

The Juilliard School, Drama Division

Group II - Third Year

Friday, January 14, 8:00 P.M.
Saturday, January 15, 2:00 P.M.
Monday, January 17, 8:00 P.M.

1972

Drama Workshop

T H E R E C R U I T I N G O F F I C E R

by

George Farquhar

Directed by

Michael Kahn

Settings
Douglas W. Schmidt

Costumes
John David Ridge

Lighting
Joe Pacitti

Musical Director
Roland Gagnon

Wigs and Makeup
Steve Atha

Sound Recording
Henry Friend

Stage Manager
Robert Brewer

Assistant Stage Manager
Diane Burak

CAST
(in order of appearance)

Sergeant Kite, sergeant to Captain Plume . . .	JOHN NICHOLS
Costar Pearmain	ARTHUR MCFARLAND
Thomas Appletree	MARK ZERAY
Captain Plume, a Recruiting Officer	JOHN MICHALSKI
Mr. Worthy	TREVOR LEWIS
Melinda, a lady of fortune	NITA ANGELETTI
Silvia, daughter to Balance	CATHY MCCLENNY
Lucy	PATTY DIXON
Mr. Justice Balance	JOHN PINTO
Servant to Balance	CHRISTIE WESTERHEIM
Rose	BONNIE GALLUP
Bullock	SANDER JOHNSON
Captain Brazen, a Recruiting Officer	PETER DVORSKY
Pluck, a butcher	F. THOMAS HENSCHER
Tycho	TOM DEMASTRI
The Constable	ARTHUR MCFARLAND
Servant to Melinda	DIANE BURAK
Mr. Justice Scale	F. THOMAS HENSCHER
A wife	ELAINE HAUSMAN
A collier	MARK ZERAY
A pregnant woman	CATHERINE SMITH
Soldiers and townspeople	TOM DEMASTRI
	CHARLES ELLISON*
	JOSHUA GRENROCK*
	PATRICIA MAUCERI
	DAVID RICHARDSON*
	MALLORY SANDLER
	MARSHAL SCHNIDER*
	DAVID WENDE*
	CRAIG WYCKOFF*

* First year students

Scene: Shrewsbury at the beginning of the eighteenth century

There will be two ten-minute intermissions.

THE RECRUITING OFFICER was first performed at the Drury Lane Theatre on Sunday April 8, 1706. Its author was 28 years old at that time.