonelli's Germont. As Mr. Henderson said to me recently,

"Traviata" always will endure, "for it is good music." The Opera. Concert tonight, one of the few that hasn't been sold for the benefit of this or that, closee the season officially.

NEWS: The Board of Directors of the Juilliard School has announced the resignation of Mr. John Erskine as president.

Auditions for Youth soloists to appear at next season's Philadel-phia Orchestra Youth Concerts will be held the last week in April.

Author Plans to Devote All His Time Now to Writing

Dr. John Erskine has resigned as president of the Juilliard School of said there would be no change in the policies of the school.

"Mr. Hutcheson and myself have been working hand in hand with Dr. Erskine," he said. "We will carry on just as before."

It is expected that Dr. Erskine will continue a director of the school. He will also continue as a director of the Metropolitan Opera Company, a post he 'has held since 1935, when the Juilliard School interests rescued the opera from financial difficulties and assumed a voice in its policies. Dr. Erskine became chairman of the administrative committee of the Juilliard School in 1927, and was appointed president the following var. He is author of "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," a satirical treatment of classic legend.

As president of the Juilliard School of Musical Art and the Graduate School of Musical Art and the Graduate School of Musical Art and the Graduate School ished under the will of Augustus D, Juilliard, dry goods merchant, with

W YORK JOURNAL

MAR 3 0 1937

Music in Review -By Henriette Weber-

Quartet gave further evidence together. of their sound musicianship at their second concert yesterday. This group of young Frenchmen showed at their debut the results of a diligence directed along the right channels by reason for their ability as individuals and the severe training to which they have subjected

The excellent Loewenguth themselves in their playing together.

Yesterday their musical menu was two-thirds modern. At their first concert they played Mozart, Beethoven and Debussy. This time they played a slightly earlier Beethoven, and followed with the quartet by Roger Ducasse which on this occasion was said to have its first public performance in America. He is one of the distinguished moderns who can be of today in his musical thought without following fantastic mannerisms. His music is genuine and beautiful. His work proved a fine medium for the interpretative insight of these four players, and their sensitive tonal balance. They closed with the Ravel Quartet.

Carmen Reuben Sings

Carmen Reuben revels in setting herself difficult vocal tasks. Early in December she gave an entire re-cital devoted to Brahms, and further emphasized the unusual further emphasized the unusual by doing same with viola obbligato. Last night she sang Schubert's "Gipsy Serenade" with a quartet of women's voices which was very effective. Miss Reuben showed her aerious approach in difficult songs of Mahler and Weingartner among which she made the "Hochsommer" of the latter declaration of artistic vocal control.

John Erskine, pianist, executive, poet and novelist—which shall be first?—has resigned the presidency of the Juillard School of Music under whose direction the institution has widened its field and its functional powers. A year ago Mr. Erskine informed the board of directors that when his tenth year of service was up, he would like to be free to give all of his time to writing. Anyone who remembers his "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," for example, to mention just one of his successes, will hope much from his future. Ernest Hutcheson has been appointed to succeed Mr. Erskine.

STATE OF THE PARTY NAMED IN

NEW YORK MIRROR

CRA

CENTRA

Joan

Artists: directed by Borzage.

be stirred The Cast: Night.' triangle Detective for Millard

'ROO!

Vaughn ieur Officer r Officer s Chef starred starring a splendid cast, this ance artfully blends comedy and the starred starring as plendid cast, this ance artfully blends comedy and the starred starred starring as plendid cast, this ance artfully blends comedy are starred s starred genuinely exciting.

SAD BLONDE

ooes an unhappily married thusband coldly throws her into the path of a glamorous head-water. His anticipations prove as the elopement figures in the as his gesture. She falls in love as the elopement figures in the lading convincingly sincere in the leading convincingly sincere in the leading strole, while M. Boyer and England's role, while M. Boyer and England's ro again displayed the fatebook rigs stad as Elsa. It is well wrangs, that the season is over in ber, for the effects of a recent old and an undeniable wearness affected her singing yesterday, Mr.

NEW YORK, N. Y. HERALD-TRIBUNE

MAR 29 1937

Erskine Quits
As Juilliard
School's Head

Ernest Hutcheson, Dean of Music Institution, Will Become New President
Oscar Wagner Is Named
Author Plans to Devote All His Time Now to-Writing
Dr. John Erskine has resigned as president of the Juilliard School in 1923.

Dr. Erskine's service. A year ago this March he informed the board of the will be succeeded by the dean Ernest Hutcheson, planist, who has been associated with the school since its foundation in 1923.

Dr. Erskine's service. A year ago this March he informed the board that when the decade was completed he would like to be free to give all his time to writing."

Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said 1950.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean,

NEW YORK JOURNAL

MAR 3 0 1937

Music in Review

-By Henriette Weber-

The excellent Loewenguth themselves in their playing

The excellent Loewenguth, themselves in their playing Quartet gave further evidence of their sound musicianship at their second concert yesterday. This group of young Frenchmen showed at their debut the results of a diligence directed along the right channels by reason for their ability as individuals and the severe training to which they have subjected which on this occasion was said to have its first public performance in their debut the distinguished moderns who can be of the distinguished moderns who can be of today in his musical thought without following fantastic mannerisms. His music is genuine and their sensitive tonal balance. They closed with the Ravel Quartet. closed with the Ravel Quartet.

Carmen Reuben Sings

Carmen Reuben revels in setting herself difficult vocal tasks. Early in December she gave an entire re-cital devoted to Brahms, and

further emphasized the unusual further emphasized the unusual by doing same with viola obbli-gato. Last night she sang Schu-bert's "Gipsy Serenade" with a quartet of women's voices which was very effective. Miss Reuben showed her aerious approach in difficult songs of Mahler and Weingarther among which she made the "Hochsommer" of the latter declaration of artistic vocal control.

John Erskine, pianist, executive, poet and novelist—which shall be first?—has resigned the presidency of the Juillard School of Music under whose direction the institution has widened its field and its functional powers. A year ago Mr. Erskine informed the board of directors that when his tenth year of service was up, he would like to be free to give all of his time to writing. Anyone who remembers his "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," for example, to mention just one of his successes, will hope much from his future. Ernest Hutcheson has been appointed to succeed Mr. Erskine.

pointed to succeed Mr. Erskine.

NEW YORK, N. Y. TIMES

ERSKINE TO RESIGN MUSIC POST JULY 1

Ernest Hutcheson to Succeed Him as President of the Juilliard School

AUTHOR SERVED TEN YEARS

Told Directors a Year Ago He Wanted to Devote All His Time to His Writing

The board of directors of the Juilliard School of Music announced yesterday the resignation of John Erskine, author and musician, as president of the school, effective July 1, and the appointment of Ernest Hutcheson, concert plants and does of the school, planist and dean of the school, to

At a meeting of the board of di-

At a meeting of the board of directors a year ago Dr. Erskine had expressed a desire to retire from his post to devote all his time to writing. This year was his tenth as president of the school.

Dr. Erskine was a Professor of English at Columbia University when he was offered the post as president of the newly formed Juliliard School ten years ago. He was theoretically on a leave of absence from the university but gave up his connection with Columbia several years ago to devote his time to writing.

connection was years ago to devote his time we years ago to devote his time writing.

He attained wide popular success with his novel, "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," and later wrote an opera on the same subject, "Helen Retires," with music by George Antheli. The opera was performed at the Juilliard School in 1924.

performed at the Juilland School in 1934.

Dr. Erskine has won a wide reputation for his novels, written in a sprightly, critical manner, make a sprightly, critical manner, make a sprightly, critical manner, and also has been widely known as a lecturer and commentator. He recently has been writing short stories on historical characters for a popular magazine.

He has appeared as a concert planist both as a soloist and with orchestras.

Mr. Hutcheson has been dean of the Juilland School since it was founded. Hs has appeared frequently as a planist on the concert stage. With his elevation to the presidency of the school, Oscar Wagner, assistant dean for the graduate school and also in charge of the Institute of Musical Art, succeeds him as dean.

NEW YORK, N. Y. WORLD-TELEGRAM

MAR 29 1937

ERSKINE QUITS MUSIC SCHOOL

Ernest Hutcheson, Concert Pianist, Assumes Presidency of Juilliard Institution.

John Erskine, the gay fictioner of the classics, who is completing his tenth year as president of the Juilliard School of Music, will resign, effective July 1, directors of the school had announced today. Dr. Erskine will be succeeded by Ernest Hutcheson, the concert planist, whose position as dean will be filled by Oscar Wagner, assistant dean of the graduate school and in charge of the Institute of Musical Art Relations Harmonious.

"A year ago this March," the directors' statement said, "he informed the board that, when the decade was completed, he would like to be free to give all his time to writing," in explaining Dr. Erskine's retirement.

free to give all his time to writing." in explaining Dr. Erskine's retirement.

Mr. Wagner said the relations between the author and former professor of English at Columbia and the trustees were "completely harmonious." Policles of the school, he said, will remain unchanged.

Dr. Erskine has had a versatile career. Besides his studies in literature, he authored the sprightly "Private Life of Herien of Troy," an opera on the same theme. "Helen Retires," which was performed three years ago at the Juilliard School, and numerous short stories on the scapades of Francois Villon, the brawling French poet. He also has appeared as a concert planist.

Will Remain Director.

It is expected that he will continue as a director both of the school and of the Metropolitan Opera Co.

Mr. Hutcheson, the succeeding president, has made concert tours here and in Europe and appeared with the outstanding orchestras of the country.

Juilliard School is operated on a with the outstanding orchestras of the country.

Juilliard School is operated on a substantial endowment, supported chiefly by the Juilliard Musical Foundation, which Augustus D. Jilliard, dry goods merchant, estab-lished in his will, with provisions for $600,000 annual expenditure.

NEW ORLEANS, LA TIMES-PICAYUNE

MAR 291937

JOHN ERSKINE QUITS
POST WITH SCHOOL

(By The Associated Press)
New York, March 28—With the completion tomorrow of a decade of service, John Erskine is resigning the presidency of the Juiliard school of music to devote all his time to writing.
Ernest Hutcheson, the pianist and long the dean of the school, will replace Dr. Erskine as president of this heavily endowed school, and Oscar Wagner, formerly in charge of the Allied Institute of Musical Art, becomes dean of both schools.

NEW YORK, N. Y. SUN

MAR 29 1937

John Erskine Resigns From Juilliard

The board of directors of the Juilliard School announces the resignation of John Erskine as president of the school. The present year is the tenth of Mr. Wrskine's service. A year ago this March he informed the board that when the working.

Ernest Hutcheson is appointed president to succeed Mr. Erskine, He is also elected a member of the hoard of directors. With a long established reputation as concert planist and teacher, he has been connected with the Juilliard School since its foundation, and much of the success of the school during the last ten years has been due to his wisdom and devotion as dean.

Oscar Wagner, who has been Assistant Dean for the Graduate School, and also in charge of the Institute of Musical Art since Dr. Frank Damrosch's retirement, is now appointed de an of both branches of the school. Mr. Wagner has long been known as planist and teacher. His work at the Juilliard School has disclosed rare administrative ability.

BROOKLYN, N. Y. EAGLE

MAR 29 1937

Dr. John Erskine Quits as Head of Juilliard School

In order to be free from administrative duties so that he may devote his entire time to writing, Dr. John Erskine has resigned as president of the Juilliard School of Music, a position he has held for the past ten years.

Dr. Erskine will be succeeded as head of the school by the dean, Ernest Hutcheson, planist, who has been associated with the institution since it was founded in 1923.

"The present year is the tenth of Mr. Erskine's service," announcement of his resignation read.
"A year ago he informed the board of directors that when the decade was completed he would like to be free to give all his time to writing," it continued.
Oscar Wagner, who will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean, said today that relations between Dr. Erskine and the trustees always had been "completely harmonious." He said there would be no change in the school's policies. It is expected that Dr. Erskine will continue as a director. He will also continue as a director of the Metropolitan Opera Company, a post he has held since 1835.

NEW YORK MIRROR MAR 28 1937

NATIONAL OBSTRATE. Association, Mr. Lees Barris conducting the Mr. Lees Barris Control of Contro

The fourth concert in the Scholarship Series by Mr. Barzin's orchestra brought out a goodly crowd yesterday to hear the superlative playing of Miss Myra Hess. The fact that Miss Hess had chosen one of the least familiar of the Mozart concerti, in the course

the fact that Miss Hess had chosen one of the least familiar of the Mozart concerti, in the course of expounding the literature of piano concerti by Mozart and Beethoven, which she read from score with the assistance of a page turner, did not detract from a beautifully moulded performance. This little work has a grace and symmetry, a delicacy of color and defines of mood which Miss Hess appreciated fully. It was too bad that the orchestra did not display the same mastery of these treasureable pages.

In the Beethoven concerto, Miss Hess played the cadenza devised by that sterling pianist, Mms. Clara movement; that in the last movement, was the original by Beethoven. The cadenza she played in the first movement of the Mozart score is by Mr. Bruce Simonds.

THE OPERA

THE OPERA

Two excellent performances closed the present "grand" seasor of opera at the Metropolitan yes terday afternoon and last night
"Lohengrin," in the afternoon again displayed the fabulous Flag stad as Elsa. It is well, perhaps that the season is over for her for the effects of a recent col and an undeniable weariness at fected her singing yesterday. Me

APR 1 - 1937

At 59, John Erskine, retiring from the presidency of the Juilliard School of Music, isn't old enough to become emeritus, but he discloses somewhat the same intellectual versatility as Dr Richmond and has voiced many of the same ideas. Many times, in his books and lectures, he has lambasted goosestep thought and beha-vior. He thinks much of our educa-tion is mediaeval. He wants less concentration on facts and more on the

Although he had written much in Although he had written mach in his earlier years, he was 47 years old when he was piped up to hights of fame by his "Private Life of Helen of Troy," in which Greek heroes were psychoanalyzed, with a light dash of satire, and recast in the role. of gangsters and strong-arm men This from a sedate Columbia pro-fessor of English who had been known as a demon for syntax. He has kept on writing steadily since then, with a total output of about 30 books.

He was born in New York, lived He was born in New York, lived in Weehawken, and was educated at Columbia and Amherst. He was a concert planist, traveling and teach-ing, and is still profoundly absorbed in music and musical criticism. He served in the war and wears the French Legion of Honor ribbon.

In one respect, he differs sharply with Dr Richmond. The latter says people can't think as individuals. Mr Erskine says people can't think.

> WATERBURY, CONN. REPUBLICAN

MAR 2 9 1937

JOHN ERSKINE TO QUIT POST

New York, March 28—(AP)—With the completion tomorrow of a decade of service, John Erskine is resigning the presidency of the Julillard School of Music to devote all his time to writing. The directors were notified by Dr. Erskine a year ago that his 10th year would be his last with the school.

Ernest Hutcheson, the pianist and long the dean, will replace Dr. Erskine as president of this heavily endowed school, and Oscar Wagner, formerly in charge of the alied Institute of Musical Art, becomes dean of both schools.

Dr. Erskine, one of the most versatile of modern public men, has had a career as educator, novelist, lecturer, planist, and administrator. New York, March 28-(AP)

NEW BEDFORD, MASS. MERCURY

MAR 3 0 1937

The board of directors of the Juilliard School of Music announced Sunday the resignation of John Erskine, author and musician, as president of the school, effective July 1, and the appointment of Ernest Hutcheson, concert pianist and dean of the school, to succeed him.

and dean of the school, to succeed him.

