Choreographic Honors Edition 2015
Works by Juilliard Choreographers

The Peter Jay Sharp Theater

Friday, May 15 at 8 PM

A warm Juilliard welcome to all of you who have gathered here to support the many talented young choreographers and dancers of The Juilliard School's Dance Division. Our expectation is that all students are working creatively during the entire four-year program as choreographer or interpreter.

The dances that you will see tonight have all been created during the 2014-2015 School Year at Juilliard and represent only a fraction of the works made by our creative and ambitious student body. They have created from their desires to communicate through dance the thoughts and ideas they have about the art form that they are immersed in. Obviously they are using some tools that they have pursued in various courses during their time in the dance division and added their own specific imagination. They inspire each other and work diligently to put the work in front of an audience for honest feedback

I trust you will have an enjoyable and stimulating evening!

Lawrence Rhodes
Artistic Director

ABOUT CHOREOGRAPHIC HONORS

Independent Projects are developed outside of the class structure, and presented in a series of Workshops throughout the school year. Choreographers cast their dances and coordinate their own rehearsals and production elements.

DESIGNERS

TED SULLIVAN (Lighting Designer) studied design for theatre at the University of Michigan and then moved to New York. After graduating from New York University's TISCH Design Department he has worked on and off Broadway and toured extensively domestically and internationally. He has designed lighting for shows at Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park and Hartford Stage; lit dances choreographed by Agnes de Mille, Jiri Kylián, Martha Graham, and George Balanchine; designed for dance companies such as Doug Varone and Dancers, American Ballet Theatre, and the Limón Dance Company. Mr. Sullivan's designs have been seen at the Metropolitan Opera in New York, The Chiang Kai-Shek National Theatre in Taiwan, the Palacio de Bellas Artes in Mexico City, and the Kennedy Center's Eisenhower and Terrace Theaters in Washington, D.C. His lighting for Rose with Olympia Dukakis was seen in Tel Aviv and Cyprus as well as other cities in the US. In addition to lighting theater, opera and dance, he also works in architecture and has received two Lumen awards as the lead designer for permanent promenade lighting at the Seattle Opera and for a site specific celebration event in Glasgow. Ted is currently working with Tina Packer on her touring production of Women of Will.

MARION TALÁN (Choreographic Honors Costume Coordinator) has nurtured her talents in design by working closely with many local artists, directors and performers in New York City. Currently she is the Wardrobe Supervisor at The Juilliard School. Some of her work includes Glaciers by Liz Gerring at The Joyce (2015); Talksikan for Ballet X (2015) and Fold by Fold, for Aspen/Santa Fe Ballet (2013) by Norbert De La Cruz; In Real Time by Joe Salvatore at the Provincetown Playhouse (2015); Composers and Choreographers as well as Senior Production with The Juilliard School Dance Division (2005-2015); coordinating costumes for SECUS and From Max and Three by Ohad Naharin at The Juilliard School (2010 and 2012); 2010 version of Jerome Robbins' Opus Jazz at The Juilliard School; designed RESET for Troy Ogilvie in collaboration with choreographers Margie Gillis, Austin McCormick, Harumi Terayama (2012); Contact Sport by Larry Keigwin + Co (2012).
