THE STORY OF CINDERELLA

Told in Tones and Dances

(The composers at the piano)

Dear friend, turn back the pages to a once-loved golden tale.
Let your heart grow warm and thrill again to Truths that never fail.

See Cinderella sitting in the ashes, cold, alone;
Yet her bright spirit roving in enchanted lands her own.

Read how simple goodness in a heart that knew but love
Drew to itself all beauty and blessings from above.

I. In the Kitchen

"Come, let us dance," said the cinders;
"There's no one here to blame;
To warm her little heart and hands
We'll fan a tiny flame."