At a meeting of the board of directors a year ago Dr. Erskine had expressed a desire to retire from his post to devote all his time to writing. This year was his fenth as president of the school.

Dr. Erskine was a Professor of English at Columbia University when he was offered the post as president of the newly formed Juliliard School ten years ago. He was theoretically on a leave of absence from the university but gave up his connection with Columbia several years ago to devote his time to writing.

wears ago to devote his thind writing.

He attained wide popular success with his novel, "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," and later wrote an opera on the same subject, "Helen Retires," with music by George Antheil.

The opera was performed at the Juillard School

Dr. Erskine has won a wide reputation for his novels, written in a sprightly, critical manner, mostly about historical characters, and also has been widely known as a lecturer and commentator. He recently has been writing short stories on historical characters for a popular magazine.

He has appeared as a concert pianist both as a soloist and with pianist both as a soloist and more concestras.

Mr. Hutcheson has been dean of the Juilliard School since it was founded. He has appeared frequently as a pianist on the concert stage. With his elevation to the presidency of the school, Oscar Wagner, assistant dean for the graduate school and also in charge, the Institute of Musical Art.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN. TIMES

ERSKINE QUITS SCHOOL TO GIVE HIS TIME TO PEN

NEW YORK, March 28 (A).-With the completion tomorrow of a decade of service, John Erskine is resigning of Music to devote all his time to writing.

Ernest Hutcheson, the pianist and long the dean of the school, will re-place Dr. Erskine as president of this heavily endowed school, and Oscar Wagner, formerly in charge of the Allied Institute of Musical Art, becomes dean of both schools.

Dr. Erskine, one of the most versatile of modern public men, has had a career as educator, novelist, lecturer, planist and administrator.

DALLAS, TEX. NEWS APR 4 - 1937

New York Music:

Hutcheson Vice Erskine At Juilliard

BY PIERRE V. R. KEY (Special Correspondent of The News)

NEW YORK, April 3.-John Erskine has resigned as president of the Juil-liard Graduate School of Music, to has resigned as president of the Juilliard Graduate School of Music, to devote his entire time to writing—after July 1 next. Mr. Erskine has done splendid things with this institution during the ten years of his activities. He has shown vision, unsuspected abilities in planning and directing affairs, and in choosing associates who were of his own exceptional caliber.

Under his administration the Juilliard School has made enormous strides. It has driven new pathways in music, and made contributions of various kinds which already have shown the broad spirit and constructive methods of this institution.

Ernest Hutcheson, dean of Juilliard during Mr. Erskine's reign and his close associate in all that has been done, is to become president. Able in the utmost degree, he is the proper and natural choice to carry on in ways now so well established. Oscar Wagner, assistant dean and dean of the Institute of Musical Arts, will succeed to the post vacated by Mr. Hutcheson in July. And here also has recognition come to one who fully deserves it.

Music in the Spring.

Music festivals are popping up like the first crocuses, a welcome sign not only of spring but of a musical con-

only of spring but of a musical consciousness that annually asserts itself in such laudable habit-forming manifestations as the Spring Festival.

Many of these events, in metropolis, hamlet and coilege town, are being given their impetus this season by agencies other than the National Federation of Music Clubs, which has crusading during National Music Week (first week in May) for the spread of local musical endeavor. Now organizations, which sometime ago would have blushed to squander their time on anything as aesthetic as music, are coming into the fold with a will. The Department of Agriculture, Departments of Education, 4-H Clubs and, of course, WPA are among the organizations co-operating in festival enterprises, many of which are offered this month, some of which will be given in conjunction with National Music Week, others to come along later in the season. Oregon offers a fair sample of what is happening. Reliable reports have it that there will be approximately 200 festivals in that State, with the Department of Education behind many of them.

NEW YORK, N. Y. AMERICAN

MAR 3 0 1937

Erskine Resigns As Juilliard Head

The board of directors of the Juillard School announce the resignation of John Erskine as president of the school. The present year is the tenth of Mr. Erskine's service. Ernest Hutcheson succeeds him. He is also elected a member of the board of directors. Oscar Wagner, who has been assistant dean for the Graduate School, and also in charge of the Institute of Musical Art, was appointed dean of both branches of the school,

NEWPORT NEWS, VA. PRESS

MAR 29 1937

JOHN ERSKINE RESIGNS
NEW YORK, March 28.—(P)—With
the completion tomorrow of a decade of service, John Erskine is resigning the presidency of the Juilliard School of Music to devote all his time to writing. The directors were notified by Dr. Erskine a year ago that his tenth year would be he last with the school.

BUFFALO, N. Y. COURIER EXPRESS

MAR 2 9 1937

ERSKINE TO RESIGN

Head of Julliard School to devote self to writing

New York, Mar. 28 (P)—With the completion tomorrow of a decade of service, John Erskine is resigning, the presidency of the Juillard School of Music to devote all his time to writing. The directors were notified by Dr. Erskine a year ago that his tenth wear would be his last with the school.

Ernest Hutcheson, the pianist and long the dean of the school, will replace Dr. Erskine as president of this heavily endowed school, and Oscar Wagner, formerly in charge of the Allied Institute of Musical Art, becomes dean of both schools.

Dr. Erskine, one of the most versatile of modern public men, has had a career as educator, novelist, lecturer, planist and administrator.

NEW YORK, N. Y EVENING POST

ERSKINE ENDS WORK AT JUILLIARD JULY 1

Author Will Be Succeeded by Ernest Hutcheson

John Erskine, author, will give up his duties as president of the Juilliard School of Music on July 1. Ernest Hutcheson, pianist, who has been dean of the school since it was founded in 1923, will take his place. Dr. Erskine informed the board of directors a year ago that he wished to resign to devote all his time to writing. He is author of "The Private Life of Holen of Proy" and other works. Oscar Wagner will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean.

ROCHESTER, N. Y. Democrat Chronicle MAR 3 0 1937

Erskine to Resign Music School Post

New York—(P)—With completion today of a decade of service, John Erskine is resigning the presidency of the Juilliard School of Music to devote all his time to writing. The directors were notified by Doctor Erskine a year ago that his 10th year would be his last with the school, Ernest Hutcheson, planist and long dean of the school, will succeed Doctor Erskine as president of this heavily endowed institution, and Oscar Wagner, formerly in charge of the Allied Institute of Musical Art, becomes dean of both schools.

schools.

Doctor Erskine has been edu-cator, novelist, lecturer, pianist and administrator.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. BULLETIN

MAR 29 1937

JOHN ERSKINE RESIGNS FROM JUILLIARD SCHOOL

Intends to Devote All His Time Now

to Writing.

New York, March 28.—(AP)—
With the completion tomorrow of a decade of service, John Erskine is resigning the presidency of the Juilliard School of Music to devote all his time to writing. The directors were notified by Dr. Erskine a year ago that his 10th year would be his last with the school. Ernest Hutcheson, the planist and long the dean of the school, will replace Dr. Erskine as president of this

SYRACUSE, N. Y POST-STANDARD

MAR 29 1937

Erskine to Quit Music School

NEW YORK, March 28. (3°)—With the completion tomorrow of a decade of service, John Erskine is resigning the presidency of the Juilliard School of Music to devote ail his time to writing. The directors were notified by Dr. Erskine a year ago that his 10th year would be his last with the school.

Ernest Hutcheson, the pianist and long the dean of the school, will replace Dr. Erskine as persident of this heavily endowed school, and Oscar Wagner, formerly in charge of the Allied Institute of Musical Art, becomes dean of both schools.

Dr. Erskine, one of the most versatile of modern public men, has had a career as educator, novelist, lecturer, planist, and administrator. NEW YORK, March 28. (A)-With

BUFFALO, N. Y. NEWS

MAR 2 9 1937

Dr. Erskine Resigns

Dr. Erskine Resigns
NEW YORK, March 29 (P).—With
the completion today of a decade of service, John Erskine, pianist as well as noted author, is resigning the presidency of the Juilliard School of Music to devote all his time to writing. The directors were notified by Dr. Erskine a year ago that his tenth year would be his last with the school. Ernest Hutcheson, pianist and long dean of the school, becomes president.

HARTFORD, CONN. COURANT

APR 4-1937

Changes at Juillard.

John Esskine has resigned as president of the Juillard Graduate School of Music, to devote his entire time to writing—after July 1 next. Mr. Erskine has done splendid things with this institution during the ten years of his activities. He has shown vision, unsuspected abilities in planning and directing affairs, and in choosing associates who were of his own exceptional Culber. In administration the Juillard School has made enormous strides. It has driven new pathemas in music and made contributendowed school, and Oscar

SPRINGFIELD, MASS. NEWS APR 1 - 1937

At 59, John Erakine, retiring from the presidency of the Juilliard School of Music, ian't old enough to become emeritus, but he discloses somewhat the same Intellectual versatility as Dr Richmond and has voiced many of the same ideas. Many times, in his books and lectures, he has iam-basted goosestep thought and behavior. He thinks much of our education is mediaeval. He wants less concentration on facts and more on the art of life.

art of life.

Although he had written much in his earlier years, he was 47 years old when he was piped up to hights of fame by his "Private Life of Helen of Troy," in which Greek heroes were psychoanalyzed, with a light dash of sathre, and recast in the role of gangsters and strong-arm men This from a sedate Columbia professor of English who had been known as a demon for syntax. He has kept on writing steadily since then, with a total output of about 30 books.

He was born in New York, lived in Weehawken, and was educated at Columbia and Amherst. He was a concert planist, traveling and teachconcert planist, traveling and teaching, and is still profoundly absorbed in music and musical criticism. He served in the war and wears the French Legion of Honor ribbon.
In one respect, he differs sharply with Dr Richmond. The latter says people can't think as individuals. Mr Erskine says people can't think.

WATERBURY, CONN. REPUBLICAN MAR 2 9 1937

JOHN ERSKINE TO QUIT POST

New York, March 28—(AP)—With the completion tomorrow of a decade of service, John Erskine is resigning the presidency of the Juilland School of Music Presidency of the Juilland School of the Juillan

NEW YORK, N. Y. AMERICAN

MAR 3 0 1937

Erskine Resigns As Juilliard Head

As Juilliard Head.
The board of directors of the Juilliard School announce the resignation of John Erskine as president of the school. The present year is the tenth of Mr.
Erskine's service. Ernest Hutcheson succeeds him. He is also elected a member of the board of directors. Oscar Wagner, who has been assistant dean for the Graduate School, and also in charge of the Institute of Musical Art, was appointed dean of, both branches of the school,

NEWPORT NEWS, VA. PRESS

MAR 29 1937

JOHN ERSKINE RESIGNS NEW YORK, March 28.—(P)—With the completion tomorrow of a decade of service, John Erskine is resigning the presidency of the Juilliard School of Music to devote all his time to writing. The directors were notified by Dr. Erskine a year ago that his tenth year would be hs last with the school.

BUFFALO, N. Y. COURIER EXPRESS

MAR 2 9 1937

ERSKINE TO RESIGN

Head of Julliard School to devote self to writing

New York, Mar. 28 (P)—With the completion tomorrow of a decade of service, John Erskine is resigning, the presidency of the Juillard School of Music to devote all his time to writing. The directors were notified by Dr. Erskine a year ago that his tenth year would be his last with the school.

Ernest Hutcheson, the pianist and long the dean of the school, will replace Dr. Erskine as president of this heavily endowed school, and Oscar Wagner, formerly in charge of the Allied Institute of Musical Art, becomes dean of both schools.

Dr. Erskine, one of the most versatile of modern public men, has had a career as educator, novelist, lecturer, planist and administrator.

NEW YORK, N. Y. EVENING POST

ERSKINE ENDS WORK AT JUILLIARD JULY 1

Author Will Be Succeeded by Ernest Hutcheson

John Erskine, author, will give up his duties as president of the Juilliard School of Music on July 1. Ernest Hutcheson, pianist, who has been dean of the school since it was founded in 1823, will take his place. Dr. Erskine informed the board of directors a year ago that he wished to resign to devote all his time to writing. He is author of "The Private Life of Helen or Proy" and other works. Oscar Wagner will succeed Mr. Hutcheson as dean.

ROCHESTER, N. Y. Democrat Chronicle MAR 3 0 1937

Erskine to Resign Music School Post

New York—(B)—With completion today of a decade of service, John Erskine is resigning the presidency of the Juilliard School of Music to devote all his time to writing. The directors were notified by Doctor Erskine a year ago that his 10th year would be his last with the school, Ernest Hutcheson, planist and long dean of the school, will succeed Doctor Erskine as president of this heavily endowed institution, and Oscar Wagner, formerly in charge of the Allied Institute of Musical Art, becomes dean of both schools.

Doctor Erskine has been edu-cator, novelist, lecturer, pianist and administrator.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. BULLETIN WAR 29 1937

JOHN ERSKINE RESIGNS FROM JUILLIARD SCHOOL

Intends to Devote All His Time Now

to Writing.

New York, March 28.—(AP)— decade of service, John Erskine is resigning the presidency of the Juil-

NEW OBSTETRICAL IDEA EXPLAINEI

SYRACUSE, N. Y. POST-STANDARD

MAR 29 1937

Erskine to Quit Music School

NEW YORK, March 28. (A)-With NEW YORK, March 28: (17)—With the completion tomorrow of a decade of service, John Brskine is resigning the presidency of the Juilliard School of Music to devote all his time to writing. The directors were notified by Dr. Erskine a year ago that his loth year would be his last with the school 10th year would be his last with the school.

Ernest Hutcheson, the pianist and long the dean of the school, will replace Dr. Erskine as president of this heavily endowed school, and Oscar Wagner, formerly in charge of the Allied Institute of Musical Art, becomes dean of both schools.

Dr. Erskine, one of the most versatile of modern public men, has had a career as educator, novelist, lecturer, pianist, and administrator.

BUFFALO, N. Y. NEWS

MAR 2 9 1937

Dr. Erskine Resigns

NEW YORK, March 29 (P).-With the completion today of a decade of the completion today of a decade of service, John Erskine, pianist as well as noted author, is resigning the presidency of the Juilliard School of Music to devote all his time to writing. The directors were notified by Dr. Erskine a year ago that his tenth year would be his last with the school. Ernest Hutcheson, pianist and long dean of the school, becomes president.

HARTFORD, CONN. COURANT

APR 4-1937

Changes at Juilliard.

Changes at Juilliard.

John Essine has resigned as president of the Juilliard Graduate School of Music, to devote his entire time to writing—after July 1 next. Mr. Erskine has captured things with this institution during the ten years of his activities. He has shown vision unsuspected abilities in planning and directing affairs, and in choising associates who were of his own exceptional Capture his administration the Juilliard School has made enormous strides. It has driven new pathways in music, and made contributions.

tions of various kinds which already have shown the broad spirit and constructive methods of this institution.

constructive methods of pull-liard during Mr. Erskine's reign and his close associate in all that has been done, is to become president. Able in the utmost degree, he is the proper and natural choice to carry on in ways new so well established Oscar Wagner, Assistant Dean am Dean of the Institute of Musica Arts, will succee to the post vacated by Mr. Hutchton in July. And nere also has recognition come to one who fully deerves it.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS. NEWS APR 1 - 1937

At 59, John Erakine, retiring from the presidency of the Juilliard School of Music, isn't old enough to become emeritus, but he discloses somewhat the same Intellectual versatility as Dr Richmond and has voiced many of the same theas. Many times, in his books and lectures, he has lambasted spoossetep thought and behavior. He thinks much of our education is mediaeval. He wants less concentration on facts and more on the centration on facts and more on the art of life.

Although he had written much in his earlier years, he was 47 years old when he was piped up to highis of fame by his "Private Life of Helen of Troy," in which Greek heroes were psychoanalyzed, with a light dash of satire, and recast in the role of gangsters and strong-arm men This from a sedate Columbia professor of English who had been known as a demon for syntax. He has kept on writing steadily since then, with a total output of about 30 books.

He was born in Naw York, lived

He was born in New York, lived He was born in New York, lived in Weehawken, and was educated at Columbia and Amherst. He was a concert pianist, traveling and teaching, and is still profoundly absorbed in music and musical criticism. He served in the war and wears the French Legion of Honor ribbon. In one respect, he differs sharply with Dr Richmond. The latter says people can't think as individuals, Mr Erskine says people can't think.

WATERBURY, CONN. REPUBLICAN MAR 29 1937

JOHN ERSKINE TO QUIT POST

New York, March 28—(AP)—With the completion tomorrow of a decade of service, John Erskine is resigning the presidency of the Juliliard School of Music Presidency of the Juliliard School of the Julil

SCHOOL & SOCIETY LANCASTER, PA.

APR 3 - 1937

Dr. John Erskine has resigned as president of the Juilliard School of Music, New York City, after serving for ten years. He will be succeeded by the dean, Ernest Hutcheson, pianist, who has been associated with the school since its foundation in 1923. Oscar Wagner will take the place of Mr. Hutcheson as dean. Mr. Hutcheson, who succeeds Dr. Erskine as president, is a native of Melbourne, Australia. He is a graduate of Leipzig Conservatory and was appointed in 1935 with Dr. Erskine a member of the board of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

MUSICAL COURIER NEW YORK CITY

APR 3 - 1937

Boston, Chicago and New York will be glad to learn that the Philadelphia Orchestra appeared on the Magic Key radio hour last Sunday, and was announced as the "greatest symphonic organization in America."

Thomas E. Dewey, the New York special prosecutor who has just convicted seven "business racketeers," used to be a professional choir singer. The Sun (March 26) perpetrates an excruciating jest by remarking that now Dewey appropriately sends criminals to Sing Sing.

30, 30, John Erskine has resigned as president of the Juilliard School. No doubt he wishes to live The Private Life of John Erskine.

> BUFFALO, N. Y. NEWS APR 1 0 1937

Plight of Youth In Present Day Alarming Sign

By PHILIP BECKER GOETZ THE JUILLIARD School of Music I THE JUILLIARD School of Music is fortunate to have Ernest Hutcheson succeed Prof. John Erskine as dean. A superb artist himself he yet has never permitted his success and fame to render him austere or aloof. His high standards have never lessened his enthusiasm and sympathy and geniality. He will quicken the energies of students fortunate enough to reach the school, yet he will not, one may be sure, impose immature performers on a credutious and defenceless public.

John Erskine Resigns from Juilliard

The board of directors of the Juilliard School announces the resignation of John Erskine as president. The present year is the tenth of Dr. Erskine's service. A year ago he informed the board that when the decade was completed he would like to be free to give all his time to writing.

writing.

Ernest Hutcheson will succeed Dr. Erskine as president. He is also elected a member of

OSCAR WAGNER ew dean of both the Juilliard School of Music and the Institute of Musical Art.

te board of directors. With a long-estabshed reputation as pianist and teacher, he has een connected with the Juilliard School since s foundation, and much of the success of te school has been due to his untiring work.
Oscar Wagner, who has been assistant dean the Graduate School, and also in charge of one Institute of Musical Art since Frank Damrosch's retirement, is now appointed dean of both branches of the school. Mr. Wagner has long been known as a pianist and teacher. His work at the Juilliard School has disclosed rare administrative ability.

huiral Leader

DR. ERNEST HUTCHESON Eminent pianist and teacher, who has been appointed president of the Juilliard School of Music.

SCHOOL & SOCIETY LANCASTER, PA.

APR 3 - 1937

DR. JOHN ERSKINE has sormed of the Juilliard Schracken, speak after serving fo cit, will speak after serving fo cit, will sthe deceded by the dea marving the who has been associated and the children foundation in 1923. Of Michigan foundation in 1923. Of Michigan foundation in 1923. the place of Mr. L . Hutcheson, who succeed dent, is a native of Mell a graduate of Leipzig appointed in 1935 wi of the board of the] pany.

MUSICAL CO NEW YORK

APR 3

Boston, learn that the Magic announced in America.

Thomas 1 ecutor who racketeers, The Sun (1 jest by rem sends crimin

John Ersk Juilliard Sch Private Life

> BUFFALO, N. Y. NEWS APR 1 0 1937

Plight of Youth In Present Day Alarming Sign

By PHILIP BECKER GOETZ

THE JUILLIARD School of Musice is fortunate to have Ernest Hutchesson succeed Prof. John Erskine as dean. A superb artist himself he yet has never permitted his success and fame to render him austere or aloof. His high standards have never lessened his enthusiasm and sympathy and geniality. He will quicken the energies of students fortunate enough to reach the school, yet he will not, one may be sure, impose immature performers on a gredulous and defenceless public. By PHILIP BECKER GOETZ

John Erskine Resigns from Juilliard

The board of directors of the Juilliard School announces the resignation of John Erskine as president. The present year is the tenth of Dr. Erskine's service. A year ago he informed the board that when the decade was completed he would like to be free to give all his time to writing.

writing.
Ernest Hutcheson will succeed Dr. Erskine as president. He is also elected a member of the board of directors. With a long-established reputation as pianist and teacher, he has been connected with the Juilliard School since its foundation, and much of the success of the school has been due to his untiring work.

OSCAR WAGNER New dean of both the Juilliard School of Music and the Institute of Musical Art.

Oscar Wagner, who has been assistant dean of the Graduate School, and also in charge of the Institute of Musical Art since Frank Damrosch's retirement, is now appointed dean of both branches of the school. Mr. Wagner has long been known as a pianist and teacher. His work at the Juilliard School has disclosed rare administrative ability.

DR. ERNEST HUTCHESON Eminent pianist and teacher, who has been appointed president of the Juilliard School of Music.

SCHOOL & SOCIETY LANCASTER, PA.

APR 3 - 1937

DR. JOHN ERSKINE h of the Juilliard School of after serving for ten ye deal Midigal who has been associated wit foundation in 1923. Oscar the place of Mr. Hutcheson, who succeeds D. Cassin of the place of Mr. Hutchese Hutcheson, who succeeds Dr. Friday to dent, is a native of Melbourne, a graduate of Leipzig Conservation of the board of the Metropolitan pany.

MUSICAL COURIER NEW YORK CITY

APR 3 - 1937

Boston, Chicago and New York will be glad to learn that the Philadelphia Orchestra appeared on the Magic Key radio hour last Sunday, and was announced as the "greatest symphonic organization in America."

ra T. jest sends criminals to Sing Sing. 30, 30, 30,

John Erskine has resigned as president of the hed reputa en connect Private Life of John Erskine. Private Life of John Erskine.

> BUFFALO, N. Y. NEWS APR 1 0 1937

Plight of Youth In Present Day Alarming Sign

By PHILIP BECKER GOETZ THE JUILLIARD School of Music I THE JUILLIARD School of Music is fortunate to have Ernest Hutcheson succeed Prof. John Erskine as dean. A superb artist himself he yet has never permitted his success and fame to render him austere or aloof. His high standards have never lessened his enthusiasm and sympathy and geniality. He will quicken the energies of students fortunate enough to reach the school, yet he will not, one may be sure, impose immature performers on a credutious and defenceless public.

John Erski Respecially in Miss Bremer a

The board of dir announces the respresident. The pre-Erskine's service, board that when the would like to be writing writing.

Ernest Hutches
as president. He

Sol Hurok kra

knows the stage novelties that an is made up of sa know how to a kind of entertain Chicago is alway Russe, and the to capacity for of programs arm were unusually music charming, effective. Among the engagment w ding" (music by d'un Faune" (I by Dargomishk equally interesting most enthusiasti

Eighteenth Char

Erma Rounds Erma Rounds, panist of the Eig duced her talente recital at Kimball Mary O'Leary, Le Swindelle and Sa Irish and old En quartet and duet a

Brilliant Artis

- Scal har

en connect foundation presented one of teresting program and a large audie pass all too quick the Gradua the Institute crosch's retires long been know work at the Jt administrative of the control of th

April 1, the Ch presented one of puriod Leader

DR. ERNEST HUTCHESON Eminent pianist and teacher, who has been appointed president of the Juilliard School of Music.

RADIO DAILY NEW YORK, N. Y.

APR 2 - 1937

Ernest Hutcheson, internationally celebrated pianist, recently named to succeed John Erskine as Juilliard prexy, will be Wallerstein's soloist on the first "Music and You" broadcast upon which WOR and the Nat! Music League will collaborate on April 8, 8-8:30 over a coast-to-coast network. Pierre Key, critic and editor of the "Musical Digest", will be commentator for at least three of the broadcasts and very possibly the series.

PITTSBURGH, PA. PRESS

APR 4 - 1937

John Erskine will relinquish the post he now occupies as president of the Juillard School of Music, New York Chy, on July 1, after 10 years of service to this institution. A year ago the famous author, who is also an accomplished musician, expressed a desire to retire from the Juillard post to devote all his time to writing.

Ernest Hutcheson, noted pian, who has been dean of the music school since it was founded, will succeed to the position vacated by Mr. Erskine, and Oscar Wagner, assistant dean for the graduate school and also in charge of the Institute for Music Art, will become

ADVERTISER Ked Hook h

APR 1 - 1937

Dr. John Erskine resigns as Pr dent of Julilard School of Music New York.

DAVENPORT, IA. Democrat & Leader

APR 4 - 1937

JOHN ERSKINE
... author, musiciar and president of the Jujilard School of Music, has resigned, effective on July 1.
He plans to devote all of his time to writing. This was his 10th year as president of the school. Ernest Hutcheson, concert plants and dean of the school, will succeed

MUSICAL COURIER NEW YORK CITY

APR3-1937

Erskine Resigns as Juilliard Head

Ernest Hutcheson Succeeds to Presidency of School and Board of Directors—Oscar Wagner New Dean

The board of directors of the Juilliard School announce the resignation of John Erskine as president of the school. The present year is the tenth of Mr. Erskine's service. A year ago this March he informed the board that when the decade was completed he would like to be free to give all his time to writing.

ERNEST HUTCHESON

Ernest Hutcheson is appointed president to succeed Mr. Erskine. He is also elected a member of the board of directors. With a long established reputation as concert pianist and teacher, he has been connected with the Juilliard School since its foundation, and during the last ten years has been the school's dean.

Oscar Wagner, who has been assistant dean for the Graduate School, and also in charge of the Institute of Musical Art since Dr. Frank Damrosch's retirement, is now appointed dean of both branches of the school. Mr. Wagner has long been known as a pianist and teacher.

SCHOOL & SOCIETY LANCASTER, PA.

APR 3 - 1937

Dr. John Erskine has resigned as p of the Juilliard School of Music, New You after serving for ten years. He will ceeded by the dean, Ernest Hutcheson, who has been associated with the school foundation in 1923. Oscar Wagner the place of Mr. Hutcheson as de Hutcheson, who succeeds Dr. Erskine dent, is a native of Melbourne, Australi a graduate of Leipzig Conservatory appointed in 1935 with Dr. Erskine a of the board of the Metropolitan Ope pany.

MUSICAL COURIER NEW YORK CITY

Boston, Chicago and New Yor learn that the Philadelphia Orche the Magic Key radio hour last announced as the "greatest sympl in America."

Thomas E. Dewey, the New Y ecutor who has just convicted racketeers," used to be a professi The Sun (March 26) perpetrate jest by remarking that now Devsends criminals to Sing Sing.

* * * John Erskine has resigned as Juilliard School. No doubt he w Private Life of John Erskine.

> BUFFALO, N. Y. NEWS APR 1 0 1937

Plight of Youth In Present Day Alarming Sign

By PHILIP BECKER GOETZ By PHILIP BECKER GOETZ

THE JUILLIARD School of Music is fortunate to have Ernest Hutcheson success and same to render him success and fame to success and fame to render him
success and fame to success and fame to render him success and fame to remove the success and fame to r ROCHESTER, N. Y.

HELEN JEROME is dramatizing H Somerset Maugham's latest novel. "Theater," dealing with the private life of a famous English actress... Jack Roseleigh will have the chief role in "Ansenal," which A. L. Jones is producing. Nat Karson is doing the sets... Arthur Sircom will stage several plays this summer at Cape Playhouse, Dennis, Mass.

Eric Maschwitz and Jack Davis have voyaged from London to arrange for the American production of "Balalaika," English musical hit... J. Edward Trevor has postponed "Friends and Romans" until next autumn. This is the William Miles dramatization of the Virginia Faulkner novel, which will feature Ruth Weston... Billy Rose, whose Chamber of Horrors idea has been turned down for New York's World Fair, will present a Temple of Tolerance at the Forth Worth, Texas, exposition. It will be a waxwork record of contemporry intolerance.

Anne Erskine, daughter of John Erskine, has replaced Rebecca Tarwater in the cast of "Naughty Naught"... The Mohawk Drama festival, under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Coburn, will get under way July 6... Cornelia Otis Skinner will play a two weeks' engagement in London, starting April 15... Maida Reade, John Barclay and Starr West have been signed by Maryverne Jones for her summer season at the Starlight Theater, Pawling, N. Y., opening May 31.

Talkie Tidings

HAL ROACH is negotiating with Rudy Vallee for a musical production. Grand National will release the following English pictures on these shores: "The Man in the Mirror." with Edward Everett Horton, and Genevieve Tobin; "Two Who Dared," with Anna Sten, and "Juggernaut," with Boris Karloff...Director John Ford is in Honolulu preparing for the loff...Director John Ford is in Honolulu preparing for the filming of "Hurricane"...Suzanne Larson, latest in the child singers, has been signed by Metro and will be featured in "B Above High C," written by Arthur Sheekman and Dalton Trumbo.

Tay Garnett will direct "Stand-In," Walter Wanger film based on the Clarence Buddingbased on the Clarence Budding-tion Kelland story...James Ho-gan is handling the megaphone for Paramount's "Last Train from Madrid"...Francis Leder-er is back in Hollywood after a three months' personal appear-ance tour. He will next be seen in Columbia's "Cape of Good Hope."

Metro will screen Mary Rose of Miffling." by Robert Sterrett... Elizabeth Risdon and Sybli Harris have joined the cast of "The Deep South" at Warners...Walter Catlett will have a role in "Love Under Fire" at 20th Century-Fox...Polly Moran and Alison Skipworth will again be teamed by Republic in "She Walked for a Crooked Mile"... Clarence Brown may direct a picture in London...Philip Sleeman has been added to "The Prisoner of Zenda."

Gail Patrick has been awarded a new Paramount contract and the studio has decided to groom her for stardom. Jean Muir and Dick Foran have been added to the cast of the Warner picture, "The Perfect Gentleman". Florence Rice will appear with Joe E. Brown in his next comedy, "All Is Confusion." Ellis St. Joseph will aid with the screen play of his story, "Girl in Flight," being planned by Columbia. Claude Binyon will write Gary Cooper's last Paramount vehicle, "What Ho." Paul Robeson will be starred in "Henri I of Haiti," to be filmed in London . . Judy Gail Patrick has been awarded London ... Judy Canova, hill billy comedienne, will have a role in the Jack Benny musical film.

musical film,
"Artists and d Models"... Ella Logan has replaced the ailing Frances Langford in the cast of Walter Wanges of 1938"... Francine Larrimore is being sought by the Warners for the role of Nana in "The Life of Emile Zola." Larrimore ag up a bit Francine Larri- IS ALERT

Here And There

Here And There
Simone Simon may be starred in a new film version of "Kiki"
...Dolly Haas, Viennese star, will make her American debut in "Absent Without Leave." Samson Raphaelson is working on the screen play at Columbia...
Melvin Purvis, formerly of the Department of Justice, will supervise the G-Man scenes in the Goldwyn film edition of "Dead End."
Paramount has placed "Here

Paramount has placed "Hotel Haywire" before the cameras... Louis Borrel lwill portray the Grand ONROE, LA. Duke Peter in Metro's "The Emperor's Candlesticks"..."Right Guy" WORLD will feature Paul Kelly and Jacque-

LUNIOL DS PLACE

ponent of John Ersil view of women as in civic, charitable organizations was a hester today. the most "interna-nerican women, Miss Niven, general secre-teen years of the mittee of the Y. W. C. a member of the Na-i, was speaker and or at a luncheon in re given by the local

EARNING FAST

EARNING FAST
d at the home of Mrs.
ingle of East Bouleliven revealed she is eminist who believes do everything. But,
en asked her opinion is denunciation of public benefactors in ice of Women":
are learning fast.
have gone, and my ir has taken me to e of community,
showing their eagerorb something of the lof national and inaffairs.

affairs.
can't decide anythemselves but they important factor in orward civilization." n objects to Americans he role of arbiter of s problems, without ag up a bit on history.

ans are very alert,
lack information."
"They seem to have
e conscious that there ational problems and tey their thinking to appenings."
g the luncheon today
napter, board and staff of the Y. W. C. A.
of local units of the Association of Univerin, the Women's Eduind Industrial Union, Women Voters and the Church Women also s.

N. ADAMS, MASS. TRANSCRIPT

MAR 3 U 1937

Brattleboro, (Vt.), Soprano Accorded High Honor

BY METROPOLITAN

Chosen With John L. Thomas, Baritone, From 800 Auditioned by Committee.

No greater triumph ever reaches the heart of an opera singer than the moment when he or she is chos-en as a member of that musical citadel, the Metropolitan Opera Association.

Two new singers have been chosen from 800 auditioned by the Metropolitan Opera's Committee on Auditions during the last 26 weeks. Of the 800, 63 were heard on a coast to coast air hookup and 13 were chosen in the semi-finals. The Metropolitan heads who decided the choices were: Edward Johnson, general manager; John Erskine, chairman of the management committee; Earle R. Lewis, treasurer; Edward Ziegler, assistant general manager, and Wilfred Pelletier, conductor of the symphony orchestra.

The two winners are Miss Maxine Stellman, soprano, and Thomas L. Two new singers have been chos-

The two winners are Miss Maxine Stellman, soprano, and Thomas L. Thomas, baritone, Aside from a contract with the Metropolitan Opera, the committee awarded them each a tract with the Metropolitan Opera, the committee awarded them each a sterling silver plaque for being the winners of the 1937 series of the "Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air." Both singers will appear in operatic roles during the spring season of the Metropolitan.

Miss Stellman is from Brattleboro, Vt., a 27-year-old soprano with a finished background. She has always been interested in singing, and made her debut at the tender age of three, during a Christmas church service. Her mother, well known as a singer, taught her the fine points of the art as soon as young Maxine was old enough to appreciate them.

She later began to study the piano, and, finishing high school, started a real singing career. She has had two seasons with the Chautauqua Opera Company, attended the Institute of Musical Art for four years, and in 1931 was fortunate enough to win the Atwater Kent prize. Three years are writh the help and enougrace.

the Atwater Kent prize. Three years ago, with the help and encouragement of Lawrence Tibbett, she won a musical prize of $1,000.

Women don't want to be told about life as it is; they want to be told the world is what they would like it to be.-John Erskine, American novelist,

The financial crash . . . did motion pictures a lot of good by reducing them to a survival of the best.—Leslie Howard, English stage and screen actor.

in A Ersk Naugh tival, and N way Ju will pla in Lon Maida 1 Starr W Maryvern season at

Pawling, N Talkie T

HAL RO
with musical protional will re
English pietu
"The Man in
Edward Evers
Genevieve To Dared," with "Juggernaut," loff...Director.

loff...Director J Honolulu prepa filming of "Hu zanne Larson, late

Grey, pr ttle expert from Don I APR 6 - 1937

UPHOLDS PLAGE CIVIC LIFE

A hardy opponent of John Erskine's scornful view of women as participants in civic, charitable and other organizations was a and other organizations was a guest in Rochester today.

Known as the most "international" of American women, Miss Charlotte T. Niven, general secretary for fifteen years of the World's Committee of the Y. W. C. A. and now a member of the National Board, was speaker and guest of honor at a luncheon in The Sagamore given by the local Y. W. branch.

WOMEN LEARNING FAST

WOMEN LEARNING FAST

Interviewed at the home of Mrs.
Wesley M. Angle of East Boulevard, Miss Niven revealed she is no ardent feminist who believes women can do everything. But, she said when asked her opinion of Erskine's denunciation of women as public benefactors in his 'Influence of Women':

"Women are learning fast.
Wherever I have gone, and my current tour has taken me to every type of community, women are showing their eagerness to absorb something of the background of national and international affairs.

"Women can't decide anything by themselves but they are an important factor in carrying forward civilization."
Miss Niven objects to Americans assuming the role of arbiter of the world's problems, without first studying up a bit on history.

AMERICANS ALERT

AMERICANS ALERT

"Americans are very alert, but they lack information," she said. "They seem to have just become conscious that there just become conscious that there are international problems and seem to key their thinking to current happenings."

Attending the luncheon today were 350 chapter, board and staff members of the Y. W. C. A. Presidents of local units of the American Association of University Women, the Women's Educational and Industrial Union, League of Women Voters and the Council of Church Women also were guests. rumbo.

Tay Garnett

"Stand-In." Walter Wand substantially from Mased on the Clarence ment's rearmament. For men ment's rearmant for Paramount's "La naval construction alor for paramount such that the formation alor for paramount such that the formati were guests.

MONROE, LA. WORLD APR 6 - 1937

N. ADAMS, MASS. TRANSCRIPT

MAR 3 U 1937

Brattleboro, (Vt.), Soprano Accorded High Honor

BY METROPOLITAN

Chosen With John L. · Thomas, Baritone, From 800 Auditioned by Committee.

No greater triumph ever reaches the heart of an opera singer than the moment when he or she is chos-en as a member of that musical citadel, the Metropolitan Opera As-sociation.

en as a member of that musical citadel, the Metropolitan Opera Association.

Two new singers have been chosen from 800 auditioned by the Metropolitan Opera's Committee on Auditions during the last 26 weeks. Of the 800, 63 were heard on a coast to coast air hookup and 13 were chosen in the semi-finals. The Metropolitan heads who decided the choices were: Edward Johnson, general manager; John Erskine, chairman of the management committee; Earle R. Lewis, treasurer; Edward Ziegler, assistant general manager, and Wilfred Pelletier, conductor of the symphony orchestra.

The two winners are Miss Maxine Stellman, soprano, and Thomas L. Thomas, baritone. Aside from a contract with the Metropolitan Opera, the committee awarded them each a sterling silver plaque for being the winners of the 1937 series of the "Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air." Both singers will appear in operatic roles during the spring season of the Metropolitan.

Miss Stellman is from Brattleboro, Vt., a 27-year-old soprano with a finished background. She has always been interested in singing, and made her debut at the tender age of three, during a Christmas church service. Her mother, well known as a singer, taught her the fine points of the art as soon as young Maxine was old enough to appreciate them.

She later began to study the piano, and, finishing high school, started a real singing career. She has had two seasons with the Chautauqua Opera Company, attended the Institute of Musical Art for four years, and in 1931 was fortunate enough to win the Atwater Kent prize. Three years ago, with the help and encouragement of Lawrence Tibbett, she won a musical prize of $1,000.

a musical prize of $1,000.

Women don't want to be told about life as it is; they want to be told the world is what they would like it to be. John Erskine, American novelist.

The financial crash . . . did motion pictures a lot of good by reducing them to a survival of the best.—Leslie Howard, English stage and screen actor.

Oscar Wagner Becomes Dean of New York School as Noted Pianist Takes Over Post Resigned by Author

After ten years of service, Dr. John Erskine resigned as president of the Juilliard School of Music in New York on March 28. He will be succeeded by the dean, Ernest Hutcheson, and Oscar Wagner, assistant dean of the Graduate School and also in charge of the Institute of Musical Art, has been appointed dean of both branches of the school.

school.

Dr. Erskine resigned, according to a press announcement, in order to devote all of his time to his writing. It is expected that he will continue as a director of the school and also of the Metropolitan Opera Company, a post he has occupied since 1935 when the Juilliard School interests, assisting the Metropolitan Opera in its financial straits, assumed a voice in its policies.

Dr. Erskine became chairman of the administrative committee of the Juilliard School in 1927 and was appointed president the following year. He is best known as the author of 'Helen of Troy', a satirical treatment of the classical legend, and other similar novels. He wrote the books for two operas produced at the Juilliard School, 'Jack and the Beanstalk' and 'Helen Retires'. The first of these also had performances on Broadway and in Chicago.

Mr. Hutcheson, who succeeds as president, is a native of Melbourne, Australia, a graduate of the Leipzig Conservatory and Oberlin College, and has made tours in both Europe and America as a concert pianist. He has appeared in the latter with the New York Philharmonic-Symphony, the New York Symphony and other leading orchestras. With Dr. Erskine, he was appointed to the Board of the Metropolitan Opera, in 1935.

Albert Peterson

Ernest Hutcheson

Dr. John Erskine

With Rudy Vallee for a tional with Rudy Vallee for a tional will release the following radius of the Rudy Vallee for a English includes the following with Aman Sten, and for Director John Two Who Plagerman, with Aman Sten, and foff. Director John Ford is in the Mirror, with Boris Kar-Honolulu pearing for the zame Laws, and will be featured by Arthur Sheekman and Dalton Tumbo.

Tambo. The Walter Wanger film and Sheekman and Dalton Tumbo.

Tambo. The Walter Wanger film and Sheekman and Dalton Tumbo.

The Walter Wanger film and Sheekman and Dalton Tumbo.

The Walter Wanger film and Sheekman and Dalton Tumbo.

The Walter Wanger film and Sheekman and Tumbo.

The Walter Wanger film and Sheekman and Maddiu. The Andrew Maddium the means the form the seek in the seek in the seek in Hollywoods Lederante to made in Hollywoods Lederante to means the present after a meet to the seek in Hollywoods Lederante to meet to the seek in Hollywoods Lederante to ments beek seekens after a seek to the seekens the seekens and the seekens the seekens and the care to the seekens the seekens after a seekens the seekens a seekens the seekens a seekens a seekens the seekens a seekens a seekens the seekens a seekens a seekens the seekens a seekens the seekens a seekens the seekens the seekens a seekens the seekens the acr in the cast of aught. The Mohawk Dy aught. The Mohawk Dy and Arts. Coburn. will ge as y July 6...Cornella Oils III play a two weeks eng London, starting Apparate West have been signary west have been signary error starter.

don to arrange for the American production of "Balalaka," Eng lish musical it, J. Edward Trevor has postponed "Friends and Romans" until next autumn. This is the William Miles dramatization of the Virginia Faulkner novel, which will feature Ruth Weston. Billy Rose, whose Chamber of Horrors idea has heen turned down for New York's World Fair, will present a Temple of Telerance at the Farth Worth, Texas, exposition. It will be a waxawork record of contemporary

Stage

By

BLEN JEROME is dram

Scomere: Mauginam's late

"Theater," dealing with t

life of a famous Englis.

Jack Excelein will an role in "Ascenal," which is is producing. Nat Kathe sets. "Arthur Stroc several plays this sum playhouse, Dennis, Mas

STAR EAGLE

48

MAR 2 4 1937

WELL-FED SOLDIERS

A STATEMENT by officials of the Soviet Government claims for the Russian Army the happy distinction of being the "healthiest in the world." This follows by two or three weeks a somewhat similar claim from Berlin that the ration standards for the German Army are the highest in Europe. Rome has at various times made statements that the Italian soldiers are the peers, physically and intellectually, of any in the world.

All of this indicates that European governments seem to think well of their military organizations, that the fighting forces are sleek and well-fed, that they are highly trained, clothed well and are in all respects made the subjects of solicitous attention.

A phase of the matter which is not discussed, however, is the fact that in order that this condition may prevail the rank and file of citizens are burdened with taxation, compelled to exist on meager food allowances and, in many instances, to endure actual starvation.

There is also a significant silence as to what usually happens eventually to soldiers upon whose development and care millions of dollars have been lavished. These men are being prepared for slaughter, for blindness and for every conceivable cruelty and suffering that can be devised by specialists in the arts of war.

"Why be polite to women?" John Erskine, the writer, asks. Mr. Erskine might try being impolite, just to see what hap-

The London press is still treating cautiously all matters concerning the great romance, but the news is beginning to leak

"OOL John Erskine, '00C. '01AM, '03PhD, '20ListD, has resigned as president of the Juilliard School of Music, effective July 1. He told the Board of Trustees of his intention a year ago, so that he may devote his time to writing. Erskine has served as president of the years. His new novel, "The Brief Hour of Francois Villon," will be published in June.

Ernest Fahnestock, '00P&R, an honorary poince surgeon in New York, shot and killed himself on April 5 on the top floor of his five-story white stone house at 954 Fifth Avenue. He was 60 years old. Dr. Fahnestock, a fellow of the American College of Surgeons, was consulting surgeon at St. Vincent's Hospital and Miserjeordia Hospital and surgeon at Year of the Police Department for years and gave funds for the cetablishment of a day clinic for members of the police force. The clinic was set up on the fourth floor at Headquarters, with facilities for the treatment of minor surgical cases, for emergency examination on serious surgical cases and for examination of medical cases.

YONKERS, N. Y. HERALD-STATESMAN

APR 1 2 1937

Marie Di Dio Sings At Program Given For Noted Musicians

Miss Marie DiDio, Yonkers lyric soprano, was soloist at a program given yesterday at Miss Grace Hoyt's studio in New York City in honor of John Erskine who is resigning as head of the Juilliard School.

School.

Noted musicians who were guests included Mme. Maria Carreras, Spanish pianist; Henry Hadley, composer and conductor, Gina Pinera, singer and teacher, and Samuel Plza, concert manager.

Miss Dillio is a punil of Mrs. T.

nera, singer and teacher, and Samuel Piza, concert manager.

Miss DiDio is a pupil of Mrs. T.
S. Mittell (Lyana Donaz). She is to be heard again April 16 at a program at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Granville of 48 Lincoln Terrace at a concert in honor of Robert Huntington Terry's 25th anniversary as organist and choir director at St. Andrew's Memorial Episcopal Church.

out that it isn't Edward who is to be crowned early in the Summer.

The visiting diplomats have been informed in the language of diplomacy that, so far as the United States is concerned, the next war, if there is to be one, will be on a cash-and-carry basis.

BUFFALO, N. Y. NEWS APR 1 0 1937

JOHN ERSKINE, author, composer, Columbia university pro-fessor, director of the Metropolitan opera, and until this week head of the Juillard School of Music, is at work on the book and lyrics of an operetta by Victor Herbert. The score is made up of a number of unpublished Herbert compositions.

DENVER, COLO. Rocky Mountain News

APR 18 1937

An Erskine Operetta John Erskine, author, composer, Columbia University professor, director of the Metropolitan Opera, and until recently head of the Juil-lard School of Music, is at work on the book and lyrics of an operetta by Victor Herbert. The score is made up of a number of unpublished Herbert compositions.

They Were All Wrong

Thomas A. Edison said, in 1927: "I don't think the talking picture will ever be successful in the United States. Americans prefer the silent drama. There will be novelty to it for a while but the glitter will soon wear off."

John Erksine once was quoted as saying: "I see no future for as saying: "I see no future for opera and I don't think it even has a present." Erskine is now head of the Jullard Foundation, largest contributor to the upkeep of the Metropolitan opera.

The steamboat, the submarine, the telegraph were all offered to Napoleon by inventors before the world generally heard of them. He didn't think any would work. B. F. Keith, when he controlled the largest chain of vaudeville theaters in the world, said: "Motion pictures are a fad; they're like the bicycle. They won't stay long."

tion pictures are a fad; they're like the bicycle. They won't stay long."

Woodrow Wilson, when president of Princeton university in 1806, wrote: "Nothing has spread socialistic feeling in this country more than the automobile; to the country man (that is, the farmer) they are a picture of arrogance of wealth, with all its independence and carelessness." Wilson hen thought only the rich could ever possess an auto.

Just before the premiere of "Mile. Modiste." Fritzi Scheff, supported by the producer, tried to argue Victor Herbert, the composer, into eliminating one of the songs in the show. They declared it was lacking in appeal and would slow up the musical comedy. He insisted that it be kept in, for the first night, at least. The song made the show a hit and Fritzi Scheff the greates' musical comedy actress of the day, for its "Kiss Me Again."

First instructor whom parents toc', the boy Ignace Paderewski told him, "You will never learn to be a pianist!"

William de Mille, then the outstanding playwright of the day, tried to persuade Mary Pickford from leaving the stage to go into a crockpot business—motion pictures.

VARIETY NEW YORK, N. Y.

MAR 3 1 1937

uxine Stellman, Brattleboro, Vt., Thomas L. Thomas, Scranton,
ners of the aired opera auditions,
will get a chance at the Met.
og the soring season. Each gets of and silver blaques, rst section of the Ringling circus will leave Sarasola tomorrow, ursday). Sleeper section will follApril 28, and the canvas section 2, for the Brooklyn date under big tops.

ons.

Irskine to quit as head of school. July 1. Wants more his writing. Ernest Hutchedean, succeeds.

APR 1 - 1937

'Driftwood' Is Still Drifting

'Excursion' Due Next Friday

By JOHN HARKINS.

Nothing on the opening night calendar tonight, despite talk earlier in the week of a possible earlier in the week of a possible "Driftwood" appearance at the Longacre. That talk was unofficial. The management took no part in the conversation, so this does not count as a post-ponement. "Driftwood" still is in the works, they say, but it is almost as mysterious as the Easter murders. No definite popening night listed at the moment.

There is one change on next week's schedule. John C. Wilson has set back "Excursion," the Victor Wolfson comedy, from Tuesday to Friday. The play is in Philadelphia at the moment. Reports favorable.

Maxwell Anderson has ended his Southern jaunt. He is due back on Broadway tonight to receive the Critics Circle plaque, awarded to "High Tor" as the best play of the season. He will get the prize at a dinner at the Algonquin.

Louis Sheeter and Norman Clark, Baltimoreans, have finished their second play, "In Garfinkle's Window" It is headed for a tryout on the Summer Circuit. Mr. Sheeter is an advertising man. His companion is drama and film critic of the Baltimore News-Post.

Cornelia Otis Skinner winds up her New York season Sunday at the Lyceum. She will sail

NEW YORK, N. Y. TIMES

MAR 3 0 1937

KNOX CENTENNIAL BODY

Many Leaders on Honorary List of 50 for College Celebration of 50 for College Celebration

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

GALESBURG, Ill., March 29.—
Organization of a national honorary committee for the Knox Colary Committee for the fifty men and women on the list, many have indicated that they will be hare for the celebration.

The list includes Herbert Hoover, Owen D. Young, John W. Davis, Owen D. Young, John W. Carl John J. Persking, former Governo John J. Persking, former Governo John J. Persking, Fedical Canby, Hampin Garland, Samuel T. Biedsee, D. Kalis Carrel, William Allen White, H. Kuls Car

Monday for London for a coro-Monday for London for a coronation season appearance... Jack Roseleigh, last of "Paths of Glory" and long before that of "What Price Glory," will have one of the leading roles in "Arsenal" that A. L. Jones is entering in May...Leo Rose, lately aide of Barney Klawans, has joined Juliana Morgan as general manager for her forthcoming venture with that comedy called "Penny Wise."

The brokers have come around to taking a "buy" on "Having Wonderful Time" at the Lyceum, with an allotment of 200 seats a night, starting next week. . Celia Adler will go touring with "The Simple Woman" in May. . "Tovarich" has its 200th performance tonight at the Plymouth Theatre. Anna Erskine, daughter of the writing John Erskine, has joined "Naught, aught, replacing Rebecca Tarwater. . Billy Rose has back that $5,000 check with which he petitioned the World's Fair folk for permission to stage a Chamber of Horrors. He says he will use it to start a "Temple of Tolerance" at his Fort Worth Carnival this Summer.

John Erskine at Work on Herbert Operetta.

John Erskine, author, composer, Columbia University professor, di-rector of the Metropolitan Opera, rector of the Metropolitan Opera, and until this week head of the Juil-lard School of Music, is at work on the book and lyrics of an operetta by Victor Herbert. The score is made up of a number of unpublished Herbert compositions.

defaultly, it is said that Ella Herbert Bartlett, daughter of the composer, has attended thirty-eight performances of the film version of her father's "Naughty Marietta."

Attention, Cabell collectors:-Along with the publication of Cabell's new novel, "Smire," Doubleday Doran Issued a pamphlet entitled "The Nightmare Has Triplets," in which the author explains the genesis of the series of which "Smire" is the third volume. Only one edition of this booklet was printed, of which 500 copies were for sale at 10 cents each. Very few of the 500 are left. with the publication of Cabell's new George Macy, director of the Limited Editions Club in this country and of the Nonesuch Press in England, announces the formation of new book club to be called the ytage Club. It will furnish twelve books a year. Eac CIRCLEVILLE, O. HERALD

MAR 2 4 1937

WELL-FED SOLD A STATEMENT by official Government claims fo Army the happy distinction "healthiest in the world." two or three weeks a son claim from Berlin that the ards for the German Army in Europe. Rome has at made statements that the are the peers, physically a ly, of any in the world.

All of this indicates that ernments seem to think we tary organizations, that the are sleek and well-fed, tha ly trained, clothed well an pects made the subjects of

A phase of the matter cussed, however, is the f der that this condition n rank and file of citizens with taxation, compelle meager food allowances a stances, to endure actual s

There is also a signific what usually happens ev diers upon whose develo millions of dollars have These men are being prep ter, for blindness and for ble cruelty and suffering vised by specialists in the

"Why be polite to wor kine, the writer, asks. M try being impolite, just to

The London press is st tiously all matters conce romance, but the news is b

MUSIC APPRECIATION IMPORTANT ASSET

Many Well Known Men Are Accomplished Amateur Artists

If you can control the ten fingers on your hand, you can as easily control ten men, Geo. V. Roscoe of the Rogers & Wilson Music company declared today as he pointed out that many of the country's leading industralists and professional men are accomplished amateur musicians.

"The approach of National Music Week, May 2-8, is significant for the stress it places upon the enjoyment and recreation afforded by music for the individual," he said. What an impressive orchestra it would be if one could get these important men together.

"There is Gen. Charles G. Dawes, Chicago banker and former vice-president of the United States, nationally known for his musical compositions and as a pianist. James P. Warburg, New York financier, also is a pianist and composer.

"Other prominent men who play the piano are Kent Cooper, famous journalist, Charles M. Schwab, president of Bethlehem Steel company, Major Albert Warner, New York, John Erskine, author, Ernest Lu-bitsch, Hollywood director, Charles Norris, author, and John O'Rourke, managing editor of the Washington D. C., Daily News.

"Prof. Albert Einstein, Princeton scientist, is a violinist of concert ability. Music critics were loud in their praise of his charty performance last year. Charlie Chaplin and Hendrik Van Loon, the author, also play the violin.

"Robert Taylor, motion picture star, Prof. Vladimir Karapetoff, Cornell university electrical engineer, and Alex Dreyfoos, prominent art dealer, are cello players. Dr. Herbert Tily, Philadelphia Department store executive, and James H. Wakelin, Holyoke, Mass., bank president, are organists.

"Right in our own community we have a dozen important business and professional men who are talented musicians..

The study of good music under a proper instructor creates a lasting impression that brings to you years of happiness and consolation,

PEORIA. ILL. STAR

APR 151937

NATIONAL MUSIC WEEK MAY 2-8

If you can control the ten fingers on your hands, you can as easily control ten men, C. C. Adams, of the Adams Music company declared today as he pointed out that many of the country's leading industralists and professional men are accomplished amateur musicians.

"The approach of National Music Week, May 2-8, is significant for the stress it places upon the enjoyment and recreation afforded by music for the individual," he said. "What an impressive orchestra it would be if one could get these important men together.

would be if one could get these important men together.

"There is Gen. Charles G. Dawes, Chicago banker and former vice-president of the United States, nationally known for his musical ompositions and as a planist. James P. Warburg. New York, financier, also is a planist and composer.

"Other prominent men who play the plano are Kent Cooper, famous journalist, Charles M. Schwab, president of Bethleham Steel company, Major Albert Warner, New York, John Erskine, author, Ernst Lubitsh, Hollywood director Charles Norris, author, and John O'Rourke, managing editor of the Washington, D. C., Dally News.

"Prof. Albert Einstein, Princeton scientist, is a violinist of concert ability. Music critics were loud in their praise of his charity performance last year. Charlie Chaplin and Hendrik Van Loon, the author also play the violin.

"Robert Taylor, motion picture tar, Prof. Vladimir Karapetoff, Cornerr university elterical engineer, and Alex Dreyfoos, prominent art dealer, are cello players. Dr. Herber' Tily, Philadelphia Department store executive, and James H. Wakelin, organists.

"Right in our own community we have a dozen.

"Right in our own community we have a dozen important business and professional men who are talented musicians.

TOLEDO, O. BLADE

APR8 - 1927

ERNEST HUTCHESON, recently named to succeed John Erskine as president of the Juilliard foundation and director of the Juilliard foundation and director of the Juilliard for Wallenstein's orchestra in the first "Music and You" program on the Mutual network tonight at 8. night at 8.

Pierre Key, noted music critic and editor of Musical Digest, will be the commentator. Hutcheson will be heard with the orchestra in Liszt's "Hungarian Fantasy," and the orchestral selections will be Bach's "Partita," arranged by Wood, and the "Eithum" of Ju-Wood, and the "Ritmo"

DUFFALU, N. Y. NEWS APR 23 1937

BUFFALO IS RICH IN MUSICIANS

Businessman Says Amateurs Could Organize Symphony.

The picture of an impressive or-chestra which might be assembled from prominent Buffalo business and professional men whose hobby is music was drawn today by Frank N. Farrar Jr., vice president and treas-urer of Denton, Cottier & Daniels,

Inc.
"If you can control the ten fingers on your hands, you can control ten men as easily." Mr. Farrar said in pointing out that many of the out-standing executives in this city and the country at large are accom-

the country at large are accomplished amateur musicians.
"The approach of National Music week, May 2-8, stresses the enjoyment and recreation music offers the individual," he said.

He cited these nationally known figures as able musicians:
Gen. Charles G. Dawes, violinist and composer; James P. Warburg, New York financier, pianist and composer; Proff Albert Einstein Charlie Chaplin and Hendrik Vau Loon, author, violinists.

Symphony Orchestra Possible.

Symphony Orchestra Possible.

Charles M. Schwab, John Erskine, Charles Norris, Ernst Lubitsch, pian-

Charles Norris, Ernst Lubison, pianists, and Robert Taylor and Professor Vladimir Karapetoff, 'cellists.

"Right in our own community,"
Mr. Farrar continued, "we have a steadily widening group of important business executives and professional men who are really talented musicians. From this group it would be possible to fashion the nucleus of a symphony orchestra that we venture to say would be a surprise to music critics.

"For instance, in our string sec-to music critics.

"For instance, in our string section we might have Frederick C. Slee, attorney, whose instrument is the viola; Charles L. Gurney Jr., of J. C. Dann, Wickwire & Co., and Horace B. Pomeroy of Schoellkopf, Hutton Pomeroy, 'cellists; Reginaid V. Williams of the Williams Gold Refining company and Alden Rogers, insurance executive, violinists.

DALLAS, TEX. DISPATCH APR 1 1 1937

Dr. John Eyskine author, composer, Columbia university professor, director of the Metropolitan Opera, and recently resigned head of the Julliard music foundation is at work on the book and lyrics of an operetta by the late Victor Herbert, a score made up of a number of unpublished

If you can control the ten fingers on your hands, you can as easily control ten men, says Chas. S. Andrews Music store, today as he pointed out that many of the country's leading industrialists and professional men are accomplished amateur musicians.

"The approach of National Music Week, May 2-8, is significant for the stress it places upon the enjoyment and recreation afforded by music for the individual."

"By Major Albert Warner. New York, unding in its bulk. Author names which John Erskine, author, Ernst Lubitsch, ten the eye in the approaching tide, and Hollywood director, Charles Norris, e works that they offer, are included in the asymptom of the Stress it places upon the enjoyment and recreation afforded by music for the individual."

"The approach of National Music Week, May 2-8, is significant for the stress it places upon the enjoyment and recreation afforded by music for the individual."

"The paper of National Music Critics were loud in their prase of his charity performance last year. Charlie Chaplin man Hendrik Van Loon, the author, also play the violin."

"Robert Taylor, motion picture store president of the United States, name the stablished national reputation, comes for dwith extra the stablished national reputation, comes for dwithes, this time, set in Tennessee. Lyle in their prase of his charity performance last year. Charlie Chaplin "Robert Taylor, also play the violin."

"Robert Taylor, and Alex Dreyfoos, prominent and the stablished national reputation, comes for dwithes, this time, set in Tennessee. Lyle in the enjoyment and recreation afforded by music for the individual."

"Robert Taylor, and Alex Dreyfoos, prominent and the control the stablished national reputation, comes for dwithes, this time, set in Tennessee. Lyle in the enjoyment and recreation afforded the enjoyment and recreation afforded by music for the individual."

"Robert Taylor, and Alex Dreyfoos, prominent and recreation and as a pianist. James P. Wachel, Alex Dreyfoos, prominent and the enforce of the stream of the Remarque, who gained fame with "All Quiet on the Western Front," writes a new tale to be titled "Three Comrades," a novel of Ger-be titled "Inree Comrades," a novel of Ger-many in 1928. And the Second Empire under-Louis Napoleon will be seen through the eyes of Alfred Neumann in "The Gaudy Empire." In the nonfiction field a biography of the late G. K. Chesterton will be accounted for by Hilaire Bellco; a biography of Marconi will be done by Orrin E. Dunlap; and a life story of Hart Crane, American poet, will be told by Philip Horton. Essays by Waldo Frank under the head, "In the American Jungle," and by Ford Madox Ford titled "Portraits from Life," will swell the list.

In the not quite to be classified section is a book called "Look Eleven Years Younger," which instructs the aging how to sidestep tell-tale appearances and traits. The author's name is Gelett Burgess. If you are a prospect for the tenets of his book you will remember that back around the turn of the century he invented the term "bromide" (meaning a dull, commonplace person who is always saying dull, commonplace things), which is today in the dictionary.

COLUMBUS, O. DISPATCH APR 1 9 1937

Many Leading Industrialists Are Accomplished Amateur Musicians

IF YOU CAN control the 10 fingers on your hands, you can easily control 10 men, Otto B. Heaton, Columbus music dealer, declared Monday, as he pointed out that many of the country's leading industrialists and professional men are accomplished musicians.

"The approach of National Music week, May 2-8, is significant for the stress it places upon the enjoyment and recreation afforded by music for the individual," he said. "What an impressive orchestra it would be if one could get these important men

together."

"There is Gen. Charles G. Dawes, Chicago banker and former vice president of the United States, nationally-known for his musical compositions and as a panist, James P. Warburg, New York financier, also is a planist and composer.

"Other prominent men who play the piano are Kent Cooper, famous journalist; Charles M. Schwab, president of Bethlehem Steel Co.; Major Albert Warner, New York; John Erskine, author; Ernst Lubitsch, Hollywood director; Charles Norris, author, and John O'Rourke, managing editor, Washington, D. C., Daily News.

"Right in our own community we have a dozen important-business and professional men who are talented musicians—Edgar T. Wolfe, Richard Wolfe, Allen R. Rankin, Dr. Hal B. Blakey, Stewart A. Hoover, James A. Spellman, Curtis C. Lattimer, Frank E. Lauterbach, Dr. E. R. Shilling, Neath O. Jones, T. E. French.

RACUSE, N. Y. MERICAN

APR 1 81937

The board of Juilliard School in New York has announced the resignation of John Freiden as president of the school, After In Years' service, he wishes to give his time to writing. Ernest Hutcheson will take Erskine's place and also a position on the board of directors. Hutcheson is the former school dean, which Dosition will now be filled by Os-car Wagner.

GOSHEN, IND. News-Times & Democrat APR 201937

MUSIC APPRECIATION IMPORTANT ASSET

Many Well Known Men Are Ac complished Amateur Artists

If you can control the ten finger on your hand, you can as easily control ten men, Geo. V. Roscoe of the Rogers & Wilson Music compan the Rogers exvisor Music compain declared today as he pointed out that many of the country's leading in dustralists and professional men ar accomplished amateur musicians.

"The approach of National Musi-Week, May 2-8, is significant to the stress it places upon the enjoyment and recreation afforded by sic for the individual," he sai What an impressive orchestra ould be if one could get these in portant men together.

"There is Gen. Charles G. Dawe Chicago banker and former vice president of the United States, na tionally known for his musical con positions and as a pianist. Jam P. Warburg, New York financie also is a pianist and composer.

"Other prominent men who ple the piano are Kent Cooper, famo journalist, Charles M. Schwab, pre ident of Bethlehem Steel compan Major Albert Warner, New Yor John Ersking, author, Friest L bitsch, Hollywood director, Charl Norris, author, and John O'Rouri managing editor of the Washingt D. C., Daily News.

"Prof. Albert Einstein, Princel scientist, is a violinist of concability. Music critics were loud their praise of his charty perfor ance last year. Charlie Char and Hendrik Van Loon, the auth also play the violin.

"Robert Taylor, motion pict star, Prof. Vladimir Karapetoff, C star, Prof. Vladimir Karapetoli, G nell university electrical engine and Alex Dreyfoos, prominent dealer, are cello players. Dr. H bert Tily, Philadelphia Departm store executive, and James H. Wa lin Holyda. Mag. Jank proged lin, Holyoke, Mass., bank presid

"Right in our own community have a dozen important busin and professional men who are ented musicians.

The study of good music un a proper instructor creates a last impression that brings to you ye of happiness and consolation,

CHARLOTTE, N. C. NEWS

APR 1 8 1937

Nation Will Ob Music Week M

If you can control the ten fingers ident of Major on your hands, you can as easily control ten men, says Chas, S. An-drews, of the Andrews Music store, drews, of the Andrews Music store, today as he pointed out that many of the country's leading industrialists and professional men are accomplished amateur musicians.

"The approach of National Music Week, May 2-8, is significaty for the stress it places upon enjoyment and recreation afforby music for the individual said. "What an impressive chestra it would be if on get these important men "There is Gen. Charles Chicago banker and president of the United tionally known for his

COLUMBUS, C DISPATC

Many Le Accom

IF YOU CA

te 10 fingers on your hands, you can ten, Otto B. Heaton, Columbus music as he pointed out that many of the alists and professional men are accomndustrialists Are

Amateur Musicians

easily dealer, dec country's 1, plished m National Music week, May 2-8, is signifi-places upon the enjoyment and recreation the individual," he said. "What an imprescant for t places upon the enjoyment and recreation afforded by r the individual," he said. "What an impressive orchestra re would be if one could get these important men sive orchestra re would be if one could get these important men together."

"There is Gen. Charles G. Dawes, Chicago banker and former vice president of the United States, nationally-known for his musical compositions and as a panist. James P. Warburg, New York financier, also is a planist and composer.

"Other prominent men who play the piano are Kent Cooper, famous journalist; Charles M. Schwab, president of Bethlehem Steel Co.; Major Albert Warner, New York; John Erskine, author, and John O'Rourke, managing editor, Washington, D. C., Daily News.

"Right in our own community we have a dozen important business and professional men who are talented musicians—Edgar T. Wolfe, Richard Wolfe, Allen R. Rankin, Dr. Hal B. Blakey, Stewart A. Hoover, James A. Spellman, Curtis C. Lattimer, Frank E. Lauterbach, Dr. E. R. Shilling, Neath O. Jones, T. E. French.

NEW ORLEANS, LA. TIMES-PICAYUNE

APR 18 1937

On the Program for the Coming Months

WHAT the immediate future promises to varied, exciting and, as always, a little as-tounding in its bulk. Author names which catch the eye in the approaching tide, and the works that they offer, are included in the following

Roark Bradford, New Orleans writer with an established national reputation, comes for-ward with "The Three-Headed Angel," a novel of whites, this time, set in Tennessee. Lyle Saxon, another local penman known through-out the country, will bring out "Children of Strangers," a novel of present-day plantation life in Louisiana.

Edgar Lee Masters, product of the Middle West, will tender "The Tide of Time," a novel with a War Between the States background. Lion Feuchtwanger's "The Pretender" will deal with life in the time of Nero. James T. Farrel of "Studs Lonnigan" popularity will bring out a volume of short stories under the title "Can All This Grandeur Perish?" Professor John Erekine's book will be called "The Brief Hour of Francois Villon." Erich Maria Remarque, who gained fame with "All Quiet on the Western Front," writes a new tale to be titled "Three Comrades," a novel of Germany in 1928. And the Second Empire under Louis Napoleon will be seen through the eyes of Alfred Neumann in "The Gaudy Empire."

In the nonfiction field a biography of the late G. K. Chesterton will be accounted for by Hilaire Bellco; a biography of Marconi will be done by Orrin E. Dunlap; and a life story of Hart Crane, American poet, will be told by Philip Horton. Essays by Waldo Frank under the head, "In the American Jungle," and by Ford Madox Ford titled "Por-traits from Life," will swell the list.

In the not quite to be classified section is a book called "Look Eleven Years Younger," which instructs the aging how to sidestep teltale appearances and traits. The author's name is Gelett Burgess. If you are a prospect for the tenets of his book you will remember that back around the turn of the century he invented the term "bromide" (meaning a dull, commonplace person who is always saydull, commonplace things), which is today ing dull, comments in the dictionary.

RACUSE, N. Y. MERICAN

APR 1 81937

The board of Juilliard School in New York has announced the resignation of John Ersking as president of the school. After 16

his time to writing. Ernest Hutcheson will take Erskine's place, and also a position on the board of directors. Hutcheson is the former school dean, which Dosition will now be filled by Os-car Wagner.

GOSHEN, IND. News-Times & Democrat APR 201937

MUSIC APPRECIATION IMPORTANT ASSET

Many Well Known Men Are Ac complished Amateur Artists

If you can control the ten finger on your hand, you can as easily control ten men, Geo. V. Roscoe o the Rogers & Wilson Music company declared today as he pointed out tha many of the country's leading in dustralists and professional men ar accomplished amateur musicians.

"The approach of National Musi Week, May 2-8, is significant for the stress it places upon the enjoyment and recreation afforded by music for the individual," he said would be if one could get these im portant men together.

"There is Gen. Charles G. Dawes Chicago banker and former vice president of the United States, na tionally known for his musical com positions and as a pianist. Jame P. Warburg, New York financie also is a pianist and composer.

"Other prominent men who pla the piano are Kent Cooper, famou journalist, Charles M. Schwab, pres journalist, Charles M. Schwab, pres ident of Bethlehem Steel company Major Albert Warner, New Yorl John Erskine, author, Ernest Li-blisch, Hollywood difector, Charle Norris, author, and John O'Rourk managing editor of the Washington D. C., Daily News.

"Prof. Albert Einstein, Princete scientist, is a violinist of conce ability. Music critics were loud their praise of his charty performance last year. Charlie Chaple and Hendrik Van Loon, the author also play the violin.

also play the violin.

"Robert Taylor, monor pictus star, Prof. Vladimir Karapetoff, Conell university electrical engine and Alex Dreyfoos, prominent edealer, are cello players. Dr. Hebert Tily, Philadelphia Departme store executive, and James H. Was lin, Holyoke, Mass., bank preside are organists.

Right in our own community have a dozen important busines and professional men who are to ented musicians.

The study of good music und a proper instructor creates a lastif impression that brings to you year of happiness and consolation,

ibled

To Men Copy Writers

Your Advertising to Women, Says This One, Shows How Really Little You Know about Them

By Mabel Crews Ringland

IT always amuses me to hear a group of advertising men discussing women and how to interest them. They are so sure of woman's wants and needs and can even analyze her and needs and can even analyze her buying urges.

Perhaps the shrewdest dictum on this score comes from John Erskine, the novelist, who declares "Noman can understand women." Then he goes on to prove himself the exception by advising cannily, "Pay no attention to what women say; watch what they do."

May I paraphrase Mr. Erskine thus: Pay no attention to what men say of their understanding of women; watch what they do. In advertising, I mean. All too often they give themselves away. And here is some of the evidence which goes to show that there may be something in what the cynical novelist says:

goes to show that there may be something in what the cynical novelist says:

I have on my desk a national stove advertisement picturing a young woman bending over to remove a roasted fowl irom the oven of an electric range. It's true that the new streamlined stoves have the oven placed low, but that's a point to be soft-pedalled not emphasized. Almost any woman's reaction would be: "If a new stove will do that to my back, I'll stick to the old one."

Another stove advertisement for one of the biggest national advertisers also shows the housewife bending over and saying: "Sure... bring them all home for dinner... Cooking's a pleasure with... electric range." Hold on a minute Mr. Advertiser, not that much pleasure! If there is a woman living who would invest in a new stove for the thrill of having her husband bring home a mob of his pals for dinner, I have never seen her. Personally I don't think she exists. The appeal is so patently masculine that it's a big laugh to a woman. It seems like sheer wasted advertissing money to me. That sort of propaganda might even make women afraid to buy your stove.

On the other hand we see stoves and household appliances cleverly advertised by those who know the psychology of women. They tell Mrs. Consumer how much more freedom and leisure she will enjoy with the new product, how it will help to conserve her energy and youth. The occasional very shrewd one tries to make her style-conscious regarding her home and to show her that she is being progressive and intelligent when she demands the most up-to-date equipment for it, just as her husband insists on turning in his motor car frequently for the latest model.

BUT why not go farther and appeal to what the psychologists tell us is the strongest human urge, the desire to be important? The home is woman's chief outlet for this normal impulse of self-assertion but naturally she cannot show off her new kitchen equipment as readily as she can a new radio or a living-room rug. Then why not the emotional appeal?—Other women judge you by your kitchen. Be modern in the rooms that do not show. Are you afraid to have a party end in you afraid to have a party end in the kitchen?

Then, too, there is the simple truth which can be played up dramatically as news that washing machines, stoves, refrigerators and kitchen gadgets do a more efficient job, are better to look at and cost

JUILLIARD FACULTY HONORS JOHN ERSKINE

Reception Given for Retiring President of Music School at Hutcheson Home

John Erskine, who announced his resignation several months ago as president of the Juilliard School of Music, to take effect on July 1, was the guest of honor at a reception given last night by the faculty of the Juilliard Graduate School at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hutcheson, 1,107 Fifth Avenue. A painting was presented to him, and also a wrist watch, both farewell gifts from the faculty.

When his resignation takes effect Mr. Erskine will have completed his tenth year as president. It is his desire to devote all his time to his desire to devote all his time to writing.

Those present at the reception included Edith Braun, Florence Page Kimball, Rosina Lhevinne, Madeleine Marchall, Anna E. Schoen-René, Olga Samaroff, George Barrère, Francis Burkley, Alberto Bimboni, Edouard Dethier, Carl Friedberg, James Friskin, Charles Hackett, Ernest Hutcheson, Harold Hutcheson, Frederick Jacobi, Frederick Kiesler, Hans Letz, Arthur Mahoney, Louis Persinger, Paul Reimers, Peter Riccio, Francis Rogers, Felix Salmond, Alexander Siloti, Albert Spalding, Albert Stoessel, René Vaillant, Alfredo Valenti, Bernard Wagenaar and Oscar Wagner.

Faculty Honors John Erskine
John Erskine, who resigned recently as president of the Juilliard School of Music, was guest of honor yesterday at a reception given by the faculty of the Juilliard Graduate School at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Ernest Hutcheson, 1107 Fifth Avenue. Mr. Erskine received from the faculty a painting by John J. Soble and a wrist watch. Mr. Erskine's resignation will take effect on July 1, at the completion of his tenth year as president of the institution.

JOLIET, ILL HERALD-NEWS

"We must stop underestimating the intelligence of the average person." -John Erskine.

NEW YORK, N. HERALD-TRIBUNE

CHARLOTTE, N. C. NEWS

APR 1 9 1937

London Landmarks To Be Reproduced At May Day Fair of St. Agatha School

Cheshire Cheese Shop, Shakespeare House and Epsom Downs Stalls Will Provide Setting for Typical Roast Beef Dinner; Ernest Fownes To Be Auctioneer

Stalls Will Provide Setting for Typical Roast Beef
Dinner; Ernest Fownes To Be Auctioneer

A realistic bit of Oid England will be transplanted in the gymnas sim of the St. Agatha Episcopal School on May 1, when the students and teachers will hold an Oid English Fair, sponsored by the Parents and teachers will hold an Oid English Fair, sponsored by the Parents H. Molleson, of 314 West Seventy-H. Molleson, of 314 West Seventy-H trast to the former picture of his pomposity,

Max Eastman does a good job of explaining the comic in his recent book. "Enloyment of Laughter." And to get an understanding of elemental humor he goes to the baby, considers his ways and becomes wise. If you smile at a baby, then make a face, the baby usually laughs. This, declares Eastman, is an example of "humor by making faces playfully," or as the old Greek Aristotle explained it some years ago. "The comic is some defect or ugliness which is not painful or destructive."

Still playing with the baby, you can probably make him laugh by offering him one of his toys, then smillingly taking it ways as he reaches for it. Eastman terms this "reaching after something and finding it is not there"—or as the Philosopher Kant expressed it earlier, "Laughter is the sudden transformation of a strained expectation into nothing," This brand of humor extends into verbal wit, when the expected meaning of a sentence is suddenly change or twisted to surprise the readeras often in the nonsense rhymes of Ogden Nash. Remember his:
"The results of the activities of the D. A. R. might not be so minus were the ladies not troubled by sinus.

Alas, every time they try to the summer of the surprise the property that they try to the summer and the surprise the property time they try to the summer as the surprise that surprise the surprise the surprise the surprise that sur

Were the ladies not troubled by sinus.

Alas, every time they try to put people who don't agree with them on the stand as defendants.

They find themselves troubled by the sinus of the Declaration of Independence."

Or that old joke about the iceman—the housewife opens a window and says to the iceman "Have you the time?" We naturally expect the iceman to say "3 o'clock" or whatever time it may be. But instead he says, "Yes, if I can find somebody to hold the horses."

That is a sudden, unexpected saily. That is the contrast or the incongruity between what we expected and what he actually said.

But enough of this theorizing.
Just what makes you laugh? What do you find the fumilest things in books, comic strips or the movies? Think back through the svents or the scenes or the Jokes that have made you laugh and see if you can analyze them.

Comic strips have lately turned almost completely into serial stories of adventure without any attempt to amuse, but I still find Pop-Eye and "Side Glances" and "Out Our Way" consistently funny. When the Jeep slole the jam for Swee'pea the other Sunday I laughed and laughed—and I still remember the time that Wimpy made a hamburger sandwich out of the tail of a live and kicking cow. The humanity of "Out Our Way" is always funny to me, usually bringing its quiet chuckle but occasionally causing a wild moment of hilarity.

Whence springs the best comedy in the movies? In "Theodora Goes Wild" it was the contrast between the staid and decrous Theodora of the first half and the "wild" Theodora of the last half. In "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town," where was the humor? Partly in the "pixie-lated" ladies and partly in the revelation of the strange habits of mankind, which make of them "Co-fillers" or "thumb-twiddlers" or "chin-quiverers." Then one of the funniest scenes I remember is that stateroom scene with the Four Marx brothers, when dozens of people somehow manage to crowd into one small stateroom. Remember the incongruity of that?

Has this started you to thinking? Then what's your definition of humor? John Erskine declares: "Humor is the str of adapting oneself to another temperament. We fancy that the cave man, some primitive brute who argued with a stone ax and disposed of ideas in an adversary by dashing out its brains, might get on well without a sense of humor, provided hat his own skull remained unracked; if once, however, your cknowledge the right of all your chrowledge the

Printers Ink Weekly NEW YORK, N. Y.

APR 8 - 1937

To Men C

Your Adverti How

IT always amuses me group of advertising men women and how to inter They are so sure of wome and needs and can even an buying urges.

Perhaps the shrewdest this score comes from I kine, the novelist, who det man can understand wom he goes on to prove hi exception by advising "Pay no attention to who as ye watch what they described and an advertising, I mean. All they give themselves awomen; watch what the advertising, I mean. All they give themselves awomen; watch what the esomething in what the novelist says:

I have on my desk a stove advertisement pictures of the properties of an electric range. It's the new streamlined state oven placed low, but the old one."

Another stove advertise neof the biggest mation of the biggest mation is proposed to the old one."

Another stove advertise and saying: bring them all home clectric range." Hold of Mr. Advertiser, not that rure! If there is a wor who would invest in a for the thrill of having he bring home a mob of his

JOLIET, IL HERALD-N APR 1319

"We must stop un average person."

NEW YORK, N.

HERALD-TRIBUNE

CHARLOTTE, N. C. NEWS

APR 1 8 1937

The Free Lancer

By Walter Spearman

WHY DO YOU LAUGH? What is W humor? What makes the funny papers funny?

In papers lumpy
If Pop-Eye tickles your risibilities, can you figure out the reason why? Are reason why? Are you the kind of person who laughs, when a brick falls on your neighbor's head or your best friend kicks a can only to find a rock or an iron pipe within it? They have always been strangely fasein a ting questions to me, and the other day I started a little walker speaking a little walker form of the practical loke to the highest form of in-zellectual wit. And where do you suppose the over-worked but still muchly-maligned pun would come in this category of conductor.

suppose the over-worked but still muchly-maligned pun would come in this category of comedy?

Down through the years there have been two theories of what makes comedy comic. One is the superiority theory—which accounts alicely for the inevitable laughter when someone else fails down. That when someone else falls down. That when someone else falls down. That amuses, gives us a pleasant sensation, even makes us laugh—belause we are superior—we haven't fallen down. But if we ourselves do the falling, it seldom seems funny. We have lost that feeling of superiority.

The other theory is that of inconguity or contrast. Something seems funny because it is unexpected, is a contrast to what we have thought would happen. If a pompous of man walks down the street and some kids knock off his hat with a snowball, we are very likely to laugh—the picture of his discomitture is such a contrast to the former picture of his pomposity.

the state of the former picture of his pomposity.

Max Eastman does a good job of explaining the comic in his recent book, "Enjoyment of Laughter," And to get an understanding of elemental humor he goes to the baby, considers his ways and becomes wise. If you smile at a baby, then make a face, the baby usually laughs, This, declares Eastman, is an example of "humor by making faces playfully," or as the old Greek Aristotle explained it some years ago, "The comic is some defect or ugliness which is not painful or destructive."

reaches for it. Eastman terms this "reaching after something and inding it is not there"—or as the Philosopher Kant expressed it earlier, "Laughter is the sudden transformation of a strained expectation into nothing." This brand of humor extends into verbay wit, when the expected meaning of a sentence is suddenly changer or twisted to surprise the readerass often in the nonsense rhymes of Ogden Nash. Remember his: "The results of the activities of the D. A. R. might not be so minus Were the ladies not troubled by sinus.

Alas, every time they try to put people who don't agree with them on the stand as defendants. They find themselves troubled by the sinus of the Declaration of Independence."

Or that old loke about the iceman—the housewife opens a window and says to the iceman "Have you the time?" We naturally expect the iceman to say "3 o'clock" or whatever time it may be. But instead he says, "Yes, if I can find somebody to hold the horses."
That is a sudden, unexpected saily. That is the contrast or the incongruity between what we expected and what he actually said, but what makes you laugh? What

But enough of this theorizing. Just what makes you laugh? What do you find the funniest things in books, comic strips or the movies? Think back through the yents or the scenes or the jokes that have made you laugh and see if you can analyze them.

Comic strips have lately turned almost completely into serial stories of adventure without any attempt to amuse, but I still find Pop-Eye and "Side Glances" and 'Out Our Way" consistently funny. When the Jeep stole the jam for Swe'pea the other Sunday I laughed and laughed—and I still remember the time that Wimpy made a hamburger sandwich out of the tail of a live and kicking sow. The humanity of "Out Our Way" is always funny to me, usually bringing its quiet chuckle but occasionally causing a wild moment of hilarity.

Whence springs the best comedy in the movies? In "Theodora Goes Wild" it was the contrast between the staid and decrous Theodora of the first half and the "wild Theodora of the last half. In "Mr. Deeds Goes to Trown." where was the humor? Partly in the revelation of the strange habits of mankind, which make of them 'O-fillers' or "thumb-twiddlers' or "chin-quiverers." Then one of the funniest scenes I remember is that stateroom scene with the Four Marx brothers, when dozens of people somehow manage to crowd into one small stateroom. Remember the incongruity of that?

Has this started you to thinking? Then what's your definition of humor? John Erskine declares: "Humor is the art of adapting onessif to another temperament. We fancy that the cave man, some primitive brute who argued with a stone ax and disposed of ideas in an adversary by dashing out into brains, might get on well without a sense of humor, provided that his own skull remained unracked: if once, however, you cknowledge the right of all your without surrendering your without a strendering your without surrendering your without aurendering your without surrendering your

Printers Ink Weekly NEW YORK, N. Y.

APR 8 - 1937

To Men C

Your Adverti How

IT always amuses me group of advertising men women and how to inter They are so sure of women and needs and can even abuving urges.

Perhaps the shrewdest this score comes from kine, the novelist, who deman can understand wom he goes on to prove his exception by advising "Pay no attention to who say; watch what they of May I paraphrase Mr thus: Pay no attention to say of their understa women; watch what they davertising, I mean. All they give themselves an always the same of the evide goes to show that there is some of the evide goes to show that there is some of the evide goes to show that there is some of the evide goes to show that there women in the says.

I have on my desk; stove advertisement piyoung woman bending o move a roasted fowl from of an electric range. It the new streamlined stitle oven placed low, by point to be soft-pedalle phasized. Almost any waction would be: "If a will do that to my back to the old one."

Another stove advertiser also shows the bending over an dasying: bring them all home in Cooking's a pleasure electric range." Hold of Mr. Advertiser, not that sure! If there is a wow who would invest in a for the thrill of having hering home a mob of hering home a mob of hering home a mob of her words.

JOLIET, I HERALD-N

"We must stop us average person."

John Erskine, Visiting Cape, Tells Of University For Army

cian, Author Visits Cursters

EDUCATION VISION

A practical poet. A musician of excellence and a teacher of a modern and successful technique of piano. A writer of novels, which are incidently best sellers. A philosopher and a lecturer. An educator and a far-seeing executive. A man of business and a man of dreams. Of such seeming contradictions is John Erskine, the man who, among his volumes of poetry has written the lines, "Nothing waylays or haunts us; life in itself Clear, would ask but courage to life in itself

Clear, would ask but courage to be lived."

Dr. Erskine (he has any number of degrees) comes to Cape Cod whenever he can. Last week he was visiting Pulton Oursler, talking over his latest book, "The Short Hour of Francois Villon," which is being edited by Mr.
Oursler for Liberty magazine. The two men had just come in from a tingling walk along the shore of Buzzards Bay in the beginning of the first real snowstorm of this winter.

Helps Young Singers

several years ago. He had a fine time, he says.

Example To Adult Pupils
You would be surprised at the number of middle-aged men who want to take up music again, adater neglecting it for years. To these men Dr. Erskine is a successful example. Starting to play at the age of five, when his head barely came to the top of the keyboard, John Erskine says he hated to practise up to the age of 12. Then like "a flash out of heaven" music meant something to him. As he grew older he neglected the piano and it was not until he was over 40 that he took it until he was over 40 that he took it to did the divided them into tender to the did the divided them into tender to the did the divided them into tender the several tenders.

Famous Teacher, Musi- brain." urges John Erskine. To the men snapped out of their demensize or learn music by play-brain," urges John Erskine. To memorize or learn music by playing it over and over is the hardest possible way. The hands are so slow. Practise mentally, until you can hear the music in your mind.

During the war John Erskine was chairman of the Army Education Commission, as well as a chief of the A. E. F. University. Some job it must have been. Entusiastically this man says, "it was a whale of a thing," I thus have been one out of every four men in our Army was illiterate!

I asked if these men who couldn't read or write came mostly from all sections were going to school over there in France.

And with the signing of the armistice, John Erskine had ac over the country. But they didn't. One half million of Uncle Sam's doughboys from all sections were going to school over there in France.

And with the signing of the armistice, John Erskine had ac over the most?" ("The Private Life of Helen of Troy," an outstanding success, "Galahad," "Adam and Eve," very popular in a coling them over there. The million men dumped onto his hands to keep occupied. The Alias were much slower bringing our men home than they were in getting them over there. The million men dumped onto his put men home than they were in getting them over there. The million of Uncle Sam's doughboys from all sections were going to school over there in France.

And with the signing of the armistice, John Erskine had ac on the country. She was a chief of the Alias were much slower bringing our men home than they were in getting them over there. The collection of the country has so far come to Dr. Erskine's ideal.

"That's not fair," objected Fulling the condition of voiries. "The book one has just created is always the best to an author, in this case my should be no favorites. "The book one has just created is always the new baby for whom the proud father passes out the cigars."

tingling walk along the shore of Buzzards Bay in the beginning of the first real snowstorm of this winter.

Helps Young Singers
We talked about music. Dr.
Erskine is president of the Juillard Foundation of Music. He is the force behind the Metropolitan opera Company, and is the first person to put that institution on a paying basis. (He didn't tell me all this, you can be sure, but Fulton Oursler did.) John Erskine also originated the auditions for young American singers, from whom are chosen the 12 best who have their definite reward each year. The two chosen this last year now sing in grand opera.

The United States should justify the name of the melting potivigorous stock is here, declared Dr. Erskine. We have fine singers; they should have their chance, Radio auditions are given further trials.

Dr. Erskine welleves this country is doing more for the young people in music than any other country in the world. In our schools alone there are between five and six thousand orchestras. In some schools indivigual and incompany to the latter of the poperas. Germany to the legion of Henor, and this country presented him with the legion of Henor, and this country presented him with the legion of Henor, and this country of Relgion first his country presented him with the legion of Henor, and this country of Relgion first his country presented him with the legion of Henor, and this country of Relgion first his country presented him with the legion of Henor, and this country of Relgion first his country presented him with the legion of Henor, and this country of Relgion first his country presented him with the legion of Henor, and this country is doing more for the legion of Henor, and this country presented him with the legion of Henor, and this country presented him with the legion of Henor, and this country presented him with the legion of Henor, and this country presented him with the legion of Henor, and this country presented him with the legion of Henor, and this country for him with the present and the school an

Am hand the state of the state Training C marning pix

ing contradictions is John Erskine, the man who, among his volumes of poetry has written the lines, "Nothing waylays or haunts us, life in itself Clear, would ask but courage to be lived."

Dr. Erskine the has any number of degrees comes to Cape he was visiting Pulton Oursler, John Erskine has any stiffing over their in France. And with the signing of the first real snowstorm of the country has of the provided by Mr. Oursler for Liberty magazine. The two men had just come in from a tingling walk along the shore of Buzzards Bay in the besigning of the first real snowstorm of the liberty magazine. The two men had just come in from a tingling walk along the shore of Buzzards Bay in the besigning of the first real snowstorm of the liberty magazine. The two men had just come in from a tingling walk along the shore of Buzzards Bay in the besigning of the first real snowstorm of the liberty magazine. The two men had just come in from a tingling walk along the shore of Buzzards Bay in the besigning of the first real snowstorm of the liberty magazine. The two men had just come in from a tingling walk along the shore of Buzzards Bay in the personnel of the first real snowstorm of the first real sn this winter.

Welps Young Singers

We helps Young Singers

We have a boot muic.

We have young Singers

We have young Singers

We have young singers

We have young singers

We have young singers well with the first person to put that institution on all flis, you call the didn't cell print young and is the first person to put that institution on all flis, you call the didn't cell print young are chosen the 12 best who have young young

APR 17 1937

Old English Fair Will Be Held at St. Agatha School

Spring Event Is Sponsored by Parent-Teacher Association.

On May 1 the young women of St. Agatha School, 553 West End

On May 1 the young women of St. Agatha School, 553 West End avenue, will give an Old English Fair in the school symnasium. All the rooms adjoining the gym and the balcony will be turned into booths representing various shops and stalls known to historical London back in the time of Dr. Johnson, Boswell, David Garrick and other interesting personages. The spring flesta is sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association of St. Agatha, and all parents and children and many outside friends have been invited to serve on committees. No one will be asked to make any contributions, but the money taken in at the fair will go for the cultural advantages of the school, and to provid means to send less fortunate children to camp during the summer.

Mrs. Stanley Molleson of 314 West Seventy-first street, chairman of the fair, hopes to raise several thousand dollars from the sate of tickets and from the suction block. Sir Gerald Campbell, the British Consul-General, has become interested in The Old English Fair and will lend a helping hand Ernest K. Fownes, the English whip and dean of four-in-hand drivers, and who is always seen on the box of Ambrose Clark's coach, when that Long Island sportsman drives to the races, polo matches and steeplechase meets, will not only be the head auction-er but also will act as maitre d'hotel in the Cheshire Cheese.

To Assist Mrs. Molleson.

Mrs. Molleson will have as her

To Assist Mrs. Molleson.

To Assist Mrs. Molleson.

Mrs. Molleson will have as her assistant, Mrs. Ellwood Rabenold as co-chairman. Mrs. Joseph Kirchoff is secretary, and the treasurer is Mrs. Louis Hammett. The co-treasurer is Eugene Schmitt.

W. T. Benda will have charge of the decorations and promises that every booth and stall will be typically English. His assistants will be Mrs. Benda, Miss Anne Selleck and Miss G. Elizabeth Bouve. Tickets will be in charge of Miss Ada Bruce. Many have already been distributed to members of the School and the sale is now on.

Miss Mildred Larkin is chairman of the publicity, assisted by Mrs. Madeline Howland and Mrs. Adeline Howland and Mrs. Adeline Howland and Mrs. Adelide Planas, who is also the business advisor. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Joseph Kirchoff, who will have as assistants, Mrs. Henry Bruns, Miss Claire Holcombe Bloss and Mrs. George Mead. An interesting feature will be the charge of Mrs. Miss Claire Holcombe Bloss and Mrs. George Mead. An interesting feature will be comprised of young women in the School. They are Misses Dototh Ashton, Eunice Coko-Jephecti, Madeline Munn, Jean Price, Beth Rangendd, Jana Tennett, Janet Unz and Joy. Warrage of Natles.

HOSPITAL AID

Mrs. Henry Clay Irons Jr., a sponsor of the dinner-dance by the ladies' auxiliary of Flower Fifth Avenue Hospital in the Rainbow Room of Rockefeller Center.

Aubrey Nicklas has been treasurer twelve years.
On the board are the Rev. S. Delancey Townsend, Rev. William W. Bellinger, Prof. John Erskine, George W. Burleigh, the Very Rev. Hughel E. W. Fosbrooke, Bishop Ernest M. Stires, Lawson Purdy, Rev. Thomas McCandless, Prof. Stephen F. Bayne, Rev. Henry Darlington, Arthur Pelham West, Alan R. Hawley, Stephen P. Nash, Rev. Frederick Sidney Fleming, Rev. Roelif H. Brooks and Rev. H. W. B. Donegan. Aubrey Nicklas has been treasurer

Billfold between Tes-to Anthony Antone, E., Reward. ISOT

SILIONS MVALED

girl will take care of en atternoons or even-an give references, Tel. S 427-B.

girls cordially invite all girls cordially invite all selection 2:16 by 3:16 b

PAGE TW

Famous, cian, 2

EDUCA

cessary. d occupancy, Must center, Reasonable cessary, Box II,

SMALL HOUSE

Main street, West of today's Idlehour et is Clara B. Cros-urnished apts., 2

BEAL

specializes in pupils. Experian to do wash-Reply by let-of the Colonial,

ne. Call 848-W Honzekeeper

LED

of the church, and in his talk he recalled incidents when the present church building was being erected and later days when as a boy of 12, he played the church organ, and later at 18 years was choir director. Prof. Erskine's father was active in the organization of Grace Church and many of the first meetings were held in the Erskine home in Union City. He recalled the friend-ship of his father and Robert Dixon, architect of Grace Church; Edward Duer and other families who had an important part in the life of the community 50 years ago, and spoke especially of the important place that Grace Church occupied in the community.

by the women of the parish, under the direction of Mrs. Gustave Uhilg.

Memory Candles

Candles were place on the birthday cake in memory of the following persons:

John S. Alkinson. Mary E. Akkinson,
William Back, Cecilia M. Bauer, Dr. J. J.
William E. Mary Broom, Phyllis Burrow, Regina Cappelletti, Frank Cappelletti, Mr.
and Mrs. Christian, George H. Diemer,
Mrs. Gertrude Earl, John Ellison, Daviel,
England Mr. Dillison, Despending Foxwell,
Mary Phyllis Foxwell, Richard Strong
Foxwell, Phillip George Frank, Harry Fulling, Nicholas Goeig, Mrs. A. Gunthes, Jonnie Hams, Warren E. Heisse, Mr. and
M. Hololas Goeig, Mrs. A. Gunthes,
Jennie Hams, Warren E. Heisse, Mr. and
M. Hololas Goeig, Mrs. A. Gunthes,
Jennie Hams, Warren E. Heisse, Mr. and
M. Holliam E. Kampf, John H. Kipp, Mr. and Mrs. Krieg, Mrs. Annie A. Lesile, Capt.
Samuel Lesile, Julia Lipperts on Jr.
John Mc Monlicho, Benjamin R. Maack,
Edward E. Matteson Jr., Louis Menegaux,
Ernest Moler, Mrs. Elizabeth Moler, Mrs.
J. Olsen, Mrs. James Partington's mother, Grace Palling Elizabeth, Helen Pritchard,
Hrs. Elizabeth Repolois, Henriette Rosebrook, Julia Roulston, William E. Sherwood, Prederick Sherwood, Arthur L. Smyth,
Warne Smyth, Eva L. Smyth, Marion Hoyt
Stecher, Robert Steward, Nellie, L. Turner,
Mrs. E. Thompson, Nelie, L. Turner,
Mrs. E. Tompson, Nelie, L. Turner,
Mrs. E. Trompson, Nelie, L. Turner,
Mrs. E. Turner,
Mrs. E. Trompson, Nelie, L. Turner,
Mrs. E. Trompson, Nelie, L. Turner,
Mrs. E. Trompson, Nelie, L. Turner,
Mrs. E. Turner,
Mrs. E. Trompson, Nelie, L. Turner,
Mrs. E. Turner,
Mrs. E. Trompson, Nelie, L. Turner,
Mrs. E. Trompson, Nelie, L. Turner,
Mrs. E. Turner,
Mrs. E. Tromps

Charles

Charles

Mary A. Body

W. Sherwood

S. W. Sherwood

Mrs. Frederick J. Bergmann J., M.

Mrs. Frank K. Braun and Jamily

Mrs. Frank K. Braun and Jamil

Mrs. Braun Sherwood

Social Club, Mr. J.

Social Club, Mr. J

Charles Kappas, whose family also was active in the early days of Grace Church, and who was a member of the choir in the days when have been active in the early days of the church, and who was a member of the choir in the days when have been active in the early days of the large birthday cake were lighted in memory of those who have been active in the history of the church, some of whom have died and others who are still living.

Rev. George P. Armstrong, rector of Grace Church, Union City, in the parish hall. Prof. Erskine's compared to the church of Grace Church for more than 20 years who retired about two years ago, was present with Mrs. Armstrong.

Rev. Charles Kappas, whose family also was a member of the choir in the days when her of the choir in the hearly days of the choir in the history of the church, some of whom have died and others who are still living.

Rev. George P. Armstrong, rector of Grace Church for more than 20 years who retired about two years ago, was present with Mrs. Armstrong.

Rev. Charles K. Fegley, pastor of Gehelm Mrs. William Roulston and Immily, Mr., and Mrs. William Roulston and Immily, Mr., and Mrs. William Roulston and Immily, Mr., and Mrs. William Marienton, Also hearting, Mrs. A Roultani, Mrs. 2 on the large birth days who have a story the church for me the pattern of the

Von Breezen ar Mun , etarrel Ind. Showard Kennik Sigh Lomi Menegans Meg 4 1938

Bridal Gown Show Tuesday to Cover 1800 to 1938 Period

Women's National Republican Club and City Museum Contribute Costumes

Both the senior and junior members of the Women's National Republican Club will put a brighter face on their program of political studies and discussions next Tuesday afternoon by taking part in the novel spring fashion show at the clubhouse, 3 West Fifty-first Street.

Period wedding gowns, including four historic models lent by the Museum of the City of New York, and many gowns lent by members of the club and their Irlends, will be shown after modern fashions have been displayed. An exhibition of slippers, fans, prayerbooks and other bridal accessories also is being arranged by the committee.

Many members of the club's Young Women's Organization are among those who will serve as models for the wedding gowns. Mrs. Donald L. Bigelow, chairman of the young group; Miss Margaret Climton, Miss Maxine MacDonald, Miss Mildred Warren, Mrs. William B. Hewson. Mrs. Reginald Bassett, Miss Emily Perkins, Mrs. Irwin Robinson. Mrs. Francis Haskell, Mrs. S. Barksale Penick Jr., Mrs. F. Rowles-Conklin, Mrs. Robert Thorley Hughes, Mrs. Morgan H. Grace Jr. and Miss Anna Erskine.

Those who will model the modern fashions for young women include Mmes. William D. Carr, John K. Eilert, J. J. Lenhart, E. D. Scruggs and Bancrott Mitchell, Miss Margaret Mower and Miss Georgianns Schirer.

One of the elaborate period wedding costumes to be shown is the 1877 gown of Mrs. Theodore Ivea. It wi'l be worn by her granddaughter, Miss Anna Erskine, daughter of John Erskine, novelist and planist, and Mrs. Erskine, the former Miss Pauline Ives.

Miss Alice Hill Chittenden, chairman of the committee in charge of the fashion show, and members of the group including Mrs. Herbert T. B. Jacquelin, vice-chairman, have arranged to represent practically every decade from 1800 to 1938 in wedding gown of 1800, 1830 and 1876.

The gowns lent by members and their friends begin with the 1844 gown of Miss Sophornan Thayer, whose descendant, Mrs. P. Rowles-Conklin, will wear it and will carry a fan that belonged to Martha Washington. Next comes the 1850 wedding gown of Mrs. Reibert T. B. Jacquelin, in the 1844 gown of Mrs. Services and 1875 comes next, then the 1839 wedding gown of Mrs. Reibert T. B. Jacquelin, in the 1844 gown of Mrs. Bervier T. B. Jacquelin, in 1838.

Rowles Conklin, of 1934, and da degown. Chronologically

IN GOWN OF 1877

Miss Anna Erskine, daughter of the novelist, Mr. John Erskine, who will appear in the Spring fashion show of the Women's National Republican Club, Tues-day at the clubhouse. The show will feature historic wedding gowns lent by members and the Museum of the City of New York. Miss Erskine is wearing that of her grandfrother, Mrs. Theodore Ives

Mrs. Charles Erskine, Aunt of Novelist, Dies

Descendant of Perry, War of 1812, Naval Commander Special to the Herald Tribune LARCH MONT, N. Y., April 10.—Mrs. Josephine Gillespie Erskine, aunt of John Erskine, musician and novelist, died yesterday at her home, 17 North Chatsworth Avenue, after long illness.

aunt of John Erskine, musician and novelist, died yesterday at her home. It North Chatsworth Avenue, after a long illness.

Mrs. Erskine was born in New York City, a descendant of Oliver Hazard Perry, the American naval officer who commanded a squadron which defeated a British detachment on the Great Lakes during the War of 1812. Her father, Louis C. Gillespie, of Tower Hill, Morristown, N. J., founded the L. C. Gillespie Company, dealers and importers of shellac and gum. The company was merged later with the Rogers-Pyatt Company, et alers and importers of shellac and gum. The company was merged later with the Rogers-Pyatt Company, of all the firm is now known as the Gillespie-Erskine, was connected, and the firm is now known as the Gillespie-Rogers-Pyatt Company, of 30 John Street, New York City.

For many years Mrs. Erskine lived at Tower Hill, but during the last eight years she had been a resident of Larchmont. Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Helen C. Sanford, of Moristown; three brothers, the Rev. James Gillespie, of White Plains, N. X.; John Gillespie, of Morristown; president of the Gillespie-Rogers-Pyatt Company, and Samuel Gillespie, also of Morristown; president of the Gillespie-Rogers-Pyatt Company, and Samuel Gillespie, also of Morristown; as on, Louis G. Erskine, of Scarsdale, N. Y., and three daughters, Mrs. Helen Clinchy, of Larchmont: Mrs. Josephine Nesbitt and Mrs. Louise Johnston, both of Allenhurst, N. J. Funeral services will be beld at 3 p. m. tomorrow at the chapel in Woodlawn Cemetery, the Eronx, Burial will be in the family mauso-leum there.

Erskine Speaker
At Grace Church

Addresses Congregation at 50th Anniversary Party
Prof. John Erskine of New York was guest speaker last night at the 50th anniversary party of Grace Fore Erskin and others to place of the church, Union City, in the parish hall. Prof. Erskine's family was active in the early days of the church, and in his talk he recalled incidents when the present church building was being erected and later days when as a boy of 12, the played the church organ, and later at 15 years was choir director.
Prof. Erskine's father was active in the organization of Grace Church and many of the first meetings were held in the Erskine home in thion City. He recalled the friendship of his father and Robert Dixon, architect of Grace Church; Edward Duer and other families who had an important part in the life of the community 50 years ago, and spoke especially of the important place that Grace Church occupied in the community.
Prof. Erskine was introduced by Fisher, Marie, Marie

Was active in Grace Church
and others to well of grace Church services and others
Rev. Geory
of Grace Ch years who r go, was pa
strong.
God Sheph
ended gree
through its
was also ex
through its was cluve in he large bir
ed for act Church services and others
to grace Church
and others to years who r
go, was pa
strong.
God Sheph
ended gree
through its was cative in he large bir
ed in mend
of Grace Church services and others
to years who r go, was pa
strong.
God Sheph
ended gree
through its
was active in the large bir
of the charge har delivered
was active in the large bir of the lear prof.

Rev. Charles
Rev. Charles
Rev. Charles
Rev. Geory
of Grace Church
and the stalk he recalled inchers
when community of the services and others
was also ex
the community of the services and others of the church, som
and others to
was a chive in mend others are grace have delivered and in mend others
Rev. Charles
Rev. Char

Prof. Erskine was introduced by

